A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

The British lord chamberlain has called the attention of the managers of all British theatres to the importance of having distinct and separate systems of lighting for the stage and auditorium In the case of the terrible catastrophe at Vienna, as in the case of the one at Nice, the gas supplies for the stage and house were in connection with each other. At Vienna, the moment the explosion took place on the stage, the lights were extinguished in every part of the building, and scores of people, whose lives might have been saved, were suffocated, burned or trampled to death in consequence. In most theatres a distinct service of gas to the stage and auditorium could be had at but slight expense. But in a matter of so grave importance the matter of expense should not be taken into account.

Best on Record.

I believe Ely's Cream Balm the best preparation for catarrh now on record. My patrons all speak well of it. I have sold one hundred and forty-four bottles in less than five months. I ordered another gross a week ago, and have sold twenty-one bottles from the second gross. It sells upon its merits. JOHN H. PHELPS, Druggist, Scranton, Pa. Jan. 28, 1880.

There is no doubt in our judgment that Ely's Cream Balm has intrinsic worth. We hear from many who are using it for catarrh, of wonderful cures being effected, and without hesitation offer it to our customers as the best remedy for its purposes in use. DYKEMAN & MOTT, Druggists, Catskill, N. Y. Dec. 27, 1880.

News and Notes.

In Tombstone, Arizona, on the night of Dec. 28th, Deputy United States Marshal Earp was fired upon while crossing a street, by three men armed with shot guns. The assassins escaped in the darkness. Nineteen shots struck Earp, inflicting dangerous and perhaps fatal wounds. The assault is undoubtedly the outgrowth of the recent fight with cowboys, in which Earp was engaged. The gang have since threatened the lives of Earp and his supporters. The citizens are greatly excited.

Morgan Richards has confessed the murder of Mrs. Terrel, his mother's sister, at Gore, Ohio, and says it was done on account of an old grudge. Richards has taken an unusual interest in the Guiteau trial, particularly in what Guiteau says. A few days ago he bought a revolver, remarking it was the same kind Guiteau used. From this it is supposed he committed the murder for the sake of notoriety.

Charles E. Soule, Jr., who recently died in New York city, was a grandson of Gideon L. Soule, LL. D., once principal of Exeter academy. His father was the law partner of Hon. John P. Hale at Dover.

Leon K. Moore, the young clerk who murdered his affianced bride, Miss Belle Cushman, and then killed himself, in Biddeford on Wednesday of last week, was buried on Friday, and his victim on Saturday, both funerals being private No adequate explanation of the tragedy has come to light. Moore was a young man of good character, and temperate; the young lady was beautiful and accomplished, and of unblemished reputation; and so far as is known there had been no quarrel between them, and no occasion for any. They probably had some trifling lovers' dispute, and the murderer carried a pistol,—not much to be wondered at, when schoolboys of ten or twelve years habitually go armed, and religious newspapers have revolvers in their premium lists!

The schooner Cocheco, formerly of this port, now commanded by Capt. Richard H. Seawards of Kittery Point, sailed from New York for Charleston, S. C., on Saturday, laden with stone for the jetties at Charleston bar. She will load with lumber at Charleston for Baltimore.

The schooner Christie Campbell arrived from Boston on Saturday, having sold 14,000 lbs. of fish at that place. The schooner Ambrose arrived on Saturday from Eastport, Me., with 50 000 frozen herring.

The Mutual Union Telegraph Co., which is soon to open an office in this city, is putting in call-boxes in the stores and offices of its patrons in some of the cities where it has already begun business. By pressing knobs on these boxes, as on the telephone line, a bell rings in the telegraph office and the caller's number is registered, when a message boy is immediately despatched to the point indicated.

Some of the largest fares of fish that were caught during the season last winter, were brought in during the holidays; the schooner Christie Campbell on one three days trip sold 35,000 lbs. This season, in six days fishing, she took 14,000 lbs.

From the time the Cocheco opened last spring, to the close of navigation, 138 schooners passed up to Dover, and returned. Of that number 116 were loaded with coal, lumber, cement and other building material for the Cocheco Manufacturing company and Charles H. Trickey & Co. The remainder nearly all had cargoes of building materials consigned to various parties, though four were loaded with coal. There were also towed from Portsmouth 22,000 feet of lumber. The total amount of coal taken up the river was 25,000 tons.

The schooner Golden Gate on Friday and Saturday last took on board 375 quintals of cod, cusk and hake for Boston, from Mr. Lemuel B. Caswell's schooner Lucy—a part of the proceeds of Mr. Caswell's last season's operations at Smuttynose island. Mr. Caswell will return to the Shoals some time this week.

The yacht Mignon, owned by Mr. Stephen Decatur, of Kittery, since the close of the yachting season has been lengthened, raised about six inches amidships, and had her stern altered and a new house put on her; and old yachtsmen who have seen her since the alterations and improvements were completed say that when she is floated next spring, she will be the jauntiest craft that ever sailed the waters of the Piscataqua.

In Patch's hall at Kittery Point, Dec. 31st, Colby Hill was tried before Justice Alexander Dennett for an assault upon his mother, Mary Ann Hill, and was fined $1, with costs. He appealed to a higher court.

All About urs.

BOSTON, Dec. 29th, 1881.

When Jack Frost turns up as the right bower of this our game of life, he nips every one of us into the positive belief that furs are the one thing needful to continued existence. But where and how to buy is often a conundrum.

It is always well to go to headquarters when one is seeking the most reliable information; consequently, it was to Mr. Edward Kakas, whose celebrated Washington street establishment is well known to be the leading place of the kind in New England, that I went for points for a fashion letter on furs.

To begin with, sealskin sacques and dolmans are by no means beginning to go out of fashion, and they are made in all lengths, from short to long, to suit individual figures and tastes; and although the sale of fur-lined silk garments is something enormous as well, this is accounted for by the fact that all ladies who can possibly do so, now have a garment of both kinds, seal and silk, in their wardrobes.

The fur-lined garments are luxury itself in their cosy folds, as any one who has worn them will declare. Most of these garments are very long, but it is not essential to fashion that they be so. Short ladies look far better in a short garment, and they should remember this. It is very important, too to look to the kind of silk that is used for a garment of this kind, for if it be of the less durable kinds, it will fray and crack, and will not nearly outwear the fur lining. As to trimmings, very little of the silk and jet passementerie, formerly so common, is seen on these garments this season. Black furs, in the long-haired lynx or short-cropped beaver, are most commonly used for trimming, with deep collars of the same; though chinchilla, in the more valuable qualities, or in the pretty Rocky Mountain chinchilla, are always fashionable, and extremely becoming to blondes.

These garments come in an infinite variety of styles. One very dainty and girlish wrap—noticeable because so few of these heavy garments are suitable for young girls—is a half-long Mother Hubbard mantle, lined with pure white ermine. There are garments made to fit the figure closely, called basque-sacques, for those who do not like a loose garment, though the latter are so cut as to cling closely to the shape, one of the most desirable styles having a box plait let into the back seam at the lower third of its length, in order to give the desired spring over the skirt.

Sets of furs all come in the broad collar and tiny muff; and while such sensible and handsome furs as the beaver and and lynx, in their natural colors or dyed black, and the always beautiful seal and chinchilla are the most desirable, there are many fancy furs for those who want them, among them being the pretty and dainty bleached beaver in all shades of ecru, fawn, and old gold.

Bonnets and hats of all styles are faithfully reproduced in seal, and suitably trimmed; while for gentlemen, there was never before shown a larger or finer line of caps, gloves, robes, rugs, etc. "A word to the wise is sufficient," at this holiday season. Cos.

"Seven Voices of Sympathy—from the writings of Henry W. Longfellow;" edited by Charlotte Fiske Bates. Boston; Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

The late James T. Fields suggested that a collection should be made from Mr. Longfellow's poems, for the solace of those in bereavement. The editor has changed the original design and extent of the work, by selecting not only from the poetry but as well from the prose of Mr. Longfellow, not for the afflicted only but likewise for the depressed, the neglected, the erring, the aged, etc.,—since life has in it so much which is well nigh as hard to bear as is death itself. The plan having been thus modified, the title proposed, "Poems of Consolation," was changed to "Seven Voices of Sympathy." The book is dedicated to the author, Mr. Longfellow, and to his departed friend, James T. Fields; and in addition to the familiar writings of Mr. Longfellow selected from his previously published poems and from Kavanagh, Hyperion, etc., there appear "Auf Weiderschen," Mr. Longfellow's tribute in memory of Mr. Fields. The book has a convenient index, is bound in beveiled boards with red edges, and is for sale at Myers' Congress block bookstore.

Cuticura

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

SALT RHEUM Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn st., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with blotching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

KIDNEY DISEASES. F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SKIN DISEASES Mrs. S. E. Whipple, Detroit, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered fearfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

UNITED Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1, Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Medicinal Toilet Soap, 25c.; Cuticura Medicinal Shaving Soap, 15c.; in bars for barbers and large consumers, 50c.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

THAT "EARLY RUN-OUT."

Mr. Editor: All city appropriations are made for the year ending Dec. 31st, annually, and of course should ordinarily "run out" at the end of December. The main question is, how does the money hold out? The public get no information about that important point. Is the money all spent? If so, how much and how long have the city fathers been hiring?

Yours, IMP.

Mr. Editor: I see that you and the Times both think the appropriations have run out "rather early in the year." The time when the appropriations should run out is the last of December, they being always made for the year ending Dec. 31st—a very clumsy and absurd arrangement, by the way, when a new city government is each year inaugurated in August, and consequently finds appropriations made for only five months ahead, at the best—and might possibly find no available funds at all, as there is nothing to prevent an outgoing administration from expending every cent of the appropriations for the entire year, before the arrival of the second Tuesday in August. As the matter appears to me, the municipal expenditures must be met with hired money, from the 1st of January in each year up to the time the appropriation bill is passed and a part of the taxes collected. So I do not ask "Why is it that the appropriations are already run out?" but "How much money has the city hired on account of the exhaustion of specific appropriations before the close of the fiscal year?" This question I propounded to an alderman on Saturday; I also asked him "What has been the expenditure on account of the new street, up to the present time?" and to both questions he gave the brief and conclusive answer, "I don't know any more about it than you do!" When a member of the board of aldermen makes that admission, it cannot be wondered at that private citizens have to confess themselves ignorant of how the city business is conducted; but they will learn some time. SCRUTINEER.

Mr. Editor: Of course the democratic organ will not advocate economy in public affairs, except just before an election. The great expenditures are urged upon a too-willing government by prominent democrats, while the mayor is regaled with taffy by the shrewd counsel of the Eastern railroad, who sees the city's funds go to pay for accidents at the railroad crossing, caused either by the bad laying of rails or by the escaping steam from the railway's locomotives; so if a street is to be built, to accommodate the railroad; and next another line of rails will be wanted at the crossing, which the city will oppose at first, and then quietly suffer to be put down as a permanent track. Let there be no free passes held by city officials, but let the rights of the city be protected—the railroad can abundantly protect itself; but above all let us not have such an outlay that some hot day next summer a democratic city government will come into power because of the patience of the tax-payers becoming exhausted through immense expenditure with nothing to show for it. ACT.

REAL ESTATE.

The half of land and buildings No. 10 Langdon street were sold on Saturday at auction by F. E. Dearborn as administrator, for $462. David Kimball, Esq., the owner of the other half of the property, was the purchaser. The whole property cost about $1900, a few years since, or at the rate of nearly fifty per cent above the price at which it was sold on Saturday.

The loss of the Kearsarge mills seems to have severely afflicted the value of real estate in that part of the city; and perhaps the prospect of increased taxation without increased property may have something to do with these values, as was hinted by one of the attendants at the sale, who contended that real estate had to pay the taxes in Portsmouth, as merchant shipping, stock in trade and personal estate generally are slipping out little by little.

A LOOK BACK.

The coming of the Hutchinsons among us once more brings to our mind many pleasant reminiscences of this time-honored family of song. Among them is that of an incident which occurred here in 1861, (if our memory serves us correctly,) just after the breaking out of the war of the rebellion, when party spirit was more bitter than ever before or since.

In the winter's course of Lyceum entertainments, the Hutchinsons were down for one of their unique concerts. It was given in the old Temple, before the building was altered, and the entire amphitheatre was crowded to overflowing. The programme had been all gone thro' with, save one piece. We do not remember its title, but it ran something like this:

"Where now is good, old Daniel?" repeated three times as a solo, then followed by the response in chorus, "He went up from a den of lions," etc.

In this strain many of the Bible worthies were mentioned, until in the list came the old saint, John Brown, whom the Hutchinsons always delighted to honor. In a beautifully sweet and clear voice, Mrs. John Hutchinson sang "Where's John Brown of Ossawatomie?" The second line was not reached, however, before there was such a storm of hisses that it seemed as if the entire audience was a nest of copperheads. It was impossible to proceed amid the tumult, but the fair singer stood as calmly and unmoved as if transfixed before the spirit of the old martyr himself. After the uproar ceased she went on to the end of the three lines, which the chorus followed: "He went up from southern bondage," etc., when the tumult so increased that it looked as tho' a riot was imminent. The whole quartette stood through it all, complacently and patiently, until it had subsided, and then proceeded to finish in low, sweet tones, but the lyceum managers of that day were severely censured for bringing politics into a secular entertainment!

"Where is now our blessed Saviour?"

PRESENTATIONS.

The hands employed in the different rooms at the Portsmouth Shoe Factory have during the holidays presented the foremen of the several departments with handsome presents. Adolph Girard, foreman over the whole establishment, received an elegant set of parlor furniture; Mr. Trask, of the cutters' room, a pair of opera glasses, mounted in gold and pearl; Mr. Merrill, of the sole leather room, a lounge; Mr. Smith, of the stitching room, an easy chair; Mr. Peach, of the finishing room, an album and book.

Quite a sum of money was raised to purchase a present for Mr. Knights, the superintendent, but that gentleman on learning of the movement announced that he should decline to accept the gift, alleging as a reason that it was too much of a tax upon the workmen to make presents to the bosses, especially as the latter receive the most pay.

The factory is being run to its full capacity, many of the hands working until ten or eleven o'clock at night.

GETTING OUT OUT OF A VERY SMALL HOLE.

The CHRONICLE attempted to tell us how it was that the city government refused to allow the new telegraph company to enter the business part of the city, and, in doing so, tries to get out of a very small hole. But if any one can get out of a small hole, it is the CHRONICLE. We find in that paper the following:

Had the company desired to "come into the city as the Western Union does," with wires stretched from building to building, they would have asked permission from the real estate owners, and not from the board of aldermen, who would have no more to say in the matter than the king of Ashantee.

Well, what of that? If the aldermen had refused the company permission to come into the city, they would not have granted Henry H. Ham a permit to let a part of his store in the city building. The CHRONICLE is evidently working for a fee.—Times.

We give our neighbor the benefit of a reproduction of its article in full; and reply that we never asserted nor intimated that "the city government refused to allow the new telegraph company to enter the business part of the city," as the Times twice asserts we did say.

We said nothing of the kind, for two reasons: First, we are aware that the city government has no power whatever to either refuse or grant, to this or any other company, "permission to come into the city" by stretching wires from building to building; that permission resting solely with the owners of the buildings; and second, because we knew (and had previously reported) that the company did not ask permission "to come into the city," but to construct a line of telegraph on the streets—over which alone the city government has any control—which permission the Times itself has said was refused.

If any one can get into a hole of microscopic dimensions, and find abundant room therein, it is the Times.

AROUND HOME.

Happy New Year!

Write it 1882; '81 is out of date.

We don't believe a word old Mother Shipton says.

Do not make any new resolutions to-day which you will fail to keep to-morrow.

Mr. C. Morris Tredick takes the position of junior partner in the fish firm of F. Nickerson & Co., of Boston, to-day.

On Saturday the fishing fleet made a general break for the fishing grounds, with ice and bait for an extended cruise.

A number of farmers in this vicinity celebrated the close of the old year by ploughing. Charles Hayes & Son, of this city, kept two teams turning furrows all day Saturday.

The clerk of the weather, like almost everybody else, evidently started in on the new year with a good resolution, for up to sundown the 1st inst. was a charming day for the time of year; but like almost everybody else his good resolution was soon exhausted, for long before midnight an ugly northeaster prevailed, and the air was thick with snow.

The barkentine Ausable was towed out on Saturday afternoon by the tug Clara Batemen. Her destination is east for a cargo of ice, and thence to Baltimore.

The Portsmouth & Dover railroad dividend will be paid to-day at the office of the Portsmouth Trust & Guarantee Company, No. 12 Pleasant street.

Mr. E. H. Winchester, 2d, commences service as postal clerk on the route between Manchester and Peterborough today.

The Wilkinsons, Charlie and Lillie, have a very pretty comedy in "Priscilla, the Cherub," which was given at Music hall, Saturday evening, to a very small but highly pleased audience. The parts throughout are very evenly balanced and well taken, though the principal interest of course centres in the Wilkinsons. The play and company are both good, and deserved a full house.

A grand ball will be given in the town hall at Rye on Thursday evening, Jan. 5th; music by Turner's quadrille band of this city.

The sweetest music ever heard in Boston, comes from the Hutchinson Family. The entertainment they give is of the most pleasing character. We sat last evening in perfect delight as they sang their songs.—Traveller.

The sixth of the series of Sunday concerts took place last evening. The readings of Miss Jennie belle Neal formed a very pleasing feature. This talented young lady has won marked favor wherever she has appeared, and is deservedly becoming very popular.—Boston Journal.

The "Tribes of John and Jesse," assisted by Miss Neal, will be at Music hall this evening.

Mr. John Conlon has had his store on Daniel street connected with the office of the Portsmouth Brewing Co., by telephone.

Mr. James Jameson, who formerly lived in this city and worked in the bakeries of James W. Sowersby and George W. Plumer, but moved to Bangor, Me., some time ago, is now doing an extensive business in that city in baking crackers, under the firm name of James Jameson & Sons.

The gondola Edgar Weston came down from up the river on Saturday, with a cargo of potatoes, cider and other farm produce.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and well and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere, 25 cents a bottle. mw & s & w 4eod

An Interesting Account.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Naval Affairs.

The order issued in regard to Chief Engineers Charles E. DeValen and C. J. Hubighurst is modified so as to direct them to report without delay for duty on board the Enterprise.

The order detaling Lieut. J. W. Miller for service on the Enterprise is revoked; he is notified to hold himself in readiness for orders to the Jamestown.

The following officers at the Charlestown navy yard have been appointed on boards in the different departments to make the customary semi-annual examination of apprentices: Construction, Lieut Commander George E. Wingate, Naval Constructor W. L. Mintonye, Assistant Naval Constructor John F. Hanscom, Foreman Joiner William Hichborn, Foreman Shipwright J. L. Nicholson, Foreman Shipsmith Samuel Dwight; in equipment, Capt. C. C. Carpenter, Lieut. F. S. Bassett, Foreman of Ropewalk G. H. Webber, Foreman Sailmaker B. F. Willey; steam engineering, Chief Engineer E. E. Robie, Assistant Engineer J. E. Brigham, Foremen Folsom, Estelle and Roach, respectively of the machine, boiler and pattern shops. The terms of a number of the apprentices expire early this year, so a number of candidates, as well as the present apprentices, will be examined by these several boards.

Admiral Nicholson, commanding the United States naval force on the European station, reported from his flagship, the Lancaster, off Villefroid, France, December 8th, that the health of the officers and men under his command was excellent, and gave the following information concerning the movements of the vessels. The Galena sailed on the 8th for Tangier, there to offer the United States consul passage to Cape Juby, on the African coast; she was then to visit Sierra Leone, Goree, Monrovia, Cape Palmas, the Cape De Verde and Canary islands, and return to Villafroid, via Tangier, about the 1st of March. The Nipsic arrived at Alexandria, December 7th. The Quinnebaug was reported to be about ready for sea. The flagship at the date of the communication was being overhauled and repaired on account of her recent rough handling in the Atlantic, but as soon as repaired would be sent outside for gun practice and to visit Marseilles and Port Mahone for drill, returning to the harbor of Villefroid in March. Meanwhile the admiral's flag will transferred to the Quinnebaug.

—"Pears to me your mill goes awful slow," said an impatient farmer boy to a miller. "I could eat that meal faster'n you grind it." "How long do you think you could do it, my lad?" quoth the miller. "Till I starved to death," answered the boy.

When a lecturer has worked the ladies of his audience so near to the weeping point that they have gotten out their handkerchiefs, and then suddenly changes his tone and speaks of the merits of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, he is bound to rouse a feeling of indignation.

E. B. Cole and wife of Huntington, Mass., have been held to appear before the grand jury to answer to the charge of criminal treatment of Jessie B. Pease, a girl in their employ.

How It Was!

At the battle of Gettysburg I was shot through the left leg and was sent to the hospital. The army surgeons relieved me but pronounced my case incurable. It discharged pieces of bone, and for years I have suffered with a running sore. I tried everything which my limited means would allow, and experienced no relief until I tried Sulphur Bitters. I am now almost well, and shall continue their use.—Old Soldier.

Pierander Pollock and his wife, proprietors of a toll-house in six-mile canon, near Virginia City, Nev., were found dead in the ruins of their house Dec. 28th, having evidently been murdered and the house afterward fired.

The great talk about bayonets at the polls has nothing to do with the enormous sale of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, the great remedy for curing coughs, colds, and all lung troubles. New size, 10 cts. Larger size, 35 and 75 cts.

John Kelley holds the balance of power in the New York legislature, and the Boston Post advises the other democrats to made no terms with him in the matter of organization.

His Ignorance Cost me $150.00.

I was sick abed for three months. The doctor said I had prolapsus uteri, which was untrue. He didn't try to cure me but wanted to make $1.50 every day. My uncle is a druggist, and he told me to turn the doctor off and try Sulphur Bittery. I did so, and five dollars worth of Sulphur Bitters cured me of general weakness and debility.—Mrs. S——, New Haven.

Ed. Nelms, a negro murderer who with six other convicts recently escaped from jail at Hernando, Miss., was shot dead at Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 29th, while resisting arrest. In company with three other convicts, Nelms was endeavoring to reach Arkansas. The others were lodged in jail.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetical to say "man's intellectual is to man nature could be thus simple minded," but why not apply the principle in the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus—"Swayne's Ointment is a compound of simple remedies, and cures all skin diseases, pimples, etc."

SWAYNES OINTMENT

THE GREAT CURE FOR ITCHING PILES

Symptoms are itching, stinging, and worse by night; seems as if pin-worms were crawling about the rectum; the private parts are often affected. An elegant, economical and positive cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market, sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 3-ct. Stamps, 3 boxes, $1.25. Address, Dr. SWAYNE & Son, Phila., Pa.

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says: About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our recent use to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London: I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave me any ease in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. It has restored my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes: I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says: I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says: Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes: It never fails to give me relief in case of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes: By an accident one, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out nor stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman, she rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1j23

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE BEST AND GREATEST MEDICINE

It will drive the Humor from your system, and make your skin as clean and smooth. Those Pimples and Blotches which mar your beauty are caused by impure blood, and can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier.

SULPHUR BITTERS.

Why suffer such Boils? Why put up with that terrible Headache? Why lay and toss on that hot bed, with Rheumatism? What makes you so irritable, so low spirited? Why do you groan with pain in your bones, and such a terrible sore throat? Why do you have that nasty taste in your mouth, and such a terrible cough? Your stomach is out of order, your liver torpid, your blood impure, and nature is crying out for help. SULPHUR BITTERS is such a good medicine, and so cheap, that everybody can afford to take it. Sulphur Bitters is not a cheap rum or poor whiskey drink, to be taken by the glass, like other proprietary stimulants and bitters, but a concentrated vegetable preparation, combined with the purest of Roots, Herbs and Barks, and is such a good tonic, that it does not stimulate only when taken in small proportions as to make it a drunkard's drink. SULPHUR BITTERS is such a good Appetizer, that it creates a good appetite, and such a good Blood Purifier, that it cures Boils, Blotches, Pimples, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Fever and Ague, Chills, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Costiveness, Female Complaints, Nervousness, Wakefulness, Loss of Appetite, Dropsy, Kidney Complaints, Dizziness, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Erysipelas, Coldness, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pain in the Back, Side and Bowels, Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness, Dull Pain in the Head, Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Loss of Appetite, Bad Breath, Coated Tongue, Piles, Dizziness

Railroad Disaster at Wells!

TRAIN FALLS THROUGH A BRIDGE.

The train which left Boston under Conductor Weymouth at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning for Portland, over the Boston & Maine railroad, met with a serious disaster. The train was drawn by two engines, and on reaching the iron bridge at Cole's Corner in Wells, Me., the structure gave way after the engines, mail and baggage car and parlor car had got safely across, four passenger cars going down with the bridge and being badly wrecked, the ruins taking fire and being totally destroyed.

There were about a hundred passengers on the train, one of whom, a man, was killed outright; his name was not known, and all that could be found on his person to lead to identification was a bill bearing the names of Hodgdon Bros. of Haverhill, Mass. J. Henry Downs, of Berwick, Me., an employe of the road, was injured so that it was supposed he would die. Conductor Weymouth and Roadmaster E. E. Smith were badly hurt, but probably not fatally.

Among the other persons injured were the following: Olivia Winn of York, Me., arm broken, and otherwise hurt; Wm. H. Furdy of Old Orchard, eye hurt; Mrs. G. A. Clark of Portland, face and head injured; Mrs. Frank H. Peabody and daughter, of Kennebunk, Lizzie M. Dixon of Wells, L. D. Harris of Salem, N. H., Joseph P. Roberts of Charlestown, Mass., Wm. Hazeltine, wife and son, of Haverhill, Mass., all slightly injured; J. H. Malley of West Dennis, Mass., several ribs broken; Paul Wilde of South Braintree, Mass., severely bruised about the head; C. K. Tibbitts of Boston, body bruised.

Drs. Ross and Wentworth of Kennebunk and Hall of Wells were quickly on the spot, and a special train from Portland soon brought a large force of medical men from that city.

The bridge is said to have been a new one, and spanned a road about half-way between Kennebunk and Wells.

lives were lost.

Mr. Samuel W. Piercy, the leading support of Edwin Booth at the Park theatre, New York, was taken to the small-pox hospital on Friday, thoroughly broken out with the disease. His illness was at first supposed to be typhoid fever.

Three members of the Ladies' Land League were last week arrested in Ireland.

The Russian Arctic expedition last week started from St. Petersburg for the mouth of the Lena, where they intend establishing a Russian international station. They anticipate meeting the survivors of the Jeannette on their way to Europe. Mr. James Gordon Bennett started Saturday from London for St. Petersburg to confer with the Russian government as to the feasibility of starting a new polar expedition.

Edward Ryan, of Webster, Mass., was last week found guilty of murdering his wife by poison.

M. F. Coppege of New Orleans, whose wife was alleged to have been shot dead by their four-years-old adopted child a few days ago, was arrested Saturday for the murder of his wife She had recently willed him her property, and it is stated her life was insured in his favor. It is reported she was about to leave him.

The tramp who murdered the son and daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Munroe near Annapolis, N. S., Dec. 27th, and pretended to be a deaf mute, is believed to be named Arthur Foster. He says he is a native of Virginia, and served in the confederate army. He admits having fled the United States to escape punishment for crime.

Policeman Michael W. Power of Boston was fatally stabbed early Sunday morning by a rough named John Latty, who with others was making a disturbance which the officer attempted to quell. The murderer and two of his gang are in custody.

The house of Garrett Abois, at Rickburg, N. Y., was burned early Sunday morning. Two girls, aged thirteen and eleven years, and a boy aged ten, were burned to death, and Mrs. Abois, who is seventy years old, will die from exposure.

John Cashman was crushed to death at the Newburyport jetties, Saturday night.

A heavy snow fell in Virginia on the 1st inst., badly delaying trains. South and east of Petersburg the snow was ten inches deep.

Mrs. Clara Purdy, an aged and decrepit colored lady of Bridgeport, Conn., was burned to death Saturday night by her clothes taking fire. She was eighty years old, and lived alone.

George S. Reed, a clerk in San Francisco, Cal., on Saturday killed his mother-in-law, fatally wounded his eight-years-old daughter, and then killed himself. It is supposed he was temporarily insane, as his family relations were of the pleasantest nature.

The trial trip through the St. Gothard railway tunnel last week was successful. The time occupied in the passage of the train was fifty minutes one way, and thirty-three minutes the other.

Two fellows, evidently belonging to a gang of tramp sneak thieves, were arrested in Dover on Saturday. One of the pair, calling himself James Lewis of Portland, Me., has been identified as the thief who stole two overcoats from the hallway of a boarding-house on Friday evening. The other, who gives the name of John White, and hails from Newmarket, went into a shoe store and wanted to be measured in a great hurry for a pair of boots to be married in, and while the storekeeper was measuring his hoofs a confederate ran off with a pair of boots. Mr. White was found to have no money, and a firm for whom he said he was going to work do not want hands now. The fellow who stole the boots got away.

AROUND HOME.

Two thousand three hundred and seventy-five tons of coal arrived at the Concord railroad wharf on Sunday and Monday, the steamer Williamsport coming in on Sunday with 1662 tons to order, and the schooner E. C. Allen next day with 713 tons to J. Albert Walker.

The receipts of fish at this port last week were trifling in amount—less, it is said, than for any previous week during 1881. The fishing vessels, most of which left the wharves on Saturday, baited and iced for extended trips, came to an anchor in the lower harbor; had they gone out they would have had a tough time, for the northeast snowstorm of Sunday night was a hard one.

An Electric Light Co. with a nominal capital of half a million of dollars has organized in Portland; Sam'l E. Spring is president. A canvass of the city is to be made, with a view to ascertain how many customers for the light can be secured, and perhaps a few experimental lights will be established to show the graph Co. permission to construct a line from the Eastern railroad station in this city to Market square, has standing in front of his store on Market street a pole quite as big and quite as much of an obstruction to travel as any pole likely to be set up by a telegraph company.

It is reported that the Kittery Point steamer Fearless will shortly be taken off the route between that point and Portsmouth, for repairs; but her place will be temporarily taken by another boat, so the many persons who have learned to value this speedy, comfortable and cheap means of transit will not be incommoded. After being overhauled the Fearless will again go on the route, and run through the winter unless the ice should prevent.

One of the construction men of the Eastern & Mutual Union Telegraph Co. was somewhat injured on Saturday by jumping from an Eastern railroad train while it was in motion, just to the westward of the Kennebunk station.

The tenant of Wm. H. Goodwin's farm on Gerrish's island, Kittery, formerly the "Gerrish farm," was engaged in ploughing on the 15th, 16th, 21st and 23d days of December, and for the whole of the last week of that month excepting Monday, the 26th.

Mrs. C. H. Wadleigh, of Kittery Point, was badly bitten through the muscle of one arm on the 1st inst., by a horse.

Mr. Jackson Caswell of Kittery on the 30th ult. jumped backward from a loaded team at the residence of Dr. M. F. Wentworth, and alighted on a nail which protruded from a board. The nail went through the bottom of his rubber boot, and penetrated his foot so that the point was visible on top. The ugly wound was dressed by Dr. Wentworth, and the young man is doing nicely.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the throat troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. 25 cts. a box everywhere. A $20,000 Prize.

The lottery lightning has struck Milford, and so hard as to excite its citizens considerably. On Thursday of last week it was rumored that a Milford man had drawn the capital prize, $100,000, in the Louisiana State Lottery Company. Our reporter tried to look the matter up, but none of the two dozen persons indicated by Madam Rumor had drawn the prize. An express company sent two advices, saying that a prize had been drawn by a man in Milford. Excitement over the affair increased, and common salutation on Saturday was, "Have you drawn the prize?" On Monday the holder of the ticket deposited it for collection. He is Mr. A. Z. Ackerman, a respectable and industrious farmer, living two miles from town. Although the owner of the farm where he resides, the $20,000 will be most acceptable to Mr. Ackerman. The one-fifth ticket that draws one-fifth of $100,000, is No. 34,892. It is said that this is the first lottery ticket ever owned by Mr. Ackerman.

As might be supposed, the drawing of such an amount has stirred up the people on the subject of lotteries, and brought to light some unknown facts. It now appears that a considerable number of our citizens have been dealing in lotteries, but they all kept the fact a secret. They include rich and poor old and young, and even church members. One of our aged citizens says that twice he has come within one of the lucky numbers that drew prizes of $ 00,000. Another Milford man drew $10.

There is something very fascinating and seductive in the idea of acquiring sudden wealth by a chance that costs little, and we apprehend that many hundreds of dollars will be wasted on lotteries in this section, in view of the recent success of our citizen. Even those whose reason tells them otherwise, will invest a little because "it doesn't cost much, and I might."—Milford (Del.) News and Advertiser, Dec 24th.

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millions of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

COMMERCE OF PORTSMOUTH.

The number of arrivals at the port of Portsmouth from foreign ports for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1881, was thirty-five, viz.: one barque, 512 tons; four brigs, 890 tons; thirty schooners, 2502 tons. During the same period 823 vessels arrived from coastwise ports, viz.: 113 steamers, 67,609 tons; four barques, 2012 tons; five brigs, 1525 tons; 701 schooners, 99,932 tons. Total number of arrivals, 858, with an aggregate tonnage of 174,982 tons. The total number of arrivals in 1880 was 725, with an aggregate tonnage of 130,381 tons, showing an increase for 1881 in the arrivals of 133, and 44,601 in the aggregate tonnage.

THE BREAKWATER ROAD.

To-day Mr. Charles Hutchings will go round among our business men soliciting signatures to a petition asking Congress to appropriate the small sum of money necessary to widen and complete the breakwater near the third Newcastle bridge in accordance with the original designs.

Col. William H. Sise, President of the Board of Trade, has been in correspondence with Gen. Thom in regard to the matter, and that gentleman is of the opinion that the general government will willingly make such appropriation when it is shown that the harbor road is a necessary adjunct to our long neglected coast defences at Newcastle.

The Newcastle petition contains the names of nearly every voter in that town, and represents about fifteen-sixteenths of the taxable property of the island; and we hope that our citizens will give all the support possible toward the obtaining of the asked-for appropriation.

THE COLORED PEOPLE'S REJOICING.

The Austin-Lincoln Association, composed of the colored people of the city, on Monday evening at the south ward-room celebrated the anniversary of the day when President Lincoln's emancipation proclamation went into effect. The hall was festooned with American flags, and presented a very handsome appearance.

A large number of persons assembled to do honor to the occasion, among the colored people being several descendants of the old Portsmouth stock, notable among whom was Mr. John Smith, a lineal descendant of Prince Whipple, of revolutionary fame. Several white ladies graced the celebration with their presence during the early evening, and many prominent gentlemen took part in the exercises, which commenced with the reading of that portion of Rev. Daniel Austin's will which provided for a permanent fund for the celebration; this was followed by the reading of the emancipation proclamation, by Miss Katie Brown.

Brief speeches, all of them good and some of them very good, were then made by Mayor Sise, City Clerk Vaughan, City Marshal Entwistle and George E. Hodgdon, Esq; Alderman Slater recited a very appropriate selection, and did it well; and a good letter from Mr. Charles W. Gardner was read. Besides the gentlemen named we noticed Alderman Green, ExCouncilman Long, Messrs. Aaron Young, George Mudge and Samuel Dodge, Capt. Charles W. Drown, and other prominent citizens.

After the literary exercises, dancing was indulged in to the music of Turner's quadrille band, a number of the white citizens taking part in the grand march, which was led by George E. Hodgdon, Esq., and a lady whose name we did not learn. The colored damsels were very nicely and prettily dressed, Miss Amy Hector being voted the belle of the ball; and the affair throughout was conducted in such a decorous manner as Mr. Austin if living could not have failed to approve. A good supper was served during the evening.

THE CITY GUARDS.

Capt. James E. Ford, commanding Co. C, 1st Reg't N. H. N. G., has divided the company into four squads, each of which will be drilled by a sergeant, as follows:

First squad, by Sergt. William Grogan, now acting 1st sergeant in the temporary absence of 1st Sergt. Hickey; the 2d squad, by Sergt. Fred Rollins; 3d squad, by Sergt. Samuel W. Wallis; 4th squad, by Sergt. Henry O. Batten. Each sergeant is to be assisted by a corporal, and prompt report is to be made by the drill-master of each squad to the commanding officer, of the numbers attending at drill, and any other matters concerning the efficiency of the company. The sergeants will also recommend persons for discharge, enlistment or promotion, and are expected and required to keep their several squads constantly filled with good, well-drilled men.

The object of this plan is to create a wholesome and generous rivalry between the squads, thereby enhancing the general interest of the whole company and tending to make it what Capt. Ford hopes before long it will be acknowledged to be, the best disciplined company in the state, and composed of men who are not only reputable citizens but good soldiers. Relying upon the zeal and good judgment of his four sergeants, Capt. Ford does not hesitate to give this matter into their hands.

Monday was observed as a holiday at the post-office, custom-house and other government institutions, which were only open during the usual holiday hours; and also at the navy yard, where no work was done. The schools of the city, which under the regulations should have commenced Monday, had their opening postponed till Tuesday by the school board. If the powers that be would only shift Christmas and New Year's a few weeks farther apart, instead of keeping them within seven days of each other, other people beside the government would like to take a holiday at New Year's.

Rev. A. P. Peabody and the Misses Peabody were at Naples, Italy, Dec. 9th, 1881.

Mr. Willis L. Hidden, a native of this city, and formerly city messenger, was on Monday elected city auditor of Lynn, Mass., for the year 1882. The salary is one thousand dollars.

The semi-annual dividend of three per cent on the stock of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroad, will be paid at the treasurer's office of the Eastern railroad in Boston on the 15th inst.

At a Christmas festival in Farmington, on the evening of Dec 24th, Mr. Frank C. Hoyt, formerly of this city but for a year or more past employed on the Farmington News, officiated as Santa Claus in distributing the presents from the tree.

Major Urch has received notice that he has been granted a Canadian patent on his marine bicycle.

The arrivals of fish on Monday were the schooners Joseph P. Barrett, with 4000 lbs.; Mary E. Smith, 2000 lbs.; Comet, 1500 lbs.; Addie & Hattie, 1400 pounds.

An organ concert was given on Saturday afternoon in the Middle street church, by Mr. S. W. Cole, assisted by two of his pupils, Miss Fannie Tilton and Miss Mattie Fernald, and Miss Sadie Whittemore, contralto, of Boston. The audience was not large, but included many of the most cultivated people of the city; and the concert was throughly enjoyable, and apparently throughly enjoyed. Miss Whittemore is a very pleasing vocalist.

We were pained to be informed, Monday evening, that Col. Frank W. Hilton, the widely-known manager of the Rockingham and Wentworth hotels, who has for some time been suffering from inflammatory rheumatism, was regarded as being in a critical condition. Dr. Cheever of Boston was telegraphed for on Monday afternoon.

Mr. A. Q. Wendell, Jr., of this city, was on board the Allan line steamer Moravian when she was wrecked on Mud island, about twenty-five miles from Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, last Friday.

The schooners Satellite, Adderton master, and Loella, Amee master, left Portsmouth bridge Jan. 1st. for Boston, with cargoes of bricks from the up-river yards. These are the last cargoes of brick from the Piscataqua this season. The Satellite had been lying for a considerable time at the bridge waiting, for a chance to make the run. Mr. Samuel Shapleigh, of Eliot, accompanies Capt. Adderton on the trip, and will spend several days with friends in Boston, returning in the Satellite. The two schooners brought up in the lower harbor, as the weather looked too "dirty" to warrant their attempting the run across.

What would people say of an individual who persistently continued to hold to a mistaken idea? We think the CHRONICLE is in about the same boat. That paper incorrectly states the telegraph case intentionally, or its representatives hear with their elbows.—Times.

The Times incorrectly states the telegraph case intentionally, (and also what the CHRONICLE has said of it,) or its representative is ignorant of the meaning of the simplest and plainest language.

The steamer Mystic on Saturday transported across the river 335 cash-paying passengers.

A pile of lumber has for some time decorated the yard of the High school building on Daniel street.

Before this time last year a large amount of ice had been housed in various parts of New England. This season we have not heard of a cake being cut for storage anywhere in the Eastern states.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

American Inventions.

American inventions and American machinery, in the principal markets of the world hold the first rank. Notwithstanding the high price of labor in the United States, the products of our skilled artisans and improved machinery compete successfully with those of the ill-paid labor of Europe, where in thousands of cases the machines employed are the result of American ingenuity. The awards at the great International Expositions of Paris and Vienna are only enforced tributes to the superiority of the inventive and mechanical genius of our comparatively new land, which also furnishes bread and meat to myriads of our Old World brethren.

Yet, while some of those who originate much that is readily grasped at the world over, for its manifest excellence and utility, realize immense returns for their skill, there are other inventors to whom the road to fortune proves a difficult path.

While our patent laws are more liberal, and afford a better protection to inventors than those of any other country, there is much in having an invention properly placed before the Patent Commissioners. The immense volume of business transacted in that department requires that the solicitor for a patent be able to give his client information as to patentability, conflicting claims and other obstacles; such information as none but an expert can give.

To inventors, we would commend Mr. R. H. Eddy, No. 76 State street, Boston, as a leading and most successful solicitor of patents; one who, from his two-score years' experience and his familiarity with the laws and technicalities in this and foreign countries, is most competent to advise them in regard to American and European patents, trade-marks, designs, reissues, etc.

A Mixed-Up Case.

Mrs. Clark Russell of Eagle Bridge, N. Y., has been arrested and locked up on the charge of bigamy. She is a prepossessing girl, scarcely eighteen years of age. She was formerly Miss Libbie White of Rupert, Vt. The complaint alleges that she was the wife of Silas J. Hurd of Rupert, at the time of her marriage to Russell. This is denied by the prisoner, who says she never was married to Hurd, but that she was induced to live with him for about a year by her mother, who formerly lived with Hurd. She was married to Russell on Nov. 30th, and went to Eagle Bridge to live with her husband. About a week later her uncle took her back to Rupert, claiming she had been abducted. The family of Russell objected to the marriage, and the recent arrest was made at the instigation of Edgar Russell, a brother of her husband.

If you can't "bear" a cough, "bull" it, with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

A post-office was established at Silver Lake, Carroll county, last week, with Frederick C. Pearson as postmaster.

We have witnessed the magical effect of St. Jacobs Oil in the most severe cases of rheumatism, and without hesitancy, pronounce it the greatest remedy in the market. The Cincinnati Enquirer mentions the following statement from Mr. Burton, of the great stove firm of Redway & Burton that city. "My boy was afflicted with the rheumatism badly; we had doctored him a great deal, but could find no cure; I saw St. Jacobs Oil advertised so much, heard so much of its good qualities, that I at last determined to try it. I must say that it beats all my doctoring hollow. Two bottles of St. Jacobs Oil cured my boy of the rheumatism when all other remedies which I had tried failed."

Gen. Hancock says he shall not take any action to summon the court martial to try Sergeant Mason until he receives instructions from Washington.

Answer This.

Is there a person living who ever saw a case of ague, billiousness, nervousness, or neuralgia, or any disease of the stomach, liver or kidneys, that Hop Bitters will not cure?

A livery stable was burned in Worcester, Mass., Jan. 1st, and twenty-three horses perished.

Grateful to Invalids.

Floreston Cologne is grateful to invalids, because it is refreshing without the sickening effect of most perfumes.

New city governments were inaugurated in Boston and twenty other cities of Massachusetts, on Monday.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork. —Times.

Judge P. C. Dooley and Hon. Caspar Attenburg, prominent republican members of the Arkansas legislature, have been arrested at Little Rock, charged with frauds in pensions.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Fowell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have resumed my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I have received immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., Writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost to doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed, she quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1323

Daily Chronicle.

The Small-pox.

At Moline, Iowa, on the 1st inst., three small-pox patients, crazed with suffering, broke from their rooms and ran through the streets naked, and were recaptured only with great difficulty and after they had run against many people.

Davenport, Iowa, was quarantined against Rock Island and the east on the 2d inst. All persons will be subjected to an examination before they will be allowed to enter the city.

Small-pox was carried into Milan, Tenn., by a negro tramp who sickened and died, and was visited by many persons before the nature of his disease was known. The white man who buried him, and eight members of his family, are down with the disease, and seven other cases are in town.

At the village of Oakland, near Wilmington, Ohio, a child died from small-pox. The funeral was largely attended, and eighteen persons have the disease now. The pestilence prevails extensively in Cincinnati, and is scattered all over the city.

At Fort Wayne, Ind., there are now twenty-five cases of small-pox. There have been 150 cases during the fall and winter, twenty-seven of which have proved fatal.

Daniel Francis, formerly chief operator in the Western Union Telegraph office at Chicago, Ill., and well-known in telegraph circles, died on Monday of small-pox. He was taken sick in the operating room on Wednesday of last week, and was visited by many persons before the nature of his disease was determined.

New Hampshire Items.

Henry B. Shirley, the Concord sewing machine agent who was recently arrested in Dover on a charge of embezzlement, has been discharged.

It is proposed in Dover to build a branch line of railroad, six miles in length, connecting with the Rochester & Nashua road, owing to dissatisfaction at the existing freight rates on the Eastern and Boston & Maine railroads.

Mrs. C. H. Clay of Farmington, her sister, Mrs. G. H. Knight, their invalid mother and Mrs. Jonas Call were thrown from a wagon, Sunday, by a runaway horse. Mrs. Call had her right leg broken, her left arm broken in two places, and her skull fractured. The others were badly injured.

At Plymouth, Monday morning, upon opening the store of J. S. Jewett, in which the post office is located, it was discovered that the safe had been blown open some time between Saturday night and Monday morning, and a portion of its contents stolen. The burglars obtained $1,500 in bonds belonging to Mr. Jewett, $1,000 in bonds belonging to D. Y. Eastman, and $300 in cash, of which $65 was from the post-office money order department. Deeds, mortgages and other papers, and over $100 worth of stamps in the safe, were not taken.

One of Washington Irving's funny letters tells about a man who in going home from a dinner party, at which he had taken rather too much wine, fell through an open grating into a vault beneath the sidewalk. He found the darkness and silence rather oppressive at first, but in the course of the evening several of the other guests fell in, and on the whole, they had a very pleasant night of it. This story is suggested by an early experience of David Wingate, who died recently in his native town of Rochester, at the age of ninety-two years. Mr. Wingate was one of the American seamen who were seized by the English and confined in Dartmoor prison during the war of 1812. When he was shown to his dismal quarters he was surprised to find there his townsman, Dr. Russell, and many other worthy citizens of New Hampshire. They were all sent home in the spring of 1815, and since that time Mr. Wingate has lived quietly on his farm in his native place. Among the Portsmouthmen who were confined at Dartmoor prison, was the late George Vennard, the father of John L. Vennard, mate in the United States navy, and now on duty at this navy yard.

The Best Remedy for Chapped Hands Is Hegeman's Camphor Ice. It should be rubbed upon the part affected. The warmth of the skin will soften it sufficiently, under ordinary circumstances, but in extreme cold weather, it may be necessary to warm it by the fire. If the hands are badly chapped, apply every night, and protect the hands by wearing an old pair of kid gloves. Hegeman's is the best and most popular of all the Camphor Ices made. Hegeman's Camphor Ice is also a cure for sore lips, chapped face, and sunburn. It is compounded with glycerine, which renders it more emollient than any other Camphor Ice; it will be found a most soothing application to the face after shaving.

Alderman Sauer, a Tammany democrat, was elected president of the New York board of aldermen on Monday forenoon by a combination of the republican and Tammany hall members against the county democracy. This is an important victory for John Kelly, as the mayor will be unable to make any appointments against his will.

It is a pleasure, when afflicted with rheumatism, to cure yourself when it can be done so effectually and inexpensively, as with St. Jacobs Oil. Mrs. Ann Daugherty resides at 564 E street, South Boston. She is an elderly lady, and has been afflicted with salt rheum between her fingers for over sixteen years. She suffered terribly, and tried all kinds of remedies without obtaining any relief. She used St. Jacobs Oil four times, and by that time she could sleep at night, which she could not do before. She used St. Jacobs Oil again and got better and better, until now she is entirely cured. She commenced the use of St. Jacobs Oil about two months ago, and now thinks there is nothing like it. Her hand used to swell terribly, but all that has gone now. Her disease commenced to abate about the time she first used the Oil, but she has had no swelling since.

Schooner Sarah W. Blake has been lost four miles off Point Judith, with all hands, five in number.

Don't Die in the House.

Decline of Men.

Impotence of mind, limb, or vital function, nervous weakness, sexual debility, etc., cured by Wells' Health Renewer. $1. At druggists. Depot at Thacher's.

James Coon, a well-known mine contractor of Pleasant Valley, Pa., accidentally shot and killed himself Monday, while hunting.

There was an eclipse this year that astronomers failed to note. It was the eclipse of Adamson's Botanic Balsam over all competitors. It cures coughs, colds, and all diseases of the throat, chest, and lungs. Price 10, 35, and 75 cts.

The dam of the print works at East Greenwich, R. I., gave away on Sunday night; damage $30,000.

Arrested!

Charles A. Dailey, was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Shiefman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should steal it, he stated that his mother was troubled with rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped her, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offence he was put on probation.—Newark News.

Mary A. Roche, of Boston, has sued Moses L. Capen for $200 damages, for killing her cat.

"Let Him who wlos it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Joe Burns, a negro barber of Kansas City, was shot and killed by Officer Lovett, who, mistaking Barnes for a thief, ordered him to halt. Barnes refused to stop, and was shot dead. Lovett has been exonerated.

Dr. Holman's Pad and Plasters will do more for a sickly spinal column and paralysis that all the known appliances combined. Neuralgia never fails to yield unto a permanent cure with the use of Dr. Holman's Pad and Plasters.

RAILROAD DISASTER AT WELLS.

Additional details of Monday's disaster are as follows:

The place where the accident happened was at Boothby's crossing, three miles west of Kennebunk, where the railroad crosses the highway at an acute angle, on an iron bridge fifty-six feet long, built in 1872.

The train was fifty minutes late, and owing to the snow storm had two engines attached, and at the time of the accident was running, as near as could be ascertained, about thirty miles an hour; some say more, and others less. The engineers of the train say they were running not over twenty miles an hour. However that may be, they must have been running with considerable speed to have succeeded in dragging the tender of the second engine, and the smoking and parlor cars, across the chasm. The first engine went over all right, and the second one was half over when the engineer felt the rear driving wheels settle under him, but fortunately the first engine pulled the second over, for had the scalding steam been added to the wreck, the loss of life and suffering must have been much greater. Both engines together pulled the baggage car over, and also the drawing-room car, literally scraping the trucks from under them as they scraped along over the abutment. The smoking car, which was next to the drawing-room car, crashed into the abutment and glanced off toward the left, falling about fifteen feet and sliding along the wall of stone, and was smashed into kindling wood. The next car, a new passenger car, went down into the chasm and stood on end, followed by another passenger car, also on end, with the upper end resting on the brink, these cars being badly broken and wrecked. The mail car, the last on the train, kept the track, but telescoped with the car in front, smashing in the ends of both cars and breaking the stove in that end of the passenger car, scattering its contents.

Almost instantly the cars were in a blaze, and being newly varnished, the flames ran with lightning rapidity through them, and in fives minutes all four of the cars were in flames. The mail car, one of the first to catch fire, burned so rapidly that the agent and his clerk had just time to grab the registered letter book and a few packages of registered letters, and rush out of the car. Even then the fire singed the hair of the agent. All the rest of the mail was burned, there not being time to save more.

The baggage car, although it had crossed the bridge, left the track and ran down over the embankment, throwing the five men in it, together with the baggage, promiscuously into the front end, bruising and jamming them severely. The express agent and baggage master were badly cut about the head, and bruised with the heavy trunks and parcels. J. Henry Downs, one of the oldest employes of the road, was in this car, and was thrown into the end of the car and crushed by an enormous sample trunk which had to be lifted from him before he could be released. Being convinced that he should die, he made his will after being conveyed to a neighboring farmhouse. The other persons in this car who were injured were Lewis P. Clark of Portland, express messenger, and M. A. Atkins of Lewiston, cut about the head and legs.

Fortunately the accident occurred near several farm houses, to which the most severely wounded were conveyed, car doors and cushions being transformed into stretchers.

Soon after the accident the leading engine ran to Kennebunk with the tidings, and shortly returned with doctors and nurses. The news was also sent to Portland, and Section Superintendent Stevens made up a train, collected all the doctors that could be reached, and made a quick run to Kennebunk, short stops being made at Saco and Biddeford to take on more doctors. At Kennebunk, however, the quick run ended; not another move could be made until orders were received from Boston, and the telegraph being down none could be sent; so there the relief train stuck for a full hour, within three miles of Boothby's crossing, the track being straight and clear, and the smoke of the burning wreck plainly visible!

The Portland Press, from whose report we compile most of the above, thus alludes to what took place when the relief train did finally reach the scene of destruction:

The doctors were soon at work and preparations were made to take those who were able to be moved to the Maine General hospital in Portland. Doors and chairs were again utilized, and the sufferers were carried to the train and made as comfortable as such accommodations would allow. It was then about half-past five, and then began or rather it was a continuation of a most outrageous delay. For instead of giving Mr. Stevens the right to keep all trains from the track and run direct to Portland with his load of humanity, the train was kept waiting to take what few passengers might come on the 12:30 o'clock train from Boston, transfering them round the wreck; but no passengers came, and only some baggage. Not till then was a start made for Kennebunk station. Once there it was supposed that the train would start immediately for Portland and the hospital; but no, the train must wait for orders from Boston, and it did wait at that cold station another hour, and when it finally started the whole mob of on-lookers completely filled the train, not only the cars being given up to them but the one set apart for the sufferers, defiling the air belonging to the sick, and raising a stench that sufficed to nauseate the well persons on the train. Not until a quarter past seven o'clock did that train finally leave Kennebunk, seven long hours after the accident.

This is the first accident of any magnitude that has ever happened on this road, and that may account in part for the otherwise unaccountable and inexcusable delay.

In examining the remains of the broken bridge it was found by the wheel-marks on the stringers that the accident must have been caused by the breaking of a journal on the forward end of the baggage car which followed the second locomotive. This caused the wheels to leave the track and strike the bridge truss, knocking it from its position. Of course the whole structure instantly collapsed. The bent beams, curled rails and shattered stone show how terribly severe must have been the shock. The stone face of the eastern abutment was scaled off to a considerable thickness by the intense heat of the fire which followed the wreck.

The man who was killed has been identified as James C. Hodgdon of Haverhill, Mass. He was forty-eight years old, and leaves a widow and three children. On Tuesday morning it was reported that Mr. Downs, who was supposed to be fatally hurt, was improving, and that there was good hope that there would be no other deaths.

The loss to the road, exclusive of the damages to passengers, will be from $30,000 to $50,000.

News and Notes.

The public debt was last month decreased $12,793,623.26.

William Alcorn of Elizabeth, N. J., died last Thursday night from the effects of arsenic placed in his food by his wife, who is dissipated, and had several times threatened him. The woman has been arrested.

At Rogers, Ark., on Friday night, Dec. 23d, Eson Bolin was shot and killed by his wife, while asleep in bed. The woman was arrested and confessed the murder, stating that her husband was a murderer and a horse thief, and had rendered her life unbearable. On Monday, Dec. 26th, with a knife borrowed from the jailor, she cut her throat and died immediately.

At Harrisonburg, Pa., Saturday, Frank Carrington stabbed and killed M. Taylor.

In the supreme judicial court at Rockland, Me., Monday, a hearing was had on information of the bar against Warren C. Perrigo, a member of the Knox county bar, charging him with adultery, writing lewd and lascivious letters, extorting a deed by intimidation, and attempting to levy blackmail. The case was continued to the March term to enable Perrigo to furnish evidence, and the other side to file additional charges. In an adultery case, in which a jury gave a verdict of guilty against him on Saturday, Perrigo filed exceptions and gave bail.

President Arthur's New Year reception at the White House was more largely attended than any previous similar occasion.

Two Mormon missionaries who attempted to conduct a service in one of the suburbs of London, Eng., last Sunday, were maltreated by a mob.

While in a fit of temporary insanity a very popular and scholarly young man, residing in Waterville, Me., attempted to commit suicide Sunday evening by taking laudanum. He was unsuccessful because of an overdose, after which he stabbed himself in six different places. He was found by friends early next morning in the Universalist church, lying in his blood. There is a possibility that he may recover.

A man named A. George Osgood disappeared from Haverhill, Mass., several years ago, and has long been regarded as dead. He has now turned up safe and sound in a western city.

Walter Sanderson of South Deerfield, Mass., has received $1200 for his last season's crop of tobacco, raised on three acres of land.

One fish-dealing firm in Rockport, Mass., from April 1st, 1881, to Jan. 1st, 1882, bought 1,194,459 lbs. of fish, paying therefor nearly $24,000. During their busiest week the firm took in over 100,000 lbs. There was more fish landed at Rockport during 1881 than in any previous year.

Sanford G. Parker was about a year since convicted in a Massachusetts court of stealing trawls set off Thacher's island. The case was carried to the United States court on a motion in arrest of judgment, and the court has ordered the judgment arrested, upon the ground that the offence was not committed at a place within the "exclusive jurisdiction of the United States."

Capt. A. W. Hayes of Rochester has gone on a four months' trip for his health, by way of the Southern Pacific railroad, to California. He also contemplates visiting the Sandwich islands before his return.

John F. Follett's house in Guilford was burned Monday. Loss $2000.

Cuticura

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

SALT RHEUM. Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn st., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

SKIN DISEASES. F. H. Drake, Esq., of Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SKIN HUMORS. Mrs. S. E. Whipple, of Detroit, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered fearfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON. President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its management and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Storer Post, G. A. R., has been required to make a report of the names of deceased soldiers and sailors who served in the late war, and are buried in or near Portsmouth, which will be placed on file in the office of the adjutant general of the state of New Hampshire. This report, at some time, will be of great value to the friends and relatives of these deceased soldiers and sailors. There are 281 names in all, and the post has been able to find out the rank and regiment of all but twenty-seven. Appended is a list of these names, and any persons having any information as to the rank, company and regiment, or ship, in which any of these men served, will confer a favor on Storer Post by leaving that information at the store of M. M. Collis, No. 45 Market street.

A LOOK BACK.

Editor Chronicle: Your allusion in Monday's issue to a concert given by the Hutchinson Family was incorrect in a few particulars. It was not given just after the war broke out, but in January, 1860,—nearly a year and three months before the firing upon Fort Sumter. Neither was it given by John W. Hutchinson's family, but by Asa's, which then consisted of Asa, his wife Lizzie, and little Freddie, the latter being eight years old. The remainder of the article is substantially correct, especially that part of it relating to the wonderful calmness of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson in the face of a hissing, revengeful audience. But they were used to it. They had braved elsewhere storms of hisses, rotten eggs and other missiles, at the utterance of their songs of freedom, that doubtless made this affair to which you allude seem tame in comparison. In the south, in New York city and other places, where entire audiences were pro-slavery, they sang their abolition songs in the same sweet and fervent manner with which they rendered them everywhere. And when disturbances and groans took the place of applause they only stood still and wailed. After the subsidence of the disgust which their listeners felt for their anti-slavery spirit, they coolly proceeded until again disturbed—and so on, to the end. These brave souls never lost an opportunity to put in their protest against wrong and oppression, wherever found. Well did they perform their mission; and the world is much the better for their having lived.

WITNESS.

A "BRICKER'S" RECORD.

The following, for which we are indebted to Mr. James S. Brewster, mate of the schooner D. K. Ham, gives a good idea of how much idle time the crews of the vessels employed in the brick-carrying trade between the Piscataqua river and Boston have during the working season:

The schooner D. K. Ham, Freeman master, made twenty-two trips in 1877, twenty-five trips in 1878, and twenty-eight trips in 1879, in the latter year carrying 1,401,805 bricks, and 200 5-8 cords of wood.

In 1880 she made twenty-nine trips, carrying 1,752,212 bricks, stocking $2807.46, passing through bridges 470 times, and anchoring 242 times. Her shortest passage from this port to Boston was six hours, from light to light, and her longest passage twenty-nine hours; her shortest passage down was five hours, and the longest twenty-eight and one-half hours.

In 1881 she made twenty-six trips, stocking $2799.33, carrying 1553,270 bricks, and passing through bridges 434 times. Her shortest trip up was seven and one-quarter hours, and her longest twenty-five and one-half hours; her shortest trip down was six hours, and her longest twenty-three hours. Her anchor was let go 160 times during the year.

Senator Rollins was in Portsmouth on Monday, and remained over night.

On Tuesday forenoon a horse belonging to Hon. Frank Jones took fright while standing in front of his office, and ran along Market street until he reached Earing & Wells' store, where he ran against a horse belonging to the firm, knocking him over and injuring him so that he had to be killed. A shaft of the store wagon was broken. A son of Mr. Wells saw the runaway animal coming, and at some risk managed to get his own horse out of the way. Mr. Jones' horse was caught before going further, and was found to have received no damage.

The Grand Encampment, G. A. R., Dept. of New Hampshire, has accepted the invitation of Storer Post, No. 1, of this city, to hold the next annual encampment in Portsmouth. It will occur in February.

Mr. Edwin W. Berry, superintendent of the Advent Sunday school, was on Sunday presented by Mrs. Josiah Hussey, in behalf of the teachers and members of the school, with a very handsome Bible.

The schooner John Lenthall, of Exeter, has hauled up for the winter at George Herbert & Co.'s wharf.

Portsmouth Grange, No. 22, Patrons of Husbandry, will hold a meeting at Grange hall on Thursday evening, Jan. 5th, at 7:30 o'clock.

The schooner Christie Campbell, baddocker, went out on Monday, but returned without setting her trawls, the sea and wind being too heavy to permit fishing. The bay fishermen had better luck, and caught some small fares.

At Kittery, Tuesday forenoon, Frank Blaney's wagon and a Portsmouth coal team came into collision. Mr. Blaney's wagon was a good one before the collision occurred, but was a sad looking wreck afterward, both wheels on one side being stripped off and broken, and the binder part of the body torn out and smashed.

The house, barn and stock of M. V. Hall of North Berwick were burned by an incendiary fire on Sunday morning. Loss $1500; insured. The place was occupied by a Mr. Goodwin.

Hon. Mark Dennett, the oldest resident of Kittery, went to Newburyport on Friday of last week to pay a visit to friends there.

Biddeford is said to be free of smallpox. There have been thirty patients at the city hospital, of whom five have died. Dr. Quimby took charge of the patients eight or nine weeks ago, and the city has to pay him about $900 for his services—and cheap enough, too, for under his management not a patient taken to the hospital died. Dr. Quimby had never had the disease when he assumed charge of the pest-house, but he shortly took it, and was for several days confined to his bed, from which place he dispensed medicines and orders. Since the closing of the hospital he has gone west to recruit his health, which had suffered seriously.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle. m w & s &x sgz

New Year's brings Good Resolutions.

The idea of a thorough reformation commencing with the New Year in all affairs of life is as old an idea as the world itself; but when the year closes, a retrospective glance always tells of intentions not carried out. To those who have thought it wise to delay an easy of fortune's favoritism by sending one or two dollars to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., in time for the 140th Drawing of the World-famed Louisiana State Lottery, before January 10th, the idea must come: "Delays are dangerous."

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by thousands.—London Lancet.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

Guiteau's Trial.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Globe, under date of Jan. 2d, says: "Guiteau is mad to-day. He had been put on ordinary prison fare, and when his mail was delivered to him, newspapers were excluded, and will hereafter be from his cell. This order of things does not comport with his ideas of his own self-importance. He declares he will appeal to the American people on the score of patriotism to restore these lost previleges. He is beginning to quarrel with his guards, whom he treats as inferior minions of the law, and beneath the notice of a high-toned, Christian gentleman like himself. General Crocker is the only person at the jail whom he condescends to treat as an equal. A number of ladies looked in his cell this morning. Coming forward with a smile, Guiteau held out his hand and gave them a Happy New Year's greeting. The ladies did not respond, and the prisoner, who was newly shaven and arrayed in all the glory of clean linen, looked annoyed. He hinted that they were not present at his request, and that it was only common courtesy to be polite on such an occasion. This reproof went to the heart of a petite brunette, who shook hands with him and passed the compliments of the season. Nothing definite can be learned as to the termination of the trial. Mr. Scoville's witnesses will probably occupy the week. Colonel Corkhill is busy looking up law points, so as to be prepared for the question of jurisdiction or anything else that may be sprung upon the court by the defence. John W. Guiteau is firmly of the opinion that his brother will be convicted. He said to a reporter this morning: 'Matters are approaching the final stage. Now we have not time to open his mail to gratify his curiosity and egotism. It is now a question of life or death, and it is time he realized that fact. There is no question in my mind as to his insanity. Think he is an idiot, and has been irresponsible for his actions from birth, but the testimony of the government experts is strongly against him. These gentlemen have started a new theory that there can be no insanity without disease. While I give them credit for sincerity and integrity, I think this newly-developed theory is entirely wrong.' Mr. Guiteau also spoke of the bull-dozing manner of the prosecution, and said there was a fixed determination on their part to hang the prisoner, sane or insane."

Oscar Wilde, the high priest of æstheticism, has arrived in New York.

Rose Brothers, architects, have for years occupied a modest room in Arcade building, Buffalo, N. Y., as an office and apartment. One, aged seventy years, died last Saturday; the other, aged seventy-two, was taken to the hospital Saturday, and died Monday morning. It appears that they lived in abject poverty, and were too proud to accept aid. Both starved to death. They were finely educated, and were born in England.

"INDIAN DEPARTMENT,"
WASHINGTON, D. C.

I am anxious to introduce Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup among my Indians, having used it myself for several months, and think it one of the finest remedies I ever found. I assure you, it is the only thing that ever relieved me of a protracted cough, brought on by exposure while on the Sioux commission last year.

A. G. BOONE,
Agent for Poncas and U. S. Commissioner.

The floor of a building at Shanesville, Ohio, gave way under a Knights of Pythias festival on the evening of Dec. 31st. Four persons were fatally crushed, about a hundred wounded, and six burned to death.

I will Never!

Allow myself to suffer again what I have suffered for the last year. That vile disease dyspepsia gave me no comfort. I could not eat or enjoy anything. The doctors amounted to nothing; nothing seemed to relieve me, until I used a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Four bottles made me well.—Shoe Dealer.

One Burlington, Vt., patent medicine establishment did a $500,000 business last year. Perhaps that's because they have temperance hotels and no liquor agency in Burlington.

Best on Record.

I believe Ely's Cream Balm the best preparation for catarrh now on record. My patrons all speak well of it. I have sold one hundred and forty-four bottles in less than five months. I ordered another gross a week ago, and have sold twenty-one bottles from the second gross. It sells upon its merits. JOHN H. PHELPS, Druggist, Scranton, Pa. Jan. 28, 1880.

There is no doubt in our judgment that Ely's Cream Balm has intrinsic worth. We hear from many who are using it for catarrh, of wonderful cures being effected, and without hesitation offer it to our customers as the best remedy for its purposes in use. DYKEMAN & MOTT, Druggists, Catskill, N. Y. Dec. 27, 1880.

Price fifty cents.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would BE volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our recourse was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 6j23

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for Infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

At Graham, Texas, Jan. 2d, three brothers named McDonald, in jail for the murder of a man named Martin, escaped from the jail after killing one of their keepers and securing several revolvers, taking another keeper, named Melton, with them. The citizens mustered and pursued the desperadoes, who threatened to shoot Melton if they were fired on. They proceeded about three hundred yards, when a citizen shot one of the McDonalds dead, and Melton at the instant broke loose and ran, receiving three bullets as he went. A general fusilade was then begun, and when it was over the three ruffians were dead, and two citizens were slightly wounded.

An Enthusiastic Endorsement.

GORHAM, N. H., July 14, 1879.

Gentlemen—Whether you are, I don't know; but I thank the Lord and feel grateful to you to know that in this world of adulterated medicines there is one compound that proves and does all it advertises to do, and more. Four years ago I had a slight shock of palsy, which unnerved me to such an extent that the least excitement would make me shake like the ague. Last May I was induced to try Hop Bitters. I used one bottle, but did not see any change; another did so change my nerves that they are now as steady as they ever were. It used to take both hands to write, but now my good right hand writes this. Now, if you continue to manufacture as honest and good an article as you do, you will accumulate an honest fortune, and confer the greatest blessing on your fellow-men that was ever conferred on mankind.

TIM BURCH.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

Guiteau's Trial.

On the 3d inst., soon after the recess of the court, District Attorney Corkhill announced the conclusion of the evidence on the part of the government. Mr. Scoville told the court he was somewhat surprised by this action of the prosecution, and after the calling of one or two witnesses for the defence none of whom gave testimony of any importance, and several of whom were not allowed to testify at all, the court adjourned.

On the 4th, at one o'clock, Mr. Scoville said the defence had finished, and the court adjourned to the 7th.

Shipping Disasters in 1881.

The total losses of vessels belonging to, or bound to or from ports in the United States, for the year 1881, included 434 craft of all kinds, the monthly totals being as follows: January 44, February 36, March 42, April 33, May 30, June 15, July 12, August 32, September 27, October 46, November 49, December 28. The list comprised 24 steamers, 44 ships, 139 barks, 46 brigs, and 181 schooners; and their total value, exclusive of cargoes, was $10,195,240.

The number of vessels belonging to, or bound to or from ports in the United States, reported totally lost and missing during the past month is twenty-eight, of which fourteen were wrecked, three were burned, four were abandoned and two foundered, and five are missing. The list comprises three steamers, two ships, thirteen barks, four brigs, and six schooners, and their total value, exclusive of cargoes, is estimated at $1,116,080. Of these, the steamers and ships were all British, as were also six of the barks; two of the barks and all the schooners were American.

The St. Albans Crusade.

A despatch of the 3d inst. from St. Albans, Vt., says it may be confidently be predicted that "the prohibition crusade here will completely end in a days. The so-called citizens' working committee, which has been conducting the crusade, acted under a paper, which was numerously signed, pledging support from the personal efforts and means of the signers to aid in enforcing the prohibitory law. The committee has, within a few days, made an assessment on the signers for expenses, and many refuse to pay, while many have withdrawn their names, not having anticipated the closing of the hotels, and other serious results. So far as can be ascertained, very little practical results have been attained. Liquor is easily obtained, and more drunkenness has been seen on the streets in the last two weeks than for a long time previous. A petition circulated to-day, asking the hotel proprietors to reopen their houses, was generally signed by business men. There is a strong sentiment against the measures that have been taken, on the ground that they have been unlawful and extreme. Business has been seriously injured, and business men are severe in their denunciations. The hotels will undoubtedly reopen very soon."

News and Notes.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York have paid the heirs of Dexter H. Follett, late of Boston, an endowment policy of twenty thousand dollars.

Mr. Gibbons, of Ashland, Ky., who was suspected of killing his children and Miss Thomas, and setting fire to his house, returned from Virginia on the 2d inst., and offered such proof that he was elsewhere on the night of the murder, that he was not even arrested.

W. E. Graham, who killed, robbed and burned Philip Egley at Venango, Ellsworth county, Ill., on the night of Dec. 28th, was hung by a mob in front of the court house Jan. 2d. W. C. Rose would have met with the same fate, but was taken from the jail and secured by the sheriff during the excitement.

By an adroit swindle involving bogus cable despatches from Spain to Cuba, and forgery of several names, the banking house of J. M. Borjes & Co. at Havana recently lost $500,000. Of this sum, however, a large part has been recovered, and the principal swindler is in prison at Havana.

A small piece of planed board was picked up on Hurricane island, near Rockland, Me., Jan. 2d, on one side of which was written "John A. Nauss, schooner Wild Pigeon, Gloucester, Mass.," and on the other, "Henry Vandr oo', Walt am, Mass.," a d th word "cross."

Three cases of smallpox were on the 3d inst. discovered in one family at Lakeview, a suburban town of Chicago, Ill. The father is an expressman, who has been driving about the city during the three weeks that the scourge has been afflicting his family.

Barque Josie Troop, owned in the British provinces, from Trapani for Gloucester, Mass., with salt, was spoken early in December south of Sable island, and had not arrived at her port of destination on the 3d inst. It is feared she has gone down, with all hands.

The steamship Moravian, wrecked on Mud island, is reported to have broken up.

A sunken wreck off Point Judith has been identified as the schooner Sarah E. Blake, of Taunton, Mass., Briggs master. The steamer Newport and an unknown schooner were in collision off Point Judith on the night of the 1st inst., and it is supposed this is the schooner.

The schooner J. Ricardo Jova was totally wrecked on Watchprigue shoals, off the Virginia coast, Jan. 3d. She was loaded with railroad iron.

On Tuesday, Dec. 27th, the United States mail left Jackson, La., for Clinton. In due time the mule came along, but bridleless and without a rider. Investigation was made and the rider, an old negro, was found dead by the roadside, shot through the heart. He was the grandfather of a colored boy who was shot and robbed of the mail some three weeks ago. The mail bag, containing $600 in drafts and $10 in currency, has not been found. Ed. Johnson, colored, who shot the mail carrier three weeks previously, probably killed the old man.

The Russian expedition to the mouth of the river Lena, organized by the Imperial Society of Geography, which left St. Petersburg on the 28th of December, will pass a year on the coasts of the frozen ocean.

The London News states that it is estimated that a fourth of the Irish tenants who need protection have come under the operation of the land act, and that competent persons believe the whole question will be settled in two years.

The January term of the supreme judicial court for York county convened at Saco on the 3d inst., Judge Barrows presiding. There are 378 cases upon the old docket, and the new entries are small. The cases marked for trial indicate a short term. John S. Derby was appointed county attorney by the court.

The will of the late Cornelius Sweetser was probated at Biddeford, Jan. 3d. Among the public bequests are $10,000 to the Thomaston academy; the income of $15,000 for public and school libraries; $5,000 for a Sweetser school fund; $12,000 to the York institute, for various purposes; the income of $5,000 to the Saco & Biddeford Old Ladies' home; $10,000 for a public park in Saco; the income of $5,000 for charitable purposes; the income of $5,000 to various churches in Saco, for books; the income of $3,000 to be applied to the payment of the minister of the Calvin Baptist church in Saco; the income of $1,000 to the Baptist churches of Billerica and Wakefield, Mass.; the income of $5,000 to the Baptist Sabbath school of Saco. The residue of the property, after the bequests are paid, goes to found an orphan asylum. The estate amounts to about $250,000.

—Be graceful if you can; but if you can't be graceful, be true.

—He who throws out suspicion should at once be suspected himself.

—It is a queer phase of human nature that it is seldom affected by a desire for reformation except on the first day of January. It does not appear that this anniversary is any more convenient than one's birthday, Christmas, the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, Fast Day, or even St. Patrick's Day in the morning, but it is undoubtedly in much better repute than any or all of these. It is also noticeable that, just before the first of January, those who propose present asceticism to themselves are in the habit of indulging more excessively than any other time of the year. This, however, is not unreasonable, since thereby the mortifying of the flesh which follows is made to stand out more conspicuously.

Cuticura

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

ARTHRITIS. Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn st., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies, doctored continually; his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

KIDNEY DISEASES. F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he use the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SKIN DISEASES. Mrs. S. E. Whipple, Detroit, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered painfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Medicinal Toilet Soap, 25c.; Cuticura Medicinal Shaving Soap, 15c.; in bars for barbers and large consumers, 50c.

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York.

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

A SCRAP OF HISTORY.

One of the old homesteads of the town of Hampton has recently passed from the family name—a name in which it had been held from the first settlement of the town in 1639. The first house built on the place was burned in 1677. By the help of the inhabitants of the town, another house was immediately put up, and stood for 105 years; this house was taken down in 1782, and another one built on the same site, the third house being still standing and in a good state of preservation. During the 242 years there have been forty-four births and nineteen deaths on the place, of persons bearing the family name. Four of the deaths were of infants, two of persons of adult age, and thirteen of persons of mature years; the average age of the thirteen was seventy-nine years, and the average age of eleven of the thirteen was eighty-four years. Mrs. Susan Page, the last to hold the place in its old name, died last April at an advanced age; her two daughters, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Gotchell, now hold it.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Instruction was held on Wednesday evening, the 4th inst. Present, Mayor Sise, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Knight, Messrs. Sherburne, Gardner, Knight, Newton, Vaughan, Locke, George, Goodrich and Pender.

It was voted "That hereafter no persons be employed as substitutes in our public schools unless such have appeared at a duly advertised examination of applicants for positions as teachers in the Portsmouth schools, or are graduates of our own high school."

The committee of district two reported that they had placed Miss Nellie Taylor as a substitute in the vacancy caused by the promotion of Miss Flagg, which action was approved.

The introduction of the Franklin Composition and Exercise Blanks into the public schools was proposed and adopted, and the purchase of five hundred of these blanks was ordered.

On recommendation of the committee on text books, it was voted to introduce Knox & Whitney's Language Lessons.

Emil C. Pfeiffer was unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy in the Woodbury school. Mr. Pfeiffer has been filling the position as a substitute since September 1881.

Voted that a committee be appointed to revise the regulations. Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Goodrich were appointed such committee.

The secretary was directed to transfer two maps of New Hampshire from district one to district three.

Adjourned.

MARINE DISASTERS.

On Monday night of this week, during the snow storm, the fishing schooner Alabama, of Marblehead, Mass., struck on Rye ledge, but soon floated off, when she was found to be leaking about twenty-five hundred strokes an hour. She came into this port, and was hauled up at one of the wharves at Kittery Point. On examination the leak was discovered in her garboard, and the necessary repairs are being made.

On Tuesday night of this week, at about eleven o'clock, the schooner Iris was running in from Boon island ledge when she encountered a heavy snow squall, and in going into York struck on the Black rocks, which lie in that harbor near the shore. She struck head on, going up about four feet on the rocks, and staving a hole in her bottom; she afterward made two heavy thumps, knocking her fore foot and keel off, crushing her whole starboard side in, and breaking off her deck timbers, which came up through the deck.

The crew immediately put the anchor out to hold her, when she heeled over, and filled. They then took the boats and went to the schooner Breeze, which was anchored a short distance away, for assistance, but nothing could be done, as the Iris was by this time a total wreck. Her crew returned to the vessel and stripped her of her sails, which were taken on board the Breeze; the latter vessel next day bringing the shipwrecked crew and what they had been able to save, to this city. Capt. Hiltz remained at York to save something more from the wreck if possible.

The crew lost all their clothing, and two of the boats were destroyed. At the time of the wreck the schooner had on board 4000 lbs. of fish, the whole being washed away. The snow-squall lasted but half an hour, and after it had passed off the weather was clear as a bell.

The Iris was of about eighteen tons, and owned by Capt. Abraham Brooks of Eliot; she was over thirty years old, and uninsured.

BUTCHERS' CONVENTION.

A convention of butchers was held in Dover on the 3d inst., fourteen delegates from this city attending the same. The following were passed by the Portsmouth delegates in secret session:

Resolved, That we extend our utmost thanks to the officials of Dover, to our comrades in trade, and to the citizens in general for their hospitality and courtesy in extending to us the freedom of their beautiful city.

That the energy displayed in their various manufactories, in the several branches of trade, and in their commerce meets with our hearty wishes for their continued and increased prosperity.

That our warmest regards go out to the railroad officials who attended us, for free transportation (at eighty cents each) and for exhibiting to us the train of refrigerating cars filled with the various kinds of meat and poultry, kept in such an excellent state of preservation, thus placing this important avenue of trade in its true significance before the people.

That our farewell be attended with the hope that in our next reunion the festivities and good results of this convention may be rehearsed with undiminished numbers.

The next convention will probably be held in this city.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 4; Buff rd J.

Daniel Hurley, charged with drunkenness, pleaded guilty, and was fined $3, costs being taxed at $6.90.

There will be a Gospel Temperance meeting at Bow Mission hall this (Thursday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock; all are invited to attend.

A despatch from Gloucester, Mass., dated Jan. 3d, says: "The Ipswich bay cod fishery is proving a failure this season. Several vessels hauled their nets on Sunday, to find that they had taken but few fish. The schooner Northern Eagle had thirty-six nets down, and took only seven fish in number; schooner Emma A. Osier took but five fish, and the largest amount taken by any vessel of the fleet was 500 lbs. Last year at this season this field was being profitably worked, the Northern Eagle on one trip, the second week in January, taking 30,000 lbs." The Northern Eagle and Emma A. Osier each landed several large fares at this port in the early part of last year, the latter's best fare being nearly 30,000 lbs. This season the best fares landed at this port have been in the vicinity of 10,000 lbs., and even such fares have been few.

Mr. Daniel Parker Spinney, of Eliot, who raises large quantities of pears, grapes, currants and small fruits generally, on Tuesday remembered our reporter with a basket of delicious Anjou and Lawrence pears. We know they were delicious because Mr. Spinney did not forget the editor and printers, all of whom express decided approval of his pears and of his method of disposing of them.

Mr. Henry L. Harlow will on Monday evening, Jan. 23d, give a grand vocal and instrumental concert in Music hall, and proposes to make it even better than his last previous one, if possible. Besides an orchestra of about eighteen pieces (all selected professionals) he will be assisted by Miss Caldwell of Newburyport, reader; Mr. Lee of Boston, tenor—formerly known as "the boy soprano;" Mr. Frank Gilder of Boston, pianist; and Mr. C. F. Eastman of Manchester, violinist. In addition to all this talent, Miss Nellie Locke of this city, soprano, will on this occasion make her first appearance in concert.

The arrivals of fish on Wednesday, the 4th inst., were the schooners Grace Choate, with 2000 lbs.; Mary E. Smith, 2000 lbs.; Breeze, 1800 lbs.; Nettie Adams, 700 lbs.; Albert Woodbury, 2000 lbs. The Mary S. Hontvet was reported to be in the lower harbor with 3000 lbs. of haddock.

Letters received in this city on Tuesday of this week from persons on board the U. S. S. Lancaster, at Villafranche, France, state that Matthew Stevens, better known in this vicinity as Mat Mc-Murphy, master-at-arms of the Lancaster, jumped overboard one night recently, after the vessel's arrival out, and has not been heard of since, whether he swam ashore or was drowned not being known.

Messrs. Ayers & Locke are disposing of the remainder of their stock of ladies' winter garments at prices very advantageous to purchasers. The "mark-down" is very large.

Dr. Stewart, one of the proprietors of the York & Portsmouth line of stages, says the thermometer in York at seven o'clock on Tuesday morning, the 3d inst., stood at three degrees below zero. The doctor's head covering the year round is a straw hat, and he had one on when driving the stage from York to this city and back on the 4th.

Henry Downs of Berwick, who was severely injured by the bridge accident on the Boston & Maine railroad, was a brother of George Downs, a freight brakeman who was killed in Rollinsford, N. H., some months ago, through coming in contact with an overhead bridge while he was on top of his train.

—The lady physicians of New York are said to make, on an average, $8000 per year.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the parts affected, allaying irritation, giving relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the throat troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians and always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for an entire generation, they have attained well merited rank among the few standard remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cents a box everywhere. The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—London Lancet.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fully and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

Thousands of Copies are sent by mail, securely sealed and post-paid, to all parts of the world, every month, upon receipt of price, $1.25. Address

An Interesting Account.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Books, Magazines, Etc

The "Eclectic Magazine" of foreign literature, for January, has an admirable steel engraving, "The First Call," which delineates the call of a young man upon a mother and daughter at New Year's. He has his cup of coffee resting on his knee. The portrayal is excellent in every respect.

The literary contents of the number are also interesting in the highest degree, and comprise "Naseby and Yorktown," by Prof. Goldwin Smith; "Alive and Yet Dead: Some Passages in the Life of a French Convict;" "Our Astronomers Royal," by Richard A. Proctor; "Despair: A Dramatic Monologue," by Alfred Tennyson; "Sheep-hunting in the Mountains," by the Earl of Dunraven; "Weather and Morals," by Oliver M. Wavertree; "German Student Life," by A. H. Baynes; "Io Victis," by W. W. Story; "City Life in the United States," by a Non Resident American; "Kith and Kin," a novel, by Jessie Fothergill, chapters xxix-xxxiii. "The Physical Revolution of the Nineteenth Century," by F. R. Conder; "Country Life in Italy;" "Village Bells;" "On the Formation of the Tails of Comets," by M. Faye; "The Geysers of the Yellowstone," by Prof. Archibald Geikie; "Jocosa Lyra," by Austin Dobson; Literary Notices; Foreign Literary Notes; Science and Art; Miscellany.

This is the commencement of a new volume. It offers a favorable time for new subscriptions, and as a further inducement the publisher will send to all subscribers remitting their subscriptions directly to the office a beautiful large steel engraving of "Marguerite," which is alone worth the subscription price for the year, the price of the engraving at the art stores being $5.00.

Published by E. R. Pelton, No. 25 Bond street, New York. Terms, $5 per year; single copy, forty-five cents; trial subscription for three months, $1.

The Eclectic reproduces from foreign magazines such articles as are likely to be found interesting and instructive to American readers. Its selections are from all the leading periodicals in England and Scotland, from which the Eclectic furnishes to its readers a monthly reprint of one hundred and fifty pages from the ablest writers in the British empire.

The Springfield Union says a peculiar disturbance occurred at South Deerfield, Mass., the other day, during the funeral of George Grushen. Mrs. Ellen Ruddock lives in a house that was the property of her father-in-law, Edward Ruddock. This house the Methodists now claim, Mrs. Ruddock living in it to keep possession while the title is being settled by the courts. F. Fisher and A. Smith, trustees for the Methodists, while Mrs. Ruddock was in church entered the premises and went to work setting out the furniture and taking full possession. Mrs. Ruddock, learning what they were doing, hastened to the house, procured an axe, broke in the door, which was locked against her, and ordered the men out. They went, amid the cheers of the small boys.

The two boards of examination heretofore existing in the life saving service have been consolidated.

—"Do you think there is any danger in my going to Blankville?" asks Brown; "they have the small-pox there, they say." "As I never know you to refrain from taking anything that came within your reach," replied Fogg, "I think you had better keep away from Blankville."

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork. —Times.

That poor bedridden, invalid wife, sister, mother, or daughter, can be made the picture of health by a few bottles of Hop Bitters. Will you let them suffer? when so easily cured.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never chiefful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
Never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or entered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 4|23

News and Notes.

The calendar issued by Mr. S. R. Niles, the popular advertising agent of Boston, for distribution among his friends and patrons, is the most artistic piece of work in that line produced for this year, being adorned with a number of beautifully engraved scenes on the Nile.

It having been stated that the late bridge disaster on the Boston and Maine railroad was "the first that has happened to a passenger train on that road in forty-two years," G. H. Hammond of Boston writes to the Post as follows: "How about the Charles river accident, sixteen years ago, when a passenger train ran into the open draw-bridge, carrying a baggage and smoking car to the river bottom, drowning the baggage master and five passengers? I was on the train."

John Payson, a wealthy farmer of Union, Me., on the 2d inst. cut his throat with a jackknife, and is not expected to recover. He is eighty-nine years old, and has been suffering from ill health.

Great excitement prevails at Ottumwa, Ia., over the alleged discovery of gold and silver in paying quantities near that town.

The republicans of Georgia it is said will fuse with the independent democrats, and try to defeat the regular democrats, with Congressman Felton as gubernatorial candidate.

The St. Johnsbury, Vt., insurance agent, E. D. Hopkins, who was recently convicted of larceny and convicted twice of forgery, has gone mad.

Nellie Underwood, eighteen years old, of Whiting, Vt., was secretly married last spring to William Bacon, a student in the Granville (N. Y.) military school. She is now dangerously ill from child-birth, and has revealed her marriage, but her husband does not come near her.

Miss Ruth A. Hall, the mother of two children and an inmate of the poor house at South Amherst, Mass., for many years, has confessed to setting a fire which burned the institution on Sunday evening, Jan. 1st, and has been held in $2,500.

Cornelius O'Neil, a brakeman on the Fall River railway, slipped and fell under a car Jan. 4th, two wheels passing over his body, killing him instantly. Deceased was about thirty years old, and leaves a mother, widow and one child in New Bedford, Mass.

Mr. C. K. Tibbetts of Boston was one of those badly injured at the Cole's Corner bridge accident on the Boston & Maine railroad on the 2d inst. A Portland Advertiser reporter found him after the accident in a farm-house kitchen near the wreck. He sat in two chairs, his legs stretched out in one, leaning his head against the wall. One leg was badly crushed, his right arm was disabled, his head was so thickly bound with linen that his mouth and one eye were all that remained visible, yet under these discouraging facts, the philosophic fellow pulled away at a cigar as though he enjoyed it, as no doubt he did. He could not speak aloud, but he huskily whispered that there was no use to cry when he could just as well laugh.

Mayor-elect How of Haverhill, Mass., received a new year's gift in the shape of a finger ring from his mother, Mrs. Phebe How of Newburyport, aged ninety-five years. Accompanying it was a note closing with these words: "I pray that you may have wisdom to direct, and strength to perform your duty with credit to yourself and satisfaction to the people."

Jabez Smith of Fall River, Mass., jumped overboard from the training ship New Hampshire at Newport, R. I., Jan. 4th, and was drowned. He was a member of the band employed on the ship, and had been on a spree for some time. He was taken alive from the water, but died immediately afterward. He was about forty years of age and leaves a family.

Two very bad boys have been attracting attention in Providence, R. I. Addison W. Ray, aged twenty-four, has been convicted of burning his mother's barn. The boy's father, mother and twin brother testified against him. Young Ray has served two sentences at the state prison already. The other boy referred to is Lindsay J. Heagland, aged sixteen, a white boy, who has eloped with a colored woman ten years his senior, and married her. A colored minister at Providence refused to perform the ceremony, but an Attleboro minister was glad to do it for a reasonable fee. The young man is very proud of his bride, who is short, thick-set and as black as ebony. Heagland's parents are respectable people.

AROUND HOME.

The steam dredge and scows have been taken to Russell & Odion's wharf to lie up for the winter.

The schooner A. C. Newhall, of Gloucester, Mass., bound from that port for Grand Menan for a cargo of frozen herring, when near Boon Island on the night of the 1st inst. was caught in the heavy snow-squalls, and lost flying-jib-boom, flying jib, foregaff and foresail. She put back to Gloucester, where she arrived on Wednesday, the 4th inst.

The schooner Ambrose, which arrived at this port on Saturday, Dec. 31st, from Eastport, Me., with 90,000 frozen herring, was obliged to take them to Boston, there being no market for them at this port.

A shipwrecked crew passed over the Eastern railroad from Gloucester, Mass., to Portland, Me., on the 4th inst., having been furnished free transportation by the railroad. They belonged to the schooner Dorado, of Bucksport, Me., which sprang a leak about twenty miles off the Isles of Shoals in the storm of Sunday night, the 1st inst., while on the passage from Orland, Me., to Boston, with brick, and sank soon after being abandoned. The men were taken off the wreck by the schooner Frank E. Smith, and carried into Gloucester.

The Boston Gl be says: "Oliver Hallock and Ross Moulton, freight conductors on the Eastern railroad, have been arrested at Portland for stealing several hundred dollars' worth of goods from the cars. The stealing has been going on for two years."

The schooner News Boy, of Gloucester, arrived at this port on Wednesday, the 4th inst., to fit out for fishing. Capt. Scott Osler, who was master of the schooner Breeze last winter, has the News Boy in charge.

In the CHRONICLE of Jan. 5th we credited our friend Dr. Stewart of York, part proprietor of the York and Portsmouth line of passenger and mail coaches, with wearing a straw hat the year round; on that same morning, when the stage arrived from York village, the doctor was noticed to have on a most consummately utter (we believe that is about the proper kind of talk, now-a-days) fur cap which could be made to reach his shoulders—just the thing for cold weather.

Mr. Isaac Phillips, Jr., of Kittery Point, who has for some time been suffering in health, was surprised on Wednesday evening, Jan. 4th, by a large number of neighbors and friends, who made an unceremonious call, carrying an abundant banquet with them, and after spending the evening very pleasantly in social intercourse departed, leaving behind many substantial tokens of their friendly interest and sympathy.

The steamer Fearless was taken off the route between this city and Kittery Point on Monday of this week, for repairs; she commenced running again on Thursday.

It was reported from York, last Thursday, that the temperature there on the previous day was fourteen below zero.

Beautiful Complexion.

A New York correspondent, apropos of arsenic eating in that city, says:

A chat with one or two prominent chemists and physicians has given me some idea of the extent to which this pernicious and dangerous pastime is indulged in.

It has its foundation, of course, in the desire for beauty so natural in every woman, and how important a part an exquisite complexion plays in the general appearance is recognized when we note how easily the girl wins the title of pretty, even if her features are poor and her dress simple, if she has a pure, soft, white skin, that enables her to wear either the colors of blonde or brunette with impunity, and to defy the rough caresses of the sun and wind; while another girl with well-cut features and all the advantages of toilet is doomed to the cruel adjective of "plain" on account of a sallow or pimpled complexion, which neither powder or rouge used in decent quantities can conceal.

To gain what nature has denied, women resort to every conceivable device, from the use of simple lemon-juice and glycerine up to the elaborate compounds imported from France, and expensive treatment of the specialists who promise to make lilies and roses bloom on a satin-smooth skin. There are a great many Mme. Rachaels on a small scale in New York, and each of them has her own particular receipt for beautifying the epidermis.

One woman has a place on Fifth avenue, where she gives Roman baths of asses' milk to her lady customers for the trifling sum of $15 each, and she has enough patronage to be making money fast. A firm on Broadway that has the handsomest business parlors in the city, has made a fortune out of a peculiar sort of a mask to be worn over the face at night. A stout dame on Thirty-third street uses the bread and milk method, and treats her patrons in her own house. Others advertise their ability to supply a new skin, which means they will remove the old one by powerful washes. The most "toney" of these skin doctors live in elegant style, and make a profound mystery of the lotions they employ.

Most of them are artful enough to have one or two young girls in attendance, gifted with natural beautiful complexions, but really to swear that they are the result of madame's "balm," or "bloom." One of them, who has a place near Union square, employs a handsomely dressed young lady with a brilliant complexion to thank her in the presence of fresh customers for her new skin.

Yet in spite of all this the only women who have beautiful complexions are those born with them.

To say nothing of the compounds made up in this country, and which have reaped fortunes for their originators, cosmetics are imported in thousands of dollars' worth at a time through the year, and many of them contain white-lead and arsenic in such large proportions as to be positively dangerous, and not infrequently fatal in their results. The worst of experimenting with the complexion is that when a woman begins she finds a kind of fascination in it that will not allow her to leave off, and the country girl who begins by daubing her forehead and chin with flour, and rubbing her cheeks with mullein-leaf, as a city lady winds up with Roman baths and Parisian lotions.

Used to be a Boy Himself.

The other day a show came to Little Rock and was shamefully imposed upon by Uncle Isom. While standing near the tent he saw a crowd of low-spirited boys grieving on account of financial depression.

"Does yer youngsters want to go to der show?" he asked.

The boys responded in noisy chorus. "Well, come on, den. I uster be a chile myself, an' unlike de most of men, I hain't forgot it. Count dese boy," he added, to the doorkeeper. The man began counting, and by the time the boys had passed in Isom was walking around, talking to acquaintances from the plantations.

"Here," said the showman, "give me twenty tickets."

"What for? Does yer think me a lottery agent."

"You passed in twenty boys, and I want the tickets or the money."

"I doan owe yer no tickets, and I doan owe yer no money. I didn't tell yer ter pass de boys in. I said count 'em. I'se always heard that showmen is good on rithmetic an' I wanted ter satisfy myself. Yer say dat thar was twenty boys I doan' spute yer word, case I ain't no mathertician. Spose I take a lot ob boys ter de cashier ob a bank an' axes him ter count 'em, does dat signify dat the cashier is gwine ter pass 'em into de money room? No, sah. Go back to yer tent; I sees a crowd goin' in."

The showman, remembering that he had left the entrance ungarded, turned, and Isom walked away.—Little Rock Gazette.

—A Quaker's advice to his son on his wedding day: "When thee went a-courting, I told thee to keep thy eyes wide open; now that thee is married, I tell thee to keep them half shut."

—"Ah, what has become of your son? Haven't seen him lately." "He's attached to a banking house as cashier." "Attached? Oh, I see—they tie 'em up so that they can't run away. Capital idea."

—"My wife," remarked a prominent manufacturer, "never attends auctions. She went once, before we were married, and seeing a friend at the opposite side of the room, nodded politely, whereupon the auctioneer knocked down a patent cradle, and asked her whether she wished it delivered."

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millions of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, Jan. 5th, Mayor Sise in the chair:

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

The annual report of City Solicitor Hackett was accepted, and placed on file.

A letter was received from Oliver Ayers, clerk of the Aqueduct Co., in which he stated that the subject of selling the property and rights of the corporation had been referred to the directors. The mayor said he had communicated with the directors, asking on what terms the property would be disposed of to the city. The matter was referred to Aldermen Green and Stavers, as a committee, to report.

The trustees of Christ church asked the co-operation of the city in the improving of the grounds at the church. Referred to the committee on streets. A dispute between the trustees and Supt. Shannon, of the city farm, as to the quantity of stone taken from the farm, was also referred.

Ald. Vaughan, from the committee on the north millpond nuisance, reported a recommendation that whatever be done be referred to the next committee on appropriations. After discussion, the committee was excused from further considering the matter, and a new committee was appointed, consisting of Ald. Martin, Stavers and Green, with the mayor added.

A communication was received from President Phillips of the Eastern railroad, in which he said the propositions of the city of Portsmouth had been referred to the finance committee of the railroad, and that he thought the road would prefer to lease the propety rather than to sell it. He wished to know what the city desired in the premises, and it would be laid before the board of directors.

A favorable report was returned concerning the claim of Walter Harriman for services in the matter of fixing the tolls at Portsmouth bridge. Report accepted, and bill ordered paid.

A question was raised as to the action of the board in declaring illegal the election of Michael S. Long and Edwin Underhill on the 11th of August last. The city clerk submitted a resolution on the matter; Ald. Green moved to refer it to the city solicitor, but no action was taken.

Ald. Caswall asked how many men were employed on the streets at present; answer—four teamsters.

The committee on lights were authorized to move the light on the corner of Pleasant and State streets to such point near Brimstone hill as they may think best.

The mayor announced that it was necessary to appoint two supernumerary policemen. Ald. Green thought they should not be appointed until they were needed. Ald. Caswell said this (the board) was the most boyish place that he ever got into, or ever heard of; it was "police" every night. The city marshal had told him he didn't want any more officers; and it looked bad to strangers to see so many men in a small city go ing about with badges on. He moved that no more be appointed, but the motion was not sustained. Ald. Green was anxious to know if the supernumeraries all had to wear the new hats; but he did not find out.

Proceeded to ballot for two supernumeraries: Whole number of votes, six; Michael E. Long had six, Edwin Underhill five, John E. Milton one,—and Messrs Long and Underhill were declared elected.

Ald. Green said he had seen it stated in one of the Portsmouth daily papers, tha lumber had been piled in the high school yard. The mayor said he knew nothing of it; neither did the city clerk, nor either of several aldermen of whom he had enquired; there were two reporters present, and he would ask them if they knew anything about the matter; he understood that the statement appeared in the CHRONICLE. The reporters answered that they didn't know anything about it, either; but the CHRONICLE reporter added that he had been informed that the boards were surreptitiously removed immediately on the appearance of the item.

Then the board adjourned.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

The Methodist Episcopal church at Hampton was dedicated on Thar day, the 5th inst., the exercises commencing at two o'clock in the afternoon. The order of exercises was as follows:

Singing of an anthem, by a choir from East Salisbury, Mass.;

Introductory address, from the "Discipline," by Rev. J. F. Spaulding, pastor of the church;

Hymn 862 in "Hymnal," read by Rev. J. S. Frye of Seabrook, and sung by the congregation—tune "Missionary Chant;"

Prayer by Rev. W. M. Ayers of Newburyport, Mass.;

First scripture lesson, by Rev. C. H. Chase of Merrimacport, Mass.

Second scripture lesson, by Rev. J. W. Walker of Exeter;

Hymn 865, read by Rev. G D. Garland of Newcastle, and sung by the choir;

Sermon by Rev. B. K. Pierce, D. D., of Boston, editor of Zion's Herald;

Reading of the 122d Psalm, by Rev. W. E. Bennett of Greenland;

Presentation of the house by the trustees;

Declaration and dedicatory prayer, by Rev. G. J. Judkins, presiding elder of the Dover district;

Hymn 868, read by Rev. F. P. Wormwood of Hampton, and sung by the congregation to the tune "Portuguese Hymn;"

Benediction, by Rev. Dr. Pierce.

The services were interesting and impressize, and the congregation a large one.

A PORTSMOUTH-BUILT SHIP MISSING.

The ship Constantine sailed from New York for London on Nov 14th, with a cargo of 7,800 barrels of refined petroleum. Since then no tidings have been received about her, and fears are entertained as to her safety. She was commanded and partly owned by Capt. Wm. E. Culdrey, of New York. John Zittlossen of the same city owning the other part of her. Her cargo was valued at $35,000, and insured; the ship, on which there was no insurance, was valued at $36,000. The Constantine registered 1280.52 tons, and was built in this city in 1850 by the late George Raynes, for Grinnell, Minturn & Co. of New York; and for more than thirty years has shown by her fortunate career of what kind of material Portsmouth ships were built, and how the Portsmouth mechanics put the materials together.

ROAD CASE IN RYE.

A hearing was had before the county commissioners at the town hall in Rye on Thursday last, upon the petition referred to the commissioners by the supreme court, for the widening and straightening of a part of the Sandy Beach road. Quite a number of witnesses were examined. The ancient town records, showing the laying out of a part of the road in 1729, were produced. The opinion seemed to be general that it would be at all events an improvement to straighten and widen the road; and although the town's witnesses maintained it would be an improvement rather than a needed convenience, others maintained that it was nec ssary for the public accommodation to make the change. Col. Wm. H. Hackett appeared for the petitioners, and Hon. Charles E. Batchelder represented the town.

There is to be a "grand Spiritualistic revival" at Franklin theatre on Sunday evening. The advertisment in another column tells of it.

Mr. C. Morris Tredick has not become a member of the firm of F. Nickerson & Co., as stated a day or two since, but of the firm of L. Pickett & Co., formerly Pickert, DeButts & Co.—Times.

The frost-vapor rising from the river on Thursday morning last was more dense and rose higher than at any time for years past, and objects were visible but a very short distance. The Whalesback fog-horn was tooting most of the forenoon

The sleighing about town has been very fair since the snow of the 1st inst.; but in the surrounding country it is not much to boast of, snow drifts and bare spots alternating with disgusting regularity in many places. For all this, sleighs can get along very fairly, provided the occupants are not too lazy to get out at the bare spots.

The trawls belonging to the wrecked schooner Iris were left set in the vicinity of Boon island when the vessel started on what proved to be her last run into port. As no vessel could be obtained on Thursday to go after the gear, it was supposed it would all be lost. The anchors, chain and cable of the Iris have been secured. The remainder of the wreck, including her hull, masts and rigging, was sold on Thursday for twenty-five dollars.

At the annual meeting of Piscataqua Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., held on the evening of Jan. 2d, the following officers were elected: N. G., Herman W. Oxford; V. G., Stacy Hall; recording secretary, William W. Cotton; permanent secretary, Oliver H. Locke; treasurer, William G. Billings; warden, John J. Call; trustees, Joseph H. Foster, Josiah F. Adams and Charles H. Mendum.

The schooner Storm King on Thursday brought in 1700 lbs. of fish, and the E. A. Williams 1500 lbs.

The annual meetings of the Porstmouth Athenæum and Portsmouth Aqueduct Co. were held on the 4th inst., last year's officers being elected by both organizations.

The thermometer at the CHRONICLE office, at four o'clock Thursday morning, indicated two degrees above zero; at five o'clock it was one below, and at six o'clock four below. At the residence of Mr. John Christie, on Middle street, the temperature was fifteen below not far from sunrise, and at seven o'clock the thermometer at the Eldredge brewery marked fourteen below.

Messrs. Leach & Lyds on, at their shop on Fleet street, on one day this week attended to the shoeing of seventy-four horses, and to fifty-six the next day.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Heavy Failure.

The largest failure ever known in the state of Maine is that of J. Winslow & Co., of Portland, just announced, for $182,000. There are $92,000 in accounts and $90,000 in unsecured bills. The failure results from endeavoring to carry on a gigantic business enterprise with too small a capital. The company was organized two years ago under English laws, with a capital of $299,000. To this, during the last year, were added eight new factories, costing $50,000. The company owned fifteen corn and five lobster packing factories in Maine, and fourteen lobster factories in the provinces. The entire property has been attached by Boston and New York parties, whose bills have been dishonored. Samuel May & Co., Boston, attach for $10,000, and N. H. Dudley & Co., of New York sue for $20,000. Mortgages have been recorded in favor of H. K. Thurber & Co., New York, for $10,000, and the First National bank of Portland for $30,000. The latter are otherwise entirely secured. The balance of the creditors in Maine are farmers, who will lose nearly all last year's corn crop. Expecting a large yield of corn last year, the company made large outlays, but the crop was comparatively a failure. It has now on hand over $20,000 worth of empty cans. No basis of settlement has yet been decided on Rough on the Lawyers.

The clergyman who, on Friday, opened the supreme court at Auburn with prayer, rather astonished the lawyers, to say nothing of his honor. The divine closed his petition in this manner: "At last may we become dwellers of that better land where there are no lawyers, no judges, and no courts. Amen." The court hit its lips, the attorneys' ribs could hardly be restrained from shaking by the solemnity of the occasion, and business was not taken up until some time after prayer. The parson doubtless meant that on the other shore there would be no occasion for legal proceedings, but the lar persisted in misunderstanding that there were to be no lawyers among the elect.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

A Question of Mileage.

Jones held an execution against a farmer, and when he called for a settlement the agriculturist took him out into a big pasture and pointed out a wild steer as the particular piece of property to be levied upon. Jones chased the steer around for a while, and then sat down, and taking out his book began to write.

"What are you doing there?" asked the granger.

"Charging mileage," replied the constable, without looking up.

"Do I have it all to pay?" gasped the rancher

"You bet."

"Then take this tame heifer here. I can't stand any such game as that."

Of thirty-five prisoners in the Clarksville (Ark.) jail eleven are charged with murder in the first degree.

Coal oil or petroleum may be very nice for illuminating or lubricating purposes, but surely it is not the proper thing to cure a cough with. Dr. Bull's Cough syrup is looked upon as the standard cough remedy.

Arrested!

Charles A. Dailey, was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Shiefman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should steal it, he stated that his mother was troubled with rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped her, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offence he was put on probation.—N work News.

A farmer in Lewiston, Me., who did not approve of a youthful suitor for his daughter's hand, captured the young man on a recent Sunday evening when he escorted the girl home from church, locked him in the barn, and kept him there till Tuesday noon!

Best on Record.

I believe Ely's Cream Balm the best preparation for catarrh now on record. My patrons all speak well of it. I have sold one hundred and forty-four bottles in less than five months. I ordered another gross a week ago, and have sold twenty-one bottles from the second gross. It sells upon its merits. JOHN H. PHELPS, Druggist, Scranton, Pa. Jan. 28, 1880.

There is no doubt in our judgment that Ely's Cream Balm has intrinsic worth. We hear from many who are using it for catarrh, of wonderful cures being effected, and without hesitation offer it to our customers as the best remedy for its purposes in use. DYKEMAN & MOTT, Druggists, Catskill, N. Y. Dec. 27, 1880.

Price fifty cents.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There could be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. It is a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe attacks from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with nervalgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave me my case to despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have resumed my st ength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
Pain in mind use. I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; notials upon current topics; New Hampshire News: carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a waking skeleton. In this terrible sorely she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that too injured eye must be removed, she quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or sair." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to her nervous system, Kennedy's famous "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman, she rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1j23

For symptoms indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

There were twenty-five deaths in Campton in the year 1881 of citizens of the town, and two died in the town who were residents of other towns.

An Enthusiastic Endorsement.

GORHAM, N. H., July 14, 1879.

Gents—I know not you are, I don't know; but I thank the Lord and feel grateful to you to know that in this world of adulterated medicines there is one compound that proves and does all it advertises to do, and more. Four years ago I had a slight shock of palsy, which unnerved me to such an extent that the least excitement would make me shake like the ague. Last May I was induced to try Hop Bitters. I used one bottle, but did not see any change; another did so change my nerves that they are now as steady as they ever were. It used to take both hands to write, but now my good right hand writes this. Now, if you continue to manufacture as honest and good an article as you do, you will accumulate an honest fortune, and confer the greatest blessing on your fellow-men that was ever conferred on mankind.

SATURDAY, JAN. 7, 1882

Heavy Explosion.

At Oskaloosa, Iowa, Jan. 5th, five hundred kegs of powder belonging to the American Powder Co. went up in a terrific explosion, caused by some boys using the powder magazine as a target for a breech-loading rifle. John Phillips, son of the mayor, whose father drew the rifle as a prize on New Year's day, Gerald Joyce and John Steelman, were the boys engaged in the target exercise. All were instantly killed, being fearfully mangled and burned. They were thrown from fifty to two hundred yards from the magazine, and mutilated almost beyond recognition. The explosion caused great damage to windows, nearly all the plate glass fronts in the business quarter of the city being wrecked, while many houses in the south part of the city, farthest away from the magazine, suffered severely, the damage aggregating not less than $20,000. Many other persons were injured by falling glass and debris. The shock of the explosion was felt at Monroe, thirty miles from the scene of the disaster.

Shocking Affair.

During the funeral of a clergyman at Quincy, Ill., on the afternoon of the 5th inst., a panic took place in the church, which was crowded, and a terrible crush resulted. Men, women and children poured out of the doors leading from the main floor and gallaries into the hall leading to the street. All efforts to stop them were fruitless. The people were frantic, and would listen to nothing. In less than two minutes the doorway was blocked, and the scene that followed was indescribable. The women were thrown down and trampled upon, and their shrieks, combined with the shouting of the men, who seemed to be frightened out of their senses, were fearful. In ten minutes the doorway was blocked up, and during the greater portion of this time half a dozen women lay on the steps, under the feet of the frightened crowd. A few men who had recovered from the fright worked heroically to rescue the unfortunate women, and succeeded in extricating them from their perilous position. About forty persons were seriously hurt; six, all women, so badly that it is feared they cannot recover.

News and Notes.

Schooner Almon Bird, of Rockland, Me., from Windsor, N. S., for Alexandria, Va., with a cargo of plaster, was sunk by the storm of the 1st inst., her crew of eight men taking to a boat. The captain and five men were picked up on the morning of the 5th inst., on Jeffrey's, by the schooner Cora Lee, and taken into Gloucester, Mass.; there were two dead men in the boat, one having been thrown overboard; all the survivors are badly frozen, and two of them may not recover.

The murderers of the Gibbons children and Emma Thomas, at Ashland, Ky., have been lodged in jail at Maysville. They were taken on board a steamboat the Mountain Boy, and rushed down the river, the steamer being met at Riverton, twelve miles above Portsmouth, Ohio, by another steamer, which put on board a military company of seventy-five men, well supplied with ammunition. A large number of men from Ashland took possession of the steamer Mountain Girl, and chased the Mountain Boy as far as Riverton, where they learned of the arrival of the military guard, and gave up the chase. If ever lynch law was justifiable it would be in the case of these three wretches.

H. A. Washburn, a one-armed man, was knocked down, choked with a rope, and robbed, by a burglar in Reading, Mass., on the night of Jan. 4th. Mr. Washburn will probably die. The villain is unknown.

At the time of the accident on the Boston & Maine railroad four gentlemen in the smoking car were playing cards, one of them an oldish man. After the accident all made their way out, but the old man never relinquished his grasp on the hand he held. He bore it off safely through the wreck and ruin. It was a "flush."

On the 5th inst., in Salem, Mass., a slight fire was discovered at the horse railroad car works, caused by monkeys which were kept in a loft over the engine room. The monkeys had crowded hay under the floor in such a manner that it took fire. One monkey was badly burned, and it was found necessary to kill him. No alarm was given.

The Dublin Freeman denounces the publications purporting to come from America, recommending assassination and the use of dynamite.

It is announced from England that an attempt was made on the 5th inst. to enter the vault at Chiselhurst, for the purpose, it is believed, of stealing the bodies of Napoleon the Third and the Prince Imperial.

George Clifford of Greenwich, Mass., advertised in the papers for a wife, and received answers from one hundred and twenty women, all over the Union. He has just married one of the applicants, a Huntington woman.

A school teacher in Indiana was shot at by an adult pupil, and returned the shot, wounding his assailant. The circumstances are not stated, but the teacher has been engaged for another term by the school agents.

Reward of Industry.

A few days ago a poor friendless lad was seen wandering along the streets looking for employment. He presently halted in front of a butcher shop, and walking boldly up to the proprietor asked for a job. There was something in the young man's frank, honest countenance which struck the proprietor favorably.

"Not afraid of hard work?" he asked.

"No," responded the youth, with a trembling voice, "I have a mother and two sisters for me to care for by hard work."

He was put on trial at five dollars a week mauling leathery beef, and his sturdy frame and healthy constitution came in good play. One day an old lady came in to get some beef, and the proprietor told him to attend to the customer.

"A tender-loin steak, if you please," said she.

"Here's a cut that nobody but the first families get," responded the boy smilingly, as he sliced off four pounds of tough round and cast it with a heavy hand on the scales, jamming it down with a quick, dexterous movement, until the indicator marked seven pounds. Then he snatched it off before the delicate machinery, used to weigh beef, had time to recoil.

"Six pounds and a half, madam," he said, looking her square in the face with his clear, blue eyes.

The proprietor of the stall called him in, that night, and ran asking that he had watched his course carefully, added that as a reward for his quick, comprehensive grasp of the business he would raise his salary to $25 a week. This shows the advantage of doing everything well, and when the boy's mother back in New Jersey hears of his success there will be joy in that household. Young men starting out in life should learn to adapt themselves to their surroundings, and never let an opportunity pass.

She Kept the Secret.

Mrs. Del Valle of Santa Barbara, Cal., was an intimate friend of Mrs. Blanco. On her deathbed twenty years ago the latter gave Mrs. Del Valle $20,000, charging her solemnly to keep its possession a secret until Marie Blanco, then a baby, became twenty-one. Mrs. Blanco had no faith in banks or wills, and died satisfied that her daughter would receive the treasure, which was in the form of diamonds. Miss Blanco recently married on her twenty-first birthday, and among the wedding presents were the jewels. Mrs. Del Valle had kept the secret even from her husband.—Philadelphia Times.

A Homely Girl.

'Twas a dull, heavy evening; the light of the dozen gas jets along the streets only served to make the haze and fog visible. The clock just tinkled forth the hour of nine, and, with the usual remark that "twas time honest folks were abed," old Mesmimiggiggle trudged off up stairs, followed by the aged partner of his sorrows and searcher for his joys.

"Don't you young folks set up till the morning paper comes, this time," shouted she over the banister.

"No—o—o," replied a sweet voice from the parlor: "we won't, will we?" said she in an undertone.

"Not if I know it," was the reply. "If the old folks are going to be as sour as this I guess I'll skip now," and he reached for his hat.

"See here!" and the girl's eyes gleamed with earnestness, "you're the first fellow I've had, and you've got to put down that hat and sit up and court me in good shape. I'm homely, I know, but I can build better bread, iron a bosom shirt handsomer, knit a pair of stockings quicker, and make $1.37 go further than any girl in the village. Them's my recommendations."

"That suits me exactly," and the hat flew into the corner, and that evening the details of the wedding were all arranged. He depended on a girl as smart as that to get the best of the old folks.

"Don't Mention It."

A citizen of Pawtucket entered a grocery the other day and said he wanted a private word with the proprietor. When they had retired to the desk, he began:

"I want to make confession and reparation. Do you remember of my buying sugar here two or three days ago?"

"I do."

"Well, in paying for it I worked off a counterfeit quarter on the clerk. It was a mean trick, and I came to tender you good money."

"Oh, don't mention it," replied the grocer.

"But I want to make it all right."

"It's all right—all right. We knew who passed the quarter on us, and that afternoon when your wife sent down a dollar bill and wanted a can of sardines I gave her that bad quarter with her change. Don't let your conscience trouble you at all—it's all right."

Choice Reading Matter.

Mose Schaumburg was caught by a rival in business tearing down the rival's posters announcing bargains of Christmas goods.

"What do you mean by destroying my posters, you scoundrel?" asked the rival, threateningly.

"Dot's vere you vas fooling yourself," replied Mose, badly scared. "I vas so much blessed mit dot poster I choost pulled him down to see if there vas any more reading matter on de udder side."

—The farmer that "ran rapidly through his property" wore a red shirt and had his brindle bull behind him.

—A greenback with a hole in it will be received where a silver dollar having a hole in it would be refused. This is an argument in favor of greenbacks.

Cuticura

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

ALBERT HOLLAND, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

RHEUM. F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SCROFULOUS. Mrs. S. E. Whipple, Detroit, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered fearfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

Cuticura Remedies are for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Medicinal Toilet Soap, 25c.; Cuticura Medicinal Shaving Soap, 15c.; in bars for barbers and large consumers, 50c.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policyholders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest; and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

THE AQUEDUCT QUESTION.

Mr. Editor: It appears by your paper that our municipal councils are discussing the subject of the purchase of the property and privileges of the Aqueduct company. To nine-tenths of our citizens this was doubtless a surprise. The writer is not posted as to the powers of councils in this matter, but be that as it may, it is to be hoped that no definite action will be had, (though "Bricks" appears to be willing") in the matter until it can be demonstrated to those who pay the bills that such purchase would surely result to the interests of the people.

It is not intended now to discuss the matter, but as it must be that the prime object of the purchase could only be to obtain an increased supply, we should like to be informed how a change of ownership is to effect that much to be desired result, the Aqueduct Co., a close and astute corporation, having failed to find upon its property a sufficient supply.

PUBLIC GOOD.

AROUND HOME.

At the late meeting of the Board of Instruction, the committee on examination of teachers reported the result of the examination held Dec. 10th, 1881. Their report was accepted, and it was voted that all receiving seventy per cent and upward be considered eligible for positions as teachers. The names of the candidates who received upward of seventy per cent are as follows: Nellie Taylor, Ida Nutter, Olive Underhill, Annie Gilbert and Flora B. Dow. Miss Taylor is now serving as a substitute, in the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of Miss Flagg.

According to the late annual report, the Eastern railroad company own eighty locomotives, twenty-three snow ploughs, 203 passenger, baggage, mail, and express cars, and 1583 freight and other cars. The average distance travelled per passenger during the past year was 14.39 miles The company's engines run on an average 41.93 miles to every ton of coal consumed, and 30.28 miles to every cord of wood burned. The average cost of coal per ton for the past year was $5.-29, and the average cost of wood per cord $8.44.

G. H. Jenness, Esq., of Rye, who for four years past held the office of assistant enrolling clerk of the United States house of representatives, has been superceded.

A grand spiritualistic performance is to take place in Franklin theatre on Sunday evening. If but a fraction of the things promised are performed, the entertainment will be indeed wonderful. See advertisement.

Skaters were numerous on the north and south ponds, Friday, though the surface of the ice was anything but smooth.

A dory from the wrecked schooner Iris, supposed to belong to Simeon Hubley, one of the crew, and containing a stay-sail, some clothing and other articles, was picked up at the Shoals on Wednesday, the 4th inst., by Mr. Ingerbretsen. The schooner E. A. Williams on Friday started out to hunt for the trawls belonging to the Iris.

The schooner Gov. Goodwin, of this port, McCumiskey master, bound from Portland for Glenco, arrived at Edgartown on the 3d inst. Having lost both anchors off Cape Poge, she had to run ashore on Chapquidick.

Prof Blount of the Colorado Agricultural college, accompanied by his wife, the only daughter of Dr. J. F. Hall of this city, arrived in town on Friday. The professor is a prominent agriculturalist, was the originator of the Blount corn, and comes east to attend the great agricultural convention which convenes in Washington next week. Mrs. Blount will remain at the residence of her father during her husband's absence.

Elder Porter J. Smith has closed his labors as pastor of the Second Advent church in Rye.

Mrs. Mary Waite, mother of "Rev." A. A. Waite, the missing minister, has written a communication to the Lynn (Mass.) Bee, in which she describes her business relations with her son. She managed all the elder's financial affairs until last June, and according to her story, he now owes her nearly $300.

Rev. Father Sheehey, the first clergyman arrested in Ireland under the coercion act, now in Dover, was taken ill on Friday, in consequence of which a reception intended to be given in that city on Monday in his honor has been temporarily postponed.

The schooners Mary E. Smith, Grace Choate and Breeze arrived on Friday with about one thousand pounds of fish each. In the evening the Comet got in with 3000 lbs., and the Flora Temple with 4000 lbs., the latter's fare being all bad lock.

In the list of jurors in attendance on the present term of the supreme judicial court for York county, now in session at Saco, are the following: Arthur Williams of Kittery, Charles A. Grant of York, John B. Ham of North Berwick, Charles E. Coffin of Berwick, Hiram Walker of South Berwick, grand jurors; William R. Parker of Kittery, George W. Currier and Henry Moulton of York, J. E. L. Bradeen of South Berwick, Nicholas Littlefield of Wells, traverse jurors; G. F. Tracy of Eliot, John F. Staples of North Berwick, H. C., Willard of South Berwick, supernumaries.

By the recently completed enrollment of the militia of Maine, it appears that the state now has 97,510 able bodied men, —an increase of 19,134 during the last seven years. York county shows 9,564, against 8,154 in 1878—a gain of 1,415. Androscoggin county shows the largest gain---2,699.

A. B. Ricker of Alfred, Me; H. M. Howes, Portland; R. S. Boulter, Saco; C. S. Smith, Concord, N. H.; C. E. Hyde, Bath; Freeman McKown, Boothbay; John B. Nealey, South Berwick; Stephen F. Ricker, Lebanon, David M. Howe, Methuen, Mass.; H. Lorin Merrill, Parsonsfield, and Rev. G. T. Ridlon, have signed a paper setting forth that they were "shamefully neglected" on the day of the railroad accident at Wells.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—its, and upon it there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle. m.w & s & w ugg

Among the persons seriously injured by the railroad disaster at Wells, Me., was Rev. G. T. Ridlon of Manchester.

The "North American Review" will present in its February number, to be published on the 15th of the present month, Part III. of its series of articles on "The Christian Religion." It will be from the pen of Geo. P. Fisher, the eminent professor of ecclesiastical history in the Yale Divinity school,—as thorough a scholar and as able a defender of the Christian faith as this country affords. A powerful presentation of the claims of Christianity is expected.

—A story is told of a member of a certain theological seminary who was so sensitive as to any suspicion of plagiarism that he never allowed himself to make the slightest quotation without giving his authority. On one occasion, he commenced grace at breakfast thus: 'Lord, we thank thee that we have awakened from the sleep which a writer in the Edinburgh Review has called 'the image of death.'"

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Nationality of the Union Army.

Every once in a while there seems to be a sort of mania for representing that America is the land of everybody but Americans. Agitating physiologists tell us that the native population is going to decay and the foreign-born and the children of the foreign-born are coming to constitute the bulk of our population. Politicians sometimes talk and act as if the foreign vote was the main thing at the polls. Just so from the outbreak of the war, it was the favorite policy at the south and in England, to charge that the Union armies were made up of foreigners, who fought merely for pay, while the people born on the soil staid at home and footed the bills—if they were ever to be paid—for the preservation of their institutions. Even among ourselves this sort of talk produced the quite prevalent impression that a very large proportion of our soldiers were foreign-born, particularly Irish. Now here are Prof. Gould's figures, which, it should be added, are exclusive of negro troops:

	Number.	Per cent
Native American	853,800	75.46
British American	53,588	4.73
English	45,568	4.03
Irish	144,200	7.4
German	177,400	8.76
Other foreigners	48,400	2.38
"Foreigners," nativity unknown	26,500	1.33
Total	2,018,200	100.00

It will thus be seen that three out of every four soldiers in our armies were natives, while one was a foreigner. It will also surprise many, particularly the residents of the northern Atlantic states, to see that the German-born soldiers exceeded in number the Irish-born. We do not rehearse these facts for the purpose of withholding any credit due to the foreign element of the Union army. On the contrary, it is impossible to over-estimate the merit of those citizens who, not born on the soil, not inheriting the obligations to defend institutions endeared by the benefits enjoyed through generations of ancestors, not even, in some cases, having children of their own to be affected by the result of the struggle, yet rushed to arms as promptly and fought as bravely as the most patriotic native of the Union. But we simply desire to vindicate the great body of the people of the loyal states. It was their duty to defend their government, their national existence, in full proportion to their numbers of the arms-bearing age in the loyal states; and that they did, as appears from Prof. Gould's statistics.—Exchange.

No Doubt Whatever.

"Is there any doubt about Fingrey paying me?" asked Brown. "He wants to borrow a hundred."

"No," replied Fogg, "I don't think there is a particle of doubt about it."

A month later Brown met Fogg again. "What did you mean," said he, "by allowing me to loan Fingrey that money? I've asked him for it a dozen times, and that's all the good it does me."

"I didn't suppose he'd pay you," replied Fogg quite coolly.

"Didn't suppose he'd pay me!" yelled Brown. "What did you let me lend it to him for?"

"I?" said Fogg. "I had nothing to do with it. You asked me if there was any doubt about his paying you, and I said 'No.' I knew he wouldn't pay you. There was no doubt about it."

Brown went off mumbling to himself about some folk- thinking themselves mighty smart, while Fogg turned to his paper with a serenity that was most engaging.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Its a purely vegetable remedy; it is sale in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Elijah Cady, Owatonna, Illin., says:
About a year since my wife took a chill to severe sickness from rheumatism. Our recent year to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent pains in the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave me my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have resumed my situation, and am now able to follow my usual avocation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced instant relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
For external use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye daily becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a waising skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injur'd eye must be removed, she quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or sair." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 623

Wants to Trade.

It is reported that Mr. Scoville has received a bona fide proposition from a medical gentleman for the body of Chas. J. Guiteau. This gentleman (whose name Mr. Scoville declines to make public at present) has offered to pay down immediately $1,000, the amount of the purchase money, on condition that he shall have the body of the prisoner as soon as the executions of the law have been met, to dispose of absolutely as he shall see fit. He also agrees to take his chances of waiting one month or twenty years for the consummation of the bargain on Guiteau's part. This somewhat liberal proposition was submitted to Guiteau, and seemed to impress him quite favorably. After reflecting a moment, he suggested: "I think I ought to bring more than that; perhaps some other fellow will offer $2,000." There would be no trouble in raising a much larger amount than $2000 in penny subscriptions, to buy Guiteau's carcass, if it were stipulated that he should be chopped up right away.

A Terrible Record.

The New York Tribune gives a list of 198 total losses of steam vessels during the year 1881—their tonnage, when and where built, when and where lost, and their nationality. Only thirteen of the number were American; of these ten were of wood, and three of iron. Nearly all the rest were British built. The number of lives lost by these disasters was 1459.

George Stinson of Mystic Bridge, Conn., who was tarred and feathered some weeks ago by a crowd which took him from jail, where he was confined on the charge of rape, has been tried, convicted and sent to state prison for five years.

The almshouse at Decatur, Ill., was burned last Thursday night, but it was believed all the inmates had escaped. When search was instituted among the ruins it was found that three of the inmates, Isaac Franklin, Martin Casey and Franklin Fletcher, had perished in the flames.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

The oyster schooner Lillie B. was stolen from City island, New York harbor, on the night of Jan. 3d, by four strangers. She was subsequently found in the sound with one dead body on board. It is believed the other three were drowned during the gale of that night. The body found on board was that of a burglar named Chapman, recently released from a Connecticut prison.

Arrested!

Charles A. Dailey, was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Shielman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should steal it, he stated that his mother was troubled with rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped her, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offence he was put on probation.—Newark News.

During a dispute about a horse race in a store at Westport, Texas, on Christmas eve, an affray resulted in which Robert Perkins, James Dykes and Simon Mericle were killed, Hiram Mericle fatally wounded, and G. Musgrove and J. Davis badly wounded.

The Best Remedy for Chapped Hands

Is Hegeman's Camphor Ice. It should be rubbed upon the part affected. The warmth of the skin will soften it sufficiently, under ordinary circumstances, but in extreme cold weather, it may be necessary to warm it by the fire. If the hands are badly chapped, apply every night, and protect the hands by wearing an old pair of kid gloves. Hegeman's is the best and most popular of all the Camphor Ices made. Hegeman's Camphor Ice is also a cure for sore lips, chapped face, and sunburn. It is compounded with glycerine, which renders it more emollient than any other Camphor Ice; it will be found a most soothing application to the face after shaving.

At Providence, R. I., Friday, the counsel in the Sprague divorce case agreed to a postponement until the 16th inst. It is understood that negotiations are going on for an adjustment.

Best on Record.

I believe Ely's Cream Balm the best preparation for catarrh now on record. My patrons all speak well of it. I have sold one hundred and forty-four bottles in less than five months. I ordered another gross a week ago, and have sold twenty-one bottles from the second gross. It sells upon its merits. JOHN H. PHELPS, Druggist, Scranton, Pa. Jan. 28, 1880.

There is no doubt in our judgment that Ely's Cream Balm has intrinsic worth. We hear from many who are using it for catarrh, of wonderful cures being effected, and without hesitation offer it to our customers as the best remedy for its purposes in use. DYKEMAN & MOTT, Druggists, Catskill, N. Y. Dec. 27, 1880.

Price fifty cents.

A revenue detective of Newburyport seized half a dozen liquor barrels, Friday, from Thomas Glynn, a liquor seller, for having the revenue stamps uncancelled, and will hold him responsible.

A spirit of gratitude prompts me to address this brief note, writes Wesley Sisson, Esq., attorney-at-law, of Chicago, Ill. Three months ago I returned from Mobile, Ala., and was immediately attacked with what is known as sciatic rheumatism. I employed three physicians in succession, giving each one ample time to afford relief if it had been in his power. I was not materially benefited by their services and was beginning to despair, when a friend who had experienced the effects of St. Jacobs Oil advised me to give it a trial. I refused, because I did not think rheumatism could be cured by any outward application. Insisting upon a trial of it he sent me two bottles. Unable to meet this kindness by further refusal, I had had the remedy applied to the parts affected. But before the first bottle had been used up, I began to be relieved of the painful lameness in my hip and knee, and when the second bottle was out, I could dress myself and walk about. I continued to use it, and am now able to go down to my office and attend to business. Should persons afflicted as I was, desire a stronger testimonial, I shall tell them, if they shall call upon me, to give St. Jacobs Oil a fair trial; and I now feel as though I could assure them the same grateful and speedy relief I have experienced.

Lindsey J. Hoagland, of Providence, R. I., aged sixteen, who married a black woman in Attleboro recently, was sent on Friday to the reform school during his minority, as a vagrant, on complaint of his father.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

PATENTS!

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State St., Opposite Kilby, Boston.

SECURES PATENTS in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

Castoria.

For sour stomach, constipation, and fretfulness of children. Pleasant, safe and cheap. 900 drops; 35 doses, 35 cents.

Ash-Tonic;

A perfected purifyer of the system. In 1-2lb. bottles; 75 cents. For dyspepsia, the many forms of liver complaint, impure and impoverished blood, and functional derangements attendant upon debility. For symptoms indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

The Highest Rank.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the highest rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

Quick and Sure.

Many miserable people drag themselves about with failing strength, feeling that they are steadily sinking into their graves, when by using Parker's Ginger Tonic they would find a cure commencing with the first dose, and vitality and strength quickly and surely coming back to them.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N.H. a second-class matter.]

The Naval Secretarship.

Secretary Hunt tells the Washington correspondents that he "expects to remain at the head of the navy," but other well-informed persons have different expectations. The navy portfolio of late has been regarded as the last hole in which could be stuck the last available pin. Now if President Arthur, like Ex-President Hayes, proposes to keep the navy department for some fossil, he will disappoint every one save the mummy he may be constrained to appoint. What would do for a president from the Western Reserve will never do for an executive coming not only from an Atlantic state but from the great commercial city of the country. Mr. Arthur cannot afford to go short on his secretary of the navy. He is carefully feeling his way in this respect, and some morning Mr. Secretary Hunt will probably read in the newspapers the name of his successor; at least, that is what the men who are to control the appropriations originating at the other end of the avenue expect.

Guiteau's Trial.

On the 7th, before recess, Mr. Davidge, of counsel for the government, opened the arguments to the court upon the legal points. In the afternoon, after recess, Mr. Reed, of counsel for the defence, addressed the court in reply to Judge Davidge.

The "Star Route" Swindlers.

Samuel N. Hoyt, John N. Minnix, W. S. Barringer, J. W. Donahoe and E. J. Sweet, star route contractors and sureties on fraudulent bonds, were arrested in Washington last Friday evening on warrants issued by Judge Snell of the police court, and held for examination. A warrant was also issued for the arrest of A. E. Boone, the leader and manager of the so-called "Boone combination," but up to a late hour that evening he had not been found. The charges against the prisoners are understood to include perjury, conspiracy to defraud and other illegal practices connected with the furnishing of straw bonds for star route service.

By the report made it appears that within the past four years, Albert E. Boone and his associates have made 13,110 bids for carrying the mails, involving $8,084,452 of bonds; and have obtained 296 contracts, involving $202,905 bonds. The bonds are, with perhaps a few exceptions, utterly worthless. Under the advertisement of February 10th, 1881, for mail, messenger and station service in the large cities, Boone put in twelve bids, with bonds aggregating $164,600. He secured three contracts, two in Boston and one in Brooklyn. The aggregate of the bonds required was $23,100, and those given are worthless.

There was a grand flight of the star-route swindlers, straw-bond manufacturers and straw-bond-using mail contractors to Canada, Saturday. Thirty-one warrants have been issued in all against persons charged with conspiring to defraud the government on mail contracts. It is said that at least 13,000 bonds now on file in the post-office department are absolutely worthless.

News and Notes.

Hon. Richard H. Dana of Massachusetts, advocate and author, died in Rome on Friday, the 6th inst., suddenly, of pneumonia. He wrote the widely read book "Two years before the mast."

The police of Lewiston, Me., one day last week recovered a gold watch which a little five-year-old had taken from his mother's bureau, carried to school, and given to another small boy. The little boy said the watch was understood to be his when he should be a man, and he thought he had arrived at about the right age.

Several of the most largely patronized theatres of Chicago are characterized as "death-traps" by the examining committee of a citizens' association.

The British steamship Victoria arrived in New York on the 6th inst., after a long and hard passage. She lost three boats and had her decks swept on Christmas night, and on Dec. 28th her engine partially broke down.

The massacre of fourteen men, six women and four children, by Indians, is reported from Hermocillo, Mexico.

Steamer Grand Tower sank in the Mississippi river near Cairo, Friday night. Three passengers were drowned. The boat, valued at $50,000, is a total loss.

The official investigation into the causes of the Shanesville, Ohio, horror shows that the main cause of the falling of the building was the vibration produced by the stamping of feet while the assemblage was pounding time to a very popular air played by the band.

Dr. C. A. Brackett of Newport, R. I., sent $100 to each of the three churches in Acworth, on Christmas day, as a memorial gift of his father, who lived for many years in that town, and died there.

Amesbury, Mass., turned out $2,000,000 worth of carriages in 1881.

Hon. Parker Tuck of Bucksport, Me., has been judge of probate for Hancock county for thirty-six years, and for twenty-five of them was elected by the people.

James Spencer of Mansfield, Conn., seventy years old, hung himself in his barn on Friday morning. He was highly respected, and a deacon in the Baptist church.

Ten prisoners, three of them whites, escaped from jail at Hillsboro', N. C., Wednesday night of last week, by binding the jailor, taking the keys from him, and leaving.

Burglars entered the residence of Amos Coakley at Arlington, N. J., one night last week, blew open a safe, and got away with $10,000 in jewelry, silver plate and government bonds.

Rev. James Cameron, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church at Oakland, Cal., died Thursday evening last from the effects of poison. His wife gave him a dose of carbolic acid in mistake for medicine.

A letter from Vincent, Minn., says that Mr. Secord of the firm of Seaord Bros., who on Dec. 7th started with a train of goods worth several thousand dollars for Turtle mountain, has been killed by Indians who plundered the train. United States authorities are after the offenders.

On Saturday Guiteau received through the mail two drafts, one for $1000 and one for $500, payable to his order. He endorsed them and gave them to his sister, Mrs. Scoville, to get cashed.

Friday last was hangman's day. Two men, one white and one colored, were hanged at St. Louis, Mo. Joseph Abbott, who killed a fellow convict in a New York prison, and whose father is serving a life sentence in the Connecticut state prison for murder, was hanged at Elmira, N. Y. Two negroes were hanged at Franklin, La., and one at Marshall, Mo. Martin Kankowski was hanged in the jail of Hudson county, New Jersey, for the murder of his mistress, Mina Muller, in the woods near Guttenberg, in May last.

A San Francisco court decides that a newspaper has the right to sell its opinions and influence as a merchant has to sell his goods, or a lawyer or doctor his services. Decision was rendered in a suit for libel, the editor of the Chronicle having declared that the editor of the Bulletin sold the latter paper's influence for $60,000 to the Pacific railroad company.

The schoolmistress at Rush Creek, Ohio, is short and slender. Considering her lightness, nine of the biggest boys concluded that it would be a trifling feat to pick her up bodily and carry her out of the house; but they did not think to take her activity into account, and when they undertook to carry out the plot she fractured one skull with a heavy ruler, scratched several faces terribly, and discolored three eyes.

New Hampshire Items.

Hon. Wm. E. Chandler of New Hampshire is much talked of just now, as the probable successor of Judge Hunt as secretary of the navy.

The mill of the Asuelot Manufacturing Co., at Ashuelot village, was damaged to the amount of $6000 on Saturday, by fire and water. Insured.

There was a foot of snow at Plymouth on Friday night.

It is stated that the Boston & Lowell railroad has purchased the Manchester & Keene railroad at the price of $125,000, that being the sum at which it was bid off by Samuel W. Hale, and that the road is to be put in good order for doing business between Keene and Boston.

THE BRIDGE DISASTER.

The wreck of the iron bridge in Wells through which the Boston & Maine train went on the 2d inst., has been cleared away, and the iron of the four cars that were burned carried off as old junk. In place of the destroyed bridge there has been erected a heavy and substantial wooden one, which, however, will not be a permanent institution. The spans are composed of heavy and well-seasoned beams, braced up from beneath by substantial cross beams, or horses. The bracing is finished so as not to interfere with travel on the highway, beneath the bridge. The drawing-room car which went down was one of the best on the road, and cost over $6000; it has been stripped of its furniture and fittings, and left where it fell, being unfit for further use except as firewood; the wrecked baggage and mail car will be repaired.

The coroner's inquest into the cause of the accident began in Kennebunk on the 5th inst. The jury in the afternoon visited the scene of the disaster, and on the 6th examined the Mitchell bridge, five miles distant from the one destroyed; this is of the same pattern as the other. On the 7th the engineers and firemen of the wrecked train were examined, and testified that they were running not over thirty-five miles an hour at the time of the accident. The engineer of the forward engine said he saw the forward end of the baggage car four feet higher than it should be, on the west end of the bridge, and shut off steam before the hind engine whistled for brakes.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

THE YEAR'S RECORD.

It being customary about this time to make an "annual report" for the enlightenment of the public and the mystification of persons most interested, the CHRONICLE "local," who delights to be in the fashion, begs leave to submit the following as his record for the year 1881:

Cash on hand Jan. 1, 1881	$1.75
Received during the year	Don't know.
Expended during the year	Can't tell yet.
On hand Jan. 1, 1882, (including bad quarter, rejected at contribution box)	.45
Invited to jamboree during year, to write up beautiful account	87
Went to jamboree	2
Wrote up beautiful account	87
Resolved to go to church	52
Went to church	Record lost.
Invited to "take something"	674
Took something (Boynton's tonic 9, Preston's Jamaica ginger 3, soda water 1, cigars 4, total	17
Was promised to be thrashed	11
Was thrashed	00
Was instructed as to how the paper should be conducted (generally by men who could not put two sentences together)	99
Took their advice	00
Thanked 'em	59
Was called names	51
Cared for it	00
Called names in return	00
Bought new clothes (straw hat 1, trousers 1, neckties 1, paper collars 150) total	153
Paid for 'em	Record lost.
Good resolutions on hand Jan. 1, '81	12
Used during the year	00
On hand Jan. 1, '82	12

From the foregoing report it will be seen that the year 1881 was to our "local" a season of wondrous prosperity and peace for a newspaper man to enjoy; and there is no reason apparent why he should not be able to render equally as satisfactory a report for the year now current. So mote it be.

AROUND HOME.

Piscataqua Lodge of Odd Fellows will have a social gathering this evening at Odd Fellows' hall; members of the order, with their ladies, are cordially invited. The ladies are requested to furnish bread, cake or pastry for the table.

A new firm, Elvin S. Newton & Co., starts this morning on Commercial street, to buy fish.

Mr. John Hodgdon and wife arrived home on Monday of last week, from a seven weeks trip through the west and south, in the course of which they visited Mr. Hodgdon's brother, Col. Morrill Hodgdon, who owns a farm at Edwards, Miss., eighteen miles from Vicksburg. Col. Hodgdon's farm comprises four hundred acres, of which about half is cleared, the other half being covered with magnificent white oak and ash timber, which though almost worthless there would be worth a fortune in an eastern market; he raised last season fifty bales of cotton, and Mr. Hodgdon brought home from there a sweet potato weighing three and one-half pounds, ploughed out on the 1st of November. The travellers passed through fifteen states on their trip, spent several days at the great cotton exposition at Atlanta, Ga., and on Christmas day were in New Orleans.

The fishing arrivals on Saturday were the schooners Norma, with 3000 lbs.; the E. A. Williams, 700 lbs.; Flying Cloud, 1500 lbs.; Albert Woodbury, 3000 lbs.; Addie & Hattie, 3000 lbs.; Flying Eagle, 1000 lbs. On Sunday the arrivals were the Breeze, with 5000 lbs.; Flora Temple, 2500; Storm King, 1200; and the John W. Smart, with 75,000 frozen herring.

Capt. Samuel Hiltz, late master of the schooner Iris, speaks in terms not very flattering of the residents in the vicinity of York harbor. He says that on the day following the wreck of the schooner he had worked hard until night, with nothing to eat, and was then refused hospitality at several houses, though offering to pay for it, until he met Mr. William Langell, who treated him with a generous kindness in marked contrast with the conduct of the others to whom he applied.

PORTSMOUTH, Jan. 9th.

It was currently reported last week that a prominent gentleman of this city, who then was and now is very ill, took two blue (mercury) pills, and that they produced neuralgia of the heart and of all the muscles of his body, numbness of his hands, arms, feet and legs, and inability to walk, because they (the blue pills) were not physicked off by other medicines. Blue pills were never known to produce such symptoms. R. M. S.

Messrs. Lewis H. Huntress and Ernest H. Rand have been drawn as petit jurors from ward three, to serve at the January term of the suprme court.

The gondola Edgar Weston has gone into winter quarters in the dock between Philbrick's and Commercial wharves.

The schooner Lucy, Locke master, came in from the Shoals on Saturday, bringing in 2000 lbs. of slack-salted fish, 750 pounds of hake sounds, ten barrels of fish oil, and twenty-five barrels of spawn, being the residue of the proceeds of Mr. Lemuel B. Caswell's fishery at Smuttynose island the past season. During the fall and winter the Lucy has made ten trips from the Shoals to Boston, Gloucester and this port, in the transportation of cured fish, etc.; she now goes into winter quarters, and Capt. Locke returns to his home in Rye for the rest of the season.

At the annual ecclesiastical meeting of the North church, Friday evening, the report of the church treasurer was presented. Mr. John Knowlton was unanimously re-elected deacon, and Mr. J. H. Hutchinson unanimously elected superintendent of the Sabbath-school.—Times.

James McCabe, who is confined in the jail in this city awaiting trial on a charge of having committed burglary in Salem, N. H., on Saturday broke a pane of glass in the window of his cell, and with a piece of the glass proceeded to cut his throat, though without making a serious wound. He was handcuffed by one hand to his bedstead, to prevent him from harming himself further.

The receipt of fish at this port during the week ending January 7th shows a material increase over the previous week, there being thirteen arrivals, bringing in 23,730 lbs. of cod and haddock, against seven arrivals with 8000 pounds the week before. Several hundred quintals of cod, hake and cusk, and about two hundred lbs. of smelts, were sent to Boston; the demand for the latter fish is heavy, but the catch is trifling. A cargo of 90,000 frozen herring arrived early in the week, but finding no market proceeded to Boston.

A despatch of the 5th inst., from Edgartown, Mass., says: "The schooner Gov. Goodwin was got off to-day without damage, at a cost of $200."

Mr. W. G. Myers, proprietor of the Portsmouth Circulating Library, has recently added a large number of the latest and most popular publications to the library, a partial list of which additions can be found in another column. All the works of the most noted and entertaining writers of fiction are placed on the shelves of this library as soon as they appear.

The annual meeting of the Rockingham Odd Fellows' Mutual Relief Association will be held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 10th, at 7:30 o'clock, in Odd Fellows' hall.

The river was frozen over down to the branch of the Cocheco and Newichewannock, just above the smelting grounds, Friday.

Twenty-two hundred pounds of codfish, caught in traps, were taken in Newburyport on Thursday of last week by the schooner Sarah E. Babson, and sold for $5 per hundred weight.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the throat troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts. a box everywhere. m,th & f ot jan

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 5-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Grant on Porter's Case.

The following is Ex-President Grant's letter to President Arthur, on the case of Fitz John Porter. Some of the Washington correspondents, and some editors, have more than insinuated that an ignoble motive must be at the bottom of Gen. Grant's change of opinion in this case—possibly because, judging from what they know of themselves, they infer that no one can do a just act without being bribed thereto. To the ordinary person, not blinded by prejudice against and hatred of the great Union soldier, Grant's letter reads very much like the utterance of a fearless and honorable man, who, having become convinced that an opinion stubbonly adhered to for years is wrong and unjust, has the manliness to say so promptly and unreservedly.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22, 1881.

TO THE PRESIDENT, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: At the request of Gen. Fitz John Porter, I have recently reviewed his trial and the testimony furnished before the Schofield court of inquiry, held in 1879, giving to the subject three full days of careful reading and consideration and much thought in the intervening time. The reading of the whole of this record has thoroughly convinced me that for these nineteen years I have been doing a gallant and efficient soldier a very great injustice in thought and sometimes in speech. I feel it incumbent upon me now to do whatever lies in my power to remove from him and from his family the stain upon his good name. I feel this the more incumbent upon me than I should if I had been a corps commander only, or occupying any other command in the army than the one which I did; but, as general, I had it possibly in my power to have obtained for him the hearing which he only got at a later day; and, as president, I certainly had the power to have ordered that hearing. In justification for my injustice to Gen. Porter, I can only state that, shortly after the war closed, his defence was brought to my attention, and I read it in connection with a sketch of the field where his offences were said to have been committed, which I now see, since perfect maps have been made by the engineer's department, of the whole field, were totally incorrect as showing the position of the two armies. I have read it in connection with statements made on the other side against Gen. Porter, and, I am afraid, possibly with some little prejudice in the case. Although Gen. Porter was a man whom I personally knew and liked before, yet I got the impression, with many others, that there was a half hearted support of Gen. Pope in his campaigns, and that Gen. Porter, while possibly not more guilty than others, happened to be placed in a position where he could be made responsible for his indifference, and that the punishment was not a severe one for such an offence. I am now, convinced that he rendered faithful, efficient and intelligent service, and the fact that he was retained in command of a corps for months after his offences were said to have been committed, is in his favor. What I would ask in Gen. Porter's behalf from you is, that if you can possibly give the time, that you give the subject the same study and thought that I have given it, and then act as your judgment may dictate. But, feeling that you will not have the time for such an investigation (for it would take several day's time,) I would ask that the whole matter be laid before the attorney general for his examination and opinion. Hoping that you will be able to do this much for an officer who has suffered for nineteen years a punishment that should never be inflicted upon but the most guilty, I am very truly yours, U. S. GRANT.

Every one has a will and a mind to think for himself, yet many will go about hacking and coughing until a friend recommends Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for that cough.

I will Never!

Allow myself to suffer again what I have suffered for the last year. That vile disease dyspepsia gave me no comfort. I could not eat or enjoy anything. The doctors amounted to nothing; nothing seemed to relieve me, until I used a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Four bottles made me well.—Shoe Dealer.

Stephen E. Smith of Bowdoinham, Me., while out hunting recently, shot a silver gray fox. The fur of the animal is very valuable. It is the first silver gray brought down in that vicinity for a long time.

There was an eclipse this year that astronomers failed to note. It was the eclipse of Adamson's Botanic Balsam over all competitors. It cures coughs, colds, and all diseases of the throat, chest, and lungs. Price 10, 35, and 75 cts.

The death of Judge Putnam of the Massachusetts superior court makes the sixth judicial vacancy that Gov. Long has been called upon to fill within a year.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our recent was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent cramps of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
A Greyfriend Indian relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1213

New Hampshire Items.

Gilman Towle, of Dover, in making a building along the highway last week broke three telephone wires and pulled up a pole. The telephone men repaired the damages and then called on Mr. Towle for pay, which he handed over—very generously, it would seem, for neither telephone nor telegraph companies have any right to obstruct a highway with their wires.

The number of deaths within the village limits of Laconia during the year 1881, was fifty-one, exactly the same as the previous year.

There is only one church edifice in Sandown, and that is used by all denominations. The church measures forty-four by fifty feet, and was built by the town in 1774.

Forty-four deaths occurred in Exeter in 1881, against forty-eight in 1880.

Gen. B. F. Butler has been retained by the plaintiff in the case of Cochran vs. Exeter, to be tried at the coming term of the supreme court for Rockingham county. In this case Mr. Cochran sues to recover damages for injuries received by falling on Great bridge, Jan. 8th, 1881.

Fred S. Crawford, for nearly twenty-five years librarian of the Concord public library, has resigned his position.

A. E. Boone, the wholesale "star-route and straw-bond" swindler for whose arrest a warrant was last week issued by the police court in Washington, D. C., is the fellow who has the contract for the mail service between Dover and Pittsfield, on which the work has not been done well at any time since he took the contract, and for many weeks not done at all.

Miss Lillie Scott, the only daughter of Levi M. Scott, a wealthy citizen of Gainsboro', N. C., last week eloped with a law student named McNeil, the pair going to a neighboring county and getting married, and returning by train. The parties are both quite young, and the bride's father refused to see her when she called on him. The young lady last year took a fancy to another young man; at that time she gave large orders for dresses and other female finery, and it was understood she was to be married. This engagement, however, was broken, and things remained quiet until a few days ago, when it was noised abroad that he was to appear and claim his former sweetheart; and when he did arrive, she had already gone, with the result as stated.

In New Orleans, on Christmas day, 1881, there were on the levee awaiting shipment 5115 barrels and 4587 hogsheads of sugar, and 9852 barrels of molasses; on Christmas day, 1880, there were in the same place 1817 barrels and 3666 hogsheads of sugar, and 4396 barrels of molasses. These figures, it is said, give a fair idea of the relative magnitude of the production of sweets in Louisiana for the two seasons.

"The Golden Days," a handsomely illustrated and very interesting weekly paper for boys and girls, is published by James Elverson, Philadelphia, at $3.00 per year. The weekly is also issued in monthly parts, making a very acceptable magazine for those who prefer to purchase it in that shape; price twenty-five cents per number. To be had of news agents or of the publisher.

An Enthusiastic Endorsement.

GORHAM, N. H., July 14, 1879.

Gents—Whoever you are, I don't know; but I thank the Lord and feel grateful to you to know that in this world of adulterated medicines there is one compound that proves and does all it advertises to do, and more. Four years ago I had a slight shock of palsy, which unnerved me to such an extent that the least excitement would make me shake like the ague. Last May I was induced to try Hop Bitters. I used one bottle, but did not see any change; another did so change my nerves that they are now as steady as they ever were. It used to take both hands to write, but now my good right hand writes this. Now, if you continue to manufacture as honest and good an article as you do, you will accumulate an honest fortune, and confer the greatest blessing on your fellow-men that was ever conferred on mankind.

TIM BURCH.

Oscar Wilde witnessed the performance of "Patience" in New York on Thursday evening, and when "Bunthorne," who is the caricature of Wilde, appeared, the hyper-æsthetical, truly-poetical young man remarked to Miss Greeley, who sat by his side: "That is the homage which mediocrity pays to that which is not mediocre."

The Highest Rank.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the highest rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

George Hartendorf, shipping clerk of Park, Scott & Co., Chicago, confesses to having defrauded the firm out of twenty-eight tons of copper. His stealings amount to about $18,000.

Quick and Sure.

Many miserable people drag themselves about with failing strength, feeling that they are steadily sinking into their graves, when by using Parker's Ginger Tonic they would find a cure commencing with the first dose, and vitality and strength quickly and surely coming back to them.

James Robinson, fourteen years of age, son of Frank Robinson, the celebrated wrestler of Lawrence, Mass., while crossing the Merrimac river Saturday broke through the ice and was drowned. It is supposed the body was carried over the dam.

Professor Herrmann, the wonderful magician, known throughout the world for his skill, used St. Jacobs Oil for a severe attack of rheumatism in the shoulder, and was cured by it. He considers St. Jacobs Oil a valuable preparation.

Saturday morning, thieves entered D. E. Dewing's drug store and H. W. Crow's jewelry store, at Hopkinton, Mass., obtaining valuable silverware, a large amount of cutlery, over $50 worth of cigars and a large quantity of tobacco. Saturday afternoon officers arrested Peter McCuen, John Morrill and Michael Knight, for crimes, and a part of the stolen property was found buried in a snow bank.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 10, 1879.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You prosecuted for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

"Billy the Kid," a noted bank burglar in jail at Albany, N. Y., awaiting trial for robbing a bank at Cohoes of $9000, escaped on Saturday last, by the aid of a confederate who had a false key to the burglar's cell door.

Why the true Holman Liver Pad succeeds: Because it is the first and only correct adaptation of the Holman absorption theory of cure without medicine. Why its imitations fail: Because they are worthless.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JAN. 10, 1882.

Political Parity.

A despatch from Whitelaw Reid, one of the most eminent civil service reformers and denouncers of "machine politicians," to President Garfield, has been published, and Mr. Reid acknowledges its genuineness, though he very significantly says it "was not intended for publication," as is evident enough from the despatch, which is redolent all through of the most objectional methods of the mere "machine" politician, and doesn't read at all as though composed by a professional civil service reformer of the most exalted rank. It daily becomes more and more evident that "purity in politics" means giving all the offices and honors to "our" personal friends and "our" faction of the party; "machine" politics and corruption is the supporting for office of some other feldow's friends.

The Jeannette Expedition.

A despatch of Jan. 8th from St. Petersburg says that M. Saulkowski, who went in search of the Jeannette, and on board the Chasseur met the United States steamer Rodgers, engaged in the same mission, telegraphs from Irkoutsk under date of Dec. 26th, as follows: "We parted on the 9th of August from the Rodgers, which steered for Herald island. The Strelok, with the Bremen expedition on board, then returned to Chinese ports, having previously accompanied the Rodgers in the search. An American schooner, having on board the captain of a stranded whaler, had joined them in Providence bay. The captain stated that he had seen a boat containing corpses, and also silver spoons and other articles marked 'Jeannette.' The boat had been cast upon Herald island. The commander of the Rodgers, therefore, resolved to proceed thither. He anticipated wintering there, and aided by the dogs purchased at Kamschatka, organizing parties to make a thorough search of the island."

News and Notes.

Havemeyer & Elder's sugar refinery in New York was burned Sunday afternoon, with a loss of $1,500,000, on which the insurance amounts to about sixty per cent. One thousand men are thrown out of employment.

Michael H. Sharkey, one of the three ruffians concerned in the murder of Raymond P. Dennis at Fall River, Mass., died in jail on Sunday, of erysipelas. John Calder, who shot Dennis, has escaped arrest as yet.

George P. Eaton, sixteen years old, son of Gen. Eaton of St. Louis, Mo., was drowned on Saturday near the watch factory in Waltham, Mass., while skating.

Small-pox is reported as being prevalent among the colored people in Virginia and the Carolinas.

Hon. John Pierpont, chief justice of the Vermont supreme court, died on Saturday.

It is rumored that Postmaster Pearson of New York is to be displaced by Silas B. Dutcher.

The fast mail train between New York and Washington was delayed over an hour a few days ago, because two elephants persisted in pulling the bell-rope, thereby stopping the train a number of times before their sport was found out.

President Arthur's son, though only seventeen years old, is six feet four inches in height.

The Eastern railroad will build twenty cars for summer travel at the company's shops in Salem this winter.

Mr. Samuel J. Nowell, formerly of this city, now of New York, has formed a copartnership with Mr. William A. Presby, under the firm name of Nowell & Presby, the partnership formerly existing between these gentlemen and Mr. H. J. Goodwin, under the title of H. J. Goodwin & Co., of New York city, having expired Dec. 31st by limitation. The new firm will contine the package woollen business at No. 128 Church street, New York.

The schooner W. B. Keen, Becker master, sailed on Monday for St. Andrews, N. B., after a cargo of frozen herring.

Strawberry blossoms were plucked from sunny spots in suburban pastures on Sunday.

Edward Weymouth, the badly-injured conductor of the ill-fated train that went through the bridge at Wells recently, for many years had an accident policy in the Travellers' Life and Accident Ins. Co. from the Biddeford agency, until very recently, when he told the agent that this was "an off year," and as he never had met with any accident he guessed he would not keep up his policy. Moral: Insure in the Travellers', and keep insured. Morse & Ilsley are the agents for Portsmouth and vicinity.

Theodore W. Keen went to Ipswich, Mass., on Monday, to look after a new steamer for the Kittery Point route. Mr. Keen intends to have a large boat in readiness for spring business.

The Eastern railroad directors' car passed through this city on Monday on the way to Portland.

Mr. Frank Laflave of this city on one day last week trapped nine rabbits in Cedar Swamp woods.

The schooner Cocheco, late of this port, commanded by Capt. Seaward of Kittery Point, arrived at Charleston, S. C., Jan. 5th, four and a half days from New York, with stone for the jetties at Charleston bar.

Parties from this city who visited Gerrish's island, Kittery, on the 8th inst., report game, and especially sea-fowl, as more abundant there now than for many years past. In the cove near the Burnham farm nearly two hundred coots were on that day feeding within easy shooting distance from the shore. During the cold snap of last week, gunners from up river bagged about fifty coots and loons along the sea-front of the island.

It is reported that the schooner Iris, which went ashore on Black rock at York harbor on Tuesday night of last week, has gone to pieces. She was sold on Thursday last to the crew of the schooner Flora Temple, for twenty-five dollars, the sale including her hull, spars, rigging, and ballast, of which latter there was six tons of iron, worth twenty dollars a ton; this was taken out of the vessel on Thursday and left on the rocks, where it can be easily recovered in fair weather; and during Thursday night the wreck went to pieces. The purchasers will probably make from one to two hundred dollars; and the owner of the schooner, Mr. Abraham Brooks of Eliot, will realize about the same amount from the sale of the vessel, and the sails, chain, cable and anchors which were saved from the wreck. Capt. Hiltz went to Boston on Monday to procure another vessel.

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Hannah Cotter, a domestic of Mrs. Joseph L. Cilley, at Exeter, while handling a pistol, accidentally discharged it, the bullet entering her head, causing death shortly after. A German boy named Otto witnessed the accident. He says the pistol belonged to him, and the deceased asked permission to examine it. The boy's statement is considered reliable.

Timothy Sullivan, a section hand on the Boston & Maine Railroad, was run over by a train at Biddeford on Saturday, and killed.

A new suit of sails for the U. S. S. Lancaster is being made at the navy yard.

MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—It gives me great satisfaction to say your Cream Balm (recommended to me by a friend) has completely cured me of catarrh by which I have been afflicted for over ten years, after trying almost every remedy recommended, none having proved so pleasant, effective and thorough as your Cream Balm in its work. Very truly, etc., S. J. AIKEN, Wholesale Dealer in Boots and Shoes, 143 Federal St., Boston, Mass. Feb. 5, 1881.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan82

CARRIAGE MAKING and REPAIRING

In all branches, at short notice, and to the guaranteed satisfaction of his patrons.

A very thoughtful act was done by an operator who was on the Boston & Maine train that was wrecked Monday, the 2nd inst. Although injured, Mr. Samuel A. Roberts, telegraph operator at the transfer station, crawled from the wreck, and boarding the engine went to Kennebunk to break the news to the officials. He took it upon himself to order a wrecking crew and doctors, and then notified Supt. Furber what he had done. He sat half an hour in agony telegraphing for help, and for the sake of others that were injured. He was calm, and sent his messages distinctly. He was injured badly, and is now in the hospital.—Biddeford Times.

Notice to Mariners.

Sch Sarah W Blake, before reported sunk, lies about seven miles WSW from the life-saving station at Point Judith, and two and a half miles off shore, in twelve fathoms of water. Her topmasts are out of water and are in a dangerous position for shipping.

The can buoy supposed to have been used to mark the position of a sunken wreck off Chatham, Cape Cod, and which broke adrift and was seen Dec. 27th, near Pollock Rip lightship, is still floating around Nantucket shoals. It is a dangerous obstruction to the free navigation of those waters. It was nearly fouled by the steamer Eleanora, Capt. Bragg, at midnight of Jan 3d, off the Stone Horse lightship, but it being moonlight at the time the buoy was fortunately seen in time to prevent collision.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the SIX years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

A MODEL OFFICIAL REPORT.

The financial reports of the city of Dover for the year 1881, were presented to the city councils Jan. 2d, 1882. The total expenditures for the year, including state and county taxes, were $130,539.-49, and there was a balance in the treasury Dec. 31st, 1881, of $28,579.99. The uncollected taxes for the four years from 1878 to 1881 amounted to $40,666.41. The city debt, exclusive of railroad debt, was $193,800, which is partially offset by assets to the amount of $69,246.60; the debt had been reduced during the year $9,522.30. The railroad debt, which was originally $265,000, now amounts to $258,-000, payments to the amount of $7000 having been made since the debt was incurred.

At the same time the annual report of the street commissioner was presented. It is a model official report, and particularly noteworthy in this city, where no report has ever been required of the street commissioner, and none has ever been made. The street commissioner of Dover spread 1175 loads of crushed stone on the streets, and the report specifies in detail the streets which had received the stone, and the number of loads put on each; he gives a list of the streets and parts of streets graded; 500 loads of cinders have been put on the streets, and the report states where they were put. A list of sidewalks and street crossings laid, follows; 1491 lineal feet of twenty-inch flagging being thus accounted for. The sewers laid are described and located, $1408 having been paid for cement pipe, $70 for bricks, and $100 for inlets. The work done on bridges, to the amount of $2308, is particularly stated, and the condition of the bridges set forth.

It is evident from this report that the city councils of Dover believe that the citizens have a right to know how their money is spent, and that the street commissioner is able, so far as his department is concerned, to give that information.

THE "ACUSHNET."

The impression prevailed to a considerable extent, when the steamer Acushnet was taken off the route between Boston and this city, last fall, that that was the end of the direct service between the two places; but Mr. R. B. Beaumont, the efficient and gentlemanly Portsmouth agent of the South Shore Steamship Co., was in town on Monday, and assured us that the Acushnet will again be put on the route as soon as the work made necessary by the putting in of her new boiler is completed. The boiler which was in the boat last season, though new and perfectly safe, could not be made to furnish the quantity of steam required to develope the full power of the engines; and with the new boiler, which will give all the steam desired, it is confidently expected that the trip from light to light will be made in from five to six hours in any ordinary weather. If this anticipation proves correct, the passenger patronage of the boat will be largely increased next season over what it was last summer, when it was very considerable in spite of all drawbacks, for the trip between this city and Boston is a delightful one in warm weather.

AROUND HOME.

Grand Worthy Chief Templar George A. Bailey, of Manchester, will make a visit to Strawberry Bank Lodge, No. 54, I. O. G. T., of this city, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 11th.

The warm weather has had a depressing effect on coal freights, and in consequence the price of best quality coal has been reduced by J. Albert Walker at the Portsmouth coal-pockets.

The Army and Navy Register, of Washington, D. C., says: "Mrs. Dodge, wife of Lieutenant Fred. L. Dodge, Twenty-third Infantry, and son, Hubert, are now visiting at Col. R. I. Dodge's, A. D. C., No., 2020 G street northwest. They arrived in Washington on the 29th ult., from Fort Leavenworth, Kas."

Several of the fishing boats started out Monday morning and got as far as the Shoals, but were obliged to put back into harbor on account of heavy weather. The schooner Eva May arrived on the same day with 2000 lbs. of steak fish.

Forty large oak trees have been felled on the Peirce farm in Greenland, and the timber therefrom will go into the new schooner at Fernald's shipyard on Freeman's point.

Some of the Eastern railroad men in this city got their monthly pay last Saturday evening, though it was not due until Thursday of this week. The paymaster had came down from Boston with money to pay off the men employed on the new wells and pipe line, but could not find them; so, as it was past bank hours and he did not like to keep so much money by him over Sunday, he concluded to pass the lucre around among the regular railroad hands a few days ahead of time.

Some of the south-end republicans complain that ward four is not fairly recognized in the election of policemen, and that their ward has only a single representative in the whole force of regular and supernumerary officers. They say the ward four republicans are expected always to make a good fight for the success of the general ticket, and always do perform their part, under rather adverse circumstances, as they have but a small chance to secure the election of any of their ward candidates; hence they think they should receive a reasonable amount of consideration when the offices are being filled after the victory is won.

A boy named George Moran broke through the ice on the north pond, Saturday, having ventured too near the channel; the water was deep enough to have drowned him, but he fortunately succeeded in holding on to the ice until rescued by a man with a ladder.

The petition which has been in circulation among our business men for the past few days, asking that the breakwater at Newcastle be completed as designed, will be sent to Washington today. It is the largest petition, and we think represents more wealth than any other, ever sent from this city, and as it has been signed by our citizens without respect to party it cannot fail to have some influence with our senators and representatives in Washington.

Mr. James D. Ackerman, a native of this city but now residing in Cape Elizabeth, Me., for some time travelling engineer of the Eastern railroad, has been recently appointed general foreman of the motive power department for the same road, with headquarters at Charlestown, Mass.

About thirty sail of vessels came into the lower harbor on Sunday, mostly lumbermen from down east. They sailed on Monday.

Mr. David D. Badger, formerly of this city, and one of our very best ship-builders, is seriously ill at his residence in Newington. His son, Mr. Fred Badger, recently met with a very severe accident in Greely, Col., where he is residing, by the running away of a pair of mules which he was driving, large pieces of flesh being torn from his side and thigh by being crushed between the wheels and some buildings; for a week or more he was in a critical condition, but is now mending.

On Monday morning Mr. J. Wesley Young found in front of his shop on Hanover street a beef head, and several passers-by at the time had some discussion in regard to its character, as to whether it belonged to a horse or an ox. A butcher was called in to decide the case, when the fact was revealed that, it having no upper front teeth, it was an ox head, and that he (the butcher) had sold it half an hour before to a stranger, and it had probably been stolen or lost from his team. The owner can have the same by calling at Mr. Young's, No. 12 Hanover street.

The annual meeting of the Rockingham Odd Fellows' Mutual Relief Association will be held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 10th, at 7:30 o'clock, in Odd Fellows' hall.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. It reaches the very roots and trials of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—Le den Lancet.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

Defect in the National Banking Law.

The charter of the First National bank of Pontiac, Mich., expired by limitation on the 1st inst., and it now has no existence. The law provides for the winding up of failed banks in liquidation, but not for a bank whose existence has terminated by the expiration of its charter; in the case of the Pontiac bank, another bank of the same name has been organized, which will probably deposit lawful money for redemption of the circulation of the defunct institution. The above instance shows a defect in the national banking law of 1863 which can only be remedied by new legislation.

Edith Gray, alias Julia Stanley, fired four shots at a young man named Hendershot in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on the 7th inst., but failed to him or anybody else, though the street was crowded.

Six divorces were granted at the late term of court at Rockland, Maine.

Minnie Rice, seven years old, missing from Worcester, Mass., since Tuesday of last week, was on Sunday found drowned in a swamp near the outskirts of the city.

Miss Rebecca Greenwood of Gardner, Mass., was recently stricken with apoplexy while at a prayer meeting; next day, while she was sinking rapidly, her sister, Mrs. Stevens, living in the house, was also taken with apoplexy, and died in six hours.

A serious political crisis is reported as impending in Germany.

Sesser Friedburg, one of the most notorious pawnbrokers of Chicago, whose name has figured in several dark transactions, the last being the murder of Policeman Roe, was sent to Joliet penitentiary Friday, after having baffled justice over three years, and having spent $20,000 to secure immunity for his crimes.

Benjamin L. Lissner, a pawnbroker on Merrimac street, Boston, was arrested Friday night for punching holes in silver coins, and filling them with lead. Several of the debased coins were secured, and Lissner was held for trial by the commissioner in $1,000.

The churches in Port Jervis, N. Y., were all closed on Sunday by order of the board of health. About thirty cases of small-pox have been reported, six of which have proved fatal. It is thought that a further spread of the disease will be checked by the rigid quarantine which is maintained against the infected districts.

At Louisville, Ky, Sunday, Dan Henry, aged fifteen, fatally shot Con. Appel, aged sixteen, with a pistol. At Indianapolis, Ind., on the same day, Otto Hers, aged fifteen, shot and killed Tillie Zschech, aged thirteen.

Having been troubled with a very bad cough for about two years and having tried almost every cough mixture that was ever made, I have found none that has given me such great relief as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and I earnestly recommend it to all afflicted. BENJ. F. DUGGAN, 14 Park Pl., N. Y.

That poor bedridden, invalid wife, sister, mother, or daughter, can be made the picture of health by a few bottles of Hop Bitters. Will you let them suffer? when so easily cured.

Comdr. C. E. Clark, Lieut. Comdr. R. B. Bradford, Lieut. Comdr. G. T. Davis, and Lieutenants Morgan, Bleeker, Paine and Nazro have convened at Newport, R. I., as a general court martial to try such prisoners as may be brought up.

Grateful to Invalids.

Floreston Cologne is grateful to invalids, because it is refreshing without the sickening effect of most perfumes.

Ten men and two women whose bodies were not identified, were found dead in the streets of Boston last year.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork. —Times.

Three boys, each about twelve years old, named McKenzie, Sharkey and McCarty, were drowned in Charlestown, Mass., Saturday, by the ice on a pond breaking.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This merely is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says: About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London: I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes: I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says: I have used your PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes: It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes: From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or so former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed her blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1y23

Oscar Wilde, the high priest of æstheticism, lectured in Chickering hall, New York, Monday evening, to a crowded audience.

A daughter of Ex-Secretary Evarts made herself a favorite in Washington society, not alone by her snowy complexion, gray-blue eyes and golden hair, but as well by her cups of chocolate. The Mexican minister used to say that in his own land no beverage was so delicious. It was made of the best already sweetened chocolate, broken and placed in a warm spot to melt. When afterward put into a farina kettle boiling milk was poured upon it, and from the moment when the first drop of milk touched it until it was done it was stirred. It was allowed to boil for several minutes, and when it was served in delicate cups it was thick and almost jelly like, and was capped with whipped cream. This is the way that Baker's vanilla chocolate should always be prepared.

Of the "Sanitary Engineer," a paper published in New York at No. 140 William street, "Harper's Weekly" says: "The excellent paper called the Sanitary Engineer might add to its title that of the Practical Philanthropist, for such it proves itself to be in its constant and clear exposure of the wrongs and dangers of many of our domestic and municipal arrangements." Prof. Chandler, when delivering a popular and most telling lecture on Sanitation lately at the Cooper Institute, advised his hearers to subscribe to the Sanitary Engineer, "a publication devoted to sanitation in all its phases. It contains the best thoughts of the best-trained sanitarians of the period." Three dollars per annum; single number seven cents; for sale by news-dealers, or to be had of the publishers. Address "The Sanitarian, No. 140 William street, New York city."

Centaur Liniment.

Ash-Tonic;

A perfected purifyer of the system. In 1-2lb. bottles; 75 cents. For dyspepsia, the many forms of liver complaint, impure and impoverished blood, and functional derangements attendant upon debility. For symptons indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

A drug clerk in Akron, Ohio, sent what he thought was oil of sweet almonds to Mrs. Nicola Duarnier; it was really oil of bitter almonds, and the lady died in consequence.

Arrested!

Charles A. Dailey, was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Shiefman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should steal it, he stated that his mother was troubled with rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped her, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offence he was put on probation.—Newark News.

A restaurant in Syracuse, N. Y., was crushed by the falling wall of a burned building, Monday. Three men were killed, and seven men and three women badly injured; it was also feared that more bodies would be found under the ruins.

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says; "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the city hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half a dollar. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with diseased lungs, will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness." Sold by all druggists.

At Searsmont, Me., Sunday, in a quarrel, George Spear was shot with a gun by one Keen. Spear's wounds are dangerous. There have been no arrests yet.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

Mr. Scoville, Guiteau's counsel, says that the drafts for sums amounting to over $1,000 received by Guiteau on Saturday were worthless, and sent by some practical joker. It is not the first time during the trial that such a thing has occurred. Mr. Scoville himself has had worthless checks sent to him, one for $15,000.

Tony Pastor owns and runs a first-class theatre on Broadway, New York city, and has gathered about him the best troupe of variety artists that could be obtained anywhere. The company has just completed a brilliant engagement at the Walnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, and after the present tour they will reappear in Tony Pastor's own theatre in New York city. Mr. Pastor is the originator of his peculiar school of character singing, and has made himself immensely popular, having realized by his talents a large fortune.

The writer of this article met Mr. Pastor recently at the Bingham house, in Philadelphia, and found him as genial in private as he is amusing before the public. During our conversation I inquired as to his physical health, and he replied that, notwithstanding the strain upon him in the discharge of his professional duties, it was excellent. He had occasionally severe pains, either the result of rheumatic attacks or colds, but any complaints of that character never troubled him long, as he had found out a remedy for all such annoying affections. I asked him what the remedy was, and he replied, "St. Jacobs Oil." I then learned from Mr. Pastor that he considered the great German remedy an excellent preparation for the cure or relief of rheumatism, and that it was about the only thing used among professional people for that distressing complaint. He took bottles of it with him whenever he went traveling, and would not be without it, and knew that it was very popular with a number of members of his own company. A conversation held subsequently with various members of the organization revealed the fact that St. Jacobs Oil had been performing most invaluable service for them in the way of curing them of rheumatism. Nearly every artist in the troupe used it, and was enthusiastic in its praise, and the writer was really forced to the conclusion that Tony Pastor was certainly in luck in having so valuable an article known and employed by his inimitably good company of performers, for it enabled every one to be always in his place, thus insuring comfort to the management and genuine satisfaction to the public. Tony Pastor would certainly be in trouble without St. Jacobs Oil. At least, other managers whose artists have been temporarily unsupplied, have noticed the difference between St. Jacobs Oil in stock and St. Jacobs Oil out of stock—among the members of their companies.—*N. A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Twenty freight conductors on the Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs railroad have been discharged for drunkenness and immorality.

Guiteau's Trial.

On Monday, the 9th inst., Mr. Scoville resumed his argument in support of the prayers for the defence. After the recess, Mr. Corkhill stated that he had not expected to speak on the legal points, relying upon the assurance of the defence that the question of jurisdiction would not be raised, but as the last two prayers of the defence distinctly made that issue, he felt it to be his duty as the prosecuting officer of the government to address the court upon a question to which he had devoted much careful consideration. He then proceeded to read from printed slips an exhaustive argument upon the subject of jurisdiction. The argument of the district attorney occupied the attention of the court for one hour. Col. Corkhill was followed by Judge Davidge, on the conclusion of whose argument the court adjourned.

On the 10th, on the coming in of the court, Judge Porter began his argument on the law points, and for the first time during the trial the court room wore a solemn aspect. The argument was a masterly one, the audience listening with absorbed attention, and Guiteau wincing and twisting in his seat under the scathing condemnation of the eminent advocate. The wretched creature was completely cowed for a time, and did not fully regain his impudent confidence till the argument was ended. Judge Cox then announced his decision, his rulings upon every material point being against the defence; he also ruled that "this court has full cognizance of the offence." The court adjourned to Thursday, when arguments to the jury will be commenced.

CITY SOLICITOR'S REPORT.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Portsmouth:

Gentlemen—I respectfully report the following unfinished business in my department, together with a brief synopsis of matters disposed of during the past few months.

On the eighth of September last, when work was commenced on the extension of Short street, Mr. E. C. Spinney served a notice on the city in the form of a preliminary injunction to restrain it from building the road as laid out by the county commissioners. A hearing was had before Judge Allen at Dover, and the injunction was denied. Mr. Spinney subsequently filed a bill in equity against the city, which was entered at the last October term, but before the close of the term this proceeding was discontinued.

At the October term William H. Rollins, trustee for the Raynes estate, entered an appeal from the award of the county commissioners of $800, for land taken in extending Short street. The appeal was tried by the jury, who assessed damages in the sum of $1000, for which amount judgment was entered and satisfied.

Hammond vs. Page and Trustee, a small case in which the city was summoned to appear as trustee, entered at the October term, was disposed of at the same time without detriment to the city's interest.

The cases remaining on the docket are as follows:

1st. Joseph H. Jenness vs. William E. Hadley;

2d. Joseph H. Jenness vs. George W. Pendexter et als., assessors; actions arising out of the arrest of Mr. Jenness for non-payment of taxes;

3d. William E. Hadley vs. John J. Pickering; bill in equity to compel the transfer of certain bank stock sold for taxes. These cases are referred to Hon. Lewis W. Clark, and were submitted to him last summer, but he has not yet filed his report. He recently notified me, however, that he intended to report before the January term, and the actions will probably be disposed of at that time.

4th. Marion L. Odiorne vs. Portsmouth; action for injuries received by slipping down on the ice on Market street in December, 1880. This case would have been tried last October had it not been for the illness of plaintiff's counsel, which rendered its continuance unavoidable.

5th. Eastern railroad in New Hampshire vs. Portsmouth; petition to avoid erecting gates at the Vaughan street and Green street crossings. These cases are partially finished, and I have made arrangements with counsel by which I hope to have them concluded at an early day.

Two actions have been commenced returnable at the ensuing January term, growing out of a controversy with Daniel Mason in relation to the dock at the foot of Vaughan street. One is brought by Mr. Mason against Mayor Sise and four other city officials, for an alleged trespass; the other is an action of trespass by the city against Mr. Mason.

One hundred and fifty criminal complaints have been issued and prosecuted at the instance of the police authorities.

Respectfully submitted;

WALLACE HACKETT, City Solicitor.

Some of the members of the corn-canning company which has done so much business in Maine for several years past, have moved to Wells, and are about to commence the manufacture of cans; they will soon put up their factory, which will be located near the Boston & Maine railroad station.

A serious of union meetings were held in the different churches of York during the first week in January, in which a very deep interest was manifested.

The dramatic club of York, which gave a much-enjoyed entertainment in that town on Dec. 30th, will repeat the performance during the coming week.

A correspondent says "The York cornet band seems to rapidly decreasing, owing without doubt to the marriage of some of its leaders." The same correspondent informs us that "Through the efforts of Mr. J. O. Barrett quite a number of tickets were taken by York men in the nice robe given by the Odd Fellows of Short Falls, Epsom, N. H., on the 7th inst., but unfortunately a gentleman from Boston drew it."

Deputy Sheriff D. C. Goodwin, of Cape Neddick, York, was in the bridge smashup on the Boston & Maine railroad at Wells, and was injured quite badly.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policyholders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Reports from the American Humane Association and from Miss Caroline E. White, of the Pennsylvania society, were received.

The president of the society was elected a life member, as was also Mrs. J. Horace Jenness.

A committee was appointed to invite the co-operation of other humane societies in preparing a memorial to the king of Spain, praying that bull-fighting may be abolished in his kingdom.

The gift of $20.00 was reported from "A Friend of the Cause," and the thanks of the society were voted to the giver.

The sum of $11.45, a special gift for the purchase of humane literature, was reported as received and expended.

Sundry bills were ordered paid, and an amendment made to article five of the by-laws.

The following is a summary of work during the past month:

Whole number of cases investigated, 154; offences 154, viz:

Mutilation of Horses	1
Neglect of Horses	4
Abuse of old, suffering Horses	4
Abuse of Horses unfit for work	16
Starving of Horses	15
Neglect to shelter Horses	17
Overloading	13
Overdriving	2
Beating	3
Exposing to cold unblanketed	30
Driving when lame	9
Driving when glandered	1
Exposing cattle to cold weather	7
Abuse of other animals	2

Thirty horses have been blanketed, four have been mercifully killed, and fifteen fed by order of the society. Two cases have been prosecuted, and two convictions obtained.

The New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals continues quietly though resolutely to work in the interest of the cause of abused, neglected and suffering dumb animals. The energy, discretion and success with which they have pushed the reform they inaugurated when their humane association was organized in 1872, is worthy of emulation by other societies engaged in benevolent enterprises.

Wherever within the limits of our state the influence of the society has been exerted, a marked and gratifying improvement in the condition of domestic animals has been observed, and more attention has been paid to the comfort of horses left at the roadside while their owners were engaged in business, or professional or social calls. It used to be a common and almost universal practice for drivers of horses to leave their animals unblanketed and unsheltered, exposed to the cold of winter and the heat of summer, hitched to a post, for hours, enduring in mute agony the torture thus needlessly inflicted upon them by their heedless owners, who meanwhile were themselves comfortably housed and hospitably entertained, and entirely unmindful of the sufferings of their faithful servants without. That abuse has become almost a thing of the past. Now when horses are left waiting in the cold, care is first taken to protect them by suitable clothing from the inclemency of the weather.

There still exists, however, a great deal of wanton cruelty which will continue to tax the patience and energy of the society for many years to come. The latest case prosecuted may be instanced as a sample of the work done by the S. P. C. A.

An officer of the society left this city on the morning of the 2d of January, in the midst of the snow-storm then raging, to investigate a charge of cruelty against Mr. Gilman Whittaker of South Sunapee. After a long and somewhat uncomfortable ride by railroad to Newport, and a tedious drive among the surrounding hills, the agent arrived at the isolated farm he was searching for at nine o'clock in the evening; the mercury was down to zero, but late and cold as it was, he found two steers belonging to Mr. Whittaker standing out of doors in the midst of the snow, exposed to the cold of that bitter night with no shelter between them and the sky. The owner, a stalwart farmer, was called from the enjoyment of a comfortable seat at the fireside, and the gaunt, suffering creatures were soon allowed to enter an ample barn, which they did without any invitation or urging, as soon as the door swung open. Ascertaining the following day that the steers had been left out of doors day and night exposed to the rigor of the pitiless elements, until put up by his order, and that five oxen and cows had suffered from similar neglect during all of the severe winter of 1880–81, the agent caused the arrest of the offender, on two charges. The cases were heard before Justice Kempton of Newport, who imposed fines amounting to thirty-five dollars, and costs, a total of fifty dollars. It is confidently hoped that the cattle on that farm, which was formerly a part of the estate of a gentleman in this city, will be looked after more carefully hereafter. HUMANITY.

AROUND HOME.

New Hampshire Lodge, No. 17, I. O. O. F., will have an entertainment consisting of a picnic supper and dance, at Odd Fellows' hall this evening.

Thee will be a gospel temperance meeting at Bow Mission hall on Thursday evening, Jan. 12th, at 7:30 o'clock, to which all are cordially invited.

The number of books taken from the Public Library from Jan. 1st, 1881, to Jan. 1st, 1882, was 25,672.

A boy named Henry Wilson, about fourteen years of age, was on Monday sent to Manchester, he having absconded from his home in the latter city a number of days previously. During his stay in Portsmouth he made one trip in a fishing vessel.

In the United States supreme court at Washington, Jan. 9th, the case of the city of Ottawa, Illinois, plaintiff in error, vs. the First National bank of Portsmouth, N. H., was submitted.

A gentleman brought into our office on Tuesday a mosquito which he had just killed out of doors, and announced that any mosquito that bit him on the nose in the open air on the 10th of January would find himself in serious trouble.

The ice-boat built and owned by Mr. Henry H. Ham, Jr., was out on the north pond on Tuesday, and travelled about over the ice at a lively rate. A great number of people were on the two ponds that day.

The Boston Journal's Washington correspondent says that Collector Howard and Postmaster Peirce had a satisfactory interview with President Arthur this week. The correspondent promotes both these gentlemen to colonelcies.

A game supper in the cottage-by-the sea in Dow's woods, Rye, Monday evening, gathered quite a number of young men from this city, who passed a good part of the night in pleasant festivities.

A number of young men started out of the city by the morning train of Tuesday; two of them, Mr. George H. Garrett and Mr. Justin D. French, it is said propose making a somewhat extended visit to the south.

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

SALT RHEUM. Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn st., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

SKIN DISEASES. F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he use the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SKIN HUMORS. Mrs. S. E. Whipple, Detroit, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered fearfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Medicinal Toilet Soap, 25c.; Cuticura Medicinal Shaving Soap, 15c.; in bars for barbers and large consumers, 50c.

An Interesting Account.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" as a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Small-pox.

The small-pox is reported to be increasing in New York, nine concealed cases having been discovered in tenement houses on the 9th inst.

Fifty-six new cases were reported at Pittsburg and Allegheny City, Pa., on the 9th.

At Matamoras, Pa., and Deckertown, N. J., the disease is creating almost a panic.

There were forty-nine new cases and six deaths in Cincinnati, for the week ending on the 7th.

News and Notes.

Nellie Goozey, Eddie Goozey and Georgiana Hart, all French and about sixteen years old, were drowned in Brookfield, Mass., Sunday afternoon, by breaking through the ice on Quaboag river. The boy struggled nobly to save the girls, and was drowned in consequence.

The sealing steamer Lion, owned in St. Johns, Newfoundland, was lost on Friday with all on board, numbering thirty persons, while on the passage from St. Johns to Trinity. It is supposed she struck on Point Grants, at the entrance to Trinity bay.

John Greeley, baggagemaster on the Somerset railroad, in attempting to unshackle cars at West Waterville, Me., on Monday, caught his foot in a frog, and the tender and one car passed over him, crushing his head and mangling his body in a horrible manner, killing him instantly.

Miss Bertha Von Hillern, once famous as a pedestrian, and Miss Becket, have arrived in Boston, bringing with them some of their picture painted during the past summer in Virginia.

Still another forgery, by which Newark, N. J., suffers a loss of $40,000, has been discovered in Ex-Auditor Palmer's accounts.

Samuel W. Piercy, the actor, died of small-pox in Boston on Monday, and was buried by the order of Elks, to which he belonged. His body was laid beside that of William W. Whitenect, who was buried by the Elks about a month ago, in Cedar Grove cemetery.

Hon. Charles Foster was inaugurated governor of Ohio for the second time on the 9th inst.

The largest steel sailing ship afloat, registering 2220 tons, has just been launched at Belfast, Ireland. It is named the Garfield, and will be employed in the Australian and California trades.

The druggist who hesitates now is lost for the winter. He should sling together some sweet oil and liquorice and bring out his cough cure at once. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup does not pay him enough profit.

Capt. H. J. Bishop, U. S. M. C., is detached from the Colorado, and ordered to command the marines at the Pensacola navy yard.

Don't Die in the House.

Ask druggists for "Rough on Rats." It clears out rats, mice, bed-bugs, roaches, vermin, flies, ants, insects; 15c. per box.

Decline of Men.

Impotence of mind, limb, or vital function, nervous weakness, sexual debility, etc., cured by Wells' Health Renewer. $1. At druggists. Depot at Thacher's.

I will Never!

Allow myself to suffer again what I have suffered for the last year. That vile disease dyspepsia gave me no comfort. I could not eat or enjoy anything. The doctors amounted to nothing; nothing seemed to relieve me, until I used a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Four bottles made me well.—Shoe Dealer.

The Jamestown, a wooden sailing ship carrying twelve guns, now out of commission at the Mare island navy yard, has been ordered to Newport, R. I., to be added to the training fleet. Commander Allan D. Brown, now at Newport, has been ordered to California to bring the Jamestown around.

"Home, sweet home," has been sung in every land, but no home is complete without a good supply of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, for the cure of coughs, colds, and lung troubles. Price, 35 and 75 cts. New size, 10 cts.

A bill has been introduced in Congress authorizing the President to reinstate Charles W. Tracy on the active list of the navy, and to restore him to his original position on the Navy Register, next above Commander M. L. Johnson: Provided, that before such restoration he shall be examined as to his qualifications, and recommended for promotion from his rank as lieutenant-commander to that of commander, as is now required by law; and provided further, that he shall not receive any extra pay for the time he was on the retired list prior to his restoration under this act."

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but posts are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism
Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!
Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire News carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in local cities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.
She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 4323

Books, Magazines, Etc

"Yesterdays With Authors," by James T. Fields. New illustrated edition, 12-mo., price $2.00. Boston; Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

The lovers of good books are to a great extent familiar with this excellent work of the late Mr. Fields. In its "talks" about Thackeray, Hawthorne, Dickens, Wordsworth, Miss Mitford, and "Barry Cornwall" and some of his friends, Mr. Fields invites his readers into his cosy library in Charles street, Boston, and successively points out the pictures of these literary celebrities and entertains his visitors with that relation of personal reminiscences of these personages than whom no one, in this country at least, had better opportunity to gather the many good things related, than did Mr. Fields from his peculiar intimacy, for example, with Dickens and Thackeray, and his long personal friendship with the modest and retiring Hawthorne. There is about this book a freshness in style, a charm in narration which has caused it to become a most popular book everywhere and our duty now is rather to remind readers of this new edition, than to attempt to portray the merits of the work. The account Mr. Fields gives of the bringing out of Hawthorne's "Scarlet letter," indeed the whole sketch of Hawthorne, is of peculiar interest; certainly no one has been able to give the world such reminiscences of the gifted Salem author as has Mr. Fields. The style of the work is peculiar to the author, and with all the unavoidable mention of the writer, without which much of the personal incident could not have been told, there is such an unceasing tribute to the better traits of the persons of whom he writes, such appreciative admiration of their genius, and such a reproduction of the little personal occurrences of which readers delight to be told, that one never ceases in the enjoyment of "Yesterdays With Authors," which like the acquaintance with the lamented Fields, always had its charming bright side to all who were honored in his friendship.

The book is for sale by Mr. Myers at his bookstore on Congress street, and if there is a book of which we of Portsmouth ought to be proud, and which every one ought to have upon the family table, it is "Yesterdays With Authors."

"The American," Philadelphia's political and literary weekly, proposes to print soon a number of articles on American authors, giving such details, personal and literary, as may properly interest the public. Horace Howard Furness, the Shakspearean scholar, whose great "Variorum edition" is regarded as a crowning achievement in its field, will be the subject of an article, as will Mrs. Harding Davis, the novelist, Paul H. Hayne, the poet, Frank R. Stockton, the humorist, and others. All these, it will be remarked, except Mr. Hayne, are Philadelphians by residence, or by birth; but The American may have intended this, its theory being that the literary culture and products of the middle states are entitled to more attention and a larger exposition.

An American war steamer is quietly surveying Samana bay.

An immense crowd attended the funeral of the murderer Kinkowski on the 8th inst., at Hoboken, N. J., and the scenes in the church, on the way to the cemetery, and at the grave, were disgraceful. A large number of the mob were young boys and children.

Centaur Liniment.

Invaluable to families, and owners of horses. Sold everywhere.

It is believed that the loss by the recent burning of the Brooklyn sugar refinery will amount to two millions.

Castoria.

For sour stomach, constipation, and fretfulness of children. Pleasant, safe and cheap. 900 drops; 35 doses, 35 cents.

Massachusetts pays $130,000 annually for her militia on a peace footing.

Ash-Tonic;

A perfected purifyer of the system. In 1-2lb. bottles; 75 cents. For dyspepsia, the many forms of liver complaint, impure and impoverished blood, and functional derangements attendant upon debility. For symptons indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

J. H. Field of Lincolnville, Me., with a load of passengers, had a bad runaway and smashup at Camden, Me., on the 10th inst. The side pole gave way, the horses ran, and near the foot of the hill capsized the carriage, breaking it to splinters. Mr. Field was picked up insensible, having struck on his head and face, and been cut in a frightful manner. Mrs. Ross of Lincolnville was badly bruised on the head and knee. The other passengers, Captain Burt Matthews and wife, of Lynn, Mass., escaped with slight bruises and cuts.

That poor bedridden, invalid wife, sister, mother, or daughter, can be made the picture of health by a few bottles of Hop Bitters. Will you let them suffer? when so easily cured.

The steamship Moravian, ashore on Mud island, Nova Scotia, has not broken up, as reported, but there is no hope of ever getting her off.

The complaint was rheumatism, where-with Mr. J. W. Walker, of Waterloo, Ind., suffered for fifteen years; after trying a great many remedies without being relieved, he was finally cured by St. Jacobs Oil. He says he feels like a new man.

A western congressman, says the New York Tribune, recently met in St. Louis a young man who was a classmate of Cadet Whittaker at West Point, but who is not now in the army. "Now," said the congressman, "you are no longer in the service and have no interest in concealing the facts, I want you to answer a question. Did Whittaker cut his own ears?" "No, he did not," was the reply; "but he had to be got rid of in some way that would prevent the sending of any more niggers to West Point."

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the city hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half a dollar. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with diseased lungs, will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness." Sold by all druggists.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pacific bank, Boston, on the 10th inst., the bank examiner submitted his report, and the stockholders agreed to levy the necessary assessments to enable the bank to go on.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

No. 16 State St., Opposite Kilby, Boston,

SECURES PATENTS in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y. 30eltw1y

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JAN. 12, 1882.

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N.H. as second-class matter.]

Death of a Prominent Journalist.

The profession of journalism has lost an able member by the death of Delano A. Goddard, editor-in-chief of the Boston Advertiser, which occurred on Wednesday morning, Jan. 11th, from pneumonia.

Mr. Goddard was a native of Worcester, Mass., and a graduate of Yale college in a class noted for the many men who have since been prominent in law, literature and politics. Adopting journalism for his profession, Mr. Goddard began his career in Ohio, but soon returned to New England and became connected with the Chronicle at Boston, a paper which afterwards became merged with the Traveller.

In 1857 Mr. Goddard returned to his native city and was for a while with the Gazette, then with the Transcript, and from that office he went to the Spy, becoming associate with Mr. Baldwin, so long known in connection with newspaper work in the heart of the commonwealth. It was while Mr. Baldwin was in Congress that Mr. Goddard's leading editorials began to attract attention in Massachusetts. For ten years he remained at Worcester, and in 1868 he succeeded Mr. Dunbar as editor-in-chief of the Boston Daily Advertiser. There he has been in constant service up to within a very few days of his death.

He deserved and received the respect of his brethren of the press far and wide. He was a man of singular modesty, but of decided ability. He believed in his profession, not simply as a means of livelihood but from love of its duties, knowledge of its responsibilities, and appreciation of its powers; and hence his death at the comparatively vigorous age of fifty, is a loss not only to the leading newspaper of New England with whose fortunes he has been for many years identified, but to the community wherever the paper reached. Mr. Goddard leaves a widow, to whom he was married in 1863.

Ship Building in Maine.

The Kennebec Journal says "Maine can again be called with propriety 'the shipbuilding state.' During 1881 her yards resounded with the music of hammers and adzes, and many a stately vessel was launched along the coast. The outlook is even brighter than it was a year ago. There will probably be built in Maine in 1882 something like the following: West of Portland none, unless a schooner or two may be built at Kennebunk; at Deering, two barques and perhaps two or three schooners; at Yarmouth, two barques; at Freeport and Brunswick, none; at Bath, five or six ships, a steamer whaler, and probably as many or more schooners and barkentines as this year; at Phipsburg, a ship of 1600 or 1700 tons; at Damariscotta, a ship of 1800 tons; at Waldoboro', not known, probably two or three schooners, and possibly a barque; at Thomaston, one ship, perhaps two, and two or three schooners and barkentines; at Rockland, a three-masted schooner with auxiliary steam power, and one or two other schooners; at Rockport, one barque; at Camden, probably two schooners; at Belfast, three schooners, and perhaps one or two more; at Searsport, Bucksport and Bangor, probably a schooner or two at each place: east of the Penobscot, probably but very little will be done."

Lighting Hell Gate.

A bill was introduced in Congress on the 9th inst., by Mr. Crapo of Massachusetts, to provide for lighting Hell Gate by electricity. It appropriates $20,000 for a set of lights at the gate, to be set somewhat higher than those in Union square, New York, and of the highest illuminating power. This amount of money will provide a double set of engines and machinery, so that the light would never fail. There is no doubt that the bill will pass at an early day, and the light can be provided in the course of a few months.

News and Notes.

Philip M. Bullock was killed on the Boston & Maine railroad, near Andover, Mass., Jan. 9th. He jumped from a train while going at a high rate of speed. He resided in Lawrence, and leaves a widow and one child.

William Benoit, twelve years old, was drowned in Anthony, R. I., on Sunday, the 8th inst. Thin ice, and boyish rashness.

The report telegraphed from St. Petersburg relative to the finding of a boat supposed to belong to the Jeannette at Herald island, is not believed to be true.

George E. Peckham and his daughter Ella, doing business at Ashland, Wis., under the name of Peckham & Co., have been arrested on a charge of forgery.

"All the signs seem to show us to be on the verge of a period of great literary productivity in America," is the conclusion of the Philadelphia American. Judging from the enormous issue of books and periodicals, the increase of newspapers, and from other ascertained facts, there can be no doubt that this is true. In this country, as in England, there is a great activity in literary production.

"Col." A. E. Boone, the mail contractor, in an interview, states that he has 500 mail contracts, has bids for 2,000 more, that he makes a business of mail contracting daily, that he has nothing to do with Dorsey, that his (Boone's) arrest was a trap of James' to prevent his bids from getting in, but failed, and that he will fight to the bitter one.

The British steamship Oxenholme, from Liverpool, arrived at New Orleans on the 9th inst., considerably damaged by fire caused by the explosion of an infernal machine, which, with a number like it, was found secreted in the cargo while unloading in the Gulf of Mexico.

At the republican legislative caucus in Des Moines, Iowa, on the evening of the 10th inst., for the nomination of United States senators, Jas. F. Wilson was declared unanimously nominated for the long term beginning in 1883. Hon. J. W. McDill was nominated for the short term by acclamation.

A diver on the 8th inst., examined the wreck near Point Judith, supposed to have been sunk by steamer Newport on the 1st, and found it to be the Sarah W. Blake of Dighton, Mass., thus settling all doubts as to the vessel being lost on that night. Everything forward of the foremast is gone, bowsprit, windlass, etc. No dead bodies were discovered. The starboard light was found in the rigging, but part of the lamp was gone. She lies six miles north by east from Point Judith, with her head pointed due west.

The trial at Bennington, Vt., of Edson L. Fuller, charged with killing Melvin Witham in Readsboro' on the 22d of last August, by shooting him through a window, resulted in a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Moses Fair's large barn at East Braintree, Mass., was burned by an incendiary fire on the night of the 9th inst., with thirty cattle, three horses, and seventy tons of hay.

A Washington dispatch reports that General Grant has written to Senator Miller of New York asking him to withdraw his name from the bill introduced in the senate by Mr. Miller incorporating the Nicaraguan Canal company. General Grant says that he does not believe the time has come for the inauguration of the Nicaraguan project, and that he proposes to wait until the De Lesseps and Eads projects are tried. If they (or either of them) succeed, the Nicaraguan project will be superfluous. If they fail, the Nicaraguan company will have their experience to guide it.

Edwin W. Stoughton, formerly United States minister to Russia, is dead.

Joseph Pasey and two of his children were burned to death at their home near Knife Falls, Minn., on Monday night, 9th inst.

Miles Camp, an old man of Kent Hollow, Conn., near New Milford, has lost $6000 in bonds within the last six months. Mrs. Lloyd, his house-keeper, stole the bonds from time to time, and her son, a real estate agent at New York, sold them to brokers. Mrs. Lloyd is in Litchfield county jail.

The gross total of outrages committed in Ireland in December is 574. The largest number of cases occurred in Munster. Kings county has been proclaimed.

Col. N. Thomas, formerly a member of the Texas Congress during the republic, is dead.

A startling disclosure was made in the office of County Treasurer Lem Ellsworth, at Milwaukee, Wis., on Tuesday, the 10th inst. The discovery was made that one of the records of the office had been tampered with, and the description of a certain piece of property so changed that its identity and title were destroyed. The matter is one of startling importance, and it may be that hundreds of descriptions have been in a like manner changed, thereby destroying both the identity and record of the sale of the property.

The editor of the Boston Post is sadly irreverent toward his brethren of the press. He says: "There is a marked difference of opinion as to Guiteau's personal appearance. As seen by Editor Stilson Hutchins, Guiteau is a human being with a savage beast inside of him glaring at you through him. But when Editor Watterson saw Guiteau he saw simply a 'weird and wizened apotheosis of deadbeatism.' It is to be hoped that neither of these distinguished editors had been imbibing too freely of Blue Lick or anything of that sort."

Atty. Gen. Brewster was ordered out of the national house by a doorkeeper. "But I am Mr. Brewster, attorney-general," said he. "I have only your word for it," replied the doorkeeper; "that old trick won't work here."

A full length portrait of Hannibal Hamlin has been procured, and is to be hung in the Maine senate chamber by the side of those of Fessenden and Lot Morrill.

Lieutenant Schwatka, of the Arctic search, is about to marry a beautiful and clever young woman of Rock Island, Ill., Miss Ada Brackett.

At Albay, Philippine islands, a great eruption of the Mayon volcano occurred November 22d.

Starting a Daily Paper.

Mr. J. H. Ferriss has been "frozen out" of the Morning News at Portland, Me., and gives place to Mr. R. M. Springer. Mr. Ferriss gives the following account of his experience in starting a daily paper:

This is my last issue of this paper, and you see I have not laid out much expense on it. I have been almost sole manager, editor and part of the time compositor, pressman and devil, since the News was started, a little over a year ago. Some of my experiences and associations have been very pleasant, and some pretty tough. I hoped to stay at the head until the rascals of Portland had been driven into close quarters, and the officers commended in a handsome manner by the general public for keeping them there. Portland is now a nice spot to live in; it is difficult to find a better, but with a good, healthy enforcement of the law, it would be the Eden of America.

I may have made some mistakes. Much of my work was done hastily and without sufficient forethought, because I could not live without sleeping some. It takes more grease to run a new wagon than an old one. After the first start I ran short of grease, and no man can ever know what a time I have had of it. Every time a sneeze was heard in the office the hands would all leave, and there has been considerable sneezing. I have worked night and day the hardest and best I could. I might have done more if there had been more of me.

Mr. Ferriss then explains that the rumsellers and other ungodly persons bought and foreclosed a $500 mortgage on his press and types, and with no $500 he is obliged to retire. In conclusion he expresses a hope that all his friends will assist the paper, and all his enemies forget its past, under the new management of Mr. Springer, who is commended as a square man.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policyholders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

MARINE DISASTER.

On Wednesday morning, the 11th inst., at half-past six o'clock, the schooner Charles S. Tappan, of Gloucester, Mass., struck on the ledge abreast of the Dow farm at Rye, about one-eighth of a mile from the shore. She left the Shoals early in the morning, and steered a course north by west, for Portsmouth harbor. The weather was thick, with a fresh breeze, and a heavy sea tumbling in. The first land sighted was the woodland on the Dow farm, but it could not then be located, and immediately afterward breakers were seen under the bow. The wheel was put down, but at the same time she struck on the rocks, and lurched ahead about her own length, swinging around on her keel. At the time of the accident she was under a single reefed mainsail, whole foresail, and jib with bonnet off. The sails were lowered, the boats put out, and the gear, clothing, bedding, etc., placed in them and taken ashore, the water at that point being comparatively smooth.

The captain, Daniel McIntire, came up to this city and went over to the navy yard to procure assistance, and the U. S. S. Leyden went to his aid though none could be rendered, as when she arrived at the scene of the wreck the sea was running high and the vessel only sixty feet from the shore, having drifted in some distance with the flood tide. At the time the Leyden left, three o'clock P. M., she was riding the waves and apparently uninjured. The Charles S. Tappan was one year old on the 10th inst, of 71.79 tons register, built of superior material, and owned by Mr. Andrew Laighton of Gloucester. She carried a crew of fourteen men, and six boats; the result of her last day's fishing, (on the Jeffrey's,) six thousand pounds of fish, was on board when she struck.

The insurance agent arrived in this city from Rye on Wednesday afternoon, and reported that her shoe and part of her keel had come ashore, and her preservation depended on a change of wind and a smoothing of the sea; the crew were stripping her of everything in case she should become a total wreck. She was valued at six thousand dollars.

RELIEF ASSOCIATIONS.

The annual meeting of the Rockingham Masonic Mutual Relief Association was held on the 6th inst., and the following officers elected:

William P. Walker, president;
John H. Cheever, vice president;
William H. Sise, treasurer;
Amos S. Foster, secretary.

There have been but two assessments during the past year, and the association has about $750 on deposit.

The Rockingham Odd Fellows' Mutual Relief Association held their annual meeting on the 10th inst., and elected officers as follows:

George Annable, president;
John W. Moses, vice president;
Samuel W. Moses, treasurer;
William G. Billings, secretary.

There were ten assessments last year, and over $7000 were paid out in benefits.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 11; Batchelder, J.

John Duffy, for drunkenness, was fined $3, costs $6.90.

Ann M. Wiggin, of South Newmarket, waived examination on a charge of keeping liquor for sale, and furnished sureties in $200 for her appearance before the supreme court.

Van Buren Purington, of South New market, charged with selling liquor, waived examination, and gave bonds in $200 for his appearance before the supreme court.

AROUND HOME.

Thee will be a gospel temperance meeting at Bow Mission hall this (Thursday) evening, Jan. 12th, at 7:30 o'clock, to which all are cordially invited.

Our representative in Congress, Hon. Joshua G. Hall, did not come home for the holidays, but "while all around him fled" remained at Washington to make the fight for the retention of his townsman, Col. Daniel Hall, in the naval agency at the Boston custom house. It is reported that upon the question of internal revenue collector Mr. Hall has transferred from Whitehouse to Putney of Manchester, who is the coming man for that office.

The schooner Hester, which arrived at this port on the 9th inst., brought 1604 ties to the Eastern railroad, and landed them on the railway wharf at Noble's island, to be treated with the wood-preserving process next spring. The schooner also brought a lot of eggs and a quantity of cord wood, consigned to the master.

Oscar Wilde need not come down this way pretending to be the original æsthete, with his bright-tinted clothes and buttonhole bouquets of sunflowers, and his numerously-colored painting of houses. The real original æsthete was the late Mr. Abednego Robinson of this city, whose big house on the Sherburne road, opposite what is now the Rockingham trotting park, he thirty or forty years ago used to have painted red on one side, blue on another, white on the third, and yellow on the fourth; he said he was tired of the eternally-repeated white houses with green blinds, which was all one could see in travelling through New England, and meant to have a little variety in color at his home.

The four men burned by the gasoline explosion at the Jones brewery some weeks ago are all doing well. Mr. J. H. Morrison was the only one of the four who was insured against accidents, and he draws twenty-five dollars a week while laid up; the other three, neither of whom can half so well afford to lose his time as could Mr. Morrison, neglected the wise precaution taken by the latter gentleman.

We are glad to learn that Capt. Frank W. Hilton, of the Rockingham house, who was so ill a short time ago that his life was almost despaired of, is mending.

A farmers' supper was served in the town hall at Rye on Wednesday evening of this week. It was splendidly gotten up, as is always the case on such occasions in that town, and was well patronized.

Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows have a banquet and social dance this (Thursday) evening, making the third entertainment of the kind held this week by the different lodges of the order.

Mr. William H. Lovell, foreman ironplater at the navy yard, has bought the house on Christian Shore recently owned and occupied by Mr. A. C. Hoyt.

A number of people about town are asking when the defunct Ten Cents savings bank will pay another dividend.

A number of fishing vessels arrived on Wednesday, the 11th inst., but few fish. The fares of the Water Lily, 2000 lbs., the Martha Jane, 3000 lbs., and the Mary E. Smith, 1500 lbs., were the only ones sold.

Elvin Newton & Co., of Commercial wharf, bought their first trip of fish on Wednesday.

Capt. Gray, of the fishing schooner Dauntless, formerly of Harpswell, Me., has recently removed to this city, bringing his boat with him, and will fish out of this port.

Mr. Rufus Smith, of the firm of R. Smith & Co., shoe manufacturers of Epping, died very suddenly on the 8th inst., of pneumonia. He was a native of Epping, a prominent citizen, and an active member of the Congregational church.

Mr. William E. Bonin, who runs a chair in the hair-dressing room of Mr. John E. Roberts, never either walked or rode home in his life; he has also taken part in innumerable rows, sometimes having one all by himself, though he never makes any disturbance, being a reputable citizen. His home is on Badger's island, and he has always left it and returned to it by boat.

On Wednesday, the 11th inst., four of the solid men of Portsmouth happened to meet together in Junkins' store on Market street, no other persons being present, and took the opportunity to weigh themselves, finding their respective weights to be as follows: 214 lbs., 233, 234 and 254 —total, 935 lbs. What splendid ballast they would make, in a yacht race of small craft.

The steamer Clara Bateman went on the ways at Kittery on Tuesday, the 10th.

The school in the Scotland district, York, taught during the past term by Miss Mary Wilson of Cape Neddick, closed on the 6th inst., with very pleasant exercises — declarations, dialogues, etc., by the pupils, many of whose parents and friends were in attendance.

The young people of South Eliot are running a dancing school in the hall of the new building put up by Brooks Bros.; a Mr. Hodgdon of Newington, N. H., is the teacher.

Mr. Edward S. Marshall, of the Marshall house at York harbor, is having erected near the store of Mr. George A. Marshall an ice-house capable of holding six hundred tons of ice.

The first lecture of a course to be given this winter before the Methodist Episcopal society of South Eliot, was delivered on Monday evening.

MARRIED.

HADDOCK—AYERS. In Rye, Oct. 1st, by Rev. Mr. Kingsbury, Mr. Fred. J. Haddock and Miss Ida M. Ayers, daughter of the late Franklin Ayers of this city.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan82

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

During the year just closed, one hundred and sixty-seven marriage licenses were granted at the city clerk's office in Dover, against one hundred and fifty-three issued in 1880. Increase for the year, fourteen.

Guiteau's Trial.

Judge Porter, near the close of his argument on the legal points before the court, on the 10th inst., said "It was an egregious absurdity for a worthless vagabond to think he was qualified by a life of swindling, of crime, of beggary, of wrong and of adultery, for any office in the gift of the president of the United States." Mr. Porter concluded his argument by reading President Garfield's letter complimenting the judge who laid down the doctrine of responsibility in connection with the defence of insanity in the Jones-Gallatin case, and thanking him for brushing away the network of sympathies with which it has of late been customary to envelope the plea of insanity when set up in the excuse for crime. He added that Mr. Garfield little thought that that letter would first make its appearance in black lines expressive of the popular grief at the act of the murderer who was now before this court for justice.

Naval Affairs.

Among the nominations sent to the senate on the 9th inst. by the president, was one to restore to his former place on the active list of the navy Capt. Henry Erben, for some years past in command of the schoolship St. Mary's.

Commander Glass reports that affairs are quiet in Alaska, and he does not consider the presence of an American man-of-war any longer necessary.

An effort existing without a cause is an impossibility; tickling in the throat, huskness of the voice, violent coughing, etc., are the effects of a severe cold. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures the cold at once and removes its serious effects.

Lewis Warren, the colored driver of the mail wagon between the depots and the post office at Augusta, Ga., has been arrested for stealing letters.

An Enthusiastic Endorsement.

GORHAM, N. H., July 14, 1879.

Gents—Whoever you are, I don't know; but I thank the Lord and feel grateful to you to know that in this world of adulterated medicines there is one compound that proves and does all it advertises to do, and more. Four years ago I had a slight shock of palsy, which unnerved me to such an extent that the least excitement would make me shake like the ague. Last May I was induced to try Hop Bitters. I used one bottle, but did not see any change; another did so change my nerves that they are now as steady as they ever were. It used to take both hands to write, but now my good right hand writes this. Now, if you continue to manufacture as honest and good an article as you do, you will accumulate an honest fortune, and confer the greatest blessing on your fellow-men that was ever conferred on mankind.

TIM BURCH.

A fire in Denver, Col., Jan. 10th, involved the loss of $200,000 worth of property and the death of two men.

Flies and Mosquitoes.

A 15c box of "Rough on Rats" will keep a house free from flies, mosquitoes, rats and mice, the entire season. Druggists.

See Here.

You are sick; well, there is just one remedy that will cure you beyond a possibility of doubt. If it's liver or kidney trouble, consumption, dyspepsia, debility, Wells' Health Renewer is your hope. One dollar. Druggists. Depot Thacher's.

A case has been decided in New York in favor of Yale college, involving the title to property in that city valued at $1,000,000.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

SWAYNES OINTMENT
AN UNFAILING REMEDY FOR ALL SKIN DISEASES SUCH AS TETTER, ITCH, SORES, PIMPLES, ERYSIPELAS, RING WORM, BLOTCHES &c.
THE GREAT CURE FOR ITCHING PILES
Symptoms are moisture, coming, itching, worse at night, scratching it gives the very intense burning about the rectum; the parts are much inflamed and tender. As a remedy, economical and positive cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market, sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 5-ct. stamps, 8 boxes, $1.25. Address, Dr. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York writes:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25-c., 50-c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while in those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. tj25

MIDWINTER.

How changed the scene since the summer's day,
When fields were green, and meadows waving fair,
And the wild bird sang out his lay,
Breaking the silence of the balmy air.

The fields have changed their hue, the air is chill;
The footman hurries mutely along,
And the trees upon the hill
Have bared their limbs, to battle with the winter's storm.

Gray are the clouds, and the shadowy flakes
Are falling thickly through the frosty air—
And the merry, merry sleigh bell makes
Music along the thoroughfare.

In solemn mood, the thought doth bring,
Of years that quickly glide,
As I hear the jovial voices ring
On yonder broad hill side.

Down by the woodland, barren way,
Where in summer streamlets flow,
Winter's garments deeply lay,
And ice crystals brightly glow.

But still the winter winds may sigh,
And play their doleful tune;
The sunbeams will on Cancer lie,
And summer flowers again will bloom.

Stoughton, Mass. H. W. RUSSELL.

A Young Lady's "Nerve."

Nashville girls are whispering to one another about a delightfully romantic affair in which a local Juliet and a Louisville Romeo bear the leading parts.

The young persons concerned met last August at the Blue Lick resort, and while drinking the bitter waters they sipped the sweets wherein Cupid conceals small heart-burnings and little agonies innumerable. The upshot of the courting at the springs was that the girl's father refused to countenance the lover's suit. The old gentleman's natural deafness was intensified a hundred fold in the young man's case.

Father and daughter returned to Nashville, and October having passed without further trouble in the matter, the former began to look upon the case as an incident of midsummer madness—easily on and lightly off. Therefore, when he was asked by his daughter to drop in on his way down town and deliver a note to a clergyman, he complied without suspicion of what was to follow. The note contained a request that the clergyman should call upon the young woman that morning. He went to the house, and in the parlor found a party of young folks, central among whom were the Louisville lover and his Nashville lass. Both were dressed for travelling.

The preacher was surprised that he should be called to marry them at such short notice; but as the bride was under her father's roof in broad day-light, and as the father himself had delivered the summons, he performed the ceremony without unnecessary ado. The girl's mother was rocking contentedly in her sitting-room overhead, oblivious of the proceedings a few yards away. The guests and witnesses dispersed quietly, and the bridal party walked to the depot, whence in ten minutes they left for the north.

A tornado swept through all the rooms of the house that afternoon, but at last account's Cupid's clipper was skimming along the lakes towards Chicago before a fair breeze, with all sails set.—Tennessee paper.

The national board of health are preparing a statement showing the total number of deaths from smallpox reported from each city during the year 1881, and up to the present time. Philadelphia heads the list with between 1,200 and 1,400 deaths. The disease has prevailed there continually during the past year. The deaths reported from Chicago will reach to 800 or 900, and those from New York to 600 or 700.

In Carlilse, Mass., on the night of the 10th inst., Daniel Haley's barn took fire. Mr. Haley was sixty years old, and very lame from rheumatism, but he rose from his bed and worked hard to save his stock; having got five cattle out of the barn he went back to save his horse, and was burned to death.

"Lives of great men always remind us that we are all subject to die," says an exchange, but never cough yourself away as long as you can raise twenty-five cents for a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

A fire in the cattle of the four-story brick block in Portland, Me., occupied by Twitchell, Chapman & Co., dealers in woolens, on the night of the 10th inst., did $200 of damage; but the loss on stock from water and smoke was $80,000 or more. The stock was valued at $150,000, and insured $128,000.

MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—It gives me great satisfaction to say your Cream Balm (recommended to me by a friend) has completely cured me of catarrh by which I have been afflicted for over ten years, after trying almost every remedy recommended, none having proved so pleasant, effective and thorough as your Cream Balm in its work. Very truly, etc., S. J. AIKEN, Wholesale Dealer in Boots and Shoes, 143 Federal St., Boston, Mass. Feb. 5, 1881.

Messrs. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—I have been handling your Cream Balm and find that it takes well. Some very old cases of catarrh are said to have been cured by it in this vicinity. S. S. DETRICK, Druggists, East Stroudsburg, Penn.

The papers in the Flipper court martial case have been received at the war department in Washington. From the fact that they have been received there, army officers are of the opinion that the verdict of the court martial was dismissed. The record is very voluminous.

I will Never!

Allow myself to suffer again what I have suffered for the last year. That vile disease dyspepsia gave me no comfort. I could not eat or enjoy anything. The doctors amounted to nothing; nothing seemed to relieve me, until I used a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Four bottles made me well.—Shoe Dealer.

A severe earthquake has occurred in the province of Kan Tcheon, China, and over 250 persons were killed.

Grateful to Invalids.

Floreston Cologne is grateful to invalids, because it is refreshing without the sickening effect of most perfumes.

The barques Queen of India, 1256 tons register; Thomas Lee, 390 tons; Capira, 735 tons; Ella, 641 tons; Eastern Empire, 1751 tons; Matador, 420 tons; and Koomar, 1187 tons, all lumber laden, left Quebec for British ports prior to Nov. 3d, and up to Jan. 11th none of them had arrived at their destinations.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork.—Times.

The republican state committee of Massachusetts has organized for 1882. Hon. Charles A. Stott of Lowell was elected chairman, and Col. E. H. Haskell of Gloucester secretary.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

Hon. John W. Rowell of Randolph, Vt., has been appointed to the state supreme bench to fill the vacancy caused by Justice Pierpont's death.

Mr. M. M. Morrison, connected with the Kansas City (Mo.) Times, and a prominent real astate operator as well, unequivocally and emphatically alleges that the St. Jacobs Oil once did a kind turn which he is not likely to forget. He was traveling, and taking cold in a sleeping car, realized that he had rheumatism in both hips. The pain was intense, and his business urgent. So he thought of the St. Jacobs Oil as a remedy which was reputed to effect a rapid cure. It proved in his case, as it has in thousands of others, a blessing. Four applications gave him complete relief. Before using the Oil, Mr. Morrison says he was so stiff, and suffering so intensely, that he could hardly move. The transition from this unhappy condition to one of perfect ease was almost marvelous. The great remedy has since been a family friend. He always keeps it in his house, and has seen its wonderful power demonstrated upon several occasions in the cures of neuralgia and rheumatism. He has never seen the remedy fail yet, and is a confirmed believer in its virtues.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1876.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1846, my first patent. Since then you have acted for me and official use in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

The Æsthetic in Advertising.

An especially elegant calendar for '82 comes from S. R. Niles, the well known advertising agent of Boston. The engravings represent scenes on the Nile. One of these gives us a view of the advertising Nile as he floats up the river named for him, in a splendid barge, upon the quarter-deck of which the Boston tourist appears to be lying back, while the nymphs are handing him cooling drinks. Before him is a band of musicians clad in the costume of the country, while the pilot stands at the prow, in light summer raiment. There are also views of the pyramids, tombs of Ibsambul, and the pillars of Luxor, the whole forming a picture of oriental beauty, as enjoyed by our friend Niles on one of his foreign tours. To be complete, there should have been a sketch of the agent boarding an English railway train after it had started, an event which once came nigh throwing Great Britain out of gear.

Col. George's Argument.

The argument of Col. John H. George, made in December before the supreme court in behalf of the defendants in the equity suit of Burke and others against the Boston & Lowell and Concord railroads, has been printed in pamphlet form.

Col. George is what is termed a "railroad lawyer," and his argument is rather a speech in favor of consolidation, and on the necessity of a proper economy in managing several short lines if the western freight is to pass through our state, than a learned legal statement of the points in the case. It appears that before he had reached the legal portion of his argument, the chief justice said he had heard enough, and came out with an opinion.

There was one funny episode during the argument. The colonel by way of illustration referred to one of the judges by name as stepping up to the ticket office and buying tickets, when every railroad man knows that these judges are economical men, and having slender salaries always buy mileage tickets up stairs, and do not go near the ticket office of the Concord railroad. While the eloquent railroad representative was apparently lost in the enthusiastic eagerness of his argument, a grim smile stole over the face of the chief justice at this peculiar illustration, which when properly responded to by the bar, became almost an audible cachinnation. The court, it seems, were inclined to consider the question as at issue only when certain allegations were either admitted or proven, and could not afford to expend time in considering what should be done if such and such things were established as facts.

Naval Affairs.

Commander A. S. Crowninshield is ordered to report for duty under the direction of the chief signal officer of the navy.

Lieut. Comdr. George Talcoft is detached from the Michigan, and ordered to duty in the ordnance department at the Norfolk navy yard.

News and Notes.

Judge Tourgee says that in his judicial district in North Carolina only five voters were white men, and yet it was frequently carried by a large democratic majority.

If the reports from New York are not exaggerated, Oscar Wilde will be compelled to appeal to the love-born maidens of the metropolis for the customary half holidays.

During the year just closed more than eight thousand miles of new railroad were constructed in the United States, mostly in the west. The lines directly or indirectly terminal in Chicago claimed the larger half of the new roads. It is doubtful whether more than five thousand miles will be constructed the present year.

It is a fact that while producing about four-fifths of the raw cotton of the world, the United States manufactures less than one-sixth of it. There are but 10,900,000 spindles in the United States, against 40,000,000 in Great Britain. The United States exports in a year $9,981,000 worth of cotton goods, and imports three times as much. Britain exports $310,000,000 worth.

The authorities of New York city have declared the Windsor theatre to be unsafe, and ordered the dangerous portions of the walls to be taken down.

The Hollowell Granite company of Hallowell, Me., are cutting a granite mausoleum for Charles Davis of Cleveland, Ohio, which will cost $12,000. It will go into the cemetery in which President Garfield's remains are interred. They are also getting out some magnificent work for wealthy gentlemen in Pittsburg and Philadelphia. Two soldiers' monuments are under way at the yards,—one for Auburn, Me., and the other for Beverly, Mass.

The Ipswich bay fishery is almost a total failure so far this season. Six schooners went into Newburyport on the 10th inst. with a total catch of 3500 lbs., one vessel having 300 lbs., one 400 lbs., three 600 lbs. each, and one 1000 lbs.

The schooner J. W. Sawyer, which some time since landed a cargo of salt at this port, has been engaged this winter in haddock fishing, and landed in Boston on the 9th inst 100,000 pounds of fish, caught off La Have, N. S.,—probably the largest haddock fare ever landed by any one vessel.

AROUND HOME.

A gang of ice-cutters from Boston passed through this city on Thursday, on their way to Milton Three Ponds to harvest "cold comfort" for next summer.

At the dinner of the New Hampshire club in Boston on the 11th inst., Hon. Wm. E. Chandler made a neat little speech. There were present from this city Hon. Frank Jones, Aaron Young and Col. Sise; the last-named gentleman is a member of a committee to consider the propriety of abrogating the rule forbidding the use of wines, etc., at the dinner. Mr. John J. Bell of Exeter, a severe cold-water man, is also upon this committee, with Geo. Byron Chandler of Concord. Mr. Chandler is the gentleman who projected the formation of the club, and has been active in keeping up the interest in the meetings; and upon the fluid question he will probably hold the balance of power.

It is said that "pot-hunters" in this city have been trapping game in Cedar swamp, one day's bag counting up nine rabbits, while on another day fifty-one partridges and one rabbit were taken. Some of our sportsmen regard with contempt this method of taking game, and talk of applying the law, if there is any available—which there is not, we think—to stop such unsportsmanlike practices.

On Tuesday of this week, on the south pond, Mr. C. A. Hazlett introduced a novel means of sailing on skates. The device he has constructed consists of double centre spars of bamboo about ten feet in length, with two cross-yards to which are attached a mainsail and foresail, the skater standing between the two sails and managing his craft, sailing close hauled, running free and tacking the same as an ice or sail boat. When running free the skater sailed as fast as the wind, and the length of the pond was rapidly made against the wind by making four tacks. We shall hear of skate-sailing regattas soon.

Postal cards spoiled in direction can be redeemed at the post office this month; after February 1st, postmasters will not be allowed to redeem them.

The annual meeting of the Eliot Bridge Co. was held in Dover on the 10th inst. The treasurer's report shew $260.22 on hand, and an annual dividend of three per cent was declared. The total receipts from tolls from the time the bridge was opened to public travel, June 1st, 1880, to Jan. 1st, 1882, were $957.02, of which amount $568.99 was collected last year; 4074 teams paid toll over the bridge in 1881. A board of seven directors was chosen, including John E. Staples of York and Sylvester Bartlett of Eliot.

The tug Clara Batemen came off the ways at Kittery on Wednesday, the 11th.

The patients injured by the Kennebunk disaster are all doing well at the Maine General hospital, except a Mr. Hilton, who was thought at first to be but slightly injured, but it is now feared has internal injuries about the stomach.

A few days ago as Miss Cynthia L. Perkins of Kennebunkport was watering a horse her dress blew and frightened the animal, which jumped and pulled her shoulder out of place.

On Wednesday evening, the 11th inst., a goodly number of the young people of Kittery held a sociable and dance at the residence of Joseph Jenkins, Esq., of that town. It was greatly enjoyed by all present, and was in fact a perfect success. The music was furnished by Gotham & Jenkins' celebrated orchestra, of Kittery.

A Portland paper of the 10th inst. says: "The house of Ansel Boothby at Kennebunk lower village was destroyed by fire this forenoon. The contents were all saved; also the barn was saved. The Kennebunkport engine company was soon on the spot, and rendered efficient service. The house was a small two-room, one-and-a-half story building, with small ell for kitchen, and was fully insured at Small's office, Biddeford, for $800. About two years ago Boothby lost a barn by fire, and at the time the house barely escaped being consumed. Both fires are shrouded in mystery."

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, Jan. 12th, Mayor Sise in the chair:

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

Bills amounting to $4406.21 were ordered paid, including $717.31 on account of the Vaughan street extension.

The city marshal's report for the quarter ending Dec. 31st was submitted, and referred to the committee on police.

A communication was received from John Hatch, Esq., for Samuel Wilson, representing that he (Wilson) is the owner of property (subject to mortgage) on what was formerly known as Short street, and asking that damages be assessed thereon. The mayor said that Mr. Wilson died that morning, and the city would have to buy him. The communication was referred to the committee on claims.

A request was received from the Portsmouth board of trade that the city councils memorialize the New Hampshire delegation in Congress to use their influence in favor of so completing the breakwater at Newcastle that a road can be made thereon.

The committee on streets reported that Vaughan street should end at Elm street. Ald. Caswell moved that the new street be called Raynes avenue; Ald. Martin moved that it be called Battle street; Ald. Stavers moved that it be called Mason & Dixon's Line; Ald. Noyes moved that it be called Mason & Bull Run. Finally it was voted that the new street shall be a part of Vaughan street.

Ald. Stavers asked if the city intended to remove the Wilson house obstruction from the new street. The mayor said the city had a right to cut it down if they choose to. In answer to a question by Ald. Green, the mayor said the city moved Mrs. Seavey's house. Ald. Martin said Mrs. Seavey had shown an accommodating disposition, while Mr. Wilson had shown the contrary.

Ald. Green suggested that it would be proper to appoint supernumerary policemen from ward four, the republicans of that ward being indignant at not being represented on the list. Ald. Caswell supported this view, and Mr. Green moved to proceed to ballot, but no action was taken.

Adjourned for one week.

"A BASE LIE."

It has been stated by a newspaper of this city that Daniel Stevens, master at arms of the U. S. Lancaster, jumped overboard while the ship was at Villa Franca, and was not afterwards heard from. The story was a base lie.—Times.

If the CHRONICLE is the "newspaper of this city" referred to, we are forced to characterize the assertion of the Times as a stupid lie, as no such statement was made by us.

GRAND TEMPLAR'S VISIT.

At the official visit of Grand Worthy Chief Templar George A. Bailey of this state to Strawberry Bank Lodge, No. 54, I. O. G. T., of this city, Wednesday evening of this week, he found the lodge in a flourishing condition, numbering nearly sixty members; five persons were proposed and balloted for that evening, four of whom were initiated. Under the heading "The Good of the Order," he listened to speeches, readings and singing; also to a dialogue entitled "Six Virtues," by six young ladies belonging to the lodge. During the evening a large and elegant bouquet was presented by the ladies of the order to Mr. Bailey, who responded in an appropriate manner. Some few remarks were then indulged in by the members, after which the grand worthy chief made a speech, and one to the point. At the close of the meeting a picnic supper was served in an excellent manner, in honor of the distinguished visitor.

N. H. S. P. C. C.

The annual meeting of the New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children was held on Monday evening, Jan. 9th.

The report of the treasurer was read, audited and accepted.

An address was made by the president, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Charles W. Gardner;

Vice Presidents, Ichabod Goodwin, Chas. A. Holbrook, W. A. McGinley, D. B. Macomb, Miss Eliza W. Haven, Mrs. Charles W. Pickering;

Secretary and Treasurer, James B. May;

Directors, Chas. W. Gardner, T. E. O. Marvin, Jas. DeNormandie, J. R. May, Mrs. A. W. Haven, Mrs. J. J. Pickering, Miss E. H. Pearson, Miss M. R. Lyman, Miss A. F. Jenness, Miss M. A. Foster;

Counsel, J. S. H. Frink;

Trustees of Permanent Fund, C. W. Gardner, T. E. O. Marvin, Mrs. J. J. Pickering.

The thanks of the society were voted to John Hatch, Esq., for his efforts in procuring legislation in their behalf.

The report of trustees of the permanent fund was made, showing a balance on hand of $33.52. The following is a summary of the treasurer's report:

RECEIPTS.

	$112.26

The president's report was as follows:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Jan. 10th, '82.

In presenting the fourth annual report of the work of this society for the year just closed, I am gratified to be able to say that there has been comparatively nothing to do during the entire year. It would be a flattering tribute to the good influence of our society could we know that this absence of cruelty was in consequence of the existence of this organization. But, be that as it may, it is a matter of congratulation that while last year there were nearly a score of cases attended to, there is only one that has come to my knowledge during 1881. This was that of a young couple at the south end, who, in correcting their child, punished it in a cruel manner. I visited the family, investigated the matter, and found the charges to be correct. I called the attention of the father and mother to the statute law relating to such cases, and admonished them concerning a repetition of the offence. I have made frequent inquiries in regard to their habits since, and learn that they have treated the child properly, so far as can be known. In connection with this brief report, I would urge upon your attention a subject that is fast engrossing the most liberal and progressive thought of the day, and in the consideration of which I would have every member of our society profoundly interested. I refer to the science of heredity. There is an Institute of Heredity in Massachusetts that has in its list of membership some of the best minds of the age, and is well worthy of our patronage. The laws of hereditary transmission of crime and evil should be thoroughly studied, and in this light I regard the Institute to which I have alluded as a public benefaction.

Respectfully submitted,
C. W. GARDNER, Pres.

CITY MARSHAL'S REPORT.

The report of the city marshal for the quarter ending Dec. 31st, 1881, submitted to the board of aldermen at their last meeting, gives the whole number of arrests during the quarter as 208, for offences as follows:

Assault	14
Assault (aggravated)	1
Arrested on suspicion	3

Sabbath breaking	2
Selling liquor	1
Truants	4
Tramps	3
Vagrants	2
Violating Sunday ordinance	2
Total arrests	208
Lodgers	146
Grand total	354

The amount of fines collected was $120, and of costs $155.59, a total of $275.59, of which $238.86 was paid into the treasury, the balance, $36.73, having been paid out in witness fees and for bread, for which expenditures proper vouchers and receipts were submitted with the report.

THE WRECK AT RYE.

The tug Clara Batemen, having in tow the gondola Edgar Weston, left this port at noon on Thursday for the schooner Charles S. Tappan, wrecked on the morning of the 10th inst. on the easternmost of the ledges off the Dow farm at Rye. On arriving at the spot, which is about three-quarters of a mile to the eastward of Wallis' sands, the gondola was dropped alongside of the schooner, and the running rigging, chains, sails and everything else that could be stripped off the schooner excepting her iron ballast, port anchor and cable, were placed on board the lighter and brought up to the city, and stored in the sail-loft of T. S. Gay & Co., over the Spring market. The schooner was lying in an easy position, head to the shore and with a list to starboard, the water at high tide on Thursday reaching to about amidships across her decks; it was hoped she could be floated off by the aid of casks, which the underwriters' agent sent to Gloucester for, to be forwarded at once by rail. The fish which was on board when she struck has been sold. The vessel and outfits were valued at $7200, on which there is an insurance of $6800 in the Gloucester Mutual company.

A letter has been received from Daniel Stevens, master-at-arms of the U. S. S. Lancaster, now at Villefranche, France; he is on board the ship attending to his duties, and is well. It was recently reported that he had jumped overboard from the vessel, and that it was not known what had become of him.

The store of Wm. Downs & Son has been connected with the telephone exchange.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan82

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" as a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is entitled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—Le Bon Larron.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of testimonials similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

New Hampshire Items.

The officers of the Sullivan Savings institution at Claremont were all re-elected at the annual meeting Jan. 4th. A dividend of 4 1-2 per cent was declared, against four per cent promised depositors.

The receipts of the New Hampshire state fair at Laconia last September were in excess of the expenditures, leaving the society in a sound condition financially.

Miss Julia Buswell, who had quite a reputation as an adventist preacher, died recently in Warner.

Hon. John F. Cloutman, the enterprising shoe manufacturer, is preparing to erect another large factory in Farmington.

Thomas Mulhern, the young man who was injured by falling from a freight train near Nashua, and who lay beside the track all of one night, has been removed to the Massachusetts general hospital. It is thought he will recover.

A subordinate commandery of the United Order of the Golden Cross has been established at Lancaster.

The total land area of New Hampshire by counties, in square miles, is as follows: Rockingham, 740; Strafford, 320; Belknap, 400; Carroll, 780; Merrimack, 920; Hillsborough, 980; Cheshire, 780; Sullivan, 580; Grafton, 1,525; Coos, 1,980; total, 9,005. Water area of the state, 300 square miles. Total gross area, 9,305 square miles. Vermont is 130 square miles larger than New Hampshire, and Maine is more than three times as large as either.

M. T. Stevens, proprietor of the Franklin mills at Franklin, has leased for a term of five years the mills formerly occupied by F. A. Sawyer & Co., known as the Franklin Woollen mills, and will manufacture ladies' dress goods. Mr. J. J. Wrisley, the superintendent of the Franklin mills, will have the management of the business at both mills.

The vital statistics of the city of Concord for the past year show 147 male births and 124 female births. Whole number of deaths, 239.

The Webster club of Concord have arranged to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary birthday of Daniel Webster, which occurs on the 18th inst. An address will be given by Col. John H. George, after which will occur a reception at the club rooms, followed by dancing, refreshments, etc.

During the past year the bonded debt of Manchester has been increased $60,000, while the net indebtedness has been decreased $17,222.14.

It is said that another glove factory is about to commence operations at Littleton.

—The inspiration theory and Guiteau ought to hang together.

The Highest Rank.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the highest rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

John McBride of Buffalo, N. Y., is anxious to hang the assassin Guiteau, and in a telegram to Corkhill he says he will do it "without charging one cent to the government." Cheap enough.

Quick and Sure.

Many miserable people drag themselves about with failing strength, feeling that they are steadily sinking into their graves, when by using Parker's Ginger Tonic they would find a cure commencing with the first dose, and vitality and strength quickly and surely coming back to them.

Alexander H. Stevens of Georgia was ninety years old on the 10th inst., and President Arthur sent him a handsome bouquet in remembrance.

Arrested!

Charles A. Dailey, was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Shiefman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should steal it, he stated that his mother was troubled with rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped her, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offence he was put on probation.—N. York News.

Owing to the objections of the lot owners, the body of Kinkowski, the executed murderer, has been taken up from the cemetery in Hoboken, N. J., where it was buried, and put in the Potters' field. His widow has applied to the courts to change her name.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Symptoms—Moisture, like sweating, itching, worse at night; sometimes it pains so much you will wish you were dead. Are you troubled with this? If so, you are free to be affected. As a pleasant, convenient and positive cure, SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is superior to any article in the market. Sold by druggists, or send 50 cts. in 1-2 c. Stamps, 3 boxes, $1.25. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Phila., Pa.

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says: About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London: I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctor at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes: I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says: I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says: Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes: It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes: From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire News; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. U23

New Hampshire Items.

Neither Mrs. Hannah Cotter, the woman who accidentally shot herself dead in Exeter a few days ago, nor the German boy who loaned her the weapon, were aware that it was loaded.

The body of Daniel Morgan, aged sixty-five years and unmarried, was found at eight o'clock Wednesday morning, Jan. 11th, in front of McConnell's tannery in Franklin. His neck was broken, and a gash was found in his head. The body was frozen and covered with snow. He probably fell from a stairway outside the building in the night. His watch and money were found on the body. There are no suspicions of foul play.

Benjamin F. Trussell of Orford, eighty-seven years of age, was found dead in his bed Tuesday morning, Jan. 10th.

Mr. W. F. Langdon, the projector of the Plymouth water works, will propose at the coming town meeting that the village be lighted by electricity, three 3000-candle-power lamps to be placed on a seventy-feet tower, and one on the Pemigewaset house. The cost is estimated at $400 a year.

Mrs. Samuel Hoyt of Henniker, aged sixty-four years, slipped upon an icy door rock recently and received a serious fracture of the thigh.

C. C. Hunkins, a native of Sandown, died recently of pneumonia at his home in Somerville, Mass., aged forty-seven years. He was principal of the Morse grammar school in Somerville, and had been for a number of years a successful teacher.

A Dover woman has made 3,120 pies during the past year, all of which her fourteen boarders have consumed.

Moses H. Bean of Fisherville, employed in the Hutchinson steam mill at Concord, dropped dead, Thursday, probably of heart disease.

The annual meeting of the New Hampshire Press Association will be held at Mirror Hall, Manchester, on Tuesday, Jan. 17th.

An Enthusiastic Endorsement.

GOUHAM, N. H., July 14, 1879.

Gents—Whoever you are, I don't know; but I thank the Lord and feel grateful to you to know that in this world of adulterated medicines there is one compound that proves and does all it advertises to do, and more. Four years ago I had a slight shock of palsy, which unnerved me to such an extent that the least excitement would make me shake like the ague. Last May I was induced to try Hop Bitters. I used one bottle, but did not see any change; another did so change my nerves that they are now as steady as they ever were. I used to take both hands to write, but now my good right hand writes this. Now, if you continue to manufacture as honest and good an article as you do, you will accumulate an honest fortune, and confer the greatest blessing on your fellow-men that was ever conferred on mankind.

TIM BURCH.

—A Boston teacher, in her little holiday vacation speech to her pupils, trusted they would return resolved that their behavior should be unexceptionable, and that they would give up all bad habits, when a little girl in the back of the room jumped up and said: "The same to you, marm."

"Home, sweet home," has been sung in every land, but no home is complete without a good supply of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, for the cure of coughs, colds, and lung troubles. Price, 35 and 75 cts. New size, 10 cts.

—A bird that lives on the finny tribe is a fish-hawk; and the man who sells the finny tribe is a fish-hawker.

Centaur Liniment.

Invaluable to families, and owners of horses. Sold everywhere.

—A man must be going slowly when he lets old age overtake him.

Castoria.

For sour stomach, constipation, and fretfulness of children. Pleasant, safe and cheap. 900 drops; 35 doses, 35 cents.

—"Swans, one guinea," was one of the items in a bill of a guest at an English hotel. "But I haven't had any swans," protested the astonished guest. "It's the view, sir, from the opened window, sir," explained the waiter, pointing with a fork toward the Thames; "we don't charge for swans in a back room."

Ash-Tonic;

A perfected purifyer of the system. In 1-2lb. bottles; 75 cents. For dyspepsia, the many forms of liver complaint, impure and impoverished blood, functional derangements attendant upon debility. For symptons indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

—A young man living in Leadville shipped to his little brother in St. Louis, as a Christmas present, a choice donkey of the diminutive species known as the Mexican burro. The agent, in making out his manifest, concluded that "burro" meant "bureau," and reported accordingly to his superior, "one bureau missing and one jackass over."

Nothing Short of Unmistakable Benefits

Conferred upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation which AYER'S SARSAPARILLA enjoys. It is a compound of the best vegetable alteratives, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron,—all powerful, blood-making, blood-cleansing and life-sustaining—and is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial, or blood disorders. Uniformly successful and certain, it produces rapid and complete cures of Scrofula, Sores, Boils, Humors, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases and all disorders arising from impurity of the blood. By its invigorating effects it always relieves and often cures Liver Complaints, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, and is a potent renewer of waning vitality. For purifying the blood it has no equal. It tones up the system, restores and preserves the health, and imparts vigor and energy. For forty years it has been in extensive use, and is to-day the most available medicine for the suffering sick.

For sale by all druggists.

—Samuel Putnam, a Michigander, jumped off an Indiana railroad train running at forty miles an hour, to pick up his hat. When the train backed Samuel got aboard with the remark that he would settle with the company for the ten rods of fence he knocked down.

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the city hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half a dollar. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with diseased lungs, will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and am positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness." Sold by all druggists.

—The New York authorities are very careful of their police force. They never put two officers on the same beat, because it is said to be unhealthy for two persons to sleep together.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

—The popular song is "Meet me at the grate, love," the cool weather necessitating the change from "Meet me at the gate, love."

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Invalid Pensions.

There have been filed in the pension office of the United States 434,000 claims for invalid pensions, based upon wounds received or disease incurred in the service of the United States and in the line of duty, the greater part of which, of course, are claimed by soldiers and seamen engaged in the late war.

Some of the leading papers of the day are severe in their condemnation of the arrears-of-pensions law, and attempt to fix the responsibility of its passage upon Washington claim agents. As the claimants under this law had only to make oath to their identity, and no fees were allowed to claim agents, it is difficult to see how the agents received such fabulous sums as the Tribune's Washington correspondent, for example, asserts was the case.

There can be no doubt as to the justice of these claims for arrears in very many cases, for while there may be men who are on the invalid pension list because they "are prevented from earning their living by manual labor" who at the same time are in receipt of good salaries, even in some instances in sinecure office under the government itself, (and to meet such cases there was at one time a law that a man should not be paid the salary of ablebodied man from the government, and at the same time receive a full pension,) yet there are and have been very many deserving cases, not until recently presented for consideration at the department.

Take for example the man who in the vigor of early manhood spent three of the best years of his life in southern camps. Perhaps he has about him the results of several wounds. At the time of their incurring he thought but little of it, save the honorable results incident to his patriotic service; but as age increases, as twenty years go over his head, the man who at twenty-five could stand anything in the way of fatigue, hard fare, weight marches, damp lodging and the many privations and draughts upon his constitution, to-day feels the effects of this strain upon his system. As he consults medical men he is told the cause of his trouble and advised to apply for a pension. "I have lived without that for twenty years," he remarks, and is disinclined now to ask for it.

The very fact that for two decades he made no claim for a pension is a circumstance weighed against him in the adjudication of his case. He finds, too, that surgeons have forgotten him, officers have died, comrades who knew of his disability have scattered or disappeared, and with difficulty he complies with the many rigid requirements of the department having his claim in charge. But is this man any the less deserving of the grateful recognition of his country than is the soldier who, on taking his discharge, at once applied for a pension, while the evidence of his disability was at hand, easily to be produced, and who for over twenty years has been regularly paid a stated sum?

The intention of the act is certainly just, and if the law is properly administered the money will go where it should, to the soldier, now advancing in years, oftentimes with family claims upon him which his power cannot meet without aid of the beneficent provision promised him when he volunteered to sacrifice his health—nay, even his life, if required, for the good of his country. Let us not forget the patriotic promise we made to the gallant boys in blue!

Guiteau's Trial.

On Wednesday, the 12th inst., immediately on the coming in of the court Mr. Davidge began his argument to the jury; for a short time Guiteau kept interjecting his remarks, evidently hoping to annoy Mr. Davidge into being irritated, but finding he could not succeed he relapsed into silence. Mr. Davidge occupied the day until three o'clock, when Judge Porter suggested an adjournment, which the defence agreed to. Judge Cox then enquired of counsel for the defence if they wished to say anything upon Guiteau's request to be heard; this gave rise to an excited colloquy, Guiteau insisting that he should be allowed to make the closing speech for the defence, and Mr. Corkhill protesting in keen terms against the assassin being again allowed to take a seat at the counsel table. Judge Cox finally told Scoville to read over the prisoner's speech and let the court known in the morning if there was anything in it he desired to go before the jury. Without stating whether he would permit the prisoner to speak, or not, Judge Cox ordered an adjournment.

On the 13th Mr Davidge continued his argument, occupying the whole morning session, and resuming after recess.

News and Notes.

Stephen R. Niles, Esq., was on Wednesday elected a director in the Metropolitan railroad of Boston.

President Arthur has ordered the establishing of a pension agency at Augusta, Me. The agency at Concord, N. H., will pay the pensioners in this state and Vermont.

Capt. Gilbert E. R. Patten, one of the most prominent business men and ship owners of Bath, Me., highly respected by all, died Thursday, Jan. 12th, at the age of fifty-eight years.

John Stoezel, of Chicago, says Lawyer Scoville is not the nice person he has been represented, but is all sorts of a swindler and dishonest man, tricky and unreliable to the last degree. The charges are printed in a Chicago paper, and supported by a good deal of testimony. Mr. Scoville's side of the question is not yet presented.

While E. D. Osmer of Springfield, Mass., was driving home from Holyoke on Wednesday evening, the 11th inst., two men stopped him and demanded his money, one of them showing a revolver. He asked them not to shoot, and promised them to surrender his cash, whereupon they let go of his horse and stepped toward him. He took that as his opportunity to get away, and, whipping up his horse, got off safely, though three times fired at, one ball grazing his cheek.

AROUND HOME.

Mr. Nathan Jones, who owns one of the finest farms in Newington, at the bay side, advertises pure milk, to be delivered in any part of the city.

Comdr. Bartlett J. Cromwell is ordered as inspector of ordnance at this navy yard, relieving Comdr. Robert F. Bradford, who is placed on waiting orders.

The schooner John Lenthall, which has been hauled up at the railway wharf, was on Thursday last towed over to C. Morris Tredick's wharf to rest for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. Frank W. Robinson, formerly of this city, entered the firm of Blakiston & Son, Philadelphia, in the publication of medical and scientific books, with the new year. He has for some time been in the employ of the old firm of Lindsey & Blakiston.

Mr. Samuel Adlington, formerly of Eliot, now a resident of Fort Wayne, Indiana, is very dangerously ill.

Lent begins this year on Washington's birthday, February 22d, and Easter Sunday occurs April 2d.

A span of draft horses engaged in teaming at Woodstock, Grafton county, being unable to start the heavy load imposed upon them by their cruel driver, were brutally treated by the man, who in fiendish rage drove a goad-stick into the body of one of the horses, and ripped his bowels open so that the intestines protruded through the gaping wound. Not content with the perpetration of that act of mad folly, the brute beat the horse over the head with the heavy end of the stick. The injured horse had to be killed, as he was hurt past the possibility of recovery. The fellow has the reputation of being a desperate character, and the present instance is entirely in keeping with the reputation ascribed to him. He will now have to wrestle with an agent of the N. H. S. P. C. A., who is on his track.

We learn that Mrs. Ella C. Fenderson of Boston, whose singing has on several recent occasions delighted our people, is to give instructions in vocal music in connection with Mr. Cole in this city, succeeding Mr. Geo. J. Parker, who has been obliged to relinquish his engagement in Portsmouth by reason of impaired health and pressing duties elsewhere. If Mrs. Fenderson is as successful as a teacher, as she has proved as a singer, it will be a fortunate arrangement for pupils in this locality that her services have been secured.

Cuticura

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

SALT RHEUM. Will McDonald, 2543 Dearborn st., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

SKIN DISEASES. F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his sight. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SKIN HUMORS. Mrs. S. E. Whipple, druggist, Lansing, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered fearfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Medicinal Toilet Soap, 25c.; Cuticura Medicinal Shaving Soap, 15c.; in bars for barbers and large consumers, 50c.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

THE OBSTRUCTION ON VAUGHAN STREET.

During the discussion in the board of aldermen last Thursday evening, consequent on Ald. Stavers' question as to whether the city intended to remove from the extension of Vaughan street the unsightly obstruction of the old Wilson house, which projects eight or ten feet into the street, Ald. Noyes said the building was so old that it would not hold together to be moved, and he questioned what authority the city had to move it. Whether the city has authority to move or destroy the building, or not, the city has already paid $75 as damages on account of that very property,—although, oddly enough, the owner (or late owner, for he died on Thursday morning) of the Wilson place on that same evening submitted to the board, by counsel, a request that the city proceed to assess the damages upon so much of his property as will be taken in finishing the new street. Possibly the death of Mr. Wilson may aid in getting the board of aldermen out of the snarl in which they are involved concerning this property, so that the next time an alderman asks if the obstruction is to be removed he will be answered in the affirmative, and told when the work will be done. It seems queer enough to most people that the city government, which was so energetic in clearing away from the course of the new street everything else that was in the way, trees, buildings or what not, should continue to allow this wretched shanty to stick out halfway to the middle of the street, and not dare to touch it.

THE "UNSEAWORTHY" LANCASTER.

A private letter received in this city from parties on board the U. S. S. Lancaster, now flagship of the Mediterranean squadron, has some comments upon the unfavorable reports concerning that vessel which were current about the time of her departure, which are of public interest. We give below the portion of the letter referred to:

VILLEFRANCHE, France, Dec. 27th.

* * I see they are making a great fuss over the ship at home, and are doing all they can to injure the reputation of the Lancaster. The Boston Globe contained an article condemning her as unseaworthy, but we who have been on board of her since she went into commission know what she is both in bad and good weather, and for a comfortable seaboat I never saw her equal. After leaving New York we encountered a terrific gale from the southwest, which lasted about forty-eight hours; the only losses we sustained were a few sails and the port whale boat, which was washed away from the davits by the heavy sea,—but the ship behaved beautifully and proved an excellent sea-craft. It is absurd for the soreheads of Massachusetts and New York to talk as they do about her. We are constantly overrun with visitors, and some of the nobility of France have been on board; they are all very much pleased with the Lancaster and her new improvements, and say she is a credit to our nation. * * Everybody speaks highly of the Lancaster, and if she was made up of odds and ends, as some of the papers say, they put her together in good shape.

THE WRECK AT RYE.

The schooner Josephine came to an anchor a short distance from the wrecked vessel on Thursday, and took on board about five hundred pounds of fish, which was all that was left of the five or six thousand pounds she had on board when she went on the rocks, the rest having been washed away; the Josephine also took aboard the fishing gear and provisions saved from the wreck. As seen on arrival of the Clara Batemen, at half-tide Thursday afternoon, about ten feet of the schooner's keel forward was displaced, and the bottom planks badly chafed; the lower brace of the rudder was also torn out, and the rudder had been secured with ropes; and she was half full of water.

On Friday morning the tug Samuel B. Jones, of Gloucester, having in tow the schooner Island Home with two hundred empty casks on board, arrived at the scene of the wreck, and a hundred of the casks were transferred to the Charles S. Tappan in docks, the remainder being brought up to this city and placed on board the gondola Edgar Weston. At two o'clock Friday afternoon the U. S. S. Leyden, in charge of Mate John L. Vennard, and the tugs Samuel B. Jones and Clara Batemen, the latter having the gondola in tow, started for Rye, but with little hope of doing any service, as a strong easterly wind was blowing in a heavy sea, which would make it a perilous venture to go near the shore. When off Whalesback light the towline of the gondola parted, but was quickly replaced by a stronger one, and another start was made; but when rounding the point near the Eastman cottage the gondola was discovered to be rapidly filling with water, partly from the seas which broke over her and partly from leakage which the heavy strain had occasioned, and the squadron was obliged to return.

The latest news from the wreck, Friday evening, was that her keel was knocked off and she was full of water. She was lying in an easy position, and unless she should receive more serious injuries during the night, strong hopes were entertained of her being got off. The barrels which were placed on board of her in the morning, and put in the hold, were taken out at a later hour and placed on her deck, to prevent a buoyancy which might result in further injury.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The following officers of Wentworth Lodge, No. 2162, Knights of Honor, of Kittery, Me., were installed on Thursday evening, Jan. 12th, by Deputy Grand Dictator D. C. Norton:

Dictator, U. B. Thompson;
Vice Dictator, E. C. Nealley;
Assistant Dictator, Isaac Lambert;
Reporter, T. J. Pettigrew;
Financial Reporter, D. M. Shapleigh;
Treasurer, L. L. Goodrich;
Chaplain, L. B. Gerrish;
Guide, E. A. Duncan;
Guardian, S. H. Williams;
Sentinel, Levi Briard;
Trustees, E. C. Neally, C. H. Hobbs, Leonard Hanscom;
Past Dictator, A. Stevenson.

A despatch received in this city on Friday from Ezra H. Winchester, Esq., announced his arrival at San Francisco on Thursday, where he will remain for a few weeks during a business engagement.

Rev. Charles A. Holbrook will leave this city early next week for a visit to the Azores islands, for the benefit of his health.

Mr. Holbrook, besides the regular labors in connection with his ministry, has been an ardent worker for several objects, charitable, educational, etc., which have absorbed almost every moment of his time, and this overwork has been a severe strain upon his system. The best wishes of those who know and appreciate his true worth will attend him on his travels, and they will rejoice to welcome him home with renewed health.

Mr. Joshua M. Vaughan met with a very painful accident, and one which might easily have been very serious, on Thursday afternoon last, the snapper of his whip striking him in the left eye with such force as to draw blood. The accident occurred in York, and it was eight o'clock in the evening before he arrived at his residence in this city, he having stopped for some hours at a house in York, bathing the wounded eye with warm water, before the pain was sufficiently abated to enable him to drive home.

Attention is invited to "Fortunes in Colorado," in another column. We have carefully examined a pamphlet of the great mining enterprise therein described, and can see no reason to doubt that there are millions in it, which labor will bring to daylight, and to those interested large returns for their labor and money. Mr. Greenleaf has been requested to act as agent in this vicinity for the sale of stock, and we feel safe in saying that his well-known caution would not permit him to engage in any scheme into which he had not made all practicable enquiries, and we know he would not engage in anything which on investigation he was not satisfied was strictly honorable, safe and "square."

Sir Nathan Parker Hunt, R. E. Grand Commander of the state of New Hampshire, has accepted an invitation in behalf of himself and officers to visit De-Witt Clinton Commandry of Kights Templar, of this city, on Monday evening, Jan. 16th, for the purpose of installing the newly-elected officers.

At the annual meeting of the Appalachian Mountain club, held in Boston on the 11th inst., Charles W. Kennard, formerly of this city, was chosen treasurer. The club will make an excursion to Jackson in this state on the first day of February.

The pipe leading from the Eastern railroad's wells near Frenchman's lane has been connected with the service tank near Vaughan street, and affords a sufficient supply of water for present uses.

The schooner Comet brought in 700 lbs. of fish on Thursday, the 12th inst.,—the only fish arrival that day.

A letter received in this city on the 11th inst. from a gentleman on board the U. S. S. Lancaster, throws light upon the reported loss of Mr. Stevens, the master-at-arms. It was not Mr. Stevens who jumped overboard, but one of the men who was in confinement for some offence, and who took that method to escape, but without success, as he was speedily recaptured and returned to his dungeon cell.

The schooner John W. Smart, which arrived in the lower harbor a few days ago with a cargo of frozen herring, left for Boston on Friday, having sold them at that place.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. eod&wtjan82

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00.—non-assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

A Shocking Murder.

S. A. Vandecook, fifty years old and unmarried, has for several years boarded with Harrison Calkins of Alford, Mass., Near Calkins' house for some years has lived an old California miner named Oscar T. Beckwith, an ex-convict bearing the reputation of being a dangerous man. Vandecook and Beckwith had a quarrel not long since, and the latter threatened to kill the former. On Tuesday, the 20th inst., Vandecook went to work in the woods, chopping, and not returning next day a posse proceeded to Beckwith's cabin, when it was found that he had fled. On breaking open the door a sickening spectacle was presented, portions of a man's head, arms and legs being found partly burned in the stove, and the rest of the body, chopped up into small pieces, in other parts of the hut. Further examination revealed that the murder was committed in the woods, and the body dragged to the hut and chopped up. The assassin was traced to Green River, New York, on the 12th, and it was not thought he could escape.

Sayings of Garfield.

A pound of pluck is worth a ton of luck.

Liberty can be safe only when suffrage is illuminated by education.

The granite hills are not so changeless and abiding as the restless sea.

We no longer attribute the untimely death of infants to the sin of Adam, but to bad nursing and ignorance.

Throughout the whole web of national existence we trace the golden thread of human progress toward a higher and better estate.

Poverty is uncomfortable, as I can certify; but nine times out of ten, the best thing that can happen to a young man is to be tossed overboard and compelled to sink or swim for himself.

Political parties, like poets, are born, not made. No act of political mechanics, however wise, can manufacture to order and make a platform, and put a party on it which will live and flourish.

After the fire and blood of the battle field have disappeared, nowhere does war show its destroying power so certainly and so relentlessly as in the columns which represent the expenditures of the nation.

I look forward with joy and hope to the day when our brave people, one in heart, one in their aspirations for freedom and peace, shall see that the darkness through which we have travelled was but a part of that stern but beneficent discipline by which the Great Disposer of events has been leading us on, to a higher and nobler national life.

The man who wants to serve his country must put himself in the line of its leading thought, and that is, the restoration of business, trade, commerce, industry, sound political economy, hard money and honest payment of all obligations; and the man who can add anything in the direction of the accomplishment of any of these purposes is a public benefactor.

In the bright autumnal days the temptation to comfortable exposure yields its fruit in a most pernicious cough and irritation of the throat. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup stands unrivalled as a remedy for throat and lung diseases. 25 cents a bottle.

In a little burying ground at Rockville Centre, Long Island, is a row of sixteen little graves, wherein lie sixteen children of Furman Abrams and wife, all of whom died in childhood. The pair have one child living, a boy seventeen years old.

A circumstance with a very happy outcome was lately referred to by the Brooklyn Eagle. It was told by Mr. W. A. Davenport, connected with the house of Messrs. Butler, Pitken & Co., 476 Broadway, New York, and concerned the marvelous cure of Mr. Ezra D. Clarkson, near Newark, N. J., of a terrible case of rheumatism, which other remedies had failed even to alleviate. He was on his way to a hospital when Mr. Davenport met him and induced him to try St. Jacobs Oil, with the result named.—Cleveland (Ohio) Practical Farmer.

In one of the churches of New London, Conn., on Sunday, a peculiar looking coin was found in the contribution box. It puzzled the numismatists among the vestrymen, who could not decipher the script legend, "Good for 5c. at the bar."

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never officerful, are they?

The whole amount of lime manufactured in Rockland, Me., during the year 1881, was 917,067 barrels.

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our recent visit to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have resumed my strength, and am able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
Never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1y13

New Hampshire Items.

Frank Gavin, aged sixteen years, has been bound over in the police court of Manchester, in $300, for burglary. It is his third offence.

About 200 freemasons belonging to the Washington and Lafayette lodges of Manchester made a fraternal visit to Lawrence, Mass., Friday evening.

The ninth annual session of the New Hampshire State Musical festival will be held at Concord, commencing Jan. 31st and ending Feb. 3d. The festival will be conducted by Carl Zerrahn of Boston; the orchestra will be under the conductorship of Henry G. Blaisdell. The chorus will probably be the largest and most effective ever assembled in the state.

John G. Kimball of Dalton, who whipped his wife to death in 1877, and who in that year was indicted for murder in the first degree, and pleading guilty in the second degree was sentenced to thirty years in the state prison, died a few days ago. His remains were taken to Dalton for burial.

Damage to the amount of $7000 was occasioned in Concord on the 13th inst., by a fire which was started in Giles' book-bindery by the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—It gives me great satisfaction to say your Cream Balm (recommended to me by a friend) has completely cured me of catarrh by which I have been afflicted for over ten years, after trying almost every remedy recommended, none having proved so pleasant, effective and thorough as your Cream Balm in its work. Very truly, etc., S. J. AIKEN, Wholesale Dealer in Boots and Shoes, 143 Federal St., Boston, Mass. Feb. 5, 1881.

Messrs. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—I have been handling your Cream Balm and find that it takes well. Some very old cases of catarrh are said to have been cured by it in this vicinity. S. S. DETRICK, Druggists, East Stroudsburg, Penn.

Price fifty cents.

Voyager La Salle's discovery of the mouth of the Mississippi will be celebrated in New Orleans on April 9th, which will be the 200th anniversary of that event. The cities of the great valley expect to take part in the great festival. Marshall Field of Chicago has placed $1,000 at the disposal of the Historical society of that city to procure the planting of a portrait of La Salle.

Arrested!

Charles A. Dailey, was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Shielman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should steal it, he stated that his mother was troubled with rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped her, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offence he was put on probation.—Newark News.

While more than 700,000 emigrants came to this country during 1881, Canada gathered only 14,597. If the Dominion were part of the United States, it would capture at least one-quarter of the European emigration to this continent.

"Rough on Rats."

The thing desired found at last. Ask druggist for Rough on Rats. It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs; 15 cts. boxes.

Skinny Men.

Wells' Health Renewer. Absolute cure for nervous debility and weakness of the general functions; $1 at druggists. Depot at J. H. Thacher.

The overflow of the Cumberland river at Nashville, Tenn., last week, drove two hundred families from their homes, and compelled the mills to stop work. Heavy floods were expected along the Mississippi and other western rivers.

The Highest Rank.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the highest rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

The grand jury at Catlettsburg, Ky., last week found true bills for murder against Ellis Craft, William Neal and George Ellis, for the murder at Ashland of Fannie Gibbons, Robert Gibbons and Emma Thomas. The demons are guarded by troops, and while there is great excitement no violence is feared.

Quick and Sure.

Many miserable people drag themselves about with failing strength, feeling that they are steadily sinking into their graves, when by using Parker's Ginger Tonic they would find a cure commencing with the first dose, and vitality and strength quickly and surely coming back to them.

At Springfield, Ill., a preacher who was fatally ill with small-pox held a "holiness meeting" on Sunday night, the 8th inst.; this meeting was well attended, some of those present being from the country. Eight cases of the disease have since appeared among them, and a panic exists, as might be expected. Fifteen hundred employes of rolling mills are being vaccinated, and the local board of health is doing a vast amount of free vaccination.

"Home, sweet home," has been sung in every land, but no home is complete without a good supply of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, for the cure of coughs, colds, and lung troubles. Price, 35 and 75 cts. New size, 10 cts.

The safe of the savings bank at Uxbridge, Mass., was broken open Wednesday night, Jan. 11th. Entrance to the room was gained by breaking the door with a sledge and crowbar. The safe was opened with dynamite. Charles A. Taft, treasurer, says that only a few dollars of the bank's money was in the safe, but, as postmaster, he loses $400 in stamps. There is no trace of the burglars.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of its merits is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

Local physicians who were called to attend the daughter of George Spencer at Hartsville, Mass., Jan 11th, found her suffering from a clear case of hydrophobia. The girl, who is eleven years old, was bitten two years ago by a neighbor's dog, since which nothing has been thought about it. In August she commenced fainting, but on the 11th began to exhibit symptoms of rabies, and barks likes a dog, bites at chairs when pushed toward her, and froths at the mouth, fits coming on twice a day or oftener.

The Way a Swede Sees It.

Pervading all classes of the Swedish people and controlling them in their plans and ideas is that strong vein of practical common sense which insures a conservation of conduct and action that proves a singular benefit to them in their daily dealings with men. If one knows of a good thing they are all sure to know of it sooner or later. These were our impressions while perusing a few lines from Mr. B. C. Sandberg, of Ogden, Weber county, Utah, wherein he says: I have used St. Jacobs Oil and I wish to tell my countrymen that it is the very best remedy I have ever tried for rheumatism.—It is with pleasure that we also present the name of a well-known citizen who can speak intelligently concerning the great German remedy: Everybody living on the south side knowns Mr. J. D. L. Harvey, a gentleman who has been a resident of Chicago for twenty years. His establishment, "The Palace Market," Nos. 104, 106 and 108 Twenty-second street, is probably the finest of its kind in the city, and numbers among its customers most of the aristocratic families of that section of Chicago. Mr. Harvey expressed himself upon the "oil subject" as follows: "I have spent over $2,000 to cure my wife of rheumatism. Two bottles of St. Jacobs Oil accomplished what all medical treatment failed to bring about. I regard it a greater discovery than electricity. It is a boon to the human race, and I am very glad to have this opportunity of testifying to its remarkable efficacy. I cannot speak too highly of it, and I would be recreant to my duty to those afflicted did I not lift my voice in its praise."

STARTLING DISCOVERY!
LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.
A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Another Railroad Horror.

A frightful disaster occurred on the Hudson River railroad near Spuyten Duyvil, in the upper part of New York city, about seven o'clock Friday evening. The afternoon express train from Albany stopped just after passing a curve and cut, on account of some derangement, and while standing was run into by a local train from Tarrytown, the engine of the latter train crashing into the Idlewild, a Wagner palace car which was on the rear of the Albany express, the Idlewild telescoping the palace car Empire, next ahead.

The wreck of the two cars immediately took fire, and a scene of the wildest horror ensued. Men worked bravely to rescue the people who were jammed in the burning cars, and whose screams and groans and pitiful cries for help could be heard, but only a few were saved, the flames soon driving the rescuers from the cars, several of them with severe burns, and the shrieks of the sufferers were soon hushed in death.

The number of lives known to be lost by the disaster was reported from New York on Saturday evening to be sixteen, in addition to many others seriously burned or wounded, and taken home by their friends. Up to Saturday evening the following victims had been identified:

Webster Wagner, state senator of New York, aged sixty-nine years, burned to death; D. L. Ransom of Meserve, N. Y.; Mrs. William T. Brown, wife of a mining broker of New York city; Oliver B. Keeley of Spring City, Pa.; Rev. Francis Meareshal, of St. Joseph's church, Troy, N. Y.; Park Valentine, aged twenty-one, of Bennington, Vt., and his wife, aged nineteen, who were burned to death in each other's arms. This young couple had only been married the day before, and were on their way south on their bridal tour; the bride was a Miss Gaylord of North Adams, Mass., and the husband a nephew of Trenor W. Park, and son of A. B. Valentine, one of the wealthiest citizens of southern Vermont.

Besides these, there were two young ladies from North Adams, Mass., and eight bodies unidentified.

Mr. Valentine, father of Park Valentine, was the only passenger on the wrecked train who saw the impending collision in season to jump for his life. He was standing on the rear platform of the Idlewild. A brakeman, with a red light in one hand, was standing ten feet away, looking up the track toward the Spuyten Duyvil station. Of a sudden the headlight of the Tarrytown locomotive loomed up not 200 yards away. The brakeman started on a run toward it, and began to swing his lantern. Mr. Valentine had just time to leap from the platform and run across the track when the locomotive plunged into the Idlewild. This brakeman, named John Melius, disappeared immediately after the collision, but was heard of next day; he is to be arrested.

Guiteau's Trial.

On the conclusion of Mr. Davidge's argument, on the afternoon of the 14th, Mr. Reed, of counsel for the defence, said he preferred to begin and end his remarks without a break, and thought he could finish in the forenoon of the next day; an adjournment was consequently taken.

On the 14th, before Reed commenced to speak, Scoville asked Judge Cox to announce his decision as to whether Guiteau should address the jury or not. Judge Cox promptly replied that Guiteau could not have that privilege, which the judge felt sure Guiteau would abuse by dragging in irrelevant matter and by insolence; if there was anything in Guiteau's written speech which should go before the jury, his counsel could incorporate it in their remarks, or read it. Guiteau demurred to this decision in his usual impertinent manner, after which Reed spoke until three o'clock, when the court adjourned.

The Hudson River Railway Calamity.

Mr. Vanderbilt's railroad will have to pay a round sum in damages resulting from the carelessness of his employes on Friday. The hauling up, near a curve, of a train which had but just passed another train which was to follow it on the same iron, not sending back men with signals to stop the following train, was of course the most inexcusable and gross carelessness. Perhaps the legislative passengers may have held free passes issued with the customary clause "exempting the road from all claim for damage caused by carelessness of its agents;" but this is not an accident of any ordinary kind, but a direct violation of well known rules. Senator Wagner, who was one of the killed, was the inventor of the celebrated Wagner car, and singularly enough perished in one of the vehicles bearing his name.

Crime in Maine.

Att'y Gen'l Henry B. Cleaves, of Maine,—a state in which there is "no hanging for murder,"—makes a report in which he says that during the past year four persons in Maine have been convicted, upon trial, of murder in the first degree. In addition, two verdicts of manslaughter were returned, one being against Ralph B. Richards of Rockport, fifteen years old, who brutally murdered a younger boy named Willie Cain. Two additional indictments for murder were returned, and sentence imposed in one case upon a plea of guilty, the court adjudging the grade to be murder in the first degree; the other case, against Sarah F. Whitten for the murder of her infant child at Kennebunk, is undisposed of.

Commenting upon this condition of affairs the attorney general says: "The convictions for murder in the first degree during the present year alone, exceed the number during the three years previous to the abolition of the death penalty, and are nearly equal to the number occurring during the three years following! The frequency of the horrible crimes, and the fiendish brutality exhibited in the commission of a large portion of them, has naturally created a sentiment in the community for the application of the death penalty in the cases of such atrocious character. There are arguments for and against its application; arguments that are satisfactory to the minds and consciences of the adherents and opponents. Any amount of discussion of the question, I apprehend, would have but slight effect upon the convictions already formed by the mass of our citizens. The laws are for the protection of the public, of society, and are not presumed to be in sympathy with the hardened criminal; and if the law-abiding and peaceable citizens of this state, who desire to live with some sense of security, can be better protected from the assassin's knife or the ruffian's bullet by the restoration of the death penalty, it is a matter that should receive the most careful and serious consideration of the legislature."

Dramatic.

Maggie Mitchell begins an engagement at the Park theatre, Boston, this week.

Mr. Boucicault will play "Conn, the Shaughraun," at the Museum.

John McCullough is filling an engagement at the Boston theatre, and will play in six different plays.

The new comedy of "The Mother-in-law" is to be presented at the Globe every evening this week.

At the Howard Athenæum, Ben. P. Shillaber's "Mrs. Partington" is having a successful run, and enters upon its second week.

News and Notes.

A man named J. M. Guiteau pretended to appear in a New York court as counsel for a motor company, but the presiding justice ordered him to step down and out, as it was alleged by the company's officers that Guiteau was an imposition and an intrusion. The New York papers say he is a cousin of the assassin Guiteau. Judging from the developments since the murderer's trial commenced, the whole family is an excellent one not to be acquainted with.

The fishing schooner Barracouta, of Gloucester, on a late cruise hooked the Direct Cable Co.'s cable with her anchor, and had to lose her anchor and part of her own cable, to avoid injuring the telegraph. Her owners were promptly forwarded a check for $100 by the telegraph company.

Capt. Lorin Emerson, now of California, formerly of Orland, Me., rescued a Japanese junk in the north Pacific ocean last May. The junk was 2,000 miles out of her course, and of a crew of eleven, three had died. The Japanese government has sent to Capt. Emerson, through the secretary of state, a set of vases valued at $5,000.

Twenty horses, many of them valuable ones, have died in Newburyport of the "pinkeye."

Scarlet fever is raging in Buffalo, N Y. Nine pupils of one school have died, and fifty other scholars are sick.

A warrant has been asked in London for the arrest of the Marquis of Huntley, knight of the thistle, etc., for obtaining £2418 from Benjamin Nicholson under false pretences. The marquis ran away from England in June last, and is now on the continent.

President Arthur's daughter Nellie does not like the White House, as she finds it too big and lonesome.

Albert F. Yeaton, a man thirty-three years of age, was arrested at Biddeford on the 13th inst. for stealing watches and jewelry from the house of Manuel Means on the 11th. The thief, who rented rooms in the house with Means, and obtained access to the latter's premises by means of false keys, confessed his guilt and told where the plunder was hidden. He was bound over to the supreme court.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. eod&wtjan82

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Probabilities for New England:—Increasing cloudiness and rain or snow, south to west winds, followed by rising barometer, rising temperature on Monday and colder weather Tuesday morning.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, registered 26 degrees above zero.

Stormy.

CROWS' EARS.

The Dover Republican remarks that the legislature, in its haste at the late session, "passed a law requiring selectmen of towns to cut off the ears of such hawks and crows" as may be presented to them for the state bounty, before paying it, the same as in the case of wolves, etc. As the town officials, after diligent search, have failed to find any ears on the prescribed birds to cut off, the boys who have been after them will have to wait for their pay until another legislature amends the work of its lamented predecessor, which cannot be until the summer of 1883, unless Gov. Bell should deem it expedient to call an extra session of the existing body for that purpose, and for doing some other things which with equal wisdom they left undone.

THE WRECK AT RYE.

Saturday forenoon at ten o'clock the tug Clara Batemen, with the gondola Edgar Weston in tow, made her third trip to the wreck. The gondola was dropped in close to the shore, and the barrels which she had on board were landed in dories under the superintendence of Capt. Rand of the Clara Batemen, a heavy surf breaking over the rocks at the time. At about four o'clock in the afternoon the revenue cutter Alexander J. Dallas arrived, followed by the U. S. S. Leyden and the tug Samuel B. Jones. The cutter sent a boat to the Clara Batemen for information concerning the wreck, which was given by Capt. Rand, with a copy of the CHRONICLE containing the full details of the mishap. At about five o'clock the Leyden and the two tugs were lashed together, and a heavy hawser was parted in an attempt to tow off the schooner. No further efforts could be made on that tide, owing to the lateness of the hour, so the steamers returned to port, the Leyden anchoring in the lower harbor and the tugs coming up to the city.

Early Sunday morning another attempt was made by the three steamers to drag the schooner off the rocks. Two hawsers, one seven-inch and one nine-inch, were run under her stern and starboard quarter, and made fast around the windlass and both the masts; but the combined force of the three steamers only sufficed to swing the wreck's stern a few feet, the hawsers parting like ropeyarns. Another trial, this time with one seven-inch hawser and two nine-inch ones, was made, but with no better success, the three big lines snapping almost simultaneously. The ebbing of the tide precluded any further operations. The immense power brought to bear on the schooner was almost sufficient to have dragged her off from dry land, and it seemed evident that she must be hung by a sharp point of the ledge projecting through her bottom. When the steamers returned to port, Sunday forenoon, there was little hope of getting the wreck afloat in a condition to warrant any repairs, on the present run of tides.

There were several arrivals of fishing vessels on Saturday, with but very light fares, about three thousand pounds being received in all.

The sleighing on Sunday was good, and the livery stable keepers enjoyed it.

Two gentlemen from Harpswell, Me., were in this city on Friday last, inspecting the schooner Hattie Lewis with a view to her purchase. They reported very little snow in the vicinity of Harpswell at the time they left there.

The City Guards (Co. C, 1st Reg't N. H. N. G.,) have been presented by Col. John B. Hall of Manchester, colonel of the regiment, with a very handsome half-length photographic portrait of himself, representing him in full uniform. The picture, which is life-like in its resemblance, will be framed, and hung in the armory of the company.

Captain Samuel Hiltz, of the wrecked schooner Iris, has obtained the schooner Sylph, of Boston, and will again engage in fishing from this port.

The receipt of fish at this port during the week ending January 14th shows fair results, nothwithstanding almost continuous storms. There were fourteen arrivals, bringing in 31,100 pounds, against thirteen arrivals with 28,730 pounds the previous week. Schooner John W. Smart also brought in 75,000 frozen herring from Eastport. Besides the above there was landed 2000 lbs. of slack-salted fish, 750 lbs. hake sounds, ten barrels fish oil, and twenty-five barrels of spawn, all from the Isles of Shoals. Prices generally remained unchanged There are now twenty-one vessels winter fishing out of this port.

There has been no dissolution of the firm of Trefethen & Shea, (of which Mr. Dennis Shea of this city is a member,) of Dover, as has been stated, nor is any contemplated. The firm have sold in that city about 21,000 feet of cement pipe, and propose to keep on; they do not manufacture pipe in Dover during the winter, their building in that city not being so warm and comfortable as the heavy brick structure employed as a manufactory in Portsmouth, which only is kept going during the cold season.

A large number of English sparrows make their winter home in one of Mr. J. Albert Walke's buildings at the Concord railroad wharf, a pane of glass in one of the windows being left out all the time to allow them free ingress and egress.

The 24th regiment of Massachusetts volunteers are to hold a reunion at Young's hotel in Boston on Friday of this week. Dr. John W. Parsons of this city served as assistant surgeon of this regiment. Dr. S. A. Green, mayor of Boston, is to be a guest of the regiment on this occasion.

Among the recent transfers of real estate in this vicinity, as left for record in the office of the register of deeds, are the following: Portsmouth—Benjamin F. Webster to Herman W. Oxford, land on Middle street, $1000. Newcastle—Ellen M. Teague, of Boston, Mass., to Dollie F. Haywood, of Boston, land and buildings, $1; Abigail J. Trefethen, of Boston, Mass., to Dollie F. Haywood, of Boston, land and buildings, $475; George A. Bartlett, of Cambridge, Mass., to Jacob Wendell, of New York city, land, $2500. Newington—Otis B. Downing to Mary F. Downing, land, $1; Richard H. Tuttle, of Dover, to James W. Coleman, land and buildings, $2500. Stratham—Charles Kelly to Winfield S. Kelly, land, $10. Newmarket—George W. Mitchell, of Lawrence, Mass., to Jethro H. Swett, of Somersworth, land and buildings, $70. Hampton—David J. Garland to Daniel Moulton, land and buildings, $1300.

The dancing class of young ladies and gentlemen who have been practising the light fantastic during the winter in Franklin upper hall, under the instruction of Mr. Samuel Lamprey—than whom no one is better able to guide them in the way they should go, in this respect—closed one evening last week with an assembly, which was attended by a considerable number of the parents and friends of the young people. The dancing was kept up until about one o'clock.

The supreme court for Rockingham county comes in at Exeter on Tuesday, Judge Carpenter presiding.

The second annual ball of the telegraph operators of the Eastern railroad was held in Monument hall, Charlestown, Mass., on Friday evening, and was attended by about one hundred couples.

Deputy Sheriff D. C. Goodwin, of Cape Neddick, York, who was quite badly hurt in the bridge smash-up on the Boston & Maine railroad at Wells, had an insurance policy against accident in the Traveller's company—a very useful thing to have on hand when one gets injured but doesn't like to stop drawing pay.

Moses H. Bean, one of the projectors of the improvements at York beach which within a few years have made that place one of the most noted and successful summer resorts in New England, recently died in Fisherville, N. H., at the age of about fifty-six years. He was a native of Salisbury.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—non-assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—Le Sud Lancet.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

An Interesting Account.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

W. H. Bishop, author of "Detmold," is in California. His serial, "The House of a Merchant Prince," begins in the February Atlantic,—which will also contain a long poem by John G. Whittier.

The January number of the "Granite Monthly" has a steel engraving of Gen. S. C. Griffin, and an article on the first settlement of New Hampshire, written from the Dover standpoint by Geo. Wadleigh.

Prof. Shairp, who is favorably known to the best American readers by his three books already published in this country, has just brought out a volume containing the lectures delivered by him as Professor of Poetry, at Oxford. The book, which is entitled "Aspects of Poetry," is one of decided critical and literary value, and will be published about the 20th of January, by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.

"The Tribune Almanac and Political Reporter" for 1882, edited by Edward McPherson, clerk of the United States house of representatives, contains much information of political interest, statistics, tables and other data, which make it a valuable book of reference. Its ninety-six pages are full of interesting and carefully-prepared statements, and it is by far the most convenient and economical publication of the kind in the country. Published by the Tribune Co., New York, at twenty-five cents; sent on receipt of price.

The second volume of Houghton, Mifflin & Co.'s "American Men of Letters" is devoted to Noah Webster. Mr. Horace E. Scudder tells the story of how Webster's work as a lexicographer fitted into the development of the intellectual life of America. Mr. Scudder's clear and charming style assures a readable book.

Dime Novel Heroes.

On Tuesday night of last week the residence of Thos. Orr, in Brockton, Mass., was broken into and a sum of money stolen from Mr. Orr's pocket. Officers arrested a boy named Frank Jewett, aged sixteen years, on suspicion, as having been engaged in the robbery, and Jewett confessed that he, together with Orr's son, aged twelve, and Harry Woodward, aged fifteen, were the guilty parties, and the other two were also arrested. Jewett stated that Orr went into the room of a boarder and stole a revolver, and crept to his father's room, where the old gentleman was asleep, and took the money, and furthermore added that Orr would have shot his father dead, had he been detected. The boys had bought pistols, rifles and ammunition, and intended to go to the state of Maine and gain a living by hunting and trapping.

We can, without hesitation, say that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has given the best satisfaction. We have sold an immense amount of it during the past winter. WALLACE, HILTON & CO., Druggists, Lock Haven, Pa.

It has been found that the murder of Vandercook by Beckwith, which was at first reported to have been committed in Alford, Mass., was actually committed in Austerlitz, just across the New York state line. The locality of the crime is out of the way and thinly settled.

I will Never!

Allow myself to suffer again what I have suffered for the last year. That vile disease dyspepsia gave me no comfort. I could not eat or enjoy anything. The doctors amounted to nothing; nothing seemed to relieve me, until I used a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Four bottles made me well.—Shoe Dealer.

Grateful to Invalids.

Floreston Cologne is grateful to invalids, because it is refreshing without the sickening effect of most perfumes.

The Thursday morning passenger train from Portland to Waterville, on the Maine Central railroad, was run into by the down freight between Hallowell and Gardiner. One of the passenger cars was badly stove up, and one engine considerably crippled. There was no injury to passengers. Ice had accumulated on the side track, which the freight was to use as a siding, to such an extent that the brakes would not hold, and the heavy freight pushed the engine on to the main track as the passenger train was passing.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork. —Times.

A despatch to London from Calmar, Sweden, states that a Swedish mail steamer has sunk in Calma sound, while on a trial trip. Fifteen persons were drowned.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism
Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1123

The Galena was at the Canary islands Dec. 21st, bound down the African coast as far as Cape Palmas; all well.

The Tallapoosa arrived at New York on the 12th inst., from Norfolk.

The Yantic arrived at Jamaica on the 11th inst. from Port au Prince, an infected port, and was quarantined for four days.

Commander W. R. Bridgman, commanding the Despatch, writes to the navy department under date of Santa Barara, Samana bay, December 30th, that he arrived at that port December 23d. The governor of Santa Barara consented to let him continue his work of surveying, with the understanding that it should be discontinued at any time, if demanded by his government.

A general court martial, with Commodore E. Y. McCauley as president, has been ordered to convene at the Norfolk navy yard for the trial of Lieut. Comdr. George R. Durand, charged generally with disobedience of orders.

A New Hospital Needed.

Elbridge T. Gerry, president of the New York society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, has written a letter to Mayor Grace calling his attention to the need of a new hospital in that city for the care of patients with contagious diseases. The letter states that the society invited the attention of the board of health to an infant asylum, where eighty children were found in one building with cases of scarlet fever, diphtheria, whooping-cough and measles. The board sent word to the society that the only place in the city for the care of such cases was the reception hospital, and that was so crowded that the patients ran the risk of taking some other disease.

Civil Service Examination.

A competitive examination, under "civil service" rules, is being held at the custom house in New York this week, beginning on Tuesday and lasting five days, the days being devoted as follows: The first two, to the examination of clerks; the two following days, to that of inspectors; and the last day, that of night inspectors. The applications received number about two hundred and fifty, and the candidates have been divided into clases of about fifty. This is the first civil service examination under the present collector. The appointments that he has made have been selected from previous examinations.

Nathan W. Kennedy of Danville, Conn., twenty-five years old, shot himself fatally on Friday, on account of a love affair.

An Enthusiastic Endorsement.

GORHAM, N. H., July 14, 1879.

Gents—Whoever you are, I don't know; but I thank the Lord and feel grateful to you to know that in this world of adulterated medicines there is one compound that proves and does all it advertises to do, and more. Four years ago I had a slight shock of palsy, which unnerved me to such an extent that the least excitement would make me shake like the ague. Last May I was induced to try Hop Bitters. I used one bottle, but did not see any change; another did so change my nerves that they are now as steady as they ever were. It used to take both hands to write, but now my good right hand writes this. Now, if you continue to manufacture as honest and good an article as you do, you will accumulate an honest fortune, and confer the greatest blessing on your fellow-men that was ever conferred on mankind.

TIM BURCH.

Reports from the ranches of Texas say that a disease resembling the Asiatic plague has broken out among the cattle men, creating great excitement. A red spot shows itself on the face, and spreading, the head swells up in a short time, and death always ensues. The disease baffles the skill of the doctors, who do not identify it.

Centaur Liniment.

Invaluable to families, and owners of horses Sold everywhere.

W. B. Closson is engraving a portrait of Henry James, Jr., for Houghton, Mifflin & Co. He has already engraved for that firm admirable portraits of Longfellow, Emerson, Whittier, Holmes, Lowell, Aldrich, Warner, Bjornson, and Mrs. Stowe.

Castoria.

For sour stomach, constipation, and fretfulness of children. Pleasant, safe and cheap. 900 drops; 35 doses, 35 cents.

The 26th volume of Houghton, Mifflin & Co.'s "Philosophical Library," to be published shortly, contains "The Mind of Mencius." Rev. Ernst Faber, a German, has made systematic and classified arrangement of the works of Mencius on moral philosophy and political economy, with comments and explanations; and his work has been translated by Rev. A. B. Hutchinson, of the Church Mission at Hong Kong, who furnishes additional notes. The whole is a book of great value to students of Chinese history and thought.

Ash-Tonic;

A perfected purifyer of the system. In 1-2lb. bottles; 75 cents. For dyspepsia, the many forms of liver complaint, impure and impoverished blood, and functional derangements attendant upon debility. For symptoms indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

The "Army & Navy Register" has come out in an enlarged and altered form, and a new dress; it is now a sixteen-page paper, with three broad columns on a page, and is of a convenient size for binding. It is an excellent "service" paper, and deserves the success which we are pleased to be informed it has achieved in its special field. Published at Washington, D. C., at $3 per annum; single copy six cents.

"Bachupalba."

New, quick, complete cure four days, urinary affections, smarting, frequent or difficult urination, kidney diseases. $1. Druggists. Depot, J. H. Thacher's.

Suicide and Dyspepsia.

A most remarkable cure for dyspepsia, "Wells' Health Renewer." The greatest tonic, best bilious and liver remedy known. $1. Druggists. Depot, Thacher's

Roberts Brothers will publish next spring, on the anniversary of Theodore Parker's death, a volume of selections from his books and manuscripts. A new edition of his "Prayers," with a preface by Miss Louisa Alcott, will be brought out immediately by the same house.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

An index to Hawthorne's works, enabling the readers to refer to any character, incident, or noteworthy thought in Hawthorne's writings, will be published shortly by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. in two editions, to match the "Little Classic" and "Library" editions of Hawthorne's works.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, April 1st, 1881.

We take pleasure in stating that the great German remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, is being used by many ring artists now engaged with P. T. Barnum's Greatest Show on Earth, united with the Great London Circus, Sanger's Royal British Menagerie and the International Allied Shows. From its happy effect upon those who have occasion to employ it, we have no hesitation in pronouncing St. Jacobs Oil the best liniment which has ever been brought to our notice. It is wonderfully efficacious in subduing pain.

The Purest and Best Medicine ever Made. A Combination of Hops, Buchu, Mandrake and Dandelion, with all the best and most curative properties of all other Bitters, the greatest Blood Purifier, Liver Regulator, and Life and Health Restoring Agent on earth.

No disease can possibly long exist where Hop Bitters are used, so varied and perfect are their operations.

They give new life and vigor to the aged and infirm. To all whose employments cause irregularity of the bowels or urinary organs, or who require an Appetizer, Tonic and mild Stimulant, Hop Bitters are invaluable, without intoxicating.

No matter what your feelings or symptoms are what the disease or ailment is use Hop Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable, use them at once. It may save your life. It has saved hundreds.

$500 will be paid for a case they will not cure or help. Do not suffer, but if your friends suffer, but use and urge them to use Hop Bitters.

Remember, Hop Bitters is not a vile, drugged drunken nostrum, but the Purest and Best Medicine ever made; the "FAMILY FRIEND and HOPE" and no person or family should be without them.

D. I. C. is an absolute and irresistible cure for drunkenness, use of opium, tobacco and narcotics. All sold by druggists. Send for Circular. Hop Bitters Mfg. Co., Rochester, N. Y. and Toronto, Ont.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or impair, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Richard M. Kimball of Hopkinton, about ninety years old, attempted suicide Sunday afternoon with a razor. His wife prevented him from doing more than wounding his throat. He said he had lost all enjoyment in living, and believed he should be happy in a future state. Domestic trouble is thought to have prompted the attempt.

A post-office has been established at West Brentwood, with Osman S. Currier as postmaster.

The committee designated to make the award of the Clark prizes at the annual speaking by scholars from the public schools in Manchester, to take place on the 27th inst., are Hon. Mason W. Tappan of Bradford, Hon. H. H. Huse of Manchester, Hon. John Y. Mugridge of Concord, Rev. George B. Spalding of Dover and Col. William H. Hackett of Portsmouth.

Mr. Whittier was with George Thompson in Concord at the time when feeling was strong against the abolitionists. They left the city "between two days," as Mr. Whittier expressed it, and on arriving at Chester they stopped to breakfast at an inn. A large crowd had collected there and were talking about the mob raised against George Thompson and Whittier in Concord. The innkeeper was enlarging on the subject, and stating that he knew that Quaker Whittier, from Haverhill, and they "had fixed him." After eating breakfast, when their carriage was brought to the door and they were about to start, Mr. Whittier said to the innkeeper: "Shall I make thee acquainted with my friend, George Thompson?" He then said: "I am Whittier," leaving the crowd to understand how much the innkeeper knew of him.

James W. Partigo, of Manchester, aged twenty-five years, attempted to kill himself with a small revolver Sunday morning. He fired four times, and only managed to slightly wound himself in the head.

Charles Waterman of Whitefield, a married man, about twenty-six years old, while under the influence of liquor Saturday night, quarrelled with Fred Larkin, a young man about twenty years old, and was probably fatally stabbed. Young Larkin was arrested, but is generally believed to be innocent of the stabbing. Waterman and his father have for some time been on a spree, and, at times, quarrelsome.

The Army and Navy Register says: "The name of Hon. W. E. Chandler, of New Hampshire, has become very prominent in connection with the position of secretary of the navy. Mr. Chandler would accept the place if offered to him. He one is one of the most prominent politicians in the country, and is a man who always knows what he is about. He was the first judge-advocate-general of the navy, and has a good degree of familiarity with the methods of conducting the public business."

An exchange says: "Man's average life is thirty-three years." Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will always live.

Not a single bushel of grain was carried from New York to Europe, last year, in an American vessel.

That poor bedridden, invalid wife, sister, mother, or daughter, can be made the picture of health by a few bottles of Hop Bitters. Will you let them suffer? when so easily cured.

Saturday night the police of Fall River, Mass., made a raid upon every dance-house in the city, and arrested all persons found therein. The arrests were made under the law prohibiting dancing and other entertainments on Saturday night.

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the city hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half a dollar. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with diseased lungs, will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness." Sold by all druggists.

Two men and a woman, all colored, were hanged at Wentworth, N. C., Jan. 14th, for the murder of a colored man named Nash Carter. The woman was Carter's wife.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is sure in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our recent was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent pissing of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have remained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

Providence, R. I.

THE New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire News; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]
Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skelton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. tj23

Heating Railroad Cars.

The method proposed by M. Ancelin for heating railway cars, namely, by the use of acetate of soda in the foot-warmers, seems to have proved very satisfactory on some of the French lines. As is well known, the substance thus employed has considerable latent heat; dissolved at a certain temperature, it absorbs a large quantity of heat, which becomes sensible during the crystallization in cooling. All that is required is to fill the ordinary cases with a sufficient quantity of the acetate, close them and place them in a stove at about 100 degrees. The cooling of a case thus charged and heated takes 12 or 15 hours. The warmers thereafter are taken from the compartments and placed in a stove—where the crystals of soda acetate are redissolved—and are then ready for fresh use.

Masonic Appeal.

A fraternal appeal has been made to the 75,000 freemasons in the United States to contribute $1 each for the establishment in Washington of an industrial home for the orphan children of master masons. The matter has been brought to the attention of the grand bodies, but the local lodges have as yet received no official appeal. Dollar contributions are not specially asked for, but the givers are expected to regulate their amounts by their generosity.

I Have Always Paid Rent!

For a house to live in. This year I have half paid for a cottage, with money which, before I used Sulphur Bitters in my family, was paid to the doctor and the druggist. They cured my wife of female weakness.—Mechanic, Salem.

At Baltimore, Md., Monday afternoon, Father Danenhauer, rector of St. James' Catholic church, and Brothers Bernardine and Eberhardt, found a young man tampering with the poor box at the church. He attempted to escape, drew a knife and threatened any one who molested him. Brother Eberhardt drew a pistol from the folds of his cassock and compelled the man to drop his knife, and held him until the arrival of the police. He gave the name of John Williams, and was committed.

The Highest Rank.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the highest rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

In Chicago, Jan. 16th, Judge Barnum created a sensation in his charge to the grand jury by instructing them to investigate the question of gambling, and to extend their queries to the worst gambling house of all, the board of trade.

Quick and Sure.

Many miserable people drag themselves about with failing strength, feeling that they are steadily sinking into their graves, when by using Parker's Ginger Tonic they would find a cure commencing with the first dose, and vitality and strength quickly and surely coming back to them.

At Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 16th, T. H. Payne, for four years the local agent of the Little Rock & Fort Smith railroad, shot himself dead. He left a letter stating that his accounts were short $1,500, which he had lost in gambling.

MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—It gives me great satisfaction to say your Cream Balm (recommended to me by a friend) has completely cured me of catarrh by which I have been afflicted for over ten years, after trying almost every remedy recommended, none having proved so pleasant, effective and thorough as your Cream Balm in its work. Very truly, etc., S. J. AIKEN, Wholesale Dealer in Boots and Shoes, 143 Federal St., Boston, Mass. Feb. 5, 1881.

Messrs. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—I have been handling your Cream Balm and find that it takes well. Some very old cases of catarrh are said to have been cured by it in this vicinity. S. S. DETRICK, Druggists, East Stroudsburg, Penn.

Price fifty cents.

Mrs. Smith, wife of the murdered man whose body was found in a well at Richmond, Ind., has confessed that she and her sons planned the murder, but that Dan Smith executed it. The statement of Dan, that he alone was responsible, was a falsehood told for the purpose of saving her and the other brother from the gallows.

Indeed I have to ascribe thanks to the miraculous power of St. Jacobs Oil, writes Mr. Theo. Schulze, 601 St. Claude street, New Orleans, La., that I am today among the living. That dreaded disease, rheumatism, is an inherited ailment in our family. I lost a brother in 1866 by it. I also have had this painful malady five or six times, each attack lasting from six to ten weeks, and so severe as to entirely disable me and prevent me from performing the slightest service. The many remedies which I used, and the doctors whom I consulted, failed to cure or even so much as relieve my pains. In the fall of last year, about the month of October, I was again attacked by the disease, which confined me to bed and almost crazed me with the severe pains, and no help at hand, or promise or hope of any relief. I had often heard of St. Jacobs Oil, but had about as much confidence in it as in the other remedies, which was very little. Importuned by friends, I concluded to try the great German remedy, and would thankfully say that it brought instant relief. In a short time I was able to sit up, my appetite returned, and the pain vanished. In a short time I was cured. Since that time I have held the St. Jacobs Oil in highest esteem, and recommend it whenever I can find the opportunity. Thanks to those who introduced to the world this blessing to suffering mankind. Without it what would be the condition of the world to-day?

Joshua N. Eldredge, a Providence, R. I., policeman, was found Sunday night in a store on his beat, which he entered with a false key. He was held in $500 to answer for breaking store.

An eminent physician of large practice says, "I have examined the formula from which Adamson's Botanic Balsam is prepared and can recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy for coughs and colds."

Of the 2,145 deaths in Providence, R. I., last year, 270 were of persons over seventy years of age. Of the latter 111 were males and 168 females; sixteen were ninety and over, the oldest being an Irish woman aged 103.

Don't Die in the House.

Ask druggists for "Rough on Rats." It clears out rats, mice, bed-bugs, roaches, vermin, flies, ants, insects; 15c. per box.

Decline of Men.

Impotence of mind, limb, or vital function, nervous weakness, sexual debility, etc., cured by Wells' Health Renewer. $1. At druggists. Depot at Thacher's.

Five penitentiary convicts were drowned in a creek five miles from Little Rock, Ark., on Saturday. Nine convicts, who had been at work cutting wood, were crossing the creek in a boat, when some of them rocked it so that it filled.

Mr. Patterson Meant What he Said.

I hereby testify that my boy, ten years of age, was taken sick with typhoid fever, followed by congestion of the lungs. Dr. Dyer, an eminent physician of this place, stated that he thought the boy would run down with quick consumption. A Mr. Patterson told me that Coe's Cough Balsam was curing similar cases, and advised us to purchase it. When I carried it home, my wife laughed at me, but I knew that Mr. Patterson meant just what he said, and I determined to try it. Two bottles effectually cured him, so that now he is as tough and healthy as anybody.

LYMAN DORMAN.

Huntington, Conn., Aug. 29, 1866.

Johnny Boyle of Ludlow, Vt., having learned of a swell concern at Lynn, Mass., that paid big prices for farm products, sent them four hundred turkeys and all of his mother's butter. He has just learned that respectable Lynn knows naught whatever of the firm of J. M. Tuttle & Co.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

Testimonials.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more worthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1865, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Guiteau's Trial.

On the 17th, immediately after Mr. Scoville commenced speaking, Guiteau interrupted him with a question, and Mr. Scoville then informed Judge Cox that Guiteau wished to read a paper, and that there was nothing objectionable in it. Judge Cox nodded assent, and Guiteau then read his paper, the main point of which was that he asked the judge to rule "That if the jury believe that I believed it was right to remove the President because I had special divine authority so to do and was forced to it by the Deity, they will acquit on the ground of transitory mania. Sickles, McFarland and Hiscock were acquitted on the ground of transitory mania." Guiteau also urged that he should be allowed to address the jury. Scoville occupied the rest of the day.

From the Altar to the Grave.

Park Valentine, son of A. B. Valentine, of Bennington, Vt., and Mary Louise Gaylord, daughter of W. H. Gaylord, a dry goods dealer of North Adams, Mass., were married Thursday night, Jan. 12th, in the presence of a large party of friends, including prominent officials of Vermont, at St. John's Episcopal church in North Adams. Later a brilliant reception was held at Mr. Gaylord's residence. The wedded couple stopped on Thursday night at Troy, N. Y., and went to Albany on Friday to take seats in the ill-fated palace car "Idlewild," which was destroyed in the disaster at Spuyten Duyvil.

By this awful accident, if accident it can be called, when it is directly traceable to the niggardly administration of Mr. Vanderbilt's railroad, in the employment of third-rate men at low wages, and then demanding of each third-rate man the service of two first-rate men,—the youthful couple who were starting out with such brilliant prospects lost their lives, under circumstances of such horror and pathos as no novelist would dare invent. Men who signalized themselves by their humane daring in entering the burning wreck, and who only left when driven out, badly burned, by the flames, say they might possibly have saved them both but for the devotion of the young wife, who clung to her husband, who was pinned in the wreck, with such tenacity that they were unable to break her hold, and the sweep of the flames compelled them to leave the bride of a day, and the man into whose care she had entrusted her happiness, to their fate. The charred corpses were found in each other's arms.

The funeral of the hapless pair was held in Bennington on the afternoon of Monday, the 16th inst., in the Second Congregational church, before a great assemblage of relatives, friends and citizens. The obsequies were conducted by Rev. E. G. Reed, Mr. Valentine's pastor, assisted by Rev. J. B. Wasson of North Adams, Mass., and Rev. Dr. Canfield of Arlington, these last being the clergymen who officiated at the wedding on the previous Thursday. Of the eight bearers four were ushers at the wedding —F. Rosenburg, C. A. Darling, C. F. Schram of North Adams, and Edw. L. Bates of Bennington.

News and Notes.

The grand jury at New Haven, Conn., on the 17th inst. returned a true bill for murder in the first degree against Walter E. Malley, James Malley and Blanche Douglass, for killing Jennie E. Cramer on the 5th of August.

By the breaking of a car wheel on a railroad near New Albion, Iowa, two cars were thrown down a high embankment, the wreck being burned, though all the passengers were extricated; thirty persons were wounded, one of whom has died, and three others are expected to die.

A despatch was received in London on the 16th inst., stating that five more seamen of the Jeannette expedition had arrived at Irkutsk, Russia.

The Exeter Protest says: "It is said that there are other bridges on the Boston & Maine railroad which were built by the same company that built the ill-fated bridge at Cole's Corner, Maine, and such bridges will be immediately inspected and also strengthened, if need be. This is right; better pay for the strengthening than suffer loss by accident."

A despatch from Monroe, Mich., says the mother of the late Gen. Custer died Saturday morning.

Mrs. Caroline Carey, the oldest woman in Buffalo, N. Y., died Friday, aged 104 years.

In the senate, on the 16th inst., Mr. Logan introduced a bill to pay Mrs. Abraham Lincoln arrears of pension for the five years intervening between the death of her husband and the passage of the act granting her a pension, (the estimated total amount being $15,000,) and asked immediate consideration. Mr. Blair, of the pension committee, suggested the reference of the measure to that committee, as it was perfecting a more comprehensive bill which would include this case and that of Mrs. Garfield. The bill was so referred.

On Saturday night, Fleta Gillespie, the seventeen-years-old daughter of Col. L. O. Gillespie, living near Lodi, San Joaquin county, Cal., was shot in the neck by Thomas Lyden, and probably fatally wounded. The assassin fired through a window at the girl. His body was found the next morning in a haystack, he having committed suicide. Lyden had been employed on the farm by Col. Gillespie, but was discharged for forcing his attentions upon Miss Gillespie.

Judge Benedict, in the United States circuit court in New York, Jan. 16th, sentenced J. C. Willais, second mate of the ship David Crockett, for cruelty to seamen, to two years in Auburn prison; and Regina Jans or Johnson, for importing women to this country for immoral purposes, was sentenced to two years in the Rochester penitentiary.

There is a serious estrangement between Bishop McQuaid and the Roman Catholic Irishmen of Rochester, N. Y., because the bishop denounces the Land League.

A man sixty years old, who served through the war of the rebellion in the union army, and lost one eye in the service, is in jail at Auburn, Me., for nonpayment of $4.44 in taxes.

Martin Hughes died at Hawley, Pa., Jan. 8th, aged ninety-four years. He has been an invalid for more than a year. It is reported that over $100,000 insurance was held on his life in Pennsylvania "graveyard insurance" companies, by residents of Wayne county, Pa. Most of the policies were issued since August last.

There are now in Maine four trunk lines of telephones, using 2,600 instruments. A movement is on foot to consolidate these lines and connect them with the lines of New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Frank Simons was found dead in his store at Kansas City, Mo., on the morning of the 16th inst., having been killed with an axe. The motive for the crime was robbery. Jack Fitzmaurice, the city pound keeper, is suspected.

At Cuantla, Mex., Saturday, Senorita Catalina Gougora, a beautiful girl of seventeen years, made a balloon ascension without a car, and performing on a trapeze attached. When three-quarters of a mile high the balloon burst. The girl fell to the ground, and was of course instantly killed.

An apothecary at Leavenworth, Kansas, who gave a man a dose of powdered opium for powdered rhubarb, has been sued for $10,000 damages by the widow of the victim.

Adrien Milot, seventeen years old, dropped dead of heart disease while entering a Lowell church on Sunday.

Miss Lydia Smith of Falmouth, Mass., aged eighty-eight years, fell from her chair Friday morning and sustained internal injuries which resulted fatally Sunday night.

Willie Sutcliff, a fourteen-years-old boy, who was burned by the upsetting of a kerosene lamp in his father's house at West Mansfield, Mass., has died from the effects of his injuries.

Noble & Cooley, drum makers at Granville, Mass., turned out 135,000 drums in 1881. The largest number ever made before in one year by this firm was 85,000, which was during the rebellion.

Ex-Judge McKenzie, a leading lawyer of Hampton, Iowa, the man who sent Gen. Sherman's signal during the war, "hold the fort, we are coming," died at his home on Jan. 16th, after a lingering illness.

An enormous mass of rock, a thousand feet high, has fallen from the Rothrisa mountain, near the town of Glarus, Switzerland, destroying orchards, roads and meadows. No lives were lost.

In the supreme court at Machias, Me., Judge Peters presiding, after six days' trial the jury sustained the will of Horatio N. Foster, an uneducated deaf mute, seventy-six years old, who could neither read, write nor use the manual alphabet. The will was made by pantomime, devising $7000. Only one similar case was ever tried by the courts in the United States, and that in North Carolina.

Baroness Erlanger, wife of the banker, ordered her carriage to take her to the Ring theatre in Vienna the night it was burned. Accidentally the coachman arrived fifteen minutes later than ordered, and the baroness escaped the horrors of the fire. Strangely enough, a like delay prevented her intended visit to the Nice opera house on the evening it was burned last March.

Five horses are reported to have been driven to death in Lowell, Mass., last Sunday.

The Small-pox.

The postmaster at Wilmington, Ohio, writes to the post office department that a child died at that place a few days ago, from what was supposed at the time to be chickenpox. The funeral was largely attended, and as a consequence there are over fifty cases of virulent smallpox in the town.

Smallpox has broken out in Holland, Vt. There are five cases, and a large number of persons have been exposed. It is supposed to have been brought from New York, by a young man named Davis.

Pittsburg and Allegheny City, Pa., report thirty new cases of smallpox during the forty-eight hours ending Jan. 16th.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. cod&wfjan22

Cuticura

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

SALT RHEUM. Will McDonald, 2543 Dearborn st., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

SKIN DISEASES. F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he use the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SKIN HUMORS. Mrs. S. E. Whipple, Detroit, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered fearfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1. Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that the famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.50,—non-assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

HARLOW'S CONCERT.

The success of this concert, so far as the attendance is concerned, was assured by the first day's sale of reserved seats, over one hundred and seventy tickets having been taken before noon on Tuesday, though the concert is not to come off until Monday evening of next week; the success of the concert as a musical entertainment was assured when Mr. Harlow decided to give it.

The orchestra will surpass anything that has ever appeared in Mnsic hall, and will be made up of Harlow's orchestra, Eastman's orchestra of Manchester, Reinewald's orchestra of Dover, and two French horns and a 'cello from Boston—the French horn being an instrument never previously used at any concert given in the hall. Included in the programme are a piccolo solo by Mr. Eastman, a piano solo by Frank Gilder, a cornet solo by Mr. Reinewald, a quintette (by Mozart) for two violins, viola, 'cello and piano, reading by Miss Mary W. Caldwell, and a song by William H. Lee, (tenor,) with cornet obligato, while five numbers are assigned to the full orchestra. The foregoing is certainly a liberal programme; but in addition, Miss Nellie W. Locke will make her first appearance in concert, giving a recitative and cavatina by Verdi, and the "Greeting to Spring" (Blue Danube Waltz) by Strauss.

The concert will be largely patronized, and will deserve it; and persons desiring choice seats should not too long delay making their selection. The plan of the hall is at Preston's drug store.

SUPREME COURT.

[January Term. Carpenter, J.]

The court came in at Exeter on Tuesday.

Prayer was offered by Rev. J. W. Walker, of the Methodist Episcopal church in Exeter.

The continued docket shew 171 actions, only a very few of which were marked for trial by the jury, indicating a short term.

On the state docket, State vs. Ingalls was marked for the jury. Capt. Patten of Manchester, in behalf of the defendant, entered a motion for continuance on the ground of the ill health of Gen. Marston, one of defendant's counsel.

The following is the list of jurors returned to appear on Wednesday for the first and seconds weeks: Charles W. Treadwell, George A. Titcomb, Exeter; Harvey P. Hood, Isaac H. Jones, Derry; Freeman Sanborn, Charles H. Smart, Newmarket; Josiah Cliff, Daniel F. Hall, Salem; Jesse N. Wilson, William H. Smith, John Hodgdon, John Critchley, ward one, Portsmouth; Ernest H. Rand, Lewis H. Huntress, ward two, Portsmouth; David F. Batchelder, Charles P. Ackerman, Hampton Falls; Abel Page, Thomas H. Blake, Kensington; John C. Eaton, Andrew J. Davis, Kingston; Samuel P. Robie, Newell Boyce, Londonderry; Charles E. Campbell, Thomas Rand, Newcastle; Gilbert P. Hoyt, Lewis L. DeRochemont, Newington; Nathaniel Tarleton, Charles Batchelder, North Hampton; Enoch C. Bartlett, Lewis J. Bartlett, Newton.

Petit jurors are also summoned to appear on Jan. 30th.

In the afternoon the motion for continuance in case State vs. Ingalls was considered by the court. The suggestion on the part of the state was that Capt. Patten was sick in October, and Gen. Marston is sick now, and notice was given as to Gen. Marston's health. It is unfortunate that the counsel should be in such poor health. Capt. Patten was suffering in October from the effect of a sunstroke received in the army, and now relied upon Gen. Marston's aid as senior counsel. The defendant is under $3000 bail. The case was ordered to be continued.

Case Charles D. Towle vs. F. H. Cunningham is to be tried by the court on Wednesday.

The first jury trials are State vs. White and State vs. Glidden, Jr., appeal cases on the state docket.

Case Wm. Kelleher vs. Eastern Railroad Co. is assigned for Thursday.

Case George N. Jenness, Jr., vs. Mary M. Jenness, a divorce suit, was heard. Marston & Eastman for libellant.

It was reported on Tuesday that the ship Wm. H. Marcy has been disposed of on favorable terms, to English purchasers.

Mr Charles S. Drown, of this city, is making sails for two vessels at Wells.

The schooner Charles S. Tappan started for Gloucester on Tuesday, in tow of the tug Samuel B. Jones of Gloucester, and the Clara Batemen of this port.

About 6000 lbs. of fish was brought in on Tuesday. In coming up the river the schooner Nettie Adams collided with the Grace Choate, and the latter's mainsail was torn.

There was a slight fire on the premises of Mr. Frank Rice, corner of Church and Congress streets, Tuesday afternoon at about four o'clock; it caught from a defect in the chimney, and was put out by a bucket or two of water. Had it occurred after the closing hour the result might have been serious.

The secretary of the navy has awarded a medal of honor to Michael Thornton, a seaman who jumped overboard from the U. S. S. Leyden as she was leaving Boston harbor for this navy yard last autumn with a draft of men for the U. S. S. Lancaster, and saved the life of another man who had previously jumped from the steamer.

Capt. Trefethen will run the steamer Mystic on Monday night next, for the accommodation of such residents of Kittery as may desire to attend the grand vocal and instrumental concert to be given in Music hall that evening.

There is gate-post of wood standing in front of the house on the Page homestead in Hampton, which was placed there in the fall of the year 1786; and it is now apparently sound, and is likely to last through another generation. The records do not tell how it was set, but probably it was set in clay, as the sills of the house that was taken down on the place in 1782 were found to be bedded in clay, and were, when taken out after being these 105 years, "apparently as lively as when put down."

Rev. G. T. Ridlon, pastor of the Christian church in Manchester, N. H., who was injured in the accident on the Boston & Maine railroad in Wells, has so far recovered that he officiated in his pulpit on Sunday last.

Sarah F. Whitten, of Alfred, who last September pleaded guilty to a charge of murdering her infant child by drowning it in the Mousam river at Kennebunk, was on Tuesday sentenced to state prison for life by Judge Barrows at Saco. Sentence had been deferred in the hope that Richard D. Day, the instigator of her crime and who fled upon her arrest, might be captured, but he is still at large.

Naval Affairs.

Commander Phythian, now stationed at the Boston navy yard, has been promoted to be a captain.

Asst. Engr. A. L. Willitts has been promoted to passed assistant engineer.

Asst. Paymaster Edward M. Webster has been ordered to duty in the bureau of provisions and clothing.

Household Perils.

Under this head the Boston Journal of Chemistry names several dangerous substances which find their way into households. There are two or three volatile liquids used in families which are particularly dangerous, and must be employed, if at all, with special care.

Benzine, ether and strong ammonia constitute this class of agents. The two first named liquids are employed in cleansing gloves and wearing apparel, and in removing oil stains from carpets, curtains, etc. The liquids are highly volatile, and flash into vapor as soon as the cork of the vial containing them is removed. Their vapors are very combustible, and will inflame at long distances from ignited candles or gas flames, consequently they should never be used in the evening when the house is lighted. Explosions of a very dangerous nature will occur if the vapor of these liquids is permitted to escape into the room in any considerable quantity. In view of the great hazard of handling these liquids, cautious housekeepers will not allow them to be brought into their dwellings, and this course is commendable.

As regards ammonia or water of ammonia, it is a very powerful agent, especially the stronger kinds sold by druggists. An accident in its use has recently come under our notice in which a young lady lost her life from taking a few drops through mistake. Breathing the gas under certain circumstances, causes harm to the lungs and to the membranes of the mouth and nose. It is an agent much used at the present time for cleaning purposes, and it is unobjectionable if proper care is used in its employment. The phials holding it should be kept apart from others containing medicines, etc., and rubber stoppers to the phials should be used.

Oxalic acid is considerably used in families for cleaning brass and copper utensils. This substance is highly poisonous, and must be kept and used with great caution. In crystaline structure it closely resembles the sulphate of magnesia or Epsom salts, and therefore frequent mistakes are made and lives lost.

Every agent which goes into families among inexperienced persons, should be kept in a safe place, labelled properly, and used with care.

—Some American has "desecrated" one of the pyramids by painting his patent medicine advertisement thereon. We always knew those old pyramids would be fonud to be of use, sometime.

—Oscar Wilde may, perhaps, be interested in a little family conundrum lately put by a snarling Diogenes. "Who was the first æsthete?" asks the cynic; and answers in the next breath: "Balaam's ass, because the Lord made him to(o) utter."

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read, just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and trunk of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—So-Son Leader.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

An Interesting Account.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a request in which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

New Hampshire Items.

Albert Merrill of Woodstock, fifteen years of age, shot himself through the head Monday night with a shot gun, dying instantly.

Hon. Edmund Burke, of Newport, is convalescent.

Dover has lost its largest shoe factory, and with it a large number of families, and the daily press is discussing whether the loss should be charged to the greed and bogginess of the Boston & Maine railroad, or some other cause. It was this road of which a Dover man said at Concord last summer, "It is well managed, but so far as I know it hasn't a gentleman in its employ."

George Welch, a weaver, drove off a valuable horse from Great Falls on Saturday, and was captured after an exciting chase and lodged in jail. He carries a bullet in his arm, planted there during the race.

John F. Clontman of Farmington says he knows nothing of a new shoe factory which it was reported he was about to build at Farmington. A place that has to depend upon the Boston & Maine railroad for its freight carriage is not likely to have a new factory when it can be better accommodated elsewhere.

J. Frank Lawrence, formerly an Epping farmer, is mentioned by the Chicago press as likely to be the next mayor of that city. Frank got his early experience as a member of the New Hampshire board of agriculture, and ought to be fitted for the mayoralty or anything else.—Mirror.

The whole number of the graduates of the Chandler scientific department of Dartmouth college, up to Dec. 1, 1881, is 291. Of these, 257 are now living. Sixty-two of the graduates are now civil or mechanical engineers, more than twice as many as have adopted any other one business. The remainder are divided as follows: Lawyers, thirty; teachers, twenty-two; doctors, eighteen; merchants, twenty-three; chemists, six; clerks, eight; farmers, seven, etc., many occupations having only one representative.

John R. Miller, who had been postmaster of Peterboro' for twenty and a half years, being appointed Aug. 17th, 1862, vacated his position on Monday for his successor, W. E. Davis.

Dr. Irving A. Watson, secretary of the state board of health, says there is not a case of smallpox in New Hampshire, so far as the board has information, and consequently the report that there were two cases of smallpox in Keene was without foundation.

Fred Larkin was arraigned at Whitefield, Monday, to answer to the charge of assault on Charles Waterman, the man who was stabbed Saturday evening, and pleaded not guilty. Waterman is improving, but is not considered out of danger.

Four Lives Saved.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup relieved four of my children of a most alarming attack of whooping cough, from which their throats and necks became so swollen as to prevent them from swallowing. Nothing would give them even temporary relief, until this Syrup was tried. One bottle, in one night, saved their lives, I verily believe. GEO. W. EARHART,
Captain of Police, Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weston of Peterboro', the oldest person in Hillsboro' county, will celebrate her 104th birthday on Feb. 15th, if she lives till then.

I don't want a Doctor!

I have tried them, and they have only swindled me. I have figured up what they cost me for the last four years, it was just $524.31. If I had it now it would be a fortune to me. This year my bill for medicine was only five dollars, for which I surchased six bottles of Sulphur Bitters. They cured me of scrofula after suffering four years.—Workingman.

Of 7,655 persons in business in New Hampshire, last year, fifty-one failed, owing $322,404. In 1880 the failures numbered thirty-two, liabilities $151,684. Outside causes produced these larger failures of 1881, for New Hampshire itself has been prosperous and full of work.

Grateful to Invalids.

Floreston Cologne is grateful to invalids, because it is refreshing without the sickening effect of most perfumes.

The officials of London, Ont., have distinguished themselves by declining to protect the first Chinaman who settled in that city, and as the roughs gave him no peace, he was compelled to quit the place.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork. —Times.

May Davenport, the actress, was married a few days ago to William Seymour, stage manager of the Madison Square theatre, New York.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says: About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London: I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes: I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says: I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says: Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes: It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes: From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not sent to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1y23

Daily Chronicle.

A PLEA FOR THE CROW.

The crow is a bird seen almost every day by almost every farmer in the New England states. They are birds that like to visit about the farm, especially the corn-field. Some farmers say they do a deal of good, destroying many bugs and insects, but I never knew a crow to pick a bug from from a potato vine, although they have bills large enough, strong enough and black enough to do a smashing business in that line if they were so very friendly to the farmer. Crows do not vary much in size; they are about eighteen inches in length, wings spread from tip to tip two feet six inches, and their color is black.

If taken when young they are always tame. When properly fed and well treated they become very intelligent, and will come in at the window and take your silver thimble or spool of silk, and it looks very pretty shining in their black bills as they fly down over the pond, river or field,—and it is very convenient, if there is any little article missing, to say "Well, the crow carried it off." THAT'S BITE

They will eat about as many different kinds of food as a hen; build their nests high, and on large pine trees; lay four, sometimes five eggs of a dark blue color; their voice is not considered very musical; its reminds one of a saw when it strikes a nail. THAT'S BITE

To put a bounty of ten cents on the crow's head is a wrong, cruel act. One hawk will take more young birds from their nests and more young chickens from the door yard in one day, than six crows would in as many days; and boys who would go to Sunday school before the bounty was put on crows, will now be climbing trees, sometimes falling down and receiving fatal injuries, in trying to get a crow for the bounty of ten cents. A crow feels just as bad when a boy robs it of its young, as a robin or any other bird.

Some crows go south in the winter, and some stop about here; why they don't all go or all stop here, is what some of us don't know. For some who might not know I will just mention that crows do not pull up corn after it gets two or three feet high; but when it is just peeping out of the ground, the crow pulls, or digs it up to get the seed it sprouts from. The crow is one of the most sharp-sighted birds we have, and there are not many old crows shot by inexperienced hunters. It is easy to shoot five or six crows almost any morning when the weather is right for it, and in my next I can tell you more, —from one who has had some experience with wild and tame birds. THAT'S ME.

—A sign of indigestion—"Gone to dinner; be back in five minutes."

—D. Gilbert Dexter, of the Cambridge Tribune, has been made treasurer of a mining company. Editors are good men for such positions. They never have more money than they can take care of.

—Bad boys who stone railway trains should be made an example of. The first thing we know one of them may throw a stone at the United States navy, and then what will become of the nation.—Philadelphia News.

—Qualifying a sweeping assertion: Sophie (after hearing about Frank)—"I declare I shall not believe a word a man says to me. They're all liars!" Beatrice —"For shame, Sophie!" Sophie (regretfully)—"At least, all the nice ones are!"

—Two little girls, aged four and six, had just had new dresses, and were on the way to Sunday school. Said Etta, the elder, "Oh, I have forgotten my verse." "I haven't forgotten mine," replied the other; "it is 'Blessed are the dressmakers.'"

—A German chemist having discovered that first-class whiskey can be made out of sawdust, one of our exchanges is moved to inquire "what kind of a chance the temperance agitators are going to have, if a man can take a rip saw and go out and get drunk with a fence rail."

Ash-Tonic;

A perfected purifyer of the system. In 1-2lb. bottles; 75 cents. For dyspepsia, the many forms of liver complaint, impure and impoverished blood, and functional derangements attendant upon debility. For symptons indicated by indigestion, loss of appetite, nausea, sick headache, sour stomach, furred tongue, drowsiness, blanched lips, sallow complexion, pain in the side or back, eruptions, depression of spirits, nervous irritability and hysteria, and for building up the system, ash-tonic is unquestionably the most prompt and energetic remedy yet devised.

You are sick; well, there is just one remedy that will cure you beyond a possibility of doubt. If it's liver or kidney trouble, consumption, dyspepsia, debility. Wells' Health Renewer is your hope. One dollar. Druggists. Depot Thacher's.

Dwight Newcomb of South Willington, Conn., triumphed a year ago over his rival, Thomas Denham, who has since paid great attention to Mrs. Newcomb; and last week the husband sought satisfaction, it is alleged, by plying his rival with poisoned rum. Denham was found by the roadside, and is not expected to recover.

Given up by Doctors.

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?"

"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters; and only ten days ago his doctors gave him up and said he must die!"

"Well-a-day! That's remarkable! I will go this day and get some for my poor George—I know hops are good."

At Knox, Ind., Sunday night, Jan. 15th, Charles Boldfield brutally murdered Mary White, aged fourteen years, by cutting her throat. The murderer escaped.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 47 Chatham St., N. Y.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Guiteau's Trial.

Reports from Washington say that Scoville, in his address to the jury, has made a very bad impression by his studied and outrageous abuse of government counsel, and his reckless charges against the honor and honesty of the government witnesses, some of the most grossly-insulted of whom are at least the equals of Scoville in social standing and reputation for probity. He exceeded the bounds of propriety in this line almost in proportion to Guiteau's excesses, and convinced the spectators that he is just about the right kind of a man to be connected with the Guiteaus.

Will Bear Looking Into.

Concerning the suicide at Woodstock of Albert Merrill, the fifteen-years-old boy reported to have blown his head to pieces on the morning of the 17th inst. with a shot-gun, it is said that he lived with a man named Smith, who was visited on the 16th by F. W. Ballou of Plymouth, agent of the anti-cruelty society, who caused a horse owned by Smith to be killed. It is suggested in a press despatch that after Mr. Ballou left, Smith accused the youth of inciting the agent to shoot the horse, and Merrill became alarmed and shot himself. If this is Smith's story—the despatch does not say whether it is or not—it will bear looking into, as the unsupported statement of a man who will abuse a dumb beast can hardly be worth much.

The Advisory Board's Reports.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Globe, referring to the action of the national house of representatives in sustaining Secretary of the Navy Hunt in his refusal to carry out the proposed purchase of a coaling station at Chiriqui, says that while the naval committee sustained Mr. Hunt in his attitude as regards this matter, "it took direct issue with him as to his course with respect to the advisory board which sat during most of the summer to prepare a plan for the creation of a new navy, and for rendering the present navy efficient. There were two parties in the advisory board, and the antagonism between the constructors, engineers and others became so sharply defined that the parties came to be known in navy circles as Hunt and anti-Hunt parties. The secretary of the navy very much desired a unanimous report, but could not secure it. The minority, consisting of the most experienced naval constructors and engineer officers, differed as to radical details, as to the facts and theories, and declined to sign the majority report. An effort was made at the navy department to prevent the minority report from being published, and it was sent back at one time with a request, if it was not a direction, that it should be modified. The minority report was modified in some particulars, but then the secretary declined to permit it to be made public, and refused even to allow congressmen, well informed as to naval matters, to examine it. Mr. Hewitt of New York, for instance, applied to see the report, and was refused, the secretary holding the theory that the report was his private property; that the government had no concern with it, and that if Congress wanted the information which it contained it could get it the way that it saw fit. The consequence was that a resolution was introduced by Mr. Hewitt, which the naval committee adopted and greatly extended, calling upon the secretary for the minority report, together with all other information necessary to inform Congress as to the exact condition of the American navy in the point of view of its effectiveness on a war footing. Mr. Robeson, during the discussion in the committee, suggested that if the great work of Congress is to be the creation of a new navy, it would be a poor beginning to permit the secretary of the navy to conceal from Congress the opinions of the most eminent of the goverment's naval constructors."

Locking the Stable Door.

The New York board of aldermen on the 17th inst. passed resolutions declaring that the recent railroad accident at Spuyten Duyvil on the New York Central & Hudson River railroad could not have happened if a flagman or signal man had been stationed at each end of the cut, and the cut had been properly lighted and patrolled; and directing that hereafter a flagman be placed at each end of the cut, and the cut kept properly lighted and patrolled.

New Hampshire Press Association.

The fifteenth annual session of the New Hampshire Press Association was held on the 17th inst. in Mirror hall at Manchester, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, John B. Clark of Manchester; vice presidents, A. A. Hanscom, Portsmouth, Albert A. Rotch, Amherst, E. C. Eastman, Concord; recording secretary, P. B. Coggswell, Concord; corresponding secretary, James D. P. Wingate, Exeter; treasurer, Thomas W. Lane, Manchester; executive committee, George A. Blanchard, Concord, C. F. Livingston, Manchester, John M. Hill, Concord; auditors, George E. Jenks, Concord, George G. Ide, Claremont.

The subject of a summer excursion was referred to the officers with power to act. Various topics of interest to the association were discussed and referred to appropriate committees, including resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Hon. George G. Fogg of Concord and Joel Taylor of Manchester. Several new members were admitted.

New Hampshire Items.

The winter term of the State Normal school closed on the 18th inst., after a twenty weeks' session. The graduates are Miss Belle F. Small of Amherst, Helen W. Poor of Derry, Flora G. Allison of Dublin, and Cora L. C. Heath of West Plymouth; Messrs. E. Harrison of Madison, and Elmer E. Sanborn of Kingston.

Salem has a new woolen mill, nearly completed.

AROUND HOME.

At the late annual meeting of the New Hampshire Press Association, in Manchester, Alpheus A. Hanscom, Esq., of the Times, was elected a vice president.

Rev. Edward A. Rand and family have changed their residence from South Boston to Watertown, Mass. Mr. Rand went to South Boston fifteen years ago, assumed the pastorate of a Congregational church, and became prominently identified in the organization of the Woman's Christian Temperance union and the South Boston Reform club. He is now rector of the Episcopal church in Hyde Park, Mass., and has become largely interested in literary pursuits.

Portsmouth Grange, P. of H., will meet this evening in Grange hall at 7:30 o'clock, and every member who can be present is earnestly requested to attend.

The thermometer at the CHRONICLE office stood at two degrees below zero at four o'clock, and seven degrees below at seven o'clock, Wednesday morning of this week. At the Eldredge Co.'s brewery the mercury was fourteen below.

In the superior criminal court in Boston, Jan. 13th, Sylvester S. Felch, for procuring an abortion on Mary Ann Finley, causing her death, was sent to the Massachusetts state prison for seven years. Felch will be remembered as residing in Newmarket at the time he committed the criminal act of abortion in Boston. He was arrested at Nashua on the 8th of July last.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 18th.

Charles Hinklee, who was indicted for fornication at the October term, and was arrested in December and lodged in jail to be tried this term, pleaded nolo contendere, and was allowed to leave the state, with understanding that if he returns he will be re-arrested on this indictment.

In case Grimes vs. Grimes, divorce was decreed. Page for libellant.

Towle vs. Cunningham, action to recover the board of a horse, etc., was tried by the court; decision reserved.

The indications are for a brief term.

News and Notes.

John P. Hill, a young colored lawyer, who was educated at Bowdoin college, has been admitted to practice in the courts of Clark county, Va.

Farmers in Kennebec, Androscoggin, Franklin and other counties in Maine are mourning the loss of several thousand dollars' worth of beans, eggs and other country produce, which they were induced to ship to Boston on the representations of a plausible young man, without receiving any security therefor.

Lucy A. Johnson advertises in the Machias, (Me.) Republican as follows: "As for my husband posting me, and saying I left his bed and board: It is a mistake, as I slept on my own bed and earned my own board; and, thank the Lord, I am glad to get rid of him."

Edith Gray is a variety actress who charms her audiences by her shrinking bashfulness and fragile beauty. Still she fired four shots at a gambler in Council Bluffs—and missed him every time.

Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, has received a letter from a lady in Boston, who said that she lived on Shawmut avenue, was cultivated, had one hundred thousand dollars in bank, was but thirty-eight years old, and anxious to be made a mayor's bride.

The Detroit News intimated that a well-known man in that city had murdered his servant girl. The man brought a suit for slander, and the editor offered such testimony in defence that the man has been indicted, and is in a fair way to hang.

Darius Burnham, of Oldtown, Me., of unsound mind, was found Tuesday morning, Jan. 17th, on the ice on the river, frozen to death. He attempted to cross, and walked into the open channel and was carried over the dam. He had managed somehow to get out, but evidently perished from cold and exhaustion.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Twenty-five cents a bottle. cod&wtjan22

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the SIX years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's running of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—non-assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise, every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

THE SWEETS OF EARLY DAYS.

It is often remarked by the older persons of to-day that the good things of this period are not of the flavor and quality of former times. The veteran farmer, who tastes cider made from selected grafted fruit, will insist that it is "not the cider that we made once," meaning of course that there is a great falling off in quality, while his grandson knows that with the care in preparing his crop for the mill, the product is far superior to the stuff our ancestors quaffed, not as an occasional drink, but as a constant and liberally partaken beverage.

There are manufactured articles, however, which in the good old days before the system of modern adulteration, were pure, and for which those of mature years now sigh in vain. Among these was the excellent molasses candy sold in the unpretentious shops in New England, which were model places of resort before the days of "confectionery saloons."

The youth of Portsmouth, half a century since, were brought up to practice self denial in the spending of pocket money,—that is, if they had it to spend. Many a boy who, as a man, has since filled important positions of a political, business and social character, was compelled to do much of the drudgery which in late years would never be assigned to the boy of the period. How many men of fortune who have gone forth from modest beginnings, were obliged to saw wood and do the family errands before they could go to play on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons; and with what limited means for playthings, beyond their own ingenuity, were the boys once trained. These boys, however, learned early to help themselves, and in after life the discipline of boyhood was succeeded by the strength of manhood, and success followed.

One of the rare treats of the boys of our old town fifty years ago was the good fortune to have one of the old-sized cents to spend at the candy shops. The most attractive of these, not in outward appearance, or interior arrangements, but from its pure and generous sticks of molasses candy, was kept in a one-story building on Congress street, about where M. E. Johnson's hair store is now located, by Lucy Norwood, who had what was called a variety store, and whose little stock of needles, pins and skeins of cotton and yarn formed the base of operations, while in a small glass case on the counter, reposing on sheets of tin, were large sticks of molasses candy made in the rear of the shop, and "gibraltars," so named probably from their resemblance to the celebrated rock of Gibraltar, in their hardness. On State street, then Broad, on the site of the residence of Mr. Geo. W. Butler, at the corner of Chestnut street, stood the "Juvenile Study," as a modest tin sign on the door indicated, and here was a private school for boys and girls, kept by Miss Mary S. Cooper; and the scholars who came down Islington street, and had the funds, were wont to call at Miss Norwood's on the days when the clear molasses candy, fresh and crisp, made its appearance in the little square case on the counter. The sales were by no means confined to the children of that day, but many an older person dropped into Lucy's and came out with an appreciated purchase of her sweet and neatly prepared candy.

There were other establishments of the kind down town. Dominick Peduzzi, who came to Portsmouth as did C. Columbus to America, from Genoa, was a superb confectioner. His shop at the corner of Congress and High streets was the resort of the wealthier citizens. His wines and cordials, from France and other foreign lands, were highly prized by the lawyers and others who dropped in from the old court house that stood on the Parade. And, too, there was Dunyon's, on High street, where short sticks of candy with large heads had attractions for some buyers. This was the shop where in after years, Mr. Aldrich tells us in the "Bad Boy," the boys after an extensive feast of numerous ice-creams, "stepped out" by means of a convenient window on High street, and left their unsophisticated but perhaps more pecuniarily-able new friend, to settle the bill!

But these were larger concerns. It is of the shops of that day we write. Then too was a little eight-by-ten place at the corner of Court and Washington streets, kept by the firm of Randall & Tripyear, (Mr. Randall and Mrs. Tripyear,) but every boy and every one else called it, "Miss Tripyue's." Here were nice opportunities for the boys of Pitt street, Washington street and the south end, to spend their pennies. Here the boys from the High school on State street went at recess, that is if they had anything to spend. A boy with a cent, in those days, had a large staff of friends when he moved toward a candy shop, and the fact that "money was easy" was never more quickly learned on State or Wall street, than in the quiet and subdued atmosphere of the school room in those early days. Here such boys as James T. Fields, T. Starr King and almost numberless others, flattened their noses against the small glass panes in winter, or cast wistful glances in summer through the open shop door, which no one assumed to enter unless possessing the requisite coin of the country, either in his own right or that of accompanying some more fortunate school-fellow whose father, or perhaps whose uncle just come home from sea, had made him a generous present of a few coppers in the happy moments incident to his revisiting his native shores.

It may be that the boy of the south end who afterwards became prosperous in New York or Boston, in after life has enjoyed a repast at Delmonico's or Parker's better than the schoolboy delicacies of early days. It may be, too, that in the disguised terra alba, and other ingredients of modern made confectionery, the palate has been tickled to a high state of enjoyment; but we are sure that the fond anticipations of the good things of earth, and the zest of things participated in, while the excellent digestion of youth waited on appetite, have never since been exceeded in the days that have followed, and the molasses candy of boyhood, like the draught from the old oaken bucket at the home of childhood, has never been, in any true sense, outdone by any subsequent substitute.

THE WEBSTER CENTENARY.

The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Daniel Webster occurred Wednesday, Jan. 18th, 1882, and in accordance therewith, the scholars of the Portsmouth High school devoted a large part of Wednesday's session to declamations and the reading of essays commemorative of the great statesman and orator. The following is the list of subjects and the names of the authors, in the order in which they were delivered:

Essay—Webster's Origin—Miss May Vaughan.

Essay—Webster's Early Life—Master Fred Sise.

Declamation—Extract from one of Webster's speeches—Master John Canty.

Essay—Webster's Early Advantages—Miss A. E. Fletcher.

Essay—Webster at Phillips Academy, Exeter—Miss Katie Seavey.

Essay—Sketces of Ezekiel Webster—Miss Grace Brown.

Piano—Selections from Beethoven—Miss Ruth Jarvis.

Recitation—An Incident in Webster's Life—Master Chas. Richards.

Essay—Daniel Webster as a Schoolteacher at Fryeburg, Me.,—Miss Alice Sheldon.

Declamation—Extract from speech of Webster at Bangor, Me.,—Sam'l Kingsbury.

Essay—Webster as a Student at Law—Miss Hattie Jones.

Declamation—Extract from Oration at Bunker Hill—Master Stevens.

Essay—Webster's Foreign Tour—Master Ball.

Essay—Webster in Portsmouth—Miss Alice Brewster.

Essay—Webster's Domestic Life—Miss Grace Townsend.

Declamation—Webster at Bunker Hill—Master Kelley.

Piano Duet—Misses Norton and Pender.

Essay—Webster in Portsmouth—Miss Abby Hickey.

Declamation—Webster at the completion of Bunker Hill Monument—Master Carter.

Essay—Webster's Public Career in Portsmouth—Miss Alice Sides.

Piano—"How the Gates Came Ajar,"—Miss Philbrick.

Essay—Webster's Advocacy of the Fugitive Slave Law—Master Peirce.

Essay — Webster in Congress — Miss Helen C. Pender.

Essay—Senator Hayne of So. Carolina—Master Cunningham.

Essay—Webster's reply to Hayne—Master Benj. Green.

Declamation — Extract from one of Webster's Orations — Master Percival Pope.

Essay—Webster as a Lawyer—Miss Lulu Norton.

Essay—Webster as Secretary of State—Master Fred. Church.

Essay—Webster as an Orator—Master McCarthy.

Piano Solo—Miss Mabel Bennett.

Essay—Webster's Aspiration to the Presidency—Wm. Waldron.

Essay—Webster's Home in Marshfield—Master Thomas Marvin.

Essay—Webster's Personal Application—Miss Mabel Bennett.

Essay—Webster's Habits of Life—Miss Ella Goss.

Essay—Webster's Moral and Religious Character—Herbert Dow.

Essay—Daniel Webster's Death—Miss Mary Thompson.

Piano Duet—Misses Vaughan and Brown.

Following these literary exercises of the school, were remarks from Mayor Sise, Rev. W. A. McGinley and Rev. John A. Goss. These gentlemen complimented the young masters and misses for the happy manner in which they had fulfilled the tasks assigned them, and called their attention to the great genius of the wonderful man whose memory they had thus revered.

The whole affair was most appropriately conceived and well executed. Some of the essays were especially well written, and all of them, without an exception, were very creditable. Mr. Goodwin will receive the thanks of the friends of the High school for this exhibition of the literary talent of some of his pupils, as well as for the fitting remembrance of one whom we are justly proud in claiming as our former townsman. The occasion was honored by the presence of quite a large number of our citizens, all of whom were well pleased with the programme and the manner in which it was rendered.

Attention is called to the various excursions to points in the south advertised in another column by the Boston, Norfolk & Baltimore Steamship company, tickets being good from February 1st to May 11th, inclusive.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Duchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thoroughly remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—Le Bon Lancet.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

Western Slavery.

Paul Boyton, in his trip down the Mississouri, has run across a curious matrimonial custom that the government should look into. One night he was entertained by a rancher named George Mince. A comely squaw presided over his household, and three pretty half-breed children called him father. To his guest he confessed the fact that he had bought this woman at Standing Rock agency for a horse. He purchased her as a substitute for his Indian wife whom he had bought several years ago, married, overworked, and maltreated until she ran away. The squaw is kept hard at work, and the husband or master does not allow her to sit at the same table with him, and beats her whenever he pleases. What Mince has done is a common thing among his neighbors. "This system of female slavery," says Boyton, "is much more extensive than the public generally supposes. Scores of white men are accumulating wealth from the physical labor of these poor women and their children." Boyton says that a few years ago a white wood-cutter bought a twelve-years-old Indian girl for $150 at the Bethold agency, and it was regarded there as an ordinary business transaction. As all the half-breed children are entitled to rations and clothing from the Indian agencies, the importance of this immoral slavery, as a mere matter of governmental economy, is self evident. This is a phase of the Indian question which is kept in the background, but it is a fruitful source of evil and misery which demands immediate attention.—St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

—It makes all the difference in the world who does the talking. The men who don't like President Arthur's reticence are always complaining that their wives talk too much. Strange, isn't it?

—A young man at North Lansing, N. Y., thought he would scare two young ladies of his acquaintance, the other night, by forcing his way into the house where they were alone, in the guise of a tramp. One of them, who is a school teacher, seized a revolver and was about to shoot, when the funny fellow, in an agony of fright, revealed himself. He will not fool with schoolmarms any more.

—During a steam voyage, on a sudden stoppage of the machinery, a considerable alarm took place, especially among the female passengers, "What is the matter? What is the matter? For heaven's sake tell me the worst!" exclaimed one more anxious than the rest. After a short time a hoarse voice from the deck replied: "Nothing, madame, nothing; only the bottom of the vessel and top of the earth are stuck together."

—"John K. Meier and bride." That was the registry at an Omaha hotel, and the word "bride" was boldly underscored. The man who wrote it was apparently under twenty, and the girl no more than eighteen. The landlord formed the idea that they were a runaway couple, who hoped to avert suspicion by boldness. He informed the police, by whom the husband (and husband he really proved to be) was arrested, and shut up for the night away from his wife.

—Miss Belle Clinton of Iowa, though only twenty years old, has proved herself the smartest girl in the state. She saved $160 by school teaching, and borrowing a span of horses from her father, rigged up a prairie schooner, and with her little brother for company started for Dakota. She homesteaded 160 acres, and added a timber claim of 120 acres by setting out ten acres. She has 3000 black walnut trees growing, and expects that in ten years she will be worth $25,000. She spends the winters at her home with her father, and next spring will take out more trees and add 160 acres of new land to her estate by taking up another claim.

"What is heaven's best gift to man?" she asked, sweetly smiling on him. "Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup," he replied, with prudence. He had just been cured by it of a bad cold.

George William Ballou has been elected vice president of the Mutual Union Telegraph company.

Mr. John Maal is cashier of the famous Schnaider's Brewery and Garden, St. Louis, Mo., and he states that for some time he suffered severely from rheumatism which defied a number of remedies, and was apparently, becoming chronic. Through advice of a friend he tried St. Jacobs Oil, and after applying it to the affected places found immediate relief. In a short time the alarming symptoms had disappeared, and to-day he considers himself completely free from the painful complaint, without likelihood of its recurrence. Yet he is never without a supply of this valuable panacea, and has it ready for use.

W. B. Stevenson, a married man, head bookkeeper of Disston's saw works at Tacony, Pa., has eloped with a young girl, and taken $4,000 of his employer's money.

At Jackson, Miss., Jan. 17th, Reid Johnson, a colored farmer, while sitting at his fireside was shot and killed by another colored man named Anderson Hunter. On account of Hunter's intimacy with Mrs. Johnson, her husband went to Jackson from a distant section of the state, a short time ago. Hunter followed and murdered him. Hunter and Mrs. Johnson were arrested.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent pressure of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have recovered my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I recommend it to immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
HAVE USED PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burdick writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a week's invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. Q23

New Hampshire Items.

Wednesday, the 18th inst., was a cool day back in this state. The thermometer was twenty-four below at Antrim, twenty-two below at Contoocook, and twenty below at Plymouth.

Fire caught in the main hall of the large three story wooden boarding house of the State Normal school at Plymouth, Wednesday noon, the 18th inst., from an overheated pipe, and threatened serious consequences, but was put out without doing much harm. The term had just closed, and the inmates were preparing to take the noon trains.

Daniel Webster's watch, which he presented to his physician, Dr. John Jeffries, the day he died, Oct. 21, 1852, is on exhibition in the window of Bigelow, Kennard & Co., Boston. It is a massive gold open-faced Swiss watch, made in the early part of the century.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fowler, the old lady of Seabrook who was so brutally assaulted in her house at night a short time ago, has been presented with a six-shooter by some of her friends.

Ezekiel Webster, brother of Daniel, died at Concord, on April 16th, 1829, while arguing a case to the jury. He had just uttered the words in addressing the jury: "This, gentlemen, you have in evidence"—speaking the words in his usual full and distinct tone, when he threw his head spasmodically back and fell to the floor, where he lay as rigidly as if he had been dead for hours.

Mrs. Alice Gordon, the oldest person in Sanbornton, is ninety-eight years of age, and resides within a stone's throw of the spot where she taught school eighty years ago.

Potatoes are bringing $1.10 a bushel at Laconia, and are scarce at that price sometimes.

—MESSRS. ELY BROS., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—It gives me great satisfaction to say your Cream Balm (recommended to me by a friend) has completely cured me of catarrh by which I have been afflicted for over ten years, after trying almost every remedy recommended, none having proved so pleasant, effective and thorough as your Cream Balm in its work. Very truly, etc., S. J. AIKEN, Wholesale Dealer in Boots and Shoes, 143 Federal St., Boston, Mass. Feb. 5, 1881.

Messrs. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, N. Y.—I have been handling your Cream Balm and find that it takes well. Some very old cases of catarrh are said to have been cured by it in this vicinity. S. S. DETRICK, Druggists, East Stroudsburg, Penn.

Price fifty cents.

Enoch Page of Sutton, aged about seventy-five years, formerly state senator and railroad commissioner and a very prominent citizen, died Jan. 14th.

Mr. Patterson Meant What he Said.

I hereby testify that my boy, ten years of age, was taken sick with typhoid fever, followed by congestion of the lungs. Dr. Dyer, an eminent physician of this place, stated that he thought the boy would run down with quick consumption. A Mr. Patterson told me that Coe's Cough Balsam was curing similar cases, and advised us to purchase it. When I carried it home, my wife laughed at me, but I knew that Mr. Patterson meant just what he said, and I determined to try it. Two bottles effectually cured him, so that now he is as tough and healthy as anybody.

LYMAN DORMAN.

Huntington, Conn., Aug. 29, 1866.

Mrs. Sally Maloon of Laconia fell some weeks since, fracturing her thigh bone, from the effects of which injury she died on the 11th inst., at the age of eighty-four years.

The Highest Rank.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the highest rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

At Hermitas, Mariposa county, Cal., Jan. 18th, Albert Branson was fatally shot by his father-in-law, Sammons, who immediately afterward shot himself dead. The parties were farming together, and a business trouble arose.

Quick and Sure.

Many miserable people drag themselves about with failing strength, feeling that they are steadily sinking into their graves, when by using Parker's Ginger Tonic they would find a cure commencing with the first dose, and vitality and strength quickly and surely coming back to them.

A bridge in process of erection near Lebanon, Ky., fell Jan. 17th, carrying down six men, of whom one was killed and four seriously injured. The bridge was sixty feet above the water.

An eminent physician of large practice says, "I have examined the formula from which Adamson's Botanic Balsam is prepared and can recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy for coughs and colds."

Jeannette B. Gillen, wife of James Gillen, of Andover, Mass., committed suicide Tuesday night, Jan. 17th, by eating the phosphorus from three bunches of matches, and drinking half a pint of ink. She was insane, and had previously made attempts on her life.

I Have Always Paid Rent!

For a house to live in. This year I have half paid for a cottage, with money which, before I used Sulphur Bitters in my family, was paid to the doctor and the druggist. They cured my wife of female weakness.—Mechanic, Salem.

The Powhatan, now at Boston, has received orders to proceed to Norfolk.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who profit by its use.

The government has accepted, for the use of the navy, the Lay-Haight torpedo, which was experimented with by officers of the torpedo station last summer, at Newport, R. I.

One of the most fashionable tonsorial establishments in Philadelphia, Pa., is that of Mr. Chas. Binder, at the N. E. corner of Seventh and Chestnut streets, under Guy's hotel. Mr. Binder was a soldier in the late war, and for some years past he has had constant reminders of his exposure in the field in the way of rheumatic pains in different portions of his body, and he has always found it very difficult to obtain relief. Latterly the disease mentioned attacked his knee-joints, and Mr. Binder suffered night and day. He had both read and heard about the remarkable properties of St. Jacobs Oil, and resolved to give it a trial. Mr. Binder says he is very glad he did so, for he has found that rheumatism and St. Jacobs Oil could not both hold possession of his knee-joints at the same time, and whenever the Oil made a movement in that direction the rheumatism would beat a hasty retreat. The disease made several attempts to regain its old position, but was each time routed by the great German remedy and has broken camp and departed entirely. Mr. Binder now has an exalted opinion of St. Jacobs Oil, and whenever he hears one of his customers complain of rheumatism he exclaims: "Try St. Jacobs Oil."

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1876.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.,—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1846, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have, occasionally, employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self-cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y. 3mwfwly

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Guiteau's Trial.

Mr. Scoville used up the 18th with a continuation of his address to the jury, charging Grant, Arthur and Conkling with being morally guilty of Guiteau's crime.

On the 19th, before Scoville commenced speaking, Guiteau made quite an adroit speech, in which he managed to tell the jury several things which have been said by the papers. Scoville's harangue occupied the day.

The Salem Tunnel.

The necessity for widening the Salem tunnel sufficiently to allow breadth for two tracks has long been concede. It is now said that if anything can be done, the work should be begun, as far as the initiatory steps are concerned, as early as possible. On the first of February Mr. John Kinsman will begin the erection of a large brick business block on Washington street, Salem, on the line of the tunnel, and within the next five years the indications are that building operations will be brisk on that thoroughfare. The community is in accord with the Eastern railroad management as to the necessity of doing something in this direction for the safety of all concerned, on account of the rapidly increasing traffic of the company. The idea of a change of entrance into Salem for this railroad by a detour from below Swampscott at Thompson's meadow, across the pastures, ultimately striking the main line at the northern side of the city, is very old, having been broached at least twenty years ago. It was long since conceded that on account of its great expense the project was not wholly practicable, and but little has been heard from its supporters of late years.

Plain Speaking.

Governor Cornell of New York on the 18th inst. sent to the state senate a message relative to the Spuyten Duyvil railway disaster, in which he says: "The tragic fate of your late associate, and the fact that the lives of many members of both branches of the legislature were imperilled in that frightful casualty, are calculated to impress on your minds with peculiar force the vital and urgent need of prompt consideration of the subject of railroad disasters, and the means to prevent them. That an accident that could have been so easily prevented, and which was, therefore, absolutely inexcusable, could occur on the line of the chief railway of this state, and within the corporated limits of the great metropolis, demonstrates most painfully the importance of some careful statutory provision, with adequate penalties, to enforce obedience and responsibility in all necessary precautions for the conduct of railways. Trains should be required by law to be supplied with all available appliances for breaking into wrecked cars, and for the extinguishment of fire."

News and Notes.

In the superior court at Pittsfield, Mass., Jan. 18th, one of four indictments against R. G. Walden of North Adams, for incendiarism, in attempting to burn J. H. Adam's furniture block, Dec. 15th, 1880, was taken up. The defence will try to throw the blame on Ex-Chief of Police Mallory, who ran away from town last June because of criminal proceedings and will attempt to prove an alibi. Walden at the time was deputy sheriff, chief of the fire department and ex-selectman, and since his arrest incendiary fires in the town have stopped.

John Kelly, the head sachem of Tammany, is dangerously ill.

In Chicago, on the night of the 17th inst., Louis P. Smith, twenty years old, caught three men in the act of robbing a house on Fulton street. He secured a revolver and sent his younger brother to ring the door bell, when he stationed himself at the rear of the house. As the thieves came hurrying out, the first was captured, the second shot down, and the third fired upon. On the arrival of the police wagon the prisoner was found to be Martin Furlong, a desperate burglar. Dick Furlong was soon traced out and found in a dying condition, and John Garrity was secured in a neighboring street.

Gov. Cornell has informed the legislature of New York that no pardons were granted by him during the past year. It may well be doubted whether any other governor ever abstained for a twelve-month from using the power of executive clemency. Governor Cornell's views on the pardoning power are peculiarly conservative. In his recent message he said he believed that it should only be used to aid in the administration of full and exact justice, and not to prevent or defeat the just and righteous enforcement of the laws.

C. H. Prescott, Esq., editor of the Biddeford Journal, and Miss Nellie S. Hobbs, daughter of William Hobbs, Esq., were married at North Berwick on the 17th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Rev. F. C. Bradeen officiating. Owing to the ill health of Mr. Hobbs the wedding was a very quiet affair. The couple departed on the afternoon train for Washington, D. C., where they will spend the honey-moon.

AROUND HOME.

John Steward and William P. Israel have been drawn as petit jurors from ward four.

The schooner James Boyce, Crosby master, which sailed for Baltimore on the 19th inst., took out a large quantity of potatoes, onions, apples and hay, shipped by Mr. C. H. Hayes.

The annual meeting of the Grand Encampment, G. A. R., Department of New Hampshire, will be held in this city on the 7th of February.

It was reported on Thursday that Mr. Daniel Mason had nol. pros'd all suits against the city growing out of the Vaughan street extension.

During the year 1881 there were ten alarms of fire in this city, and seven fires, three of which were probably caused by incendiares; the total loss was $4,293, on which there was $3,613 insurance.

Church fellowship meetings have recently been held in the Congregational churches at Rye, Stratham, North Hampton and Hampton, at intervals of about a week, the meetings occupying one day in each place, and in three of the towns named being continued through the evening. These meetings are conducted somewhat on the basket-picnic plan, the visiting brethren bringing their lunch-baskets with them, and those of them who come in teams taking care of their own horses, thereby enabling the members of the church visited to enjoy the meetings instead of having to worry themselves about the accommodation of their guests. The next meeting of the series will be held in the North church in this city, Jan. 25th.

The body of a man who formerly lived in Portsmouth and had once seen better days, and who died of consumption in a neighboring town, was brought here on Tuesday evening of this week. The remains, after lying in the depot some time, were taken in charge by Undertaker Adams, and removed by that gentleman to his rooms on Daniel street. Mr. Adams stated that he had received orders from the only brother of the deceased, a well-to-do provision dealer in Boston, to take the body to the cemetery on a team; and although the remains lay at Mr. Adams' rooms nearly all of Wednesday, not a single member of deceased's family was notified of the fact, or at least, not one of them went near to look on them. Later in the day some friends of deceased took charge of the remains, and procuring a hearse and hacks, followed them to Harmony Grove cemetery, where the body was deposited in the receiving tomb at that burial ground. X.

The president of the New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals visited Thornton Gore recently to investigate a charge of cruelty against Joseph Parker of that place. The circumstances warranted prosecution, and Parker was arrested and arraigned before Justice Jewell at Plymouth on Monday of this week. The examination resulted in the imposition of a fine and costs aggregating fifty dollars, which was all the justice could impose on a criminal charge.

In the circuit court of the United States this week, Judge Lowell has ordered the commissioners to make the return of cases called for by a recent request from the office of the attorney general, provided a suitable remuneration therefor is made to the commissioners.

The old office-building at the Raynes shipyard, which was moved aside last fall to make way for the new street which ruined the yard for ship-building purposes, was on Wednesday morning of this week hauled across the north mill-bridge and down to the foot of Dearborn street, where it will be fitted up for a tenement by Mr. J. Howard Dodge; nine yoke of oxen and a tremendous amount of noise were required to effect the removal, and three telegraph wires which obstructed the passage of the building were broken. We are ready to wager seventy-five cents, and will give our note at six months, interest four per cent, if we lose,—that Mr. Dodge will not do as a man in Dover recently did, viz., pay the telegraph companies damages on account of his breaking through obstructions on the public highway.

The remains of Mr. Charles E. Stokell, a native of Portsmouth and for nearly twenty-five years engaged in the hacking and livery business in New York city, were brought to this city for interment on Wednesday last.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins or ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—non-assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

FRANK W. HILTON.

While many of our citizens were not surprised, all were grieved to learn on Thursday afternoon of the death of Capt. Frank W. Hilton, the widely known landlord of the Rockingham and Wentworth hotels. Capt. Hilton, though appearing to those unacquainted with him as a gentleman in good health was nevertheless a constant invalid, and for some time past had suffered from troubles of the heart and liver.

He was born in Madison in the state of Maine, and came naturally by his taste for hotel keeping, as his father before him was a hotel proprietor, at one time being landlord of the celebrated DeWitt House at Lewiston. He now resides at Rock Island.

Early in the war of the rebellion Capt. Hilton volunteered his services in behalf of his country, and in July, 1861, was enrolled in Company I of the 16th Regiment of Massachusetts Volunteers. While in this company at the battle of Chantilly, in Sept. 1862, he was severely injured by being jammed between a caisson and a tree. Shortly after this he was attacked by malarial fever, and was sick in hospital at Alexandria for several months, when in consequence of his enfeebled condition he resigned his commission. Recovering to a considerable degree his health, after six or eight months' recuperation at the north, on his own application for service he was again commissioned and returned to his command in his old regiment, but the severity of the campaign told upon him, and his injured leg became so painful that he was unable to perform active duty. In May, 1863, at Spottsylvania Court House, Capt. Hilton was injured in the left hip by the bursting of a shell, a piece of which struck him, and this wound, added to his previously-incurred disabilities, compelled his discharge.

From the effect of these injuries, for twenty years Capt. Hilton has been a constant sufferer; and yet since his return from the war he has been an active business man.

After leaving the army Capt. Hilton for a while resided at Watertown, Mass., and was connected with the arsenal in that place. Leaving Watertown he went to Chicago and managed hotels in that city, and subsequently engaged with the Pullman Palace Car Co. in running hotel cars between Chicago and the Pacific railroad. When the Pullman Co. sent their cars to this part of the country, Capt. Hilton came in charge, and it was expected that he would have the oversight of the New England division of this company's operations, but subsequently another gentleman was assigned to this duty. During his connection with the Pullman Palace Car Co. he was largely in the confidence of the company, and was selected by the managers to accompany parties of prominent personages in different parts of the country on special occasions. He was universally acknowledged to have no superior in this duty, in the performance of which he visited every state in the Union where the palace cars were run.

We first saw him when the first train of Pullman cars ran through this city over the Eastern railroad to Bangor, the cars being under his direction on a special train carrying the directors of the Eastern road to Bangor. After that, Capt. Hilton, as manager of the first "Oceanic" at the Isles of Shoals, shew his ability as a hotel man in organizing the whole affair, which had been projected by a gentleman of liberal ideas but without experience in this business. After leaving the Oceanic, which he managed for two seasons, Capt. Hilton took the Rockingham house in this city, and for over seven years has kept this far-famed hotel, and maintained its high repute as one of the best hotels in the land.

Capt. Hilton took charge of the Rockingham house on the first of October, 1874. In the spring of 1879 the "Wentworth" at Newcastle came under his management, and the first season of '79 shew the necessity of enlarged accommodations at this spot. During the following winter the improvements were made which have rendered the house one of such unexcelled attractions, and for the past two years the hotel has been managed as one of the finest establishments of the kind on the Atlantic coast. He evinced much tact in placing the claims of the Wentworth before the people of the west. His descriptive circulars were models of excellence, and drew forth the commendations of able hotel managers in all parts of the country. Despite all that had been promised, guests found that the attractions of this resort were properly referred to, not in any sense magnified by any statement in the manner of being advertised.

Capt. Hilton was a man of positive traits. He was not afraid to express his views upon subjects he was called upon to discuss. He did not study policy, but was frank to friend or foe. He was strong in his friendships, and it is to his friends,—those who understood him best, knew his constant suffering and his many ailments, and could consequently sympathize with him in whatever mood he might seem to those who knew him less, to be subjected,—that this loss comes with peculiar severity. In business matters he was the soul of honor. He was prompt in all his engagements, and required this of all who were in his employ, or who dealt with him; and he had a knowledge of how things should be done, an executive ability, wherever he was placed, which seemed always to enable him to successfully go through with anything he undertook to perform.

In a community like ours, where are welcomed and entertained during a certain season of the year so many strangers from distant cities, the withdrawal from an active instrumentality, which has induced so to come to our neighborhood in the years just past, of a man like the subject of this notice, is a loss which falls upon us all, and it creates a void not easily filled.

While in his sick chamber, Capt. Hilton was chosen President of the Hotel Men's Mutual Benefit Association at their annual meeting at Cincinnati this week. This association had abundant knowledge of his fitness for the position, and by their action acknowledged him to be one of the most prominent men in that calling in the land.

Capt. Hilton leaves a widow, who has in this hour of her bereavement the sympathy of our people. A brother, Mr. Chas. Hilton, is connected with one of the leading hotels in Chicago. His age was forty years.

The time of the funeral will be announced hereafter.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, Jan. 19th, Mayor Sise in the chair:

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

The reports of the city marshal and chief engineer for the year 1881 were received and referred.

John Shannon was granted leave to move a building from the Raynes estate—which building was moved the previous morning.

City marshal's report for quarter ending Dec. 31st was approved.

The matter of removing the Wilson house was referred to the committee on streets.

On motion of Ald. Green, the vote refusing permission to the Eastern & Mutual Union Telegraph Co. to put poles in the street was reconsidered. The matter of granting the request was postponed for one week.

Ald. Stavers reported that the trustees of Christ Church were willing to pay $62.50 for the stone taken from the city farm. Report accepted.

Adjourned for one week.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Jan. 19; Bufford, J.

George S. Moulton, Thomas Hurley and John Ray were each assessed $9.90 for drunkenness. Moulton and Hurley will work out their fines; Roy is a marine, and his assessment will be paid.

MARINE DISASTER.

The schooner Marysville, of St. John, N. B., W. J. Herder master, bound from Boston to St. John, light, went on the rocks at Fort Point on the night of the 18th inst., during a snow-storm, and soon filled. The U. S. S. Leyden attempted to haul her off at high water on the 19th, but failed, parting a nine-inch hawser in the attempt. The schooner, which is badly injured, is partially insured. She carries a crew of five men.

The Leyden was to make another effort to tow her afloat last night.

THE WAR PREMIUMS.

On Monday of this week, before the judiciary committee of the national house of representatives, there was a hearing of much interest to the very considerable number of persons in this city and vicinity who paid heavy premiums for the insurance of vessel property during the war of secession. Mr. Manning of Worcester, Mass., argued the claims of the war-premium men for the Geneva award balance of $9,000,000. He was followed by Mr. Metcalf, who appeared for those who suffered by the "exculpated" cruisers. There is some hope felt that this long contest will be decided during the present session. The war-premium people are hopeful that the decision of this Congress will be in their favor. They say that with the exception of the Atlantic company of New York, the insurance people seem to have abandoned their case. They have certainly not had much encouragement of late. It is said the house committee is probably in favor of the war-premium men, and will report the bill recognizing the validity of their claims, with two per cent additional interest on the claims already paid. The hearing before the judiciary committee will continue for two Mondays.

It is reported that unless Col. James M. Stone receives the next regular republican nomination for Congress in the first district of Maine—York and Cumberland counties—his temperance friends propose to run him as an independent candidate.

An Interesting Account.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Guiteau's "Suppressed" Speech.

Referring to Guiteau's long screed which Judge Cox refused to allow Guiteau to read, but which has been published in such of the large metropolitan papers as had room for the stuff, the Providence Journal says:

In the beginning it may be premised that if the counsel for the defence had supposed it would have had a good effect upon the jury in convincing them of what is the sole safety for the prisoner, the conviction of his insanity, they would have struggled for its admission as they have that the prisoner should be allowed the liberty of speech, which has displayed his intemperate violence, no matter how long, absurd or flagitious it might be. That they did not do so is presumptive proof that they considered it as showing the possession of responsible faculties rather than mental disturbance, and this is the conclusion that will be borne out by a perusal of the speech of the assassin. It is vulgar, insolent, blasphemous, indecent, and with all the faults of the head and heart of the wretched criminal that composed it, but it is remarkably acute and clever, and follows closely the line of logic for the only defence of the criminal which is possible, except that of diseased mind and absolute insanity, which he has himself repudiated and overthrown by his language and conduct during the trial. The theory on which he fastens his hope of acquittal is that of inspiration by divine authority, and his arguments and presentations of facts are intended to support that, and to show the jury how he might reasonably be affected with the sense of duty to restore peace to the country by the "removal" of the President. That his claims about the genuiness of his impressions and feelings have been sufficiently disproved by the evidence of his personal disappointment, malignity and premeditation, does not interfere with the cleverness of his presentation of the case.

Frank Warren was instantly killed and Mr. Woodward badly injured by the falling of a tree at West Auburn, Me., Jan. 18th.

The local editor of the Bath, Me., Times was locked in the police station alone the other day by mistake. Good use of his lung power finally caused his release.

At Lancaster, Ky., Jan. 18th, James R. Wilmot, a farmer, killed his mother, aged eighty-nine years, his wife, and his two daughters, aged respectively nineteen and fifteen years, with an axe, and then hung himself. He also tried to kill his son, but failed. For some time past Wilmot had been brooding over a security debt of $450, which he had to pay for his brother-in-law, and this, it is believed, drove him crazy. Although he was in comfortable circumstances, and worth $10,000, he recently expressed fears of death from starvation. He was about sixty years old, and was an honest, close, economical business man. He was kind and affectionate to his family, and to his old mother he was the most devoted of sons.

Disappointment in matters of pleasure is hard to be borne, in matters affecting health it becomes cruel. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup never disappoints those who use it for obstinate coughs, colds, irritation of throat and lungs, etc.

Hon. Selden Connor was on the 19th inst. nominated as pension agent at Augusta, Me.

I don't want a Doctor!

I have tried them, and they have only swindled me. I have figured up what they cost me for the last four years, it was just $324.31. If I had it now it would be a fortune to me. This year my bill for medicine was only five dollars, for which I surchased six bottles of Sulphur Bitters. They cured me of scrofula after suffering four years.—Workingman.

Senator Lamar, was re-elected to the United States senate from Mississippi, Jan. 18th.

Grateful to Invalids.

Floreston Cologne is grateful to invalids, because it is refreshing without the sickening effect of most perfumes.

The Iowa legislature on the 18th inst. elected James F. Wilson to the United States senate for the long term, and J. W. McDill for the short term.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork.—Times.

The will of the late Judge Edward Fox of Portland, Me., leaves about $300,000 in real and personal estate. Bequests of $4,000 are given to local charitable societies, and the remainder is divided among his family.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms in the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in local cities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generous by suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. t23

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for Infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

A lady named McCormack, a member of the Ladies' Land League, has been sent to prison for one month at Dublin, in default of bonds for her good behavior.

An eminent physician of large practice says, "I have examined the formula from which Adamson's Botanic Balsam is prepared and can recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy for coughs and colds."

Portsmouth Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JAN. 21. 1882.

The New District Judge in Maine.

The appointment of Mr. Nathan Webb of Portland as successor of the late Judge Fox in the office of district judge is an excellent selection. Mr. Webb is one of the very ablest lawyers in Maine. An attorney for the United States for the Maine district, and as a leading practitioner in the federal courts, he is familiar with the rules and conversant with the business of these courts. But the best thing about the appointment is that Mr. Webb did absolutely nothing towards obtaining the position. Indeed he was disinclined to accept the office when his friends broached the subject, as he has a large practice and enjoys his profession as a lawyer with a keen zest. He is by far the best man which Maine could produce for the place.

After the Sheckels.

One Murphy, a New York democratic orator, has sued Mr. English of Indiana for $1,180, for services rendered the democratic candidate for vice president during the late campaign, for which he says English promised to pay. The suit will be an interesting one. If Murphy should win it, who can tell how many other democratic orators will rush to the courts with similar bills? The wretched excandidate, who paid a heavy price for his defeat, and was scoffed at and reviled by his own party associates for not paying more, might be plucked to the bone. It is expected that when a wealthy man is nominated on the democratic ticket, he will pay in cash the little expenses incident to the campaign. English was the most unpopular candidate the democracy ever staggered under, and now we see to what cause his unpopularity may be attributed.

Guiteau's Trial.

Scoville continued his apparently interminable harangue on the 20th, his talk having apparently no other aim than to kill time. At recess, as Guiteau was being taken out of the court room, he stopped to talk to Scoville, and on a bailiff attempting to make him move on, struck the officer on the breast with his manacled hands. He was at once seized and rushed out of the room.

"Ram Did It."

Before the coroner's inquest into the Spuyten Duyvil disaster, the conductor of the Albany express train, George F. Hanford, testified that he believed the stopping of his train was caused by some person not connected with it, who applied the air brakes; this could easily be done, as there was a cord running through the several cars which composed the train, which was connected with a valve, and was placed there as a precaution against accidents. On being asked why he thought the train was stopped by some of the passengers, he said: There was a party on the train who were singing, smashing hats and conducting themselves in a very disgraceful manner. They were passing around bottles of whiskey, and the foundation of that accident was rum. He had not sufficient help on the train to stop such proceedings. Among the passengers were any number of ex-coroners, senators, assemblymen and aldermen, and he could not deprive them of their bottles. This was an every-day occurrence, but more especially so on Fridays.

A Real Duel—Man Killed.

At Corning, Ohio, Jan. 18th, Harold Robinson and Malcolm Balfie, negroes, fought a duel with pistols, and Robinson was fatally wounded. This is another illustration of the inferiority of the colored man. During the recent political campaign in Virginia more than sixty white men of the very loudest chivalry appealed to "the code, sah!" and never a man of the lot received a scratch, excepting one who was shot through the rim of his ram-beaver hat, which was hanging in a tree out one side.

News and Notes.

It may not be a very gallant thing to say, but Mrs. Scoville appears to be only less conceited and impertinent than her precious brother, Guiteau. Tis a good family to be strangers with.

The house of George C. Smith, at Lewis, Mo., was burned early in the morning on Jan. 19th, and Mrs. Smith, three of her daughters, aged respectively seventeen, thirteen and six years, and her son, aged sixteen, were burned to death. Mr. Smith and one daughter, the latter eight years old, and a neighbor's little girl, escaped, the latter being the only one not badly burned. The fire was accidental.

A few days ago a gang of masked men from New Brunswick crossed the line into Maine, took an American citizen named Melvin from his bed in Fort Fairfield, and carried him to Andover, N. B., where he was imprisoned to answer to a charge of bigamy. This outrage against the American flag was reported to Washington, and the authorities it is said have taken steps to have the kidnappers punished. A despatch from St. John, N. B., dated Jan. 19th, says Melvin escaped from the lockup on the previous night; but this (if true) will not lessen the duty of our government to demand reparation for the outrage.

The new president of the Boston & Maine railroad views things differently from the former head of that concern. Formerly the corporation paid its damages at the end of an execution; now, before the coroner's inquest is through, the the corporation attorney visits York, and settles for a nominal sum several severe cases, and thereby saves the company thousands of dollars. This judicious policy is a new thing for the Boston & Maine road to adopt, but it is a sagacious course to pursue.

The friends of civil service reform should study the case of Hanibal Hamlin of Maine, who never emerges from one office until he sees his way clear for another place. The bad taste of sending a dispatch to the secretary of state, after he had been shipped to Spain, to look to it that his son, Chas. Hamlin,—a very clever fellow, by the way,—should receive the suddenly vacated district judgship in Maine, is shockingly apparent as an attempt to keep a good thing in the family. Now it appears that Mr. Hamlin does not intend long to hold the office of minister to Spain, but only took it cecause he had never been abroad, and thought this would be a good opportunity to see the world at the public expense. By-and-bye Mr. Hamlin will come home, and perhaps be appointed postmaster at Bangor, or take the collectorship of that port, about which such a serimmage arose in the early days of President Garfield's administration.

Cheap labor, or railroad servants under-paid that the Vanderbilt wealth might be enhanced, is conceded to be the cause of the Hudson River railroad disaster.

AROUND HOME.

A party of gentlemen went from this city to Chase's pond, York, on the 19th inst., fishing, and caught 29 3-4 lbs. of pickerel and 14 1-2 lbs. of perch; the demand for them was greater than the supply, so we only received one, which tipped the scales at 4 3-4 lbs. What the fishermen would like to find out is, who hypothecated the perch—in fact, the whole string.

The schooner Charles S. Tappan, which was towed from this port to Gloucester on Tuesday of this week, after having been on the rocks at Rye for eight days, has been taken on the railway to be repaired. Her bottom is badly injured, but she does not appear to be severely strained.

On the 11th inst. Mrs. Mary Welsh, wife of George S. Welsh, of Spruce creek, Kittery, fell backward from a haymow, a distance of eight feet to the floor, and struck so heavily upon her side that she was unable to leave her bed for several days.

The pinkeye is just beginning to trouble the horses and horse owners of Kittery.

The three breweries in this city made last year more than 200,000 barrels of ale.

Two middle-aged men, one a railroad man and the other a ship-carpenter, went from this city to Great bay last Thursday, carrying two half-bushel baskets to contain the little fishes they intended to catch. One caught one smelt, and the other caught a cold in the head. We would give the name of the one who caught the fare, but their stories are so terribly tangled up that it is not possible to decide which one really did catch the fish.

Mr. H. W. French, the author and lecturer, will appear in Music hall on Thursday evening next. The announcement regarding his lecture may be found elsewhere in this paper. He is just returning from a remarkably successful tour through the principal cities of the west, his lecture in Portsmouth being the first delivered by him in the east since last fall. Wherever he has appeared Mr. French has received uniformly high praise from the press and the public. He has not delivered many lectures in New England, but in the west he is very popular, and his great success elsewhere warrants him in expecting a large audience in this city.

The navy department has ordered that this navy yard be connected with Portsmouth by telephone, through the Boston & Northern telephone exchange.

First Lieut. David Whipple, U. S. M. C., has been detached from the Tennessee and ordered to the marine barracks at this navy yard.

Commodore Clark H. Wells, commandant at this navy yard, has sent a communication to the navy department strongly urging that the U. S. S. Constitution, recently laid up in ordinary at the New York yard, be located at this station as a receiving ship. It is stated that there are fair prospects the request will be granted.—Journal.

A new and somewhat plausible explanation of the Moore-Cushman tragedy is furnished by a Boston friend of young Moore, who states that prior to his fatal visit to Biddeford he had been taking part in private theatricals, and that the character assumed by him required the handling of a pistol. The friend's theory is that young Moore was rehearsing his part to his affianced, and while flourishing the pistol it was accidentally discharged. Filled with sudden horror at the unexpected climax of his theatrical efforts, he lodged the second bullet in his own brain on the impulse of the moment.

The Newburyport Herald of Friday says: "A platter of large smelts in the window of J. F. Morrill's restaurant attracts considerable attention. One of the fish weighs between five and six pounds." Should think it would attract some attention.

Cuticura

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

SALT RHEUM. Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn st., Chicago, grateful acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

SKIN DISEASES. F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SKIN HUMORS. Mrs. S. E. Whipple, Detroit, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered fearfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1, Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON. President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2500 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $5.00,—non-assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. SUPREME COURT.

[January Term. Carpenter, J.]

In the case Chas. D. Towle vs. N. H. Cunningham, tried by the court, a confession was filed of $11.78. The court found for Towle, $16.96. Towle for pliff.; Eastman for deft.

William Kelliher vs. Eastern Railroad Co. This action was brought to recover damages for the loss of a horse killed by one of the railway trains in crossing "Barberry lane" in Portsmouth last June. It seems that a son of the pliff. was leading the horse along the lane, when the animal escaped and ran up the railway track, and was killed by the train due in this city at 6:45 o'clock P. M. The pliff. asserted that the cattle guard at the road crossing was defective, and not sufficient to prevent the horse from getting upon the track. It was shown that the culverts had been suffered to fill up at the time of the accident, but the railway employes had since had their attention called to the condition, and they had been cleaned out, as is apt to be the case after such an accident. Testimony shew the horse was worth $125. The jury placed the figure at $89. Frink & Batchelder for pliff.; John Hatch for deft.

FREE BAPTIST QUARTERLY MEETING.

The quarterly meeting of the Rockingham Free Baptist Association commenced in Newmarket on Wednesday, the 18th inst., and continued two days. The exercises were of more than ordinary interest. The sermon Wednesday evening was by Rev. A. B. Sherwood of Manchester, on the "Impassable God;" the forenoon sermon on Thursday was by Rev. E. W. Porter of Lowell, Mass., on the "Power and anointing of the Holy Ghost," and the afternoon sermon on that day was by Rev. C. D. Dudley of Great Falls, on "God's work, and his workers." There were social conference meetings, forenoon and afternoon, on Thursday.

ICE SHIPMENT.

The prospects of the ice crop are discussed by shippers with the usual interest which is felt toward the end of January. The ice on the Kennebec, while not as good as that from some of our New Hampshire ponds, is shipped largely, and the question occurs why, if it pays to send vessels in ballast from this port to the Kennebec to load with ice, cannot ice be brought by rail to our wharves so that coal laden vessels might take return cargoes? It is hardly possible that the Concord railroad managers would be inclined to make business by encouraging the cutting of the ice at Jones' pond in Raymond, as was the case years ago, and if this was done now, we should perhaps be told that the road could haul it to Manchester and thence to Boston, and have it placed on board of a vessel hauled through half a dozen bridges, so it would be shipped cheaper than by way of Portsmouth; but the Eastern road, it would seem, could afford to have ice-houses on Noble's island, whence could be shipped on board vessels bringing cargoes to their wharf, return cargoes of ice, which would tend to lower the coal freights to this port, and benefit the road, whose coal carriage is increasing. It would seem that if coal vessels could be sure of return freights from Portsmouth to Philadelphia and other ports, it would be a saving all around, and we could compete successfully with our eastern neighbors, as the amount paid for rail transportation would be saved in eastward freight by sea. We commend the consideration of this subject to our Board of Trade at their next meeting.

CARD OF THANKS.

The undersigned returns his sincere thanks to Commodore Clark H. Wells, commandant, and Capt. A. E. K. Benham, captain of the United States navy yard at Portsmouth, N. H., and to Mate John L. Vennard, in charge of the U. S. S. Leyden, for assistance rendered in getting the schooner "Marysville," of St. John, N. B., off the rocks at Newcastle, N. H.

W. J. HURDER,
Master sch. Marysville.

In consequence of the poor health of Rev. W. W. Smith, pastor of the Methodist church, the official board have voted him a vacation of three weeks. The pulpit will be supplied during his absence.

That there will be a very large audience at Music hall on Monday evening is assured by the very great advance sale of tickets; but there are still some good seats left, though it is not probable there will be many when the hall doors are opened. Persons intending to go to the grand concert had best secure tickets today.

The U. S. S. Leyden, Mate John L. Vennard in charge, on Friday morning made a second effort to pull the schooner Marysville off the rocks just below the Fort Point lighthouse. She arrived off the wreck on the high tide, made fast to the schooner with a ten-inch hawser, and easily towed her afloat with a steady strain. The schooner was towed up to the navy yard by the Leyden, and then taken in tow by the Mystic and placed alongside one of the warves at Kittery. While on the rocks she lost part of her keel forward and her rudder, and was somewhat damaged on her garboards and her starboard side. Capt. Hurder says his vessel first went on the ledge near Whalesback lighthouse, the sea striking and sweeping clear over her; the crew took to the boat and landed on Quarantine island, and the vessel shortly came off the ledge and made under full sail for the Newcastle shore, where she brought up on the rocks. She filled with water, but very little of it escaped on the low tides, indicating that most of the water got in by the hatchways. The Marysville registers seventy-eight tons, and is six years old.

The pink-eye prevails to an alarming degree among the horses in Newburyport, there being eight very sick with it in one stable; many fatal cases have occurred in that city and vicinity, about thirty horses having died in Amesbury within three weeks. The disease has prevailed to some extent in Portsmouth for a considerable time, but there have not been many fatal cases reported.

We recently stated that forty large white oak trees had been felled on the Peirce farm at Greenland, to supply timber for the schooner which Mr. Wm. F. Fernald is building at his new shipyard on Freeman's point. The actual number of trees cut there is over one hundred and fifty, the whole of the schooner's frame being supplied from that farm. The Peirce heirs naturally feel regret at cutting down the noble trees in which the late Col. Peirce took so much just pride, but they are now at their best, and if allowed to stand fifteen or twenty years longer would not then be of so much value as at present.

The telegraph and telephone wires on Elm street which were broken on the 18th inst. by a building which was being removed, were repaired next day.

At the annual meeting of the Ayrshire Breeders' Association, held at Providence, R. I., on the 19th inst., C. Hiram Hayes of this city was chosen one of the executive committee.

Woodward Emery, Esq., was on the 19th inst. admitted to the bar of the supreme court of the United States at Washington, on the motion J. Langdon Ward, Esq.

Frank W. Hackett, Esq., of this city, appeared before the judiciary committee of Congress on the 19th inst. in behalf of the claims under the Geneva award of actual sufferers, ship owners who have received awards heretofore in the Court of Commission of Alabama claims asking two per cent additional interest on their awards.

A "gilt-edged farm in Newington" is advertised for sale in a Concord newspaper.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

Naval Affairs.

The Yantic, now at Jamaica, W. I., has been ordered to proceed to Aspinwall, and remain there until the arrival of the Vandalia, now on the way.

The Marion arrived at Cape Town, South Africa, Dec. 13th, on her way to Heard's island, in search of the crew of the American barque Trinity, supposed to have been lost there.

Commodore Oscar C. Badger has been detached from duty as a member of the examining board, Feb. 10th, and ordered to command the navy yard at Boston, Feb. 15th.

Commander William T. Sampson has reported his return home, having been detached from the command of the Swatara on Dec. 6th, and has been placed on waiting orders.

Surgeon Alfred M. Owens has been ordered to duty at the navy yard at Pensacola, relieving Surgeon H. N. Beaumont, who is placed on waiting orders.

The furlough of Lieutenant-Commander Henry H. Gorringe has been extended three months from the first of February next.

A despatch received at the navy department states that the Wachusett left Alaska on the 11th inst. and arrived at Nanaimo, British Columbia, on the 18th, and after taking coal would proceed direct to San Francisco.

The Small-pox.

A despatch from Chicago, Jan. 19th, says: "Small-pox cases have become so numerous as to give cause for great alarm. The spread of the disease is attributed largely to storekeepers who, having some member of their family down with the disease, conceal the fact, keeping their stores open and exposing their customers to the contagion. Health officers declare that not one-twentieth of the cases are reported, yet both the pest houses are filled to overflowing. Five deaths and five new cases are reported to-day.',

Twenty new cases of small-pox were reported at Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 19th.

Another new case of small-pox was discovered at New Haven, Conn., on the 18th.

The Boston Star of the 20th reported a case of this dread disease as having that day been discovered in Newburyport.

—It is a great mystery to bachelors why married men seem to be so much afraid of their wives, and bear themselves with such an air of subjugation. The only answer to the conundrum is that given by the Quaker: "Friend, when thee is married, thee will know."

The retention of any waste matter in the system produces injury. The collection of "phlegm" or diseased mucus in time of cold or throat affection should be promptly removed. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup does it more quickly and effectually than any other cough syrup made.

How to Get Sick.

Expose yourself day and night, eat too much without exercise, work too hard without rest, doctor all the time, take all the vile nostrums advertised, and then you will want to know

HOW TO GET WELL.—Which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters.

The New York assembly had not succeeded in effecting an organization up to the 20th inst., the Tammany democrats holding the balance of power, and refusing to submit to anything less than an absolute surrender of the Tilden wing of the party.

Mr. S. J. Lambart, proprietor of the Abcott house, Parsons, Ark., says that St. Jacobs Oil is the boss rheumatic specific. "It has cured myself and wife," said Mr. Lambart, "of rheumatism. We both had rheumatism — inflammatory rheumatism, too—and had it bad. I believed in the remedy which every one was praising and used it. I have ever since been glad that I did so, for both my wife and myself realized speedy relief and cure. The St. Jacobs Oil is a splendid curative power; in short, it is just the best of liniments."

Gregory Sternoni, a merchant of Petersburg, W. Va., convicted of receiving stolen goods, was on Thursday last sentenced to receive twenty stripes at the whipping post.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent pains of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burdith writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is regular to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

(From the Courier.)

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1y23

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

It has been the practice in the post-office department for many years to change the vignette upon postal warrants upon the accession to office of every new postmaster-general, by substituting a portrait of the new official. Postmaster-General Howe has instituted a reform in this practice, by ordering a fine vignette of Benjamin Franklin to be placed upon the warrants.

"Rough on Rats."

The thing desired found at last. Ask druggist for Rough on Rats. It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs; 15 cts. boxes.

A Good Speech.

Mr. Briggs of this state made an able speech in Congress last Friday, which in point of brevity and application is a model. Sam. Randall had come to the aid of the members who wanted to enlarge the committees, and after three days of wasted time Mr. Randall enquired "What is the remedy?" Mr. Briggs' speech was so good that we print it entire: "Stop this everlasting talk, and go to work." We commend the advice of our representative from the second district, but in the call of the yeas and nays we do not find his vote recorded.

Guiteau's Trial.

On the 20th, after Scoville had ended his long speech, which for the last two days bore a close resemblance to the tirade of a New York police court shyster, Col. Corkhill withdrew the objections of the government to Guiteau's addressing the jury, and Judge Cox announced that he would be allowed to speak the next day. On the 21st, after a brief introduction, the assassin read his "speech" as printed in the New York Herald, and on its conclusion the court adjourned to Monday, Judge Porter being too ill to commence the closing argument for the prosecution.

The Small-pox.

In New York city, on the 21st inst., the inspectors discovered twelve small-pox cases, some of which had been concealed for weeks. Five were found in East Thirteenth street, and there had been no attempt at isolation; the death of one patient led to the discovery. Four cases were also found in East Third street, in a settlement of Bohemian cigar makers; all had active work, keeping them in constant communication with the outer world; the inspectors took away the material they were working upon, and thoroughly fumigated everything. Lawrence Tooley, a small-pox sufferer, arrived in New York on the evening of the 20th, from Philadelphia, having travelled from the latter city in a crowded car.

The Newburyport Herald emphatically denies that the small-pox has appeared in that city. There was a case which it was feared was small-pox, but it proved to be only chicken-pox, and the patient is now fully recovered.

The Railroad Murder.

At Hanover, Jan. 21st, William L. Howe of Portland, Me., and James H. Flint of Concord, Dartmouth college sophomores, were walking on the street, when a shotgun which Flint was carrying was discharged by accident, Howe receiving a wound between the shoulders which proved fatal.

Ice cutting has begun around Winnipesaukee and other lakes, although the ice is less than a foot thick.

Pink eye has attacked horses in Centre Harbor, and is spreading fast. This is the first appearance of the disease there.

Charles Clough, a shoemaker of Northwood, aged thirty-five years, attempted suicide on Wednesday of last week by taking chloral. Domestic trouble is said to be the cause.

The body of Thos. M. Long, the Tilton merchant who disappeared from his home on the last day of December, was on the 21st inst. found beside a stone wall less than a mile from his mother's residence in Concord. The body was partly covered with snow. A wound in the head and a revolver in his hand indicated that he died from his own act. He leaves a wife. He was a reputable citizen of Tilton, and a prominent odd fellow.

A tramp burglar broke into the house of Widow Bickford of Dover, eighty years old, who lives alone near Pine Hill cemetery, during her absence on the 19th inst., but was frightened away before he had a chance to steal anything.

Charles W. H. Hayes, formerly of Durham, who was indicted for the murder of James E. Chesley, a native of Lee, at Hutchinson, Minn., in June last, was convicted of manslaughter in the fourth degree, receiving a sentence of one year in the county jail in Henderson, Sibley county, Minn.

Naval Affairs.

Secretary Hunt has appointed a naval general court-martial to meet at the navy yard, Washington, for the trial of Passed-Assistant Paymaster S. D. Hurlburt, attached to the United States ship Enterprise. The charges against Hurlburt are conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and intoxication.

Commodore George M. Ransom, commandant of the navy yard at Boston, has received preparatory orders, stating that he will be relieved from the command of the yard on the 15th of February. He will have served there three years on that date. He will be placed on the retired list in June, being then sixty-two years of age.

The Army and Navy Journal for last week publishes a list of 1,300 naval officers, arranged in the order of precedence determined by a board of which Commodore Febiger was president. The board has made a serious upsetting in the existing order.

Books, Magazines, Etc

"Littell's Living Age." The number of the Living Age for the week ending January 14th contains the following notable articles: Carlyle's Ethics, Cornhill; Two Studies in Dante, Contemporary; English Satire in the Nineteenth Century, Fraser's; Kioto, Fortnightly; Fairies, Saturday Review; together with the conclusion of Mademoiselle Angele, and the usual amount of choice poetry. This is the second number of the new volume. New subscribers can begin with the volume. For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3,300 pages a year,) the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4 monthlies or weeklies with the Living Age for a year, both postpaid. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

"The North American Review." The February number of this review contains very readable articles.

"Do the Spoils Belong to the Victor?" by President White of Cornell university, treats of attempts to establish a system of civil service. Pres. White re-states what we have so often heard before relative to patronage and the annoyance it has been to presidents and senators, but he points out no practical plan by which the party establishing this service could remain in power. "The other fellows" would organize at once on a basis of spoils, elect their ticket, remove all the incumbents, repeal all laws as to civil service, and have things just where the wily democrats, who pat the republican theorists on the back in this discussion, would seek to place them. "Civil service reform" is just the thing for a man who is either ignorant or clumsy in politics, to write about; but it is easy to see that if adopted to the extent desired by some of its advocates, the re-action would occur at the first election following its going into effect.

Isaac L. Rice treats of "A Remedy for Railway Abuses," and maintains that the railways should be removed from the control of private magnates, and placed under the management of the general government.

Henry Bergh in a paper entitled "The Lancet and the Law," attacks inoculation, denounces vaccination as a hideous monstrosity, and severely criticises the medicine men for encouraging what they claim to be the best prevenative of the loathsome disease of small-pox.

Senator John W. Johnson writes of "Repudiation in Virginia:" and part three of "The Christian Religions," by Prof. G. P. Fisher, is the fifth article.

The opinions of the writers in the North American are freely expressed, but the editor disclaims all responsibility for these, and those who differ from the writers will at least enjoy their bold grasp of the subjects of which they treat.

Yearly subscription, $5.00; single number, fifty cents.

The Jack-Rabbit of Texas.

The jack-rabbit is an inhabitant of Texas and of some other western states. He is often called the "mule-eared rabbit," and, by the cow-boy, is familiarly spoken of as the "muley." He is not a rabbit at all. A rabbit is an unobtrusive little animal, who is found by school-boys in a hole in the ground at the end of a long track in the snow. The so-called jack-rabbit is quite a different kind of soup-meat. He is identical with the British hare, except that he is larger, his color lighter, and his ears much longer. His avoirdupois is about twelve pounds, and his ears measure, from tip to tip, about sixteen inches. He does not burrow in the ground. He lies under cover of a bunch of prairie-grass, but is very seldom found at home, his office hours being between sunset and sunrise. He is to be found during the day on the open prairie, where he feeds on the tender shoots of the mesquite or sage-grass. He is not a ferocious animal, as a stranger might be led to suppose from an examination of what purports to be his picture, under the alias of "The Texian Hare," in Gov. Roberts' book.

The jack-rabbit has several enemies, among them the cow-boy, who shoots him with his rifle, the coyote and the dog, that try to run him down, and the governor of Texas, above alluded to, who libels him in his book. He has two ways of protecting himself against his enemies. One way is to squat, when he suspects danger, and fold his ears along his sides. By doing this he often escapes observation, as only his back is exposed, the color of which harmonizes with the brown of the withered grass.

The other plan that he uses when discovered and pursued is to create remoteness between himself and his pursuer. In giving his whole attention to this matter when necessary he is a stupendous success, and earnest to a fault. When disturbed he unlimbers his long legs, unfurls his ears and goes off with a bound. He generally stops after running about a hundred yards, and looks back to see if his pursuer is enjoying the chase as much as he thought he would, and then he leaves for parts unknown.

There are many fast things, from an ice-boat to a note maturing in the bank, but nothing to equal the jack-rabbit. An unfounded rumor gets around pretty lively, but could not keep up with him for two blocks. When an ordinary cur dog tries to expedite a jack-rabbit route he makes a humiliating failure of it.

He only gives the rabbit gentle exercise. The latter merely throws up his ears, and, under easy sail, skims leisurely along, tacking occasionally to give the funeral procession time to catch up. But if you want to see velocity, urgent speed and precipitated haste, you have only to turn loose a grayhound in the wake of a jack-rabbit. Pursued by a grayhound he will "let himself out" in a manner that would astonish a prepaid half-rate message.

If he is a rabbit that has never had any experience with a grayhound before, he will start off at an easy pace, but as he turns to wink derisively at what he supposes to be an ordinary yellow dog, he realizes that there is a force in nature hitherto unknown to him, and his look of astonishment, alarm and disgust as he furls his ears and promptly declines the nomination, is amusing. Under such circumstances he goes too fast for the eye to follow his movements, and presents the optical illusion of a streak of jack-rabbit a mile and a half long.—Austin (Texas) Siftings.

I don't want a Doctor!

I have tried them, and they have only swindled me. I have figured up what they cost me for the last four years, it was just $524.31. If I had it now it would be a fortune to me. This year my bill for medicine was only five dollars, for which I surchased six bottles of Sulphur Bitters. They cured me of scrofula after suffering four years.—Workingman.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Jan. 30th, 1880.

Prof. Brown: I am happy to say in reply to your enquiry that the spectacles with which you supplied me I have found better adapted to my wants than any I have been able previously to obtain. I regard it of great importance that those of us who are obliged to use "helps to read" should have some competent examiner of the eye to determine what is required, and that proper glasses and none other should be worn even to the most limited extent. Yours truly,

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the SIX years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 20000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's running of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as now veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—no assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
Jan. 23, 1:30 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—

Clear and fair weather, northerly to westerly winds and rising barometer.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, registered 2 degrees below zero.

Sky clear.

COLLISION.

The schooner Minetta, of Boston, sixty-six tons register, Wade master, bound from Boston for Winterport, Me., for a load of hay, put into this port last week for shelter, and anchored on the eastern side of the channel in the lower harbor, just below Pepperell's cove. During Friday night the tug Belknap, of Boston, having a three-masted schooner in tow, put into the lower harbor in a snow-squall, and brought up in Pepperell's cove; and in getting under weigh, about four o'clock Saturday morning, the large schooner was swept down upon the Minetta by the tide, broadside on, the Minetta's jibboom taking the unknown schooner about amidships. The jibboom was snapped off like a pipestem, and the bowsprit of the smaller craft broken nearly off, and driven in-board with such force as to demolish the windlass bitts and dislodge the windlass. The Minetta was subsequently towed up to the city by the tug Clara Batemen, and moored at the wharf in the rear of Plaisted's store on Market street.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Jan. 21; Batchelder J.

Stephen Ayers, drunk, $9.90, fine and costs; paid.

Michael Owen, drunk, $9.90, fine and costs.

Herbert Milford, tramp, was held in $100 for trial in a higher court; jail in default of sureties.

A BIG EAGLE.

On Friday afternoon of last week Mr. T. F. Pickering of Newington, who lives near the bay, performed a feat which few men have ever accomplished, the capturing of a big live eagle with his hands. Mr. Pickering was in the woods with a team, when he saw the big bird fly across the cart-road, and noticed that it proceeded with apparent difficulty, and soon stopped; giving chase, he soon came up with the bird, which was unable to rise more than a few feet, and could not sustain itself in the air more than a few seconds at a time, and after adopting such precautions as seemed prudent in view of the formidable-looking talons and beak of the eagle, Mr. Pickering made it a prisoner, and carried it home in triumph.

The eagle, which was of the gray variety, had attached to one foot a small steel trap, from which depended a piece of chain about two feet long; the bird was in the last stages of starvation, and though measuring seven feet, ten and one-half inches from tip to tip of the wings, did not weigh as much as a decent-sized Thanksgiving pullet, being little more than a bunch of skin and bones, with a lot of feathers outside. Mr. Pickering gave the eagle some meat cut into small pieces, one of which was greedily seized, and swallowed with evident difficulty; but the bird was too weak to eat more, and died during the night.

NOT THE "PINK EYE."

The Newburyport Herald says that Dr. J. W. Lanford, "who has had large experience in the treatment of horse diseases," asserts that the horse distemper now so prevalent, and in some places so fatal, is not the "pink-eye." That paper publishes the following communication explaining the matter:

Gastritis mucosa. This is a new name to many persons, even well informed in diseases of horses; notwithstanding, it is a very common one in the spring of the the year, always in an epizootic form, and sometimes called typhoid influenza, the chief difference in the symptoms between the two diseases being the absence of a cough, which is always observed in influenza,—the one disease attacking the lining membrane of the windpipe, the other the mucous membrane of the stomach and bowels, or the digestive organs. Gastritis mucosa is a fatal disease if treated by low diet, bleeding, blistering, and physicking, because it always assumes a low standard of vitality, or great weakness. Hence the horse so affected and so treated has no chance of his life whatever.

If Dr. Landford is correct in his diagnosis and conclusions, the proper treatment for a horse affected with this disease is rest, warmth, and a generous diet of easily-digested food.

DEATHS IN HAMPTON--1881.

The following is a list of the deaths in Hampton during the year 1881:

Date.	Names.	Yrs.	mos.

Mar. 15.	Hon. Uri Lamprey,	72
Mar. 15.	Mrs. Abham Towle,	53
Apr. 10.	Widow Joseph Page,	84	2
Apr. 26.	Mrs. T. Jefferson Towle,	55
May 10.	Widow John Perkins,	76
May 14.	Abner Mace,	84	4
July 17.	Mrs. George Nudd,	55
Aug. 1.	Joseph Young,	22
Aug. 25.	Child of r. Bruce Dunbar		3
Sept. 3.	Nellie Chase,	21
Sept. 20.	Mrs. W. H. Blake,	36	1
Oct. 2.	John J. Leavitt, Esq.,	50	4
Oct. 17.	Sherburn Locke,	81	7
Oct. 30.	Samuel Meserve,	79	6
Nov. 19.	Widow Oliver Lamprey,	77
Dec. 27.	J. Prescott Williams,	39	4

From the above table it will be seen that the total number of deaths was twenty-one, which is one to each fifty-six inhabitants; nine of the deaths were of persons over seventy years old, and fourteen were of persons over fifty years old; average age of the decedents, fifty-three years.

The receipts of fresh fish at this port during the week ending January 21st, show fair results considering the continuous stormy weather. There were no receipts for three days, but there were eleven arrivals during the remainder of the week, bringing in 22,300 lbs. of cod and haddock, against 28,730 pounds the week previous. Higher wholesale prices have prevailed, with ready sales, most of the supplies being shipped to other places. The first fare of halibut for many weeks was brought in for the home market, amounting to about two hundred pounds, and known as "baby" halibut, retailing at high rates.

The schooner Ira D. Sturgis, while getting under weigh in the lower harbor on Sunday, drifted ashore on one of the Fishing islands, and was hauled off by the tug Clara Batemen and towed to a safe anchorage.

Passed Assistant Surgeon William R. Du Bose is granted one month's leave of absence, and left this city on Saturday for his home in Georgia. At the end of his leave Surgeon Du Bose expects to be relieved from duty at this station, and ordered to sea service.

The Eldredge Brewing Co. commences to cut to-day, with day and night gangs.

This evening, at Music hall, Mr. Harlow's grand concert will be given, the performance commencing at eight o'clock. That the concert will be one of high merit is conceded, and the house will be filled. Tickets—what of them are left—can be procured at Preston's.

A marble table is to given away this (Monday) evening at Marden's eating house.

Schooners Maud B. Wetherell has been sold to parties in Provincetown, Mass., for $7000.

Harlow has given tickets to the inmates of the Children's Home, for his concert.

Twenty thousand lbs. of fish came in on Saturday and Sunday.

The Knights of Pythias of this city are to celebrate their 11th anniversary on the evening of the 31st inst. by a dance in Congress hall, and a banquet in Pythian hall.

The railroad man who went on a fishing excursion to Great bay on Thursday of last week, and distinguished himself by catching one smelt, (his companion catching exactly one hundred per cent less than he did,) tried it again on Saturday, and retrieved his reputation by catching twenty-five pounds of fish.

The February number of Harper's Magazine can be procured at the news room of Moses Bros., or the bookstores of W. G. Myers or Mercer Goodrich. It is a strong number, both in literary merit and in illustration, the frontispiece being a likeness of Mr. James Miller of this city, which is given as a portrait of Victor Hugo. The American life-saving service is described, with fifteen illustrations, among them a good likeness of Sumner Increase Kimball, the superintendent, and projector of the present system of service, who is a native of York county, Me., and whose father is a practicing lawyer at the York county bar. The sketch of Daniel Webster, by J. H. B. Latrobe, is the best of the many that have appeared of late. Mrs. H. P. Spofford contributes a little story, "By the winter's moon;" and "The French political leaders" is a fine sketch of the political managers of the French republic.

A firm of patent attorneys at Washington have issued a neat little pamphlet, "How to procure a valid patent," and scattered copies broadcast over the country. Among the many names in the list of references is that of Major David Urch of this city, for whom this firm have obtained four patents.

Several persons are netting for smelts near the Scotland bridge over the York river, but have met with but light success so far.

York District Lodge of Good Templars will hold its annual session with Harmony Lodge of South Berwick on Wednesday, February 1st, commencing at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon.

The school in the Brixham district of York closed on Friday, the 20th inst., after a very satisfactory term. About two weeks previously the school gave an evening exhibition in the schoolhouse, which was crowded with the parents and friends of the pupils, and with visitors from out of town, of whom there were quite a number present. The exercises consisted of readings, declamations, dialogues, etc., and the affair was in every way one of the most successful of the kind ever given in the town. The school has been taught during the late term by Mr. Joseph Chadwick, of China, Me.; and though it was his first experience, the parents and school committee have been more than pleased with his management, and with its results as exemplified in the advancement of the pupils and the discipline maintained in the school.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. MUSIC HALL. - - - - - PORTSMOUTH.

Thursday Even'g, Jan. 26,

H. W. FRENCH,

(Author of "Nuna, the Bramin Girl," "Castle Foam," "Ego," "Gems of Genius," "Art and Artists," etc.) will deliver an illustrated Lecture, subject

"BENEATH THE HIMALAYAS."

The lecture is illustrated by eighty of the finest colored dissolving views in America. In many of the scenes the representation of motion is produced—an effect never before attempted with complete success; thus, waterfalls, the rising moon, the falling of snow, etc., are shown in a most realistic manner.

Doors open at 7; Lecture commences at 8.

Reserved seats, 35 and 50 cts., according to location. Single admission, 25 cts.

The sale of reserved seats begins Monday, Jan. 23d, at Preston's Drug Store, where handsome descriptive circulars of Mr. French's lectures may be obtained.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can want to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and vitals of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—La Gran Lancet.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

The Book is pronounced to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

A PORTSMOUTH MAN DOWN SOUTH.

San Antonio (Texas) papers of Dec. 16th are enthusiastic over the completion of the International & Great Northern railway from Austin, Texas, to the banks of the Rio Grande river at Laredo, New Mexico, the last spike having been driven on the preceding day, and the first engine and train of cars run into Laredo. The San Antonio Express of Dec. 16th says: "The office of Ross & Harris, general contractors of the road, whose office is in this city, was visited by our reporter yesterday, when it was found that the clerks had been given a holiday in commemoration of the event. The front of the office was decorated with the national colors." The Toronto (Canada) Mail notices the event, and adds:

The firm of contractors referred to, Ross & Harris, is composed of Mr. John Ross, of Homer, near St. Catharines, Ont., and Mr. Robert L. Harris, of Portsmouth, N. H. The latter gentleman, whose abilities as a civil engineer are as well-known in central Canada as in the neighboring republic, gained distinction on the Pacific coast during the construction of the great American trans-continental road, in which he was engaged; and subsequently exhibited much professional talent and constant attention to business (besides gaining numberless personal friends) as chief engineer of the extension of the Canadian Pacific to and beyond Pembroke, on the Ottawa river. A couple of years ago Mr. Harris successfully engineered a difficult piece of road on the extension of the Boston and Hoosac Tunnel railway, effecting the crossing, by a large number of tracks, of an intersecting line, in an incredibly short space of time, without interfering with the ordinary traffic of the line so crossed; and since May, 1880, has been engaged in the completion of the International & Great Northern from Austin, Texas, to the point just reached, a distance of about one hundred and fifty miles.

Expensive Elephants.

The state of New York has two big jobs on hand. One, the new capital, was originally to cost four millions. It has had sixteen millions spent upon it, and will take four millions more to complete it. When finished, no speaker can be heard in the legislative chambers. The other job was the great bridge connecting Brooklyn and New York. Its original cost was estimated at three millions. Thirteen millions and a half have been spent upon it, and two more will be needed. When completed it will be unsafe for travel—so the engineers now confess. If any city or state of the "great west" can beat this record, our local politicians who "fix" these jobs would like to know it, and will emigrate there at once—Cor. St. Louis News.

A serious financial panic exists in France and Italy, and much uneasiness is expressed by British financiers.

The stallion Harold, belonging to R. W. Walden of Carroll county, Md., died Saturday night. He was a brother of Lorillard's Iroquois, and Mr. Walden refused $15,000 for him last summer.

A cold in the head is one of the best things that can happen to a lady with a lace handkerchief, and Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is decidedly the best remedy to cure that cold.

The balloon which carried Mr. Walter Powell to sea from England on the 10th of December last has been found, together with the dead body of Mr. Powell, in the mountains of Spain.

Grateful to Invalids.

Floreston Cologne is grateful to invalids, because it is refreshing without the sickening effect of most perfumes.

The pension committee of the United States senate last week agreed to report the bill giving Mrs. Lincoln $15,000 in lieu of arrears, and an increase of pension from $3000 to $5000 per annum.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork.—Times.

At Flamboro East, Canada, on the night of the 20th inst., a man named Rourke murdered Edward Maher, aged eighty-three years, and his daughter Bridget, aged twenty-seven, with an axe. Maher's son had a desperate fight with the murderer, who escaped for the time, but was tracked two miles by bloody marks, and caught in the woods.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our recort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I ever got.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action thereto for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 138

News and Notes.

The Montenegrins are joining the insurgents in Herzegovina, and have compelled Prince Nitika to flee from the capital. The Austrian government has issued an order calling out the first year's reserves. A Vienna despatch says that the disturbance has commenced to spread to Bosnia.

A pastoral letter from Archbishop McCabe of Ireland was read in all the Catholic chapels in Dublin on Sunday last, enjoining the people not to listen to abettors of violence.

William H. McLaughlin, eighteen years old, one of the notorious roughs of the "South Cove," Boston, was fatally shot by an officer, Sunday evening, while making a row.

The barque F. L. Carney, bound from the West Indies for Baltimore, loaded with guano, sank three miles south of Hatteras inlet, Jan. 22d, and eight lives were lost. A Swede and a colored man were saved.

A school teacher named Robert C. Barley, while chastising a pupil named McBride, at Red Bud, Ill., on Saturday, was stabbed to the heart by the pupil, and killed.

At Seattle, Washington territory, James Sullivan and William Howard had been arrested on a charge of murdering George R. Reynolds, a young man whom they waylaid and shot. After a preliminary examination, on Tuesday of last week, the safety committee forced its way into the court room, took the prisoners and hung them. A crowd of four hundred men then proceeded to the county jail, and overcoming the guards and breaking down the doors of his cell, took out Benjamin Payne, the murderer of a police officer, and hung him. The committee of safety continue their organization, and have issued notice that persons guilty of highway robbery in the city will if arrested suffer the penalty of death in a summary manner.

The lower house of the Iowa legislature on Friday passed a resolution calling upon the railway commissioners to report a law prohibiting railways from issuing free passes to state officers.

A farmer named Agustus Johan Meyer, living near Rockville, on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway, about seventy miles south of Sedalia, Mo., has been arrested, charged with attempting to wreck the special train upon which Jay Gould and party were passing north toward Sedalia on the 9th inst. The obstruction was discovered and removed by section men, only a few minutes before the special train passed the place at a speed of forty miles an hour. Meyer was imprisoned in default of $3,000 bail. He says he has had stock killed by the trains, and that he attempted to wreck the train for revenge.

A Lynchburg, Va., despatch says a man boarding at a house in Central depot, on Wednesday night found his landlady murdered in her room. He saw two persons fleeing from the house, and shot both dead with a double-barrelled shotgun. They proved to be women of the neighborhood, who knew the landlady had money in her house.

Daniel Tison was sitting by his own fireside at his residence in Quitman county, Ga., late Friday night, when an assassin put his gun through a crack in the house, and blew Tison's head nearly off. Randall Denson, who wanted to marry Tison's daughter and was opposed by the father, is suspected of the crime, and has been arrested. He denies his guilt.

HOW TO GET WELL.—Which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters.

John Smith, farmer, living near Shelburne, Ont., was murdered Saturday night by an unknown man, who shot through the window of his house. Smith was reputed to be wealthy, and robbery is the supposed cause of the murder. His nephew, the only other occupant of the house, fled to the neighbors on hearing the shot.

"Let Him who wins it bear the Palm."

"He who cures the ills of flesh," quoth the sage, "is even greater than he who conquers in war." Certain it is then, that Dr. Swayne has earned the laurel of greatness. His Ointment for skin diseases has been the means of releasing thousands from the indescribable horrors of that complaint. The best evidence of an article is obtained by a practical test, and the unsolicited indorsement of those who proft by its use.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y. 1mdawly

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Guiteau's Trial.

Judge Porter began the closing argument for the government, on the 23d. The court was crowded as never before, an immense throng being in waiting in front of the court house nearly two hours before the opening hour; the distinguished advocate proved more of an attraction than the assassin himself. He was evidently very weak and ill, yet he at once riveted the attention of the jury and spectators. He gave a graphic description of the prisoner as a man of diabolical character, selfish from his youth, brutal in traits and acts, and of inordinate conceit; a beggar, hypocrite, canter and swindler; a lawyer who never won a case, because every court saw in him only a dishonest rogue; a man who left a trail of knavery and fraud, who had lived on other people, and could imitate the dress and manner of a gentleman while he was swindling second-hand-clothes dealers and selling counterfeit watches, and boasting and chuckling over his smartness; a man capable of blasting the character of his loyal wife, and who, after palming himself off among Christian communities as a pure and moral man, deliberately committed adultery with a street prostitute to "remove" this companion of his bosom. This is the man, rotten hearted, void of honor, cowardly, murderous, who asks pity and seeks absolution at the hands of the jury.

An Old Fossil Speaks.

At the reunion of the Association of the Army of Northern Virginia, in New Orleans on the 21st inst., Jefferson Davis was present and made a short speech, in which he said "the cause" was not lost, but only sleeping. Alluding to the stirring events of the late war, in which those before him had participated, he said: "You have done your duty in the past, and may God spare you to do it in the future, should ever necessity again arise." Jefferson has evidently not yet found out that he is dead.

A Legal Muddle.

The state supreme court of Illinois has decided that the law relating to the probate courts of Cook and Lasalle counties was special legislation and therefore unconstitutional, and that the probate courts of the counties are illegal and empty. The Cook county probate court has been in operation four years. By the decision, wills the county court has passed on are void, property that has come in review before it is without title, and eastern and other capitalists and insurance companies that have loaned money on it are without authority, the titles being clouded. Divorces obtained there are illegal, and persons married after being divorced there are bigamists. The decision creates confusion, and lawyers express grave doubts as to whether the legislature can remedy the evil or whether a constitutional amendment could be drawn which would be valid, or would settle the difficulties that now arise.

Our Navy Wins a Victory.

A letter from Callao, Peru, of Dec. 29th, says "A boat from the Chilian ironclad Admiral Cochran came alongside the United States flagship Pensacola, now in the harbor of Callao, Dec. 28th, and politely challenged the ship's crew to pull a boat race. The errand of the strangers was almost instantly known from cabin to forecastle. In order to make the race interesting the Chilians desired that a purse of $800 should be covered. In this they were accommodated, and could have found ready takers for as much more. It was mutually agreed to accept the services of an officer of the English ironclad Triumph as judge and stakeholder. The Chilians were allowed to name time of starting and distance, which was decided should be at seven A. M. over a course of five miles, starting from the English flag-ship out to sea and return. The boats were towed to the starting place by the steam launch of the Pensacola, while the steam launch of the Chilian ironclad ran over the course with a log-line to measure the distance and place the turning buoy. When the signal gun was fired the rival boats dashed off in fine style, and the bay resounded with the cheers from the fleet of steamers and small craft of all kinds crowded with passengers. The Pensacola's cutter was first round the buoy, followed closely by the Chilians, and as they came down the homestretch the Yankee boat made the gap wider until, amid a perfect furore of cheers and shrill whistles from the steamers, they rounded the starting point five hundred yards ahead of the Chilians. Time, forty-seven minutes and six seconds. The purse was given to the winners, and when they came over the gangway of their own vessel they received a perfect ovation from their shipmates, as well as a substantial present of $200. In order to give the victors a chance to enjoy their spoils, Admiral Balch allowed them forty-eight hours' liberty on shore. The Chilians gracefully acknowledge their defeat, and the previous good feeling remains unbroken. It is said large sums were bet on the race by American and Peruvian residents on shore with their Chilian boarders."

AROUND HOME.

Fresh fish, which sold at $2.60 per hundred on Saturday, brought from $3 to $4 on Monday.

The barque Sarah, Hale master, sailed from Boston on Sunday for the Azores islands, having among her passengers, Rev. Charles A. Holbrook, rector of St. John's church in this city, who makes the voyage to the islands and back in search of health.

The report that Mr. Mason has nol. pros'd all his suits against the city, growing out of the Vaughan street extension, we are assured is not only incorrect but absolutely without foundation.

The train into this city over the Concord & Portsmouth railroad, Monday evening, was an hour and a quarter late, owing to detention of trains by snow on the Northern and Montreal roads; the parents of the Dartmouth college student who was accidently shot in Hanover by a classmate on Saturday last, arrived here by that train, on their way to Portland, Me., with the remains of their son.

Mr. French, who will deliver his illustrated lecture, "Beneath the Himalayas," at Music hall on Thursday evening, has been a journalist as well as a writer of books. During the Franco-Prussian war he served as a war-correspondent within the French lines, and was in Paris during the siege. Later he was war-correspondent for the New York World in the Russo-Turkish war. During that war he was present when the telegraph correspondent of the Liverpool (Eng.) Mercury was stabbed by a native. He at once telegraphed to the Mercury that its correspondent had been killed, and received by telegraph the appointment to that post in addition to his position on the World. He remained on the field till the close of the war, and then turned eastward and devoted a couple of years to study and travel among the various people of India.

The funeral services of the late Capt. Hilton, at the Rockingham house on Monday forenoon, were attended by a large number of personal friends. The floral tokens were numerous and very beautiful, several of them being from the members of the Hotel Men's Mutual Benefit Association, of which organization Capt. Hilton was elected president on the Tuesday preceding his death. The body, accompanied by a number of the mourners, started for Boston on the eleven o'clock train. Services in Boston were held at the residence of Mrs. Hilton's sister, on West Newton street, and the remains were laid in Mount Auburn cemetery.

The Norfolk Jubilee Singers, who are to give a sacred concert in Music hall next Sunday evening, will give an entertainment in Trefethen's hall at Kittery on Saturday evening, the 28th. They give a very pleasing concert, mostly of the songs and melodies of the plantations in the old slavery days.

Ed. Chronicle: In your issue of last Saturday morning you made mention, in your announcement of Sunday meetings, of the fact that the subject of the evening at one of the churches would be, by request, "Simply Trusting." I did not have the privilege of listening to the elucidation of the topic, but I will just remark that this business of discussing the credit system has not been taken in hand a bit too soon, as it is by simply trusting that I, as well as many other traders, have lost thousands of dollars, and our ledgers will show it. Other clergymen would do well to imitate the example thus set by our reverend friend. CASH.

The city marshal calls the attention of persons who own or harbor unlicensed dogs, to the city ordinance on the subject, and informs all such that he means business. Dogs whose lives are not considered to be worth a dollar will be speedily put out of the way.

Mr. George Bowden of York, who was indicted for forgery by the grand jury at the recent session of the supreme judicial court for York county, and was arrested, had his case continued until the May term, his arrest not having been made until after the dismissal of the traverse juries. He furnished sureties for his appearance in May.

On Tuesday evening of last week a large number of the friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Riley, of Kittery Point, assembled at a spot near her residence, previously agreed upon, and then invaded the house in the guise of a surprise party, the occasion being the lady's fifty-third birthday. A generous supper was served in the unoccupied house owned by Mr. Moses G. Berry, on the opposite side of the street from Mrs. Riley's; after which, singing, social games and dancing quickly wore away the hours until nearly two o'clock next morning, when the party broke up, the members carrying to their homes a sense of having passed a delightful evening. Beside the many verbal expressions of good will, Mrs. Riley received a number of valuble presents.

York has for some months had a line of packet schooners running between the harbor and Boston, the vessels numbering three, viz., the John & Frank, Baker master, the Arcola, Campbell master, and the Gulnare, Goodwin master. They load at George A. Marshall's wharf, near Sewall's bridge, with lumber, piles and hay, mostly, though other produce is carried when it is offered. The schooners will keep running all winter, unless the ice should prevent.

PROF. BROWN,

PRACTICAL OPTICIAN,

Is again in Portsmouth, to afford people another opportunity of having a perfect spectacle accurately adjusted to their eyes. Just give your name to his agent when he calls, if you do not see as well as you want to.

Any orders left at the Kearsarge House will also be promptly attended to.

For particulars and other testimonials see small circulars.

Office of Clerk of U. S. Circuit Court, District of New Hampshire, William H. Hackett, Clerk.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Jan. 30th, 1880.

Prof. Brown: I am happy to say in reply to your enquiry that the spectacles with which you supplied me I have found better adapted to my wants than any I have been able previously to obtain. I regard it of great importance that those of us who are obliged to use "helps to read" should have some competent examiner of the eye to determine what is required, and that proper glasses and none other should be worn even to the most limited extent. Yours truly,

WILLIAM H. HACKETT.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policyholders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2500 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00.—no commissions. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

THE WEATHER.

U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
Jan. 23, 1:30 A. M.

Probabilities for New England:—

Very cold and generally fair weather, will continue northwest winds shifting to easterly, and rising followed by falling barometer.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, registered 20 degrees below zero.

Sky clear.

SOME REAL WINTER.

Sunday and Monday were more like what some people call "old-fashioned winter weather" than anything we had before been favored with since winter began. The temperature was not so low as it had been on several occasions, the thermometer on Monday morning indicating from one degree below zero down to ten, in different localities about the city; but the strong wind made Monday the most uncomfortable day of the season, so far. At dusk, Monday evening, the mercury was down to eight degrees below zero, and rapidly falling, with a prospect of a worse night even than that of Sunday. At midnight the thermometer at CHRONICLE office, fourteen feet above the ground, marked eighteen below zero, and the wind was still blowing, though less violently than at sundown.

Luke Quinlan and Dennis Ledden, for drunkenness, were each assessed $9.90, and both paid up.

Joseph Brown, another drunk, was allowed to go on his promise to leave the city at once.

SUPREME COURT.

[January Term. Carpenter, J.]

MONDAY, Jan. 23d.

The court came in at nine o'clock. The jurors having been dismissed for the term on Friday, the docket was called. The number of actions entered at this term is fifty-two.

In case Anna J. Smith and Sarah C. Smith vs. Wm. B. Jenness, tried last week, an action to trespass quare clausum, verdict Jan. 20th for plaintiff in the sum of twenty dollars, judgment on the verdict was ordered. Wiggin, Fuller and Leavitt for plaintiff. Towle for defendant.

Cases disposed of on the equity docket:

Mary A. Russell vs. William P. Russell; divorce decreed. Hills for libellant.

Martha J. Weeks vs. Horace Weeks; divorce decreed. J. T. Moore for libellant.

Wata A. Robinson vs. Frank M. Robinson; libel dismissed. F. S. Hatch for libellant.

Geo. N. Jenness, Jr. vs. Mary M. Jenness; dismissed without prejudice. Marston & Eastman for libellant.

Laura F. James vs. David S. James; divorce decreed. Wiggin & Fuller for libellant.

Nora Augusta Rand vs. John F. Leavitt; decree for complainant. Marston & Eastman for plff.; Rollins for deft.

Benj. R. Perkins vs. Parna Towle and Town of Exeter; heard on motion to bring forward; motion denied. Hatch for plff.; Marston & Eastman for defts.

C. Morris Tredick vs. Mary W. Goodrich and others; decree for partition. Page for Tredick.

Mary C. Whitney vs. Leonard F. Whitney. Libel for divorce, heard 23d; divorce decreed, and custody. Leavitt and Knight for libellant.

John W. Smart vs. Union Insurance Co. (of Massachusetts.) Petition for new trial of a previously decided cause, on the ground that the company had no right to issue a marine insurance policy, for which the note in suit was given; as the policy was made on vessel at Gloucester, Mass., and note made in Massachusetts, the company had not complied with the requirements of the law in Massachusetts as to certain conditions before it could issue a policy of insurance. The case has been to the law term, and there decided, as was contended, on the ground that there appeared nothing in the case which shew the contract to have been made in Massachusetts, and consequently was presumed to have been made in New Hampshire. This, the petitioner sets up, was an oversight, as it was supposed that this fact appeared from the description of the note and policy. The company contended that the remedy was to ask a rehearing at the law term, but there was no cause to grant the motion made here. Motion dismissed, and case brought forward and motion to vacate the judgment heard, and case reserved. Wiggin and Bartlett for plff.; Frink and Mellows for company.

But two jury cases have been tried at this term, the verdicts aggregating $107.89.

The court rose at five o'clock on Monday afternoon, and jurors ordered to appear next week, of course will not be needed. Judge Carpenter seems quite familiar with the duties of judge, as his long practice in court would of course render him. The term has been short, but considerable business has been disposed of.

Gen. Marston of Exeter has not been present at any session of the court, on account of illness, but he is improving in health.

A suit has been entered at this term in behalf of the town of South Newmarket, against the Boston & Maine railroad, wherein the town seeks to recover of the railway company the sum paid out for the verdict as recovered against the town by Mr. Ruland, for damages incurred near the railroad overhead bridge in that town some time since. J. S. H. Frink and Gen. Marston appeared for the town; W. J. Copeland for the Boston & Maine railroad.

HARLOW'S CONCERT.

Mr. Harlow's cancert on Monday evening drew a very large audience, notwithstanding the intense cold and high wind, which must have kept many persons at home. The orchestra was the best ever heard in Music hall, as was promised. Mr. Frank Gilder's piano solo, Mr. Ralph Reinewald's cornet solo, and Mr. C. F. Eastman's piccolo solo, were all deservedly encored; Mr. Eastman's playing is fine, and Mr. Gilder is not only a brilliant soloist but a careful and judicious accompanist. Miss Nellie W. Locke, who was down on the programme for two numbers was heartily encored on each, and was the recipient of several armsful of floral offerings, including a horse-shoe big enough for an elephant; in answer to the last encore she sang "Way down upon de Swanee riber," with excellent taste and much feeling. The young lady's stage presence is very pleasing, and her reception was cordial.

THE TELEGRAPH-POST QUESTION.

Mr. Editor: The deliberations of the board of aldermen are not characterized by much dignity, judging from the manner in which the request of the Eastern & Mutual Union Telegraph company for permission to erect poles along Market street, connecting with an office that they propose to establish in this city, has been treated. For some months the board has been playing shuttlecock with the company, the climax being reached several weeks since by the aldermen voting not to grant the request, although the telegraph company agreed to erect such poles as the city saw fit, and would paint and keep them painted any color desired.

Through the efforts of some of the progresssive members of the aldermanic body—and there are one or two such—the board at its session on Thursday evening last reconsidered the vote refusing to grant the request of the telegraph company, the vote standing six in favor of reconsideration, to three against. A motion to grant the request of the company, under the supervision of the street committee, was then made, and produced a wrangle in which several members lost their heads—not in a sanguinary sense, but in a way that stultified their records on the previous call of the yeas and nays. Thus the matter is still before the board for future consideration, and the Eastern & Mutual Union Telegraph company, whose advent in this city is desired by our banking, mercantile and shipping interests, is baffled and delayed by the whims and mulishness of a few individuals, or the overweening influence of the Western Union Telegraph Co. We hope there is no foundation for the rumors in circulation that numerous free passes have been served out by this company to men prominent in municipal affairs, to prevent the establishment in this city of a rival in its business interests. Certain it is, however, that the action of the board of aldermen in relation to this matter is not characterized by the fairness and impartiality calculated to inspire the confidence of the public in its deliberations.

The argument that poles are unsightly and a detriment to any business street, has not much force when we take into consideration the hundreds of awning and hitching posts, as well as the numerous barber poles, and what is worse, the thousand and one boxes and barrels which are allowed to encumber our curbstones and obstruct the highways. We fear that some of our board of aldermen have attained to heights in æstheticism that even the great Oscar himself never dreamingly dreamed of. Broadway, in New York, doing a business every year of hundreds of millions of dollars, is fringed with telegraph poles, ninety feet high and two and a half feet through at the base; while Market street, Portsmouth, N. H., doing a business of—well, the mere thought of estimating a sum appals us—cannot suffer such a detriment to its business by allowing the erection of one telegraph line along its curbstones.

"Some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them." OUTSIDER.

Messrs. Randall & Caswell have leased C. Morris Tredick's fish wharf, and will concentrate their business at this point.

CITY OF PORTSMOUTH.

Revised Ordinances, Chap. 16.

SECTION 1. No dog shall be permitted to go at large or loose in this city until the owner or keeper of such dog, or the head of the family, or the keeper of the house or place where such dog is kept or harbored, shall have procured from the city marshal a license for such dog.

SEC. 2. The city marshal shall grant a license to any citizen for his dog on the payment of one dollar for a male dog, and two dollars for a female dog, which license shall expire on the first day of July annually.

SEC. 3. The city marshal shall keep a record of all licenses so granted, each license to be numbered, and he shall make a report to the mayor and aldermen on the first day of July annually and every every three months thereafter of all licenses granted, and shall at the same time pay to the city treasurer all moneys received for the use of the city.

SEC. 4. The person named in each license so granted shall cause his name and the number of the license to be distinctly marked on a collar which shall be constantly kept about the neck of the dog so licensed, and no dog shall be considered as licensed unless this requisition shall be complied with.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the city marshal to cause all dogs to be killed which shall be found at large or loose within the city without a collar marked as required in Section 4, and to cause all dogs so killed to be buried, and any person may lawfully kill any dog found within the limits of this city going at large contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 6. In case any dog shall be found loose or going at large contrary to any of the foregoing provisions, or in case any dog not licensed shall be provided with a collar marked as required in this ordinance, the owner or keeper thereof or the head of the family or keeper of the house or place where such dog is kept or harbored, shall upon conviction thereof be fined five dollars.

The attention of owners or harborers of unlicensed dogs is called to the above ordinance, the provisions of which will be rigidly enforced.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, is the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained. In short, the book is invaluable to all who wish for good health.—Toronto Globe.

The book for young and middle aged men to read just now is the Science of Life, or Self-Preservation. It is worth many times its weight in gold.—Medical Times.

The author of the Science of Life is a noble benefactor. He reaches the very roots and trials of disease, and is enabled to apply thorough remedies. The book already is read upon both continents by millions.—La Sun Sunset.

The Gold and Jewelled Medal awarded the author of the Science of Life was fairly won and worthily bestowed.—Hankeen Pioneer.

Thousands of extracts similar to the above could be taken from the leading journals—literary, political, religious and scientific—throughout the land.

The Book is guaranteed to be a better medical work, in every sense, than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.

Rules for the Issuing of Pensions.

The commissioner of pensions has issued the following rulings governing the issuing of pensions: "When it is shown that a soldier was captured in the line of duty, and it appears that he was afterward an inmate of a rebel prison, and has not since been heard from, his death shall be presumed to have occurred in the service and line of duty, and the day after he was last seen or heard from may be accepted as the date of death. When it appears that the soldier was sound at the date of his capture in the line of duty, and that he was disabled, as alleged, at the date of his release from the rebel prison, the origin of said disability may be assumed to have been in the service and in the line of duty, provided said disease was incident to the service or such imprisonment."

New Hampshire Items.

A peddler was drugged, robbed of $124, and dumped out into a snow drift at Dover one day last week. The police found the peddler at night insensible, and in a freezing condition. The assailant is unknown.

Mrs. Maggie Milliken, wife of Mr. Seth M. Milliken, a wealthy gentleman of New York city, died in Paris, France, on the 20th inst. She was the daughter of Dr. Levi G. Hill of Dover, and was travelling with her husband when she was taken sick. She leaves three children in New York, who are cared for by her sister, Miss Adelaide Hill. She was a lady much esteemed by her friends and acquaintances, and was in the 32d year of her age.

An interesting feature of the celebration, at Salisbury, of Daniel Webster's centenary, was the reading from the church register, under date of Sept. 13, 1807, the record that on that date Daniel Webster united with the Congregational church in Salisbury, N. H. This settles the dispute in regard to Webster's church connections. Under the date of May 29, 1808, is written: "Married, Daniel Webster, Esq., to Miss Grace Fletcher of Hopkinton," the marriage occurring at the house of Judge Kelly, whose wife was the sister of Mr. Webster's bride. This house is now standing in good condition near the village church.

The Manchester Union says: "A high school girl, about fifteen years of age, met her lover at the close of the school the other day, and the pair were married after applying to three clergymen. The groom gave his age as twenty-one years, but is said to be younger, is a French lad, and had worked for the girl's father. The affair has created no little talk, and the bride's family are not at all pleased with the wedding."

Last Friday, a bird with a long bill flew in through an open widow of Mrs. Wentworth's residence on Silver street, Dover, and killed her caged caged canary bird and escaped. Mrs. Wentworth says the act was done so quickly that she can give no description of the stranger bird.

How the hearts of a crowd swell and throb with pitiless hatred against the man who coughs during the performance at a theatre, when they know he is too stingey to invest twenty-five cents in a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

William Austin is under arrest at Lancaster, Ky., on a charge of assassinating his great aunt, Miss Bland, eighty-five years of age.

A prominent politician and active journalist, Mr. George I. Graham, connected with the Philadelphia Sunday Mirror, who by using the great German remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, was cured of a troublesome case of rheumatism, contracted during the war. He closes a long statement with—"to those who are afflicted with that complaint, it is worth its weight in gold."

Two hundred destitute Russian Jews reached Hamburg, Germany, Wednesday of last week. They are endeavoring to obtain aid to proceed to America.

For the past four years I have sold a large amount of Adamson's Botanic Balsam, and it has given such universal satisfaction that I always recommend it before anything else for coughs and colds

Druggist, Danvers, Mass.

George Beck, an old resident of Wilkesbarre, Pa., who lived alone and had accumulated considerable wealth, was found dead in his bed, Saturday. It is thought that he was murdered.

Given up by Doctors.

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?"

"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters; and only ten days ago his doctors gave him up and said he must die!"

"Well-a-day! That's remarkable! I will go this day and get some for my poor George—I know hops are good."

In compliance with an order of the secretary of the navy department, the crews of the United States vessels are now being vaccinated.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. Q23

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE BEST AND GREATEST MEDICINE EVER KNOWN!

It will drive the Humor from your system, and make your skin clean and smooth. Those Pimples and Blotches which mar your beauty are caused by impure blood, and can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier, SULPHUR BITTERS. Why suffer with Dyspepsia? Why rave with that terrible Headache? Why Worry and toss on that bed of pain with Rheumatism? Why groan with that terrible Neuralgia? Why suffer with insomnia, and be unable to sleep? Why have Fever and Ague come to your house? Why have Consumption come to sap your life away? Why have your children troubled with Worms? Why let your Liver become torpid, and your whole system become deranged? Why let your Kidneys become diseased? Why let your Nerves go all to pieces? Why let your Blood become thick, hot and feverish? Why let your Stomach become a sour, sickening receptacle for dyspeptic food? Why let your Bowels become costive? Why let your whole system become a prey to all the ills that flesh is heir to? Why? Because SULPHUR BITTERS will cure you, and nothing else will. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it quickly. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it pleasantly. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it cheaply. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it thoroughly. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it speedily. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it surely. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it positively. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it perfectly. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it wonderfully. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it gloriously. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it triumphantly. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it to the delight of all who use it. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it to the astonishment of those who know it cannot be done. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it to the astonishment of those who know it has been done. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it to the astonishment of those who know it has been done many times. SULPHUR BITTERS will do it to the astonishment of those who know it has been done many times over. A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Robbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Guiteau's Trial.

Judge Porter on the 24th continued his argument, occupying the day.

The Small-pox.

Two cases of small-pox were discovered in Boston on the 23d inst., and the patients promptly removed to the small-pox hospital. One of the patients is a young man lately from New York city, who no doubt brought the disease with him; the other is a young woman employed as a rag-sorter, who probably took the disease from infected rags; her case is critical. The free vaccination bureaus established by the board of health are being largely patronized.

There were twenty-three deaths from small-pox in Philadelphia during the week ending Jan. 21st, an increase of fourteen over the previous week.

Forty-one new cases were reported in Pittsburg, Pa., and twenty-one in Allegheny City, on the 22d and 23d; there were nineteen deaths from the disease in Allegheny City last week.

Maj. Hicks, colored, under sentence to be executed on Friday, Jan. 27th, at Covington, Ky., has had his time extended to Feb. 24th by Gov. Blackburn. This is because Hicks is suffering from small-pox.

The Naval Engineers' Appeal.

For years the staff officers of the navy have been dissatisfied with their status respecting rank and title as compared with that held by the line officers, and repeated efforts have been made to induce Congress to amend the laws which give to staff officers only "relative" rank. Another effort in this direction is being made at the present session, this time especially in behalf of the engineer officers, many of whom have signed a memorial to Congress, in which, among other reasons why the legislation asked for should be granted, they offer the following:

"Relative" rank is a distinction which places the engineer officers, as regards rank and title, outside of the navy, as though they were not a portion of the navy, but of a distant and separate service. The principle of the same kind of rank for all is recognized to the fullest extent in the army, all the corps of which, without exception, have the same ranks and military titles. The army engineer is a colonel or major of engineers, as an army line officer is a colonel or major of infantry, of cavalry, and so on; and, so far from the same rank and titles causing confusion, they are the only means that can produce order and regularity, and prevent the clashing of claims or pretension. The army system produces perfect harmony of feeling, concert of organization and efficiency in action, and is what should be adopted in the navy to produce the same desirable results. The duties of the engineer officers of the navy are parallel, and are essentially designing, constructing and supervising.

Since steam machinery was first introduced into the navies of the world—about forty years ago—as an auxiliary to sails, its use has gradually extended until at the present time it is the marine motor, while sails have become a simple auxiliary, and are set only when the wind is fresh and fair. Steam is now employed for almost every operation on board a first class naval steamer. It is used to propel the vessel, to weigh the anchor, to steer the vessel, to pump her out if she leaks, to load the guns—in fact, the ship is a steam being, and the man who most thoroughly understands it, can use it, care for it, tend it, preserve it, repair it, renew it, is the engineer.

It the boast of Americans and the compliment of European naval officers that the engineers of the United States navy are of the highest proficiency of any in the world. The great improvements they have made in designs of machinery; the facts that they are capable of making the designs and building the machinery from them, obtaining the greatest speed, with the greatest economy of coal; the repairs made to machinery on the blockade and on foreign stations by the engineers, and the economy of stores in their department, are matters of record. Their first appointment to cadet engineer is guarded by a rigorous examination, physically, morally and educationally; and upon their standing in the corps, their character, length of service, experience and intellectual attainments, proven by most vigorous examinations as to their practical and scientific knowledge, depend their retention and promotion in the service.

The bill proposed does not ask for any rank, pay or privilege additional to what they now have by law, but simply asks that their present rank be made absolute, so that no misunderstanding can arise about it. The engineers have at present only their professional titles, exactly what they would have in civil employments, where the question of rank has no existence. They have no naval title to mark their connection with that branch of the public service, and their position in it.

The memorial concludes with extracts from the speeches of Sir Edward Reed in the British Parliament, Admiral Sir A. Cooper Key, Captain Charles Fellows, R. N., from editorials of the United Service Gazette, and others of the British press, suggesting that engineer officers, in view of the establishment of a steam navy, should in future be classed with the military branch of the service.

Several members of the house committee on naval affairs are strongly impressed in favor of the movement in behalf of the engineers, and it is understood that a majority of them are inclined to consider the matter favorably.

A Cowardly Murder.

A shocking and cowardly crime was committed at Lewiston, Me., about six o'clock in the morning on the 23d inst., at the home of Maynard Goff. The wife of Mr. Goff was doing her housework after breakfast, her husband having gone into the mill, when the stove exploded, caused by a stick of wood charged with powder or nitro-glycerine, knocking Mrs. Goff over and breaking her jaw and arm, and otherwise injuring her, so that she died in a few hours. Portions of the stove went through the roof, and the walls were shattered and windows smashed. The wounded woman recovered sufficiently to go to a window and call for aid, the blood streaming from her head down the sides of the building to the sidewalk. She was removed to another house in an unconscious condition, and medical aid summoned, but she was past help. This was third explosion of a similar character at Goff's house, the former ones not doing so much damage. Suspicion at once rested on George Pierce, who was seen prowling around the house on the previous night, and he was immediately arrested. Pierce disgraced Mrs. Goff's sister over a year ago, and some time later sent a forged letter to the sister, who had left the place to avoid him, stating that Mrs. Goff was in a dying condition and that she must come home. The sister believing the letter to be genuine went home, and was surprised to find Mrs. Goff well. She at once realized that she had been duped, and that this method was adopted for the purpose of bringing her home that she might again become subject to Pierce's influence. Pierce was arrested on a charge of forgery, but was released. It is thought that for revenge Pierce committed this terrible deed.

New Hampshire Items.

Joshua Roberts was found dead on the road leading from Dover to Rochester, on the morning of Jan. 23d. He died from exposure.

Thomas L. Tibbetts of Dover, formerly chief engineer of the fire department in that city, and long a prominent odd fellow, died in Dover on Sunday morning last, of malignant measles. He was about fifty-nine years old, and leaves a son and daughter, both married; his wife died last August.

Young Howe, who was accidentally shot at Hanover on the 21st inst., was the only son of William C. Howe of the Portland, (Me.,) custom house, formerly city assessor. He was a graduate of the Portland high school, and a young man much respected by all who knew him.

Sprague's mills at Swansey, owned by C. Sprague, were burned Jan. 23d; loss $35,000; insurance $18,000. The building was occupied by Fred Colony and Logan & Lindsey, manufacturers of bed blankets; insured $12,000, which will not cover the loss. Sprague & Whitcomb's box shop adjoining was also burned; loss $8,000; insured $4,500. The fire caught from lighting up the mills in the morning. One hundred hands are thrown out of employment. All the books and papers were destroyed.

News and Notes.

Tuesday was the coldest day for more than thirty years, throughout New England, New York and Canada. In New Hampshire the temperature was all the way from ten to thirty-seven degrees below zero, the latter being the figures at Colebrook.

The residence of a man named Mabley, near Wild Turkey Lick, Coshocton county, Ohio, was burned early Monday morning, Jan. 23d, and two children, aged four and six years, were burned to death.

The trial of C. A. Thomas at Buffalo, N. Y., indicted for false pretences in a "graveyard insurance" case, came to a sudden stop on the 23d inst., by Anthony Smith, the seventh juror, developing symptoms of insanity.

The dwelling of a workman named Clair, at Des Moines, Ia., was burned Jan. 23d, and two infant children perished in the flames.

The case of James B. Graves, on trial at Newark, N. J., for the murder of Edward P. Soden, was submitted to the jury Monday after a charge by Judge Depue, who instructed them that "moral insanity" is simply depravity. The test of insanity recognized by New Jersey law is the ability of the accused to distinguish between right and wrong.

Thursday, Jan. 26th, has been set apart by the committee on post-offices and post-roads of the national house of representatives, to hear a delegation from the tariff convention on the subject of subsidizing United States mail steamers, in order that they may be able to compete with foreign ships in ocean commerce.

A farmer in Grayson county, Va., while working in a field recently, struck a bonanza in digging up $1000 in silver and $358 in gold coin, supposed to have been hidden by some one during the war.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 2500 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore, at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—not assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise, every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

IN MEMORIAM.

At a special meetiug of Alpha Council, No. 83, Royal Arcanum, held Tuesday evening, Jan. 24th, the following resolutions were passed upon the death of Capt. Frank W. Hilton, the first Past Regent of the council:

Whereas, The afflictive hand of Death has laid its icy grasp upon our Brother, Capt. Frank W. Hilton, a warm friend, zealous member and efficient Past Regent of Alpha Council; therefore

Resolved, That by his death the council has lost a true friend, one who was ever keenly awake to all its interests.

Resolved, That while we are forced to submit to the decree which deprives us of his active presence and co-operation, we may hope to be ever mindful of the lessons his life would seem to teach us, confidently cherishing the memories of his virtues, and emulating the nobleness of his examples.

Resolved, That as a last sad token of earthly respect to our Brother, a copy of these resolutions be sent to his bereaved family, and also be placed upon the records of the council.

THE TELEGRAPH-POLES QUESTION.

Editor Chronicle: The Times of the 24th inst. contained, under the heading of "The telegraph-poles question," a communication signed "Citizen," the first paragraph of which reads as follows:

Mr. Editor: The retained attorney of the Mutual Union Telegraph company has one of his characteristic letters in the CHRONICLE of this morning, insinuating that the aldermen of this city can be bribed, by money or free passes, to violate their oaths of office and betray the trusts reposed in them by their fellow citizens. In my opinion, such an insinuation ought to entitle its author to a cow-hiding from each member of the board, and I shall be surprised if such a result does not follow.

Allow me to remark, Mr. Editor, that I shall not only be very much surprised but also to a very considerable extent displeased, if I am cow-hided by the board of aldermen, acting either collectively or as individuals.

Allow me to further remark that that terrible fellow, "Citizen," is either a conceited simpleton who imagines his powers of penetration to be much greater than they really are, or a deliberate falsifier,—as I am not, and never have been, the retained attorney of the Mutual Union or any other telegraph company, or of any corporation or individual. Perhaps after reading this he will be moved by the spirit to do a little cow-hiding on his own account, in which case you are at perfect liberty to disclose to him the identity of Yours truly, OUTSIDER.

Monday and Tuesday were "ball days" at the navy yard, on account of the intense cold. The ball has not been up before this season.

The bursting of water pipes has been a common occurrence within the past two or three days.

Three young men drove from this city to South Berwick, Me., Tuesday. One of them had his nose frozen, another one side of his face, and the third both ears.

The schooners Daniel C. Baker, E. A. Williams and Ev. Nichols arrived on Monday, hailing for 2500 lbs. each. The fares were sold at $5 per hundred lbs.

The gale of Sunday lowered the water in the river several feet below the ordinary run of the tide, and the ledges off Badger's island point were bare, which is not often seen.

It is intimated that Right Rev. Bishop Niles will be called to the rectorship of the new Christ Episcopal church in this city, and that he will make this the cathedral church of the diocese. He will be assisted in his parochial duties by a curate, who besides attending to the pastoral wants of the parish will officiate in the church during the bishop's absence in other parts of the diocese.

The freight trains on the Eastern railroad, Monday night, were delayed many hours by the cold. The three o'clock train, Tuesday afternoon, was a half-hour late, the other trains being nearly on time.

Mr. M. Ryan, of Water street, had a barometer and thermometer combined stolen from his doorway Monday night, and other persons make similar complaints. This should be stopped; how is a man to tell when he is cold, if thieves steal his thermometer?

Warren Brown of Whitefield, who was at one time the candidate of the greenbackers for governor of New Hampshire, was in this city on Tuesday, to attempt a reorganization and revival of the greenback party of Portsmouth.

A correspondent returns "Thanks to the chairman of the high school committee for the dismissal of the school on Tuesday morning, as the temperature up stairs stood at forty-five degrees above zero, and at that temperature it would not be best to study."

To keep your ears warm, get a pair of the Champion Ear-Protectors advertised by David Kimball & Co., No. 36 Market street. They are cheap, effective, adjustable to any size of a head, can be put on or taken off instantly, by any child old enough to put on a hat, and will last longer than a pair of ears will. During such weather as we are having now, each child should be furnished with a pair of these ear-protectors; if grown persons choose to freeze their ears, let 'em.

The Dover Navigation Co. pay a dividend of ten per cent from the earnings of their four schooners, the John Bracewell, Charles H. Trickey, B. Frank Nealley and Thomas B. Garland. This is not quite enough to pay interest, repairs, insurance and depreciation, according to the statements of experienced vessel-owners.

Fire extinguishers, buckets, crowbars, axes and saws are to be carried on all the passenger trains of the Eastern railroad. The company is also building all its cars with four steps, and it is intended to abandon all station platforms, it being thought safer for passengers to enter and leave the cars on a level with the track.

Twenty-two degrees below zero at Rye, Tuesday morning.

The thermometer marked twenty-three degrees below zero at Cape Neddick, Tuesday morning, and nineteen below at York village; at Biddeford, from twenty-two to thirty-five below.

The Boston & Maine railroad has settled with Mrs. John Dixon, of Ogunquit, who was injured in the bridge accident at Cole's Corner, Wells. She received $500. Her injuries consisted simply of bruises.

The residents at Bass Cove, York, had quite an exciting time of it one day recently. A man in a "Centennial" sleigh, and driving a fine-looking black horse, went through the Scotland district from the direction of Great Falls, down into York, turning back at Bass Cove, where he met two men (one of whom was Wm. F. Harmon, the owner of the horse and sleigh,) in another team, who ordered him to stop. The fellow refused to halt, and quite a skirmish ensued, during which the horse-thief received a pistol-shot in one arm, and was finally captured by the aid of a son of Coleman Barrell, just as a sturdy resident at the cove arrived on the battle field with an old Queen Anne's musket, which would probably have blown both teams and all the combatants to kingdom come had it been fired off. The team it appears was stolen from in front of a store in Great Falls, while Mr. Harmon was inside making a purchase; the horse, "Black Diamond," is said to be a very valuable animal. The thief, a Great Falls weaver named Welch, was taken back to that town and held for trial; it is said his mind is affected.

Naval Affairs.

The Yantic, Commander Wadleigh commanding, which arrived at Port Royal, Jamaica, Jan. 12th, from Port au Prince, where small-pox is epidemic, has sailed from Port Royal for Aspinwall.

Boatswain Joseph McDonald was detached from the Lancaster, Jan. 10th, and granted sick leave.

Lieut. George B. Livingston has been ordered to duty in the navigation department at the Washington navy yard.

Sailmaker Henry W. Frankland has been ordered to equipment duty at the Washington navy yard.

Passed Asst. Paymaster James A. Ring is ordered to the Enterprise, relieving Passed Asst. Paymaster S. D. Hurlburt.

Lieut. Daniel W. Davis has been detached from the navy yard at New York.

The court martial for the trial of Lieut. Comdr. George B. Durand finished its labors Jan. 21st, and adjourned. The decision will be made known by the secretary of the navy as soon as it is considered.

Lieut. Comdr. A. H. Vail has been detached from the naval observatory, and ordered as executive officer of the Wachusett.

The late J. G. Hattam had three policies on his life in the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Upon the first policy the accummulations amounted to a sum greater than the original policy. On $66,940 of policies paid for the week ending the 20th inst., the dividends were $19,477.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat

Should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been recommended by physicians, and have always given perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cts a box everywhere. cod&wtjan22

A Lucky Man in Milford, Del.

The peach crop of Delaware about this time yearly becomes the subject of newspaper paragraphing. Mr. A. Z. Ackerman at Milford, however, does not take the same interest in the affair he did before he drew a part of the $106,000 capital prize in the December drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery, all information about which can be had by writing to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

Cuticura

THE Cuticura Treatment, for the cure of skin, scalp and blood diseases, consists in the internal use of Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cures.

SALT RHEUM. Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn st., Chicago, grateful acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally.

PSORIASIS. H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by the Cuticura Resolvent internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. The most wonderful case on record. Cure certified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

SKIN DISEASES. F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and was cured, and has remained perfectly well to this day.

SKIN HUMORS. Mrs. S. E. Whipple, Detroit, Mich., writes that her face, head and some parts of her body were almost raw. Head covered with scabs and sores, suffered fearfully and tried everything. Permanently cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures.)

CUTICURA Remedies are for sale by all druggists. Price of Cuticura, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 50c.; large boxes, $1; Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Medicinal Toilet Soap, 25c.; Cuticura Medicinal Shaving Soap, 15c.; in bars for barbers and large consumers, 50c.

CITY OF PORTSMOUTH.

Revised Ordinances, Chap. 16.

SECTION 1. No dog shall be permitted to go at large or loose in this city until the owner or keeper of such dog, or the head of the family, or the keeper of the house or place where such dog is kept or harbored, shall have procured from the city marshal a license for such dog.

SEC. 2. The city marshal shall grant a license to any citizen for his dog on the payment of one dollar for a male dog, and two dollars for a female dog, which license shall expire on the first day of July annually.

SEC. 3. The city marshall shall keep a record of all licenses so granted, each license to be numbered, and he shall make a report to the mayor and aldermen on the first day of July annually and every every three months thereafter of all licenses granted, and shall at the same time pay to the city treasurer all moneys received for the use of the city.

SEC. 4. The person named in each license so granted shall cause his name and the number of the license to be distinctly marked on a collar which shall be constantly kept about the neck of the dog so licensed, and no dog shall be considered as licensed unless this requisition shall be complied with.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the city marshal to cause all dogs to be killed which shall be found at large or loose within the city without a collar marked as required in Section 4, and to cause all dogs so killed to be buried, and any person may lawfully kill any dog found within the limits of this city going at large contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 6. In case any dog shall be found loose or going at large contrary to any of the foregoing provisions, or in case any dog not licensed shall be provided with a collar marked as required in this ordinance, the owner or keeper thereof or the head of the family or keeper of the house or place where such dog is kept or harbored, shall upon conviction thereof be fined five dollars.

The attention of owners or harborers of unlicensed dogs is called to the above ordinance, the provisions of which will be rigidly enforced.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

PISCATAQUA ASSOCIATION.

The Piscataqua Association of Congregational Ministers met in the parlor of the Congregational church at South Berwick, Me., Rev. George Lewis pastor, on Tuesday of last week. Rev. D. V. Hibbard, of Eliot, was moderator, and the following-named members were present:

Rev. Messrs. Spaulding, Peabody, Rand, Boardman, Lewis, Haines, Davis, Borchers, Norcross, Stearns, Freeman, White, Woodbridge, Newton, Sterling, Webb and Lowell.

At the August meeting of the association, held in Eliot, Me., prayers were offered for the restoration to health of President Garfield, and the scribe of the association, Rev. Isaac White of Newmarket, N. H., sent the following to the president:

NEWMARKET, Aug. 8th, 1881.

JAMES A. GARFIELD—Dear Sir: At the quarterly meeting of the Piscataqua Association of thirty Congregational ministers, recently held in Eliot, Me., a part of the session was devoted to devout thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God for sparing your invaluable life, and to fervent supplication for your restoration to complete health and strength. Be assured, dear sir, you have the hearty Christian sympathy and fervent, unceasing prayers of the members of this association in this time of your greatest trial, out of which we doubt not the God of nations will deliver you, more thoroughly furnished than ever before for the most mighty responsibility of the high position to which the people of the country have elected you, and encompassed with their affection and support as never before.

ISAAC C. WHITE, Sec. Piscataqua Ass'n.

To this the following reply was received, and was read at the late meeting:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, August 8th, 1881.

Dear Sir: The resolutions adopted by your association, expressive of the sympathy and condolence which its members feel with the president and his family in the great calamity which has befallen them, have been received. In acknowledging their receipt, permit me to assure you that it will afford me much pleasure, at the most favorable and opportune time, to invite the attention of the president to this gratifying action on the part of your organization. In the meanime, expressing the president's thanks for this courtesy,

I am yours very respectfully,
J. STANLEY BROWN, Private Sec'y.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,
Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which specdily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Wilworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
Never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir!" The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 4?23

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

Verdict, "Guilty."

Judge Porter on the 23th inst. continued his argument on behalf of the government, Guiteau interrupting more frequently and being more abusive than ever before. The argument was concluded in the afternoon, and the case given to the jury.

Telegrams received in this city early in the evening stated that the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, after being out only twenty minutes.

Naval Construction Fund.

The national house committee on naval affairs are announced to have decided on reporting favorably the Harris bill to provide a permanent construction fund for the navy. This is a very important bill, which has been matured with great care by the engineer officers of the navy, and its hearty adoption by the naval affairs committee is very gratifying to them.

The bill enacts that it shall be the duty of the secretary of the navy to take an account of stores and supplies belonging to the navy department, making an appraisement of their value, and on that appraisement condemning and selling such supplies as are found unserviceable, and paying into the treasury, to the credit of a permanent construction fund, the proceeds of the sales. Old ships, also, are to be condemned and sold, and the proceeds put to the same credit.

Moreover, this fund shall be permanent. No unexpended balance is to be covered into the treasury at the end of the fiscal year, but continued to the credit of this fund. The bill provides that a sum not exceeding $2,000,000 a year can be expended out of the fund, and that to better accomplish the objects of this expenditure, the secretary of the navy may ask shipbuilders and manufacturers of iron to submit models, plans and specifications for navy vessels, their engines, machinery and armament, and determine what sum shall be paid to those competitors whose suggestions may be adopted.

This bill was introduced during the last Congress, but died in the committee. It now gets a step further, and will run its chance in open house. While it does not provide for such a radical enlargement of the navy as is contemplated by the recommendation of the advisory board, it is a long step in the direction of providing the country with a modern navy.

Anti-Polygamy.

The senate judiciary committee have agreed on a bill designed for the suppression of polygamy. Its main features are sections (based on Mr. Edmund's bill) doing away with the present requirement for proofs of polygamous marriages, by providing that the fact of living in bigamous relations shall be sufficient evidence for conviction, and that in prosecutions for bigamy any person drawn as a juryman may be challenged on the ground that he practices and believes in polygamy as a religious rite, with several new provisions, introduced by Senator Logan, debarring all polygamists from the privileges of voting, service on juries or holding office.

A largely-attended anti-polygamy meeting was held in Plymouth church at Portland, Me., on the evening of Jan. 23d. Hon. Lot. M. Morrill presided. Able addresses were made by Mr. Morrill, Judge Charles W. Goddard, Rev. Asa Dalton, George F. Emery, Esq., formerly editor of the Boston Post, and by Rev. Dwight M. Seward. The drift of all the remarks was that the law, which had been a dead letter for twenty years, should be enforced; revise the jury system and exclude Mormons; also that the law of evidence should be changed so that the difficulties in the way of proving a Mormon marriage may be obviated. It may be necessary also to order a change of venire so that Congress may remove these criminals to another territory for trial. A series of resolutions were unanimously passed, and a vote passed that after being authenticated by the president, a copy be sent to the Maine congressmen, and that they be asked to exert their influence to obtain proper legislation to crush out this fast-increasing evil.

The 47th Congress.

The house on Jan. 24th passed the fortifications appropriation bill. The total amount appropriated is $375,000, as follows: For preservation, repair and protection of fortifications, $175,000; for armament of sea coast fortifications, $100,000; for torpedoes and their preservation, $100,000.

Naval Affairs.

The secretary of the navy has awarded medals of honor to John Lanerty and Edward Barrett, firemen of the United States steamer Alaska, for gallant and meritorious conduct.

Rear Adm. Nicholson, commanding the European squadron, under date of Villefranche, France, Jan. 5th, reports the position of the vessels of the squadron as follows: the Lancaster, flagship, at Villefranche, to sail shortly for a cruise along the coasts of Italy and Greece, to be absent three months; the Nipsic, on her way to Villefranche from Egypt; the Quinnebaug, cruising along the northern coast of Africa; the Galena, at Palmas, Canary islands, Dec. 22d, to visit the Liberian coast and Cape Verde islands.

Lieut. Comdr. George E. F. Wilde has been ordered to duty at the Boston navy yard.

The Powhatan sailed from Boston for Norfolk, Va., Jan. 24th.

Lieut. Andrew J. Iverson has been detached from the navy yard at Boston, and ordered as executive of the Ashuelot, Asiatic station.

The United States steamer Rodgers, now in winter quarters in St. Lawrence bay, will be ordered home as soon as the seasons opens.

New Hampshire Items.

The case town of Franklin against Norcross and Saunders, for damages for the destruction of a bridge by Norcross & Co.'s logs on the river at Franklin, which has been pending in the United States circuit court for this district since May, 1875, is now being heard at Concord before referees.

The saw and grist mills at Osgood's Mills, in the west part of Lebanon, were burned about midnight Jan. 23d. Total loss estimated at $6000. Real estate owned by Wood & Martin, who had $2000 insurance. Bernard McCabe, who operated the grist mill, had $1000 on stock. T. O. Waterman, who operated the sawmill, had no insurance. Origin of fire unknown.

Charles Ranlett, formerly an overseer in the employ of the Great Falls Manufacturing company, has been taken to the insane asylum.

The great faults of the Dover jail are, according to the local papers, not half room enough, no ventilation worthy the name, little sun and sunlight, impure air to a sickening extent, and bad drainage. To put the whole thing in a nut-shell, it is a disgrace to the court and the people of Strafford county.

Samuel Benson, an old, respected citizen, died suddenly of heart disease at his residence in Franklin Falls on Saturday morning, Jan. 21st. Deceased was a native of Vermont, was nearly eighty years of age, and had always led an active life. He was employed in the building of the Bunker Hill monument.

The late J. G. Holland had three policies on his life in the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Upon the first policy the accummulations amounted to a sum greater than the original policy. On $66,940 of policies paid for the week ending the 20th inst., the dividends were $19,477.

The Vizina Consolidated Mining company of Tombstone, Arizona, has declared its usual monthly dividend of $20,000, or ten cents per share payable February 1st This is the fifth dividend declared since October last—total of $100,000. The production of the mine is about twenty tons of ore per day, which yields about $95 per ton; total production since October, 1880, is 5,664 tons of ore milled, yielding $524,895.35, out of which all expenses for opening, development and improvements have been all paid, as well as $100,000 dividends, and there remains a surplus of $100,000, without any debts.

Aaron Oliver of Athol, Mass., has been indicted for impersonating a clergyman and performing a false marriage; and David Billings, of Gardner, Mass., for manslaughter. John Carleton and his adopted daughter, (Mrs. Billings,) of Gardner, have been indicted for killing the infant child of Mrs. Billings. The latter supposed she was legally married to David Billings, but it is alleged that Aaron Oliver personated the clergyman at the wedding.

In a suit brought by Mr. Thomas H. Stringham, of New York city, against Mrs. A. T. Stewart, to recover $50,000 damages for permanent injuries, sustained while in the employ of the defendant, the jury awarded the plaintiff $16,000.

Capt. Samuel Hiltz, who was master of the schooner Iris at the time she was wrecked at York harbor some weeks ago, says the communication in this paper signed "York Harbor" was grossly unjust to him. He sailed eighteen years out of Gloucester, Mass., and always had a good name; and while a resident at York harbor he was always one of the first men to be called upon if a vessel was in trouble. He has lived at Newcastle for about a year, and is willing to leave his reputation for honest and fair dealing with his neighbors there. While sailing out of this port he has traded with Rider & Cotton, Wm. Downs & Son, E. N. Russell, A. K. W. Green, and many others in this city, and not one can say he has failed to pay his bills promptly and honorably; he has also traded a good deal with Mr. Rufus Varrell at York harbor, and never gave him any cause for complaint. The owner of the Iris, Capt. Abram Brooks of Eliot, was so well satisfied with his dealings that he said he would buy another vessel for him if he found any difficulty in getting one—which he did not. He adds that if the residents of York harbor di-like him, the dislike is not wholly on one side, and that nothing short of dire necessity would make him enter York harbor with a vessel.

The wife of Addison E. Haley, Esq., of Kennebunk, died of apoplexy on Tuesday, Jan. 24th. She was out walking in the street when attacked, and lived about three hours.

About three hundred gallons of seized liquors were spilled in front of the police station at Biddeford on Monday morning of this week, by the officers—such a cold morning as it was, too.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which yeo ldered a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within 1 year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—no assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

ACCIDENT INSURANCE.

The Travellers Insurance Co., of which Morse & Ilsley are the agents for Portsmouth and vicinity, have issued a pamphlet giving a partial list of the claims paid by the company in this state, on account of fatal or temporarily disabling accidents. This list contains the record of fifty payments made to residents of Portsmouth, aggregating $2361, the smallest payment being $7.14, for a jammed finger, and the largest $300, for injuries caused by a fall, the average of the fifty payments being a trifle over $47.

One odd thing to be learned from a perusal of this list is that an unexpectedly large number of the benefits have been paid to persons whose occupations would seem to render them but little liable to accident, and whose pecuniary circumstances are such that the benefits were not needed to preserve them from embarrassment or want. From this it appears that the classes most liable to personal mishaps—mechanics and laborers—and to whom in case of accident a weekly income would be of the most value, do not avail themselves of the beneficent provisions afforded by this insurance company to anything like the extent which would naturally be supposed.

EASTERN RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.

On Saturday, Jan. 21st, the company turned out from its works the first of twenty-nine cars to be built in season for next summer's business. The style of these cars will be the same as those built last year, and they will be provided with all the approved appliances to secure comfort en route, and safety in case of disaster. The windows are to be hung with balance weights, to permit of their being raised to any desired height, and Pullman curtains, like those on the cars built last season, will be used instead of blinds.

The car just finished accommodates sixty-eight passengers with seats. The cabinet work is of California redwood, which makes a neat and elegant finish. The ceiling is very nearly plain, in keeping with the woodwork, and the satchel-baskets, seat-frames and lamps are of the Eastlake pattern. The car is lighted by eight lamps, and heated by Baker's hot-water apparatus, the pipes from the heater taking a serpentine course along each side of the car and under every seat. A cushioned-top box at one end of the car contains a bucket, crow bar, axe and saw.

The equipment of the Eastern railroad will soon exceed, in efficiency and comfort, that of any road running out of Boston.

OUTSIDER.

SMALL-POX SCARE IN DOVER.

A very decided small-pox scare set in at Dover on the 23d inst., and apparently not without reason. About six weeks since a young man named Brown died after a few days' illness, and his death was attributed to an attack of measles. His body was laid out for burial by Thomas L. Tibbetts & Brother, undertakers. Three weeks ago the junior partner complained of being sick; his physicians treated him for measles, and he recovered. On Wednesday, Jan. 18th, the senior member of the firm complained of being ill, took to his bed, and died Sunday morning, his physicians stating that he had been the victim of a neglected cold, combined with measles. Hundreds of people viewed the body, and were astounded on being informed, on the 23d, that all three of the abovementioned persons were victims of small-pox. The woman who took care of Mr. Tibbetts' brother belonged in Rochester, and on the morning of the 23d was reported to be in a precarious condition, her medical attendants attributing her illness to a malignant attack of varioloid. The public funeral of Mr. Tibbetts, which was to have taken place on Monday forenoon, was abandoned, the residence quarantined, and the body interred privately at night, by the board of health. The mayor has notified the public that the city hall shall not be let, at least for the present, for shows, etc. The health board has been authorized to spare no efforts to overcome the danger. A Dover physician who went to Rochester on the 23d, said on his return that Mrs. Hartford was undoubtedly suffering from varioloid.

On Tuesday evening, the 24th inst., it was reported on the streets in this city that six cases of the disease had appeared in Dover; and on the 25th it was said seven cases (in all) had been discovered there. We can only hope that these statements will turn out to be but rumors, and the scare needless.

This evening, at Music hall, Mr. Harry W. French will give a lecture, "Beneath the Himalayas," illustrated by eighty of the finest colored dissolving views ever shown. Mr. French will be remembered as having lectured in Music hall last winter, on which occasion several Hindoos were present. He has a remarkable power of interesting an audience, and this lecture and its accessories are spoken of by the papers in the highest terms.

The Norfolk Jubilee Singers, who will give a sacred concert in Music hall on Sunday evening, had a crowded house at Haverhill, Mass., on the evening of the 15th inst., and the Banner of that city says "a more pleased audience could not be found than that which listened to their inimitable singing. Every piece sung found renewed encomiums from the audience, who were thoroughly enwrapped in the gifted talent of these popular colored singers. It is hoped that they will favor us with another concert soon, as many would like to hear them who were unable to gain admittance on this occasion."

No man possessed of any regard for the city where he lives, or any consideration for the tax payers and property owners, can advocate such a scheme as "Outsider" does, unless he is "retained."—"Citizen," in Times.

Hon. Frank Jones not only advocates "such a scheme," but this identical one.

The Norfolk Jubilee Singers will give a concert in Kittery on Saturday evening. All those who wish to attend from this city can return in the steamer Mystic after the close of the concert.

The railroad man who in company with a ship carpenter went to Great bay a while ago and caught one smelt, having retrieved his reputation by catching twenty-five pounds of smelts the next day, the ship carpenter was fired with the spirit of emulation, and went to the bay with Mr. Thomas Watkins, the two taking fifty-eight pounds of fish on that trip; on the same day three other persons took ninety-six pounds. They found a ready market for all they had to spare, getting from eight to twelve cents a pound.

Mr. Levi Bird has sold his painting of Washington on horseback, recently exhibited in the window of Mr. Goodrich's bookstore, and has commenced in oil colors a portrait of the late President Garfield.

Mr. Charles C. Lamprey, who lives on the Newington road and owns a milk route, has not for twelve years missed for a single morning to make his rounds on the milk cart.

A letter received from Mr. Wm. J. L. Dodge of this city, mate of the British ship Ivanhoe, bound from Bombay to Dunkirk, reports that vessel as having arrived at St. Helena on the 5th of December in distress, leaking badly and with rudder gone and cargo shifted, having been roughly used in a heavy gale off the Cape of Good Hope, Nov. 15th. She would repair at St. Helena, and proceed.

The schooner Albert Woodbury, Downs master, came in on Wednesday, 25th inst., with 800 lbs. of fish, and the Lydia Davis, Norton master, with a fair catch. Prices ruled high, averaging $4.50 per hundred lbs. The schooner Northern Star arrived from Rockport, having sold at that place 9000 lbs. of fish at four and a half cents a pound. Several vessels that started for the fishing grounds on Tuesday afternoon returned on Wednesday minus fish, a strong southwest breeze preventing the setting of their trawls.

Elvin Newton & Co. sent to Boston on Tuesday of this week 20,000 lbs. of fish, collected during the cold days.

The Eastern railroad directors' car made its monthly trip from Boston to Portland and back on the 25th inst., passing through this city to the eastward at about eleven o'clock, and returning between five and six in the evening.

Commander Mortimer L. Johnson has been ordered to duty at this navy yard.

The ice being cut on the Eldredge Brewing Co.'s pond is thirteen inches thick, and of the best quality. The workmen will commence to store it to-day.

Mr. Howard Staples, of South Eliot, was the successful bidder for the contract for tinning the roof of the Hotel Bartlett at York beach,—about two thousand feet.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. CITY OF PORTSMOUTH.

Revised Ordinances, Chap. 16.

SECTION 1. No dog shall be permitted to go at large or loose in this city until the owner or keeper of such dog, or the head of the family, or the keeper of the house or place where such dog is kept or harbored, shall have procured from the city marshal a license for such dog.

SEC. 2. The city marshal shall grant a license to any citizen for his dog on the payment of one dollar for a male dog, and two dollars for a female dog, which license shall expire on the first day of July annually.

SEC. 3. The city marshall shall keep a record of all licenses so granted, each license to be numbered, and he shall make a report to the mayor and aldermen on the first day of July annually and every every three months thereafter of all licenses granted, and shall at the same time pay to the city treasurer all moneys received for the use of the city.

SEC. 4. The person named in each license so granted shall cause his name and the number of the license to be distinctly marked on a collar which shall be constantly kept about the neck of the dog so licensed, and no dog shall be considered as licensed unless this requisition shall be complied with.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the city marshal to cause all dogs to be killed which shall be found at large or loose within the city without a collar marked as required in Section 4, and to cause all dogs so killed to be buried, and any person may lawfully kill any dog found within the limits of this city going at large contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 6. In case any dog shall be found loose or going at large contrary to any of the foregoing provisions, or in case any dog not licensed shall be provided with a collar marked as required in this ordinance, the owner or keeper thereof or the head of the family or keeper of the house or place where such dog is kept or harbored, shall upon conviction thereof be fined five dollars.

The attention of owners or harborers of unlicensed dogs is called to the above ordinance, the provisions of which will be rigidly enforced.

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

"The New Hampshire." The first number of a paper bearing this rather unusual name, and published by H. H. Metcalf, founder and for a time publisher of the State Press of this city, has made its first bow. It is quarto in form, and makes a neat appearance. In his introduction the editor says: "The purpose of its publication is not to champion the cause of any party, sect, or organization," and yet under its editorial short notes are two flings at republican men or measures. If Mr. Metcalf thinks he can publish a paper and not champion the cause of democracy, he is certainly not yet acquainted with all of his weaknesses. The first paper contains a great variety of matter, and with the experience the editor has had, he ought to make a paper well deserving of patronage.—Dover Republican.

The February "Atlantic" opens with a poem more than four pages long by Mr. Whittier, entitled "The Bay of Seveh Islands," and those who enjoy Mr. Whittier's poetry, as millions of Americans do, will find this one of the most attractive features of the magazine, although it contains two additional chapters of Mr. Lathrop's engaging story, "An Echo of Passion," and the opening chapters of "The House of a Merchant Prince," a serial story by W. H. Bishop, the author of "Detmold." This last story is to continue throughout the year, and promises to be well worth reading. The second series of "Studies in the South" perhaps has no feature so striking as the visit to the "Moonshiners" in the previous article; still it cannot fail to be read with great interest. Miss Sarah Orne Jewett contributes "Tom's Husband," and it is hardly saying too much to pronounce any number of the Atlantic which contains a story by Miss Jewett as a red-letter number on that account. Apropos of the centennial of Daniel Webster's birthday, Henry Cabot Lodge writes on his career and character. E. P. Whipple contributes an admirable critical essay on Richard Grant White's works. Edith M. Thomas, one of the most promising of our younger writers, has a charming outdoor paper entitled "Ember Days." Herbert Tuttle describes "Some Traits of Bismarck." Other articles in the number well worth notice are Mr. Dugdale's concluding paper on "The Origin of Crime in Society;" a strong article on "The Refunding Bill of 1881," by J. Laurence Laughlin; poems by George Parsons Lathrop, Owen Wister, and K. G.; reviews of several important recent books, and the Contributors' Club. This number well sustains the reputation which the recent numbers of the Atlantic have gained for great vigor, freshness, and a pleasing variety. Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.

Tuesday, Jan. 24th, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty of murder, fixing the punishing with death, in the case of William Neal, one of the three participants in the Gibbons family murder at Ashland, Kentucky.

In the case of James H. Ferriss at Portland, Me., formerly editor of the Daily News, indicted for libel, in the superior court, on two complaints, Ferriss pleaded guilty and retracted the libel. The court continued the case for sentence, with the warning that if the offence was repeated he would be sentenced on these convictions.

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
Never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quickly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 4p3

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.

Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.

Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.

Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.

Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.

Because over 5000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.

Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lation, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be in introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

Smith, the wealthy farmer reported murdered by a shot through the window of his residence near Shelbyville, Ont., Saturday night, Jan. 21st, it is suspected now was killed by his own nephew, a boy who was in the house at the time. Young Smith has been placed under arrest.

The Closing Scenes.

During the delivery of Judge Cox's charge to the jury in the Guiteau case, which he finished at 4:40 o'clock P. M. on Jan. 24th, there was perfect stillness in the crowded court room, and even the prisoner kept absolutely quiet, with the exception of one or two simple interruptions. The jury immediately retired, and many of the spectators left the room. After the jury had been out about twenty minutes a recess was taken until 5:30 o'clock, and a large part of the spectators went out into the open air. Within ten minutes after the recess had been taken the jury called to the bailiff in waiting that they had agreed upon a verdict. They were informed that a recess had been taken, and that Judge Cox had left the court room, so they remained in their room until the court re-assembled.

The rumor that the jury had agreed was quickly spread from one to another, and the excited crowd surged back into the court room, and with eager expectancy anxiously awaited what all seemed to look for—a verdict of guilty. Judge Cox soon afterward took his seat, the crier called "order," and the jury, at 5:35 o'clock, filed slowly into their seats. Every sound was hushed, save the voice of the clerk as he propounded to the foreman the usual enquiry as to whether the jury had agreed upon a verdict. Clear and distinct came the reply, "We have." "What is your verdict; guilty or not guilty?" With equal distinctness came the reply: "Guilty as indicted."

Instantly a scene of the wildest excitement prevailed, the crowd giving vent to their long-pent-up feelings in uproarious demonstrations of applause and approval. "Order! order!" shouted the bailiffs. Mr. Scoville and counsel for the prosecution were simultaneously upon their feet. Mr. Scoville attempted to address the court, but the district attorney shouted "Wait till we have the verdict complete and in due form of law." Order was at length restored, and the clerk again addressing the jury, said: "Your foreman says guilty as indicted." "So say we all of us?" the jurors responded. Another demonstration of approval followed this announcement, but not so long prolonged as the first. Mr. Scoville, still upon his feet, demanded a poll of the jury, which was granted, and each juror was called by name, and each, in a firm voice, promply responded, "Guilty." As the last name was called the prisoner shrieked "My blood will be upon the heads of that jury! Don't you forget it!"

Mr. Scoville again addressed the court, saying: "Your honor, I do not desire to forfeit any rights I may have under the law and practice in this district. If there is anything that I ought to do now to save those rights, I would be indebted to your honor to indicate it to me." Judge Cox, in reply, assured him that he should have every opportunity; that the charge would be furnished to him in print next day, and he would be accorded all the time allowed by law within which to file his exceptions, and that he would also be entitled to four days within which to move an arrest of judgment.

Guiteau (who from the moment Judge Cox began the delivery of his charge had dropped completely his air of flippant arrogance, and sat with rigid features and compressed lips,) called out in tones of desperation: "God will avenge this outrage."

Judge Cox then turned to the jury and said: "Gentlemen of the jury, I cannot express too many thanks for the manner in which you have discharged your duty. You have richly merited the thanks of your countrymen, and I feel assured that you will take to your homes the approval of your consciences. With thanks, gentlemen of the jury, I dismiss you."

With this announcement the court was declared adjourned, and the famous trial which had absorbed the public interest and attention for more than ten weeks, was ended. The crowd quickly left the court room, and the prisoner, gesticulating with his manacled hands, was led out. As he passed the reporters' tables he leaned over and called out to an acquaintance, "The court in banc will reverse this business." His appearance was that of a man deeply moved with indignation at some outrage or indignity which had been put upon him. As he was being put in the van the crowd of men and boys upon the pavement yelled and shouted themselves hoarse in mockery of the prisoner's constant boast: "The American press and people are all with me." The van was quickly driven away, followed till out of sight by the jeers and yells of the crowd.

Concerning future action in this case, the Washington press despatches say:

Mr. Scoville will probably file a motion in arrest of judgment, and for a new trial on exceptions. The law gives the defendant four days to file the motion and reasons for a new trial, and it is customary for the court to set some day to hear the argument thereon. Should the motion be overruled, the defendant will appeal to the general term, and under the law the defendant is entitled to a suspension of the sentence till after the next general term—not exceeding thirty days. The January general term is now in session, and the case cannot go there, but will be appealable to the April term. It is the custom of the April term to adjourn until September—taking a recess over July and August—but should it be closed by the latter part of May, then, if the judgment is affirmed, the execution might take place in July.

Another despatch says a person convicted of murder "has thirty days after the beginning of the term, so that sentence cannot be pronounced before May, so that he will hardly be hanged before June." Mr. Reed, one of Guiteau's counsel, prophesies that before that time he will be an imbecile. It is said there is considerable talk among the lawyers in Washington about the "unfairness" with which the prosecuting lawyers conducted the case against the assassin, and Mr. Reed said at the end of the trial that "Judge Cox's charge has been the only fair presentment against the prisoner by the government." All this may be true, but it is as certain that the people at large rejoice over Guiteau's conviction, as it is that they are glad the weary trial is over; and so long as their present temper lasts all the hairsplitting of the lawyers will be of little effect.

New Hampshire Items.

In Laconia, Jan. 26th, Martha Smith, a maiden lady about sixty years of age, was discovered in her house on Pleasant street in an insensible condition, with her legs frozen, up to her body. She lived alone. It is supposed that she had a shock or a fit, as she was last seen by her neighbors on Sunday, Jan. 22d. There is no hope of her recovery.

In Dover, Jan. 26th, an infant son of F. L. Galpin got caught between two chairs, and was choked to death.

Hon. Edmund Burke, member of Congress from New Hampshire from 1839 to 1845, commissioner of patents under Polk and afterwards editor of the Washington Union, and since one of New Hampshire's most prominent lawyers and politicians, died at his residence in Newport, on Wednesday, Jan. 25th, aged seventy-three years.

Sarah A. Davis recovered a $2,000 verdict against the city of Manchester for injuries sustained a year ago on account of a defective sidewalk.

Simon Specht, the oldest German resident of Manchester, slipped on the sidewalk on Wednesday evening, Jan. 25th, and sustained very severe injuries. He is eighty years old.

The train on the Cheshire railroad which should have reached Peterboro' on Monday evening, Jan. 23d, was thirteen hours late on account of a snow plow being derailed near Rindge.

News and Notes.

Four new cases of small-pox were developed in Boston on Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 24th and 25th, two of the patients being young children.

Seth C. Burnham of Farmington, Me., sold a $1,000 bond recently to a person who paid entirely in gold which has been in his possession thirty-two years. At interest it would have amounted to several thousand dollars.

The man Pierce, who was arrested for blowing up the house of Mr. Maynard Goff at Lewiston, Me., on the 23d of January, was soon released, as no substantial evidence could be found against him, and the police are endeavoring to ferret out the rascal. It is thought that nitroglycerine was the explosive. The physicians have hope of the injured lady's recovery, though the first report was that she had died.

The sale is announced from Buffalo, N. Y., of the Atlas Refining company and the Buffalo & Rock City Pipe Line company, to the Standard Oil company, for $250,000 or $300,000. The rate of pumping the oil from Rock City to Buffalo has been advanced from ten cents to fifteen cents, and this sale virtually ends all opposition which the Standard company has in that section.

The coroner's verdict in the case of Timothy Sullivan, recently killed on the Boston & Maine railroad at Biddeford depot, is that there was want of proper care on the part of those in charge of the train and that Sullivan and his companion, Mitchell, who was also struck by the train, but not killed, were careless in not noticing the movement of the train; also that the instructions of the company to the employees are not sufficiently positive.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent,—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00,—no assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel. For further particulars enquire of

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening, Jan. 26th, Mayor Sise in the chair:

Present, Aldermen Noyes, Vaughan, Slater, Green, Hartshorn, Martin and Caswell.

The records of last meeting were read and approved.

The mayor reported that the city physician was prepared to vaccinate poor people at twenty-five cents each, and suggested that he be authorized to vaccinate those unable to pay, at the city's expense; and it was so voted.

The mayor said that in accordance with the ordinance which required him to give needed information to the board, he would state that that he considered retrenchment and reform in the municipal expenditures necessary; and he recommended the passage of a joint resolution appointing three aldermen and three councilmen a committee to report such plan of retrenchment as they may deem best for the interests of the city. Such a resolution was passed under a suspension of the rules, and Messrs. Vaughan, Caswell and Stavers appointed the aldermanic members of the committee.

The question of granting the Eastern & Mutual Union Telegraph Co. permission to erect a line of poles from the Eastern railroad station to Market square, was called up.

Ald. Noyes moved that it be laid over for one week, as there was not a full board present.

Ald. Martin said if the permission asked for was refused, the company could erect the poles under authority of the legislature. If permission was granted, the poles would be put up under the city's supervision; if it was refused, the company would put up the poles to suit themselves.

Messrs. Vaughan, Noyes and Slater spoke against granting the request; as did also Calvin Page, (who appeared for himself and as attorney for others,) Andrew J. Penhallow and Henry Peyser.

Ald. Caswell spoke in favor of granting permission, as did also the agent of the telegraph company.

An amendment to the pending motion, giving the committee on streets with mayor added power to supervise the erection of the poles along such streets as they should select, was adopted. On the question of passing the motion as amended, the yeas and nays were taken, with the following result:

Yeas, Martin, Caswell, Green and Hartshorn, four; nays, Noyes, Vaughan, Slater and Stavers, (the latter having come in during the proceedings,) four.

The mayor arose, and said: "Gentlemen, the vote is a tie. You know very well what my sentiments are on this question. I"—

But he got no further, for Ald. Martin suddenly loomed up, observing, "Mr. Mayor, I desire to change my vote to 'no,'" and the tie was untied without his honor's assistance, the motion being negatived by a vote of five to three. This quick-witted move of the portly alderman leaves him in a position to move a reconsideration of the vote.

Adjourned for one week.

THE SMALL-POX IN DOVER.

The condition of affairs in Dover is not so bad as the first rumors indicated. The Dover Republican of Jan. 25th said all the doctors who attended or saw the alleged small-pox cases, denied that there had been a typical case of that disease or varioloid in the city—that is, where the symptoms might not have resulted from some other disease. The secretary of the state board of health was in town, and radical measures were being taken by the authorities; among other precautions, a projected masquerade ball was prohibited by the health officers of the city.

A despatch of the 26th, from Dover, said: "It has been discovered that two persons who had visited Mr. Tibbetts' bedside previous to his death, are now sick with varioloid of a mild type. It has been decided that no more public performances, balls, gatherings, etc., are to be permitted for the present within the city limits. An order has been issued by the agent of the Cocheco Manufacturing company, authorizing two surgeons to vaccinate all the operatives employed in the mills willing to submit to the operation. Last summer, in two weeks, nearly 3000 persons were vaccinated at the city's expense. The county commissioners have ordered the attending physician at the county farm to vaccinate the 150 inmates there.

FELLOWSHIP MEETING.

The series of fellowship meetings among the Congregational churches of this vicinity closed on Wednesday of this week, with a meeting in the North parish vestry on Middle street in this city. Owing to the weather, the attendance was not large; but the exercises were quite interesting, consisting, in the forenoon, of a conference meeting, and a discussion of the question of qualifications for church membership, the discussion being opened by Rev. E. H. Robie of Greenland. In the afternoon, "How to increase the prosperity of the church" was discussed—opened by Mr. Cutler of Hampton, followed by Messrs. Rand of South Seabrook, Kingsbury of Rye and Robie of Greenland, Deacon Perkins of Hampton, Des. Leavitt of North Hampton, Dea. John S. Rand of Portsmouth, and several ladies, including Mrs. H. C. Knight of this city. Though the rule at these meetings has been for the people to carry all needed refreshments with them, the visitors from other towns were on this occasion supplied with hot tea and coffee, and eatables, by the local society.

WOMAN'S TEMPERANCE LEAGUE.

At a meeting recently held by the Woman's Temperance League, at Grange hall, the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Samuel Taylor;
1st Vice President, Mrs. A. W. Haven;
2d Vice President, Mrs. Ira Brock;
Secretary, Mrs. D. H. Spinney;
Treasurer, Miss Hannah Candage.
Ass't Treas., Mrs. Susan Huse;
Chaplain, Mrs. Silas Philbrick;
Cor. Sec., Mrs. Fannie Thorndike;
Trustees, Mrs. A. W. Haven, Mrs. Silas Philbrick and Mrs. Joseph Pettigrew.

Mr. Harry W. French's lecture, "Beneath the Himalayas," at Music hall on Thursday evening last, was not largely attended, one reason for which was no doubt the threatening weather and very bad walking. Those who did attend enjoyed a rich treat, the lecture being very interesting and instructive, and the dissolving views far the best ever exhibited here.

"Citizen," the terrible fellow of the Times, has stowed away the cowhide which he brandished so frantically during the early part of this week, and "Outsider," the CHRONICLE'S correspondent, once more dares to breathe.

White & Parsons' comedy company, advertised to appear in Music hall next Tuesday evening, played at Portland on Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week, and the Advertiser of that city remarks: "The entertainment is very pleasing, and is as good as the advertisements claim for it. It consists of a panorama of Irish views, scenes in the principal cities of Ireland, and pictures of the beautiful lakes of the Emerald Isle. Accompanying the panorama is an Irish comedy entitled Barney O'Hea, which is amusing. Incidental to this is the introduction of a trick donkey which is excellently trained."

Men were spearing for eels through holes in the ice on the north pond, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. We should fancy that eels caught there would be pretty high.

The big chimney of the late Kearsarge mill presented a very handsome appearance last Thursday morning, being covered to the very top with a thin sheet of ice.

Wednesday of this week was a harvest day for the smelters on Great bay; one party is reported as catching one hundred pounds, and several other from twenty to forty-five pounds each. The prices realized were ten and eleven cents a pound.

The steamer Fearless has been obliged to discontinue her trips on account of the ice blockade around her landing at Kittery Point. She will commence running again as soon as the ice is "a' moverin' along."

Some of the fast trotters in this city gave exhibitions of their speed on Islington street last Thursday afternoon. Their are few places in New England the size of Portsmouth that can boast of having as fine hacks or as good a class of livery stable teams as are owned here.

The Norfolk Jubilee Singers, who will give a concert in Music hall on Sunday evening, recently sang three evenings in Woodstock, Vt., to crowded houses, and the Sentinel of that place says: "All of the troupe have good voices, but especially the soprano and bass, the latter having one of the finest voices we have ever heard."

The amount of internal revenue collected in this state in 1881 was $309,720.-94; salaries of collector and deputies, and office expenses, $9,318.76; storekeeper and guager, $1,470; fees and traveling expenses of guager, $1,012.54. The number of cigar factories in the state is forty-nine, making 3,056,915 cigars per year.

CITY OF PORTSMOUTH.

Revised Ordinances, Chap. 16.

SECTION 1. No dog shall be permitted to go at large or loose in this city until the owner or keeper of such dog, or the head of the family, or the keeper of the house or place where such dog is kept or harbored, shall have procured from the city marshal a license for such dog.

SEC. 2. The city marshal shall grant a license to any citizen for his dog on the payment of one dollar for a male dog, and two dollars for a female dog, which license shall expire on the first day of July annually.

SEC. 3. The city marshall shall keep a record of all licenses so granted, each license to be numbered, and he shall make a report to the mayor and aldermen on the first day of July annually, and every every three months thereafter of all licenses granted, and shall at the same time pay to the city treasurer all moneys received for the use of the city.

SEC. 4. The person named in each license so granted shall cause his name and the number of the license to be distinctly marked on a collar which shall be constantly kept about the neck of the dog so licensed, and no dog shall be considered as licensed unless this requisition shall be complied with.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the city marshal to cause all dogs to be killed which shall be found at large or loose within the city without a collar marked as required in Section 4, and to cause all dogs so killed to be buried, and any person may lawfully kill any dog found within the limits of this city going at large contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 6. In case any dog shall be found loose or going at large contrary to any of the foregoing provisions, or in case any dog not licensed shall be provided with a collar marked as required in this ordinance, the owner or keeper thereof or the head of the family or keeper of the house or place where such dog is kept or harbored, shall upon conviction thereof be fined five dollars.

The attention of owners or harborers of unlicensed dogs is called to the above ordinance, the provisions of which will be rigidly enforced.

An Interesting Account,

Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 3-4 of an inch long and thick as a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Here is a sick man healed. What better result could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those disease and weaknesses peculiar to females. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.

The Boston Marine Insurance Company.

This company again comes to the front with the record of another successful year. The statement in another column shows an increase in business over last year of fifty per cent, a profit of over $100,000, the two usual semi-annual dividends of five per cent each, and an increased surplus. That the company is, and should continue to be, a favorite with ship-owners and merchants is the natural result of its energetic and liberal yet careful and painstaking methods of doing business, and its prompt and equitable settlements of losses. With $1,000,000 capital paid in cash, this company is to-day the largest purely marine stock company in the United States.

The Spuyten Duyvil Horror.

The jury of inquest into the Hudson River railroad disaster rendered a decision Jan. 25th. Coroner Merkle, in charging the jury, said the accident was caused primarily by some person either frivolously or accidentally pulling the brake signals, who had no idea of the danger in which he placed his fellow-beings, and the consequences which were to follow. He was thus far not detected, but he he whom he might, though human law could not reach him, his own conscience would constantly remind him of it. The jury rendered a verdict holding George Melius, the rear brakeman of the train, George T. Hanaford, conductor, the three engineers of the two colliding trains, and John M. Toucey, the superintendent of the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, guilty of criminal negligence in causing the death of the eight persons killed by the collision. Hanaford, the conductor, was arrested and held in $5000 bail.

Daniel Davis, residing at the Hoosac Tunnel, had both his legs cut off by an engine and a freight car Tuesday night, Jan. 24th, as he lay in a drunken stupor on the Troy & Greenfield railroad track, and was fatally injured.

Rev. Mr. Burgoyne, who held a series of gospel meetings in Walden, Vt., a year ago, and was obliged to take to his heels on account of the results of his intimacy with a young girl, is now in Canada, and is "believed to have reformed." There was considerable room for reformation in this "reverend" scoundrel's case.

A man in New Marlboro', Mass., claims to have discovered a valuable mine of gold and silver on land in the south part of the town; specimens of ore, taken from a shaft twenty feet deep, have been assayed, and show such flattering results that a company is to be formed to work it.

A remedy resting on the basis of intrinsic worth demands the confidence of all. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is known and used most satisfactorily throughout the land, as is attested by its great sales. Your druggist keeps it.

—It is easy to make a resolution to be good, but very hard to keep it. We are like Sheridan, who allowed his son eight hundred a year, but never paid it.

Grateful to Invalids.

Floreston Cologne is grateful to invalids, because it is refreshing without the sickening effect of most perfumes.

—A poor excuse is better than none at all. When a boy was called to account for going fishing on Sunday, he replied: "I know I do, but then before the fish begin to bite, I always whistle one of Moody and Sankey's tunes."

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for rheumatism and when worn out by overwork.—Times.

—Most persons have the same three reasons for not attending church which an Englishman had for not attending the theatre. "First," he said, "I hate the trouble of going there; second, I hate the trouble of staying there; and third, I hate the trouble of coming home again."

I don't want a Doctor!

I have tried them, and they have only swindled me. I have figured up what they cost me for the last four years, it was just $824.81. If I had it now it would be a fortune to me. This year my bill for medicine was only five dollars, for which I purchased six bottles of Sulphur Bitters. They cured me of scrofula after suffering four years.—Workingman.

—The planet Saturn is now in opposition to the sun. But the sun will probably survive in spite of the opposition of Saturn and all his rings.

An enricher of the blood and purifier of the system; cures lassitude and lack of energy; such is Brown's Iron Bitters.

—The dear, sympathetic old lady is the only saint left in this practical nineteenth century. One of this ilk, when recently told that in the grand march of human events whale oil had been entirely superceded by the invention of gas, lifted up her hands in horror, and exclaimed with tears in her voice, "And what is to become of the poor whales?"

The "Practical" Difference Between Poetry and Philosophy.

It sounds very poetic to say "man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn," but why not apply the principle to the more practical side of the subject, and render the quotation thus:—"Swayne's Ointment on account of stopping the itching caused by the piles, has made countless thousands well and happy." There would be sound logic in this but poets are never cheerful, are they?

SWAYNES

OINTMENT

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says:
About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our recourse was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London:
I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent pains of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Wainworth, Saco, Me., writes:
I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says:
I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says:
Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a very valuable remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes:
It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:
From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health generously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said, "All right, Doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. 1y23

Back Ache

POSITIVELY CURED BY
Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.
Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.
Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.
Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.
Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.
Because over 1000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.
Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE BEST AND GREATEST MEDICINE

It will drive the Humor from your system, and make your skin clean and smooth. Those Pimples and Blotches which mar your beauty are caused by impure blood, and can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier.

SULPHUR BITTERS. Why suffer with Biliousness, Sick Headache? Why have sour stomach, Dyspepsia? Why have Rheumatism? Why let the blood become impure, when a few bottles of SULPHUR will drive all these evils from the system? Why let your children suffer with Humors, Scrofula, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Ringworm, Swellings, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Sore Eyes, Catarrh, Scaly Skin, Mercurial Disease, Diphtheria, Sore Throat, Ulcers, Abscesses, Fever and Ague, Chills, Female Weakness, Nervous Debility, Sleeplessness, Loss of Appetite, Dizziness, Jaundice, Dropsy, Liver Complaint, Kidney Complaint, Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Gravel, Urinary Diseases, Constipation, Costiveness, Piles, Mental Depression, Lack of Energy, Want of Confidence, Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pain in the Back, Chronic Diarrhœa, Chronic Rheumatism, Chronic Nasal Discharge, Ringing in the Ears, Hot Flashes, Night Sweats, Cough, Consumption, Nervous Irritability, Nervous Prostration, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Nervous Weakness, Dyspepsia, Sleeplessness, Depression of Spirits

A Great Blessing to Mothers and Nurses.

"Swayne's Teething Cure" for infants. This new theory and infallible remedy has saved the lives of thousands of children. When the child is in pain, or restless with its teeth shooting in its gums, simply rub the gums for two or three minutes with the "Cure." What little it may swallow will relieve colic, pain and flatulence, prevent fever, and avoid that painful operation of lancing the gums, which always makes the next tooth harder to come through and sometimes causes death. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and immediate relief and health to your infants. A very able medical writer, who enjoys a large and lucrative practice, says: "Rubbing the gums with a soothing lotion, is the only true method for children teething; poisonous drugs should never be introduced into their delicate stomachs." "Swayne's Teething Cure" is prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia, and sold by all leading apothecaries at 25 cents a bottle.

The spire of a church in Pittsfield, Mass., and about twenty chimneys on various buildings, were blown down by the gale on Friday. Much other damage was done, and a number of people hurt. The steeple of another church was badly wrenched.

Once rheumatism was the bane of a man's existence, until St. Jacobs Oil came to the rescue. If it is crowned in the opening years of its career, where will a decade place it?

"Mr. Herman Johnson, of Great Bend, Kansas, is subject to frequent attacks of rheumatism. Mr. Johnson states that he can find no relief except from the liberal use of St. Jacobs Oil. He keeps it in his house all the time, and has discovered that it is useful for more complaints than rheumatism. He uses it on his feet, and he says it prevents them from scalding when ploughing in the summer-time. He also says it is just the best thing in the world for burns, sprains, cuts and bruises. As for his back, which was for a long time lame from rheumatism, why this is a thing of the past."

News and Notes.

At a foundry in Burlington, Vt., Jan. 26th, eight workmen were making a five-ton casting, when the ladle was accidentally overturned and the whole mass of molten metal poured out, setting the building on fire instantaneously. Patrick Donnelly was fatally burned, and three others were so badly injured that they may all die. The other four men fortunately escaped without injury. The interior of the foundry was gutted, and the damage will reach several thousand dollars.

Austin Barber, aged ninety years, a soldier of the war of 1812, was found Tuesday, Jan. 24th, in the cemetery at Lee, Mass., frozen to death. He served in a Connecticut regiment, and fought at the battles of Lundy's Lane, Lake Champlain and other places. He was at one time possessed of considerable property, but lost it, and for the last twenty years has been an inmate of the Lee almshouse.

The steamer Edam, bound to New York, was fallen in with by the steamer Persian Monarch in a disabled condition, having lost her propeller. The Persian Monarch took the disabled vessel in tow, but when about a hundred miles east of New York the hawser parted in a heavy gale, and the Edam had to be abandoned by the other steamship, which proceeded to New York. The Edam had not arrived at New York up to the evening of Jan. 26th, and was supposed to have run for Bermuda under sail. The revenue cutters Grant and Dexter were promptly despatched in search of her.

Judge Wm. Price shot and killed Capt. Hamp Turner, at Chester, Miss., Jan. 24th. Turner and Price were both lawyers of high standing in Winston county. The difference arose about some trivial matter in course of a trial in which they were on opposite sides.

At the opera house, in Detroit, Mich., on the night of Jan. 26th, the result of the Guiteau trial was announced, when the audience at once broke into loud applause. In the midst of the noise a hiss from the gallery was heard. A special officer instantly discovered the man who was hissing, and advised him to desist. This attracted attention to him, and before the officer could get him out of the theatre, the crowd, men and boys near by, pitched upon the offender. The fellow was badly cut and bruised by his assailants, and was removed with great difficulty by the officers.

New Hampshire Items.

Lewis C. Little and wife, of Hampstead, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage, Jan. 22d.

C. W. Jenners' steam box mill at Farmington was burned on Wednesday, Jan. 25th. Contents partially saved. Loss about $1,000; no insurance.

AROUND HOME.

A horse belonging to Mr. Dennis J. Lynch made lively time on Congress and Daniel streets on Friday afternoon, though from the coolness of the driver it was a query with the spectators as to whether it was a runaway or a case of fast driving; the horse was brought up without doing any damage, some alteration was made in the harness, and everything was again all right.

On Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 25th, the little steamer Pinafore broke down while on her way from this port to the Shoals, and was obliged to send for the tug Clara Batemen to tow her to her destination.

Mr. George W. Perry, son of Mr. Cooledge Perry of this city, is now in the employ of one of the elevated railroads in New York city.

The Woman's Temperance League are to celebrate their seventh anniversary on Feb. 2d, by a supper and social concourse, at Grange hall. Members of the League are requested to send in viands for the table as early in the afternoon of that day as possible, and are entitled to invite one friend each.

The tug Clara Batemen is having a new tank put into her, forward, which will enable her to carry a much larger supply of water than heretofore.

The schooner E. A. Creed, owned by Laighton Bros. & Co., of the Isles of Shoals, is receiving a new set of spars.

There is to be another entertainment of the Austin-Lincoln Emancipation Association at the south wardroom, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 1st; it will be under the management of Mr. James Adams, formerly a citizen of Washington, D. C., but now a skillful operative mason of Portsmouth.

It is estimated that six hundred and forty-three dogs are owned in Portsmouth, varying in size from twenty-three ounces to two hundred pounds. Messrs. A. P. Wendell & Co. claim to have in stock a variety of collars that will fit them all, from the tiny lap-dog to the massive St. Bernard, — of which latter there are owned here some of the finest specimens in the country. Buy a collar and have your dog licensed; it will pay.

In the lower harbor on Friday afternoon the schooner Sylph in making a change of berth swung against the bow of the schooner Albert Woodbury, badly damaging the mainsail of the former and carrying away the jumper stay of the Woodbury.

A horse belonging to Dr. Adams of Kittery took fright at the cars when near the crossing of the Dover railroad on Noble's island, Friday, and breaking away from the doctor, who had alighted from the carriage and was trying to hold him, ran across Portsmouth bridge nearly to the draw, when he was stopped by Mr. Samuel Cottle, one of the workmen employed on the bridge.

The rain and thaw of Thursday night did considerable damage to the Franklin block, the ice which had formed in the conductors causing the water to flow back into the building, flooding the upper hall in the eastern end of the block, and running down into Mr. Tilton's music room, injuring a fine piano, and then finding its way down into the window of the store below. Although not anticipating any trouble, Mr. Stavers on Thursday used every available means to clear the conductors, but without success.

The Portsmouth Social Club, which includes in its membership some of the most active young business men of the city, had a dance in Mechanics' hall on Thursday evening last to the music of Harlow's band, a very nice party being present. They will have another dance on the evening of Feb. 2d.

Rev. C. E. Barnes will preach in the Advent church.

At the Freewill Baptist church, Sunday evening, Rev. J. Herbert Yeoman will give an illustrated lecture—the second on the "Prodigal Son."

Rev. F. A. Bisbee of Spencer, Mass., will preach in the Universalist church on Sunday.

The train due in this city from Boston at 10:20 o'clock Friday forenoon was twenty-five minutes late; the train from Dover was fifteen minutes late, mixing things up for a time. The delay was owing to the strong wind.

The Dover high school was closed Jan. 25th by order of the local board of health, to remain closed until every scholar had been vaccinated; and all the children in the other schools who had not been vaccinated were sent home. John H. Littlefield, living near Garrison hill, was that day found to be suffering from a mild attack of varioloid, and all needed precautions were taken in his case. The alarm was rapidly subsiding, the energetic measures of the officials tending greatly to the restoration of confidence.

On Thursday of this week Dover had a novelty, in the way of a fox hunt. Two of these lively animals, probably hard pressed by dogs, ran into the heart of the city. One ran into the yard of a grocery store, and found refuge in a barrel, but only for a short time, as he was soon shot; the other ran up the street over Garrison hill, and escaped. Foxes are plenty about Dover this month; an engineer on the Portsmouth & Dover railroad reports one as having run ahead of his engine for a quarter of a mile or more, on a trip not long since. The great difficulty in getting these foxes is in finding well-trained dogs to hunt them.

THE

Mutual Life Insurance Co.

of New York,

F. S. WINSTON, President.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is THE OLDEST Company, with thirty-seven years of experience.

It is the largest Company by many millons of Assets in the World.

It is purely Mutual—without Capital or Stockholders to share in profits, and no bonuses allowed to Officers, Trustees, or Employees.

It confines its business to regular Life and Endowment Policies, and the granting of Annuities. No new or experimental plans.

Its premium rates are lower than any other regular Life Insurance Company, and Policy-holders participate in current earnings annually.

No Policy-holder need forfeit his Policy, provided three full annual premiums have been paid, and application is immediately made for a paid-up Policy, when necessity arises to do so.

Assets have more than doubled during the past ten years, notwithstanding the six years of financial panic.

Its Interest and Rent Receipts alone have exceeded its Death Claims TEN MILLIONS of Dollars ($10,000,000.)

It has issued over 220,000 Policies; insured over $700,000,000; received over $276,000,000 in premiums; and returned to Policy-holders over $162,000,000.

It can and does afford the cheapest, safest, and most satisfactory insurance investment of any Company in the world.

Is not this well styled a marvel in Finance? No more beneficent institution exists upon the face of the earth than this greatest of financial organizations, combining the greatest possible good for the greatest number with an expertness in financiering that is paralleled only by the sturdy integrity of its managers and the proud pre-eminence of its commercial, patriotic, and scientific record.

Fortunes in Colorado.

ONE of the greatest mining enterprises in that famous mineral state is the Atlantic-Pacific Tunnel, which was started a little more than one year ago to tunnel through a range of mountain over 25000 feet, cutting at right angles more than 200 known silver and gold bearing veins of ore at the great depth of 4000 feet, to make fortunes for those interested. A safe and permanent investment for large or small sums, and a good prospect for large dividends. Safer than savings banks. More durable than bonds. The first year's tunneling of 1200 feet, crossed six or eight veins, which produced a dividend of ten per cent.—probably the smallest that will ever be declared, as new veins of known great value will be cut within a year, which the management have good reason to believe will necessitate the sale of no more stock. Shares are now selling for a short time only, at $3.00.—no assessable. This is no stock jobbing concern, but a legitimate working enterprise; every dollar received is invested in opening the tunnel.
